HUNTING FOR MISSING BROTHER

John Gilbert and Jonas Fuhrman, of Ringtown, were in this city yesterday prosecuting a search for Samuel Fuhrman, brother of the last named of the two above gentlemen, who has been lost since the Bloomsburg fair. The missing man, who also lives at Ringtown, is somewhat deficient mentally but always got along well enough among his relatives and neighbors. During the summer he worked on a farm for Frederick Landig, at Ringtown. Last week he was seized with a desire to attend the Bloomsburg fair. On Thursday he was permitted to take in the fair, but a half-grown boy was sent along to take care of him.

While in the main building the two got separated in the crowd. Despite his efforts the boy was unable to find his charge and was obliged to return home and report the fact. The relatives are very anxious over the matter as the feeble-minded man is unable to find his way home or even to take care of himself among strangers and may perish by the wayside. He has a definite speech—does not understand English and speaks only in German. If addressed in English he pays no attention whatever, but walks right on. He would not likely ask anything of strangers either in the way of food or shelter. What has become of the man is a question which the relatives would like to clear up. That he established by the fact—since learned—that on Friday he was seen walking down Main street, Bloomsburg. The gentleman in this city yesterday thought it was likely that the man had found his way down toward Danville.

He is a man fifty-two years of age, of medium height and build; red hair and smooth face. He was dressed in a light (pepper and salt) suit and wore a black sash hat. Should any one know of his whereabouts they are kindly asked to correspond either with the brother, Jonas Fuhrman, or Frederick Landig, the employer, at Ringtown.

More Workmen Wanted.

Several business men, employers of help, were in convocation last evening and they agreed that not for many years, if ever in the history of Danville, has it been so difficult to secure hands as at the present time. Each in turn related his experience in an effort to secure a few extra hands, which showed that not only at the present but for months past industrial conditions in Danville have been of the most encouraging sort and that not a man nor a boy who is able and willing to work need suffer for want of employment. It is a fact that our leading industries and work along all lines are seriously handicapped by the want of working men.

Prosperity is at high water mark all over the land and the scarcity of help is general. Danville has little relief to expect, therefore, and even if superior inducements were to attract workmen here there would be no homes in which to domicile their families. There are practically no dwellings for rent in Danville, which shows that the deficiency of working-men is not due to any falling off of the population.

The prosperity at home and elsewhere indicated by the above conditions is most gratifying especially at the present, standing as we do on the threshold of winter, when steady work is necessary to keep the wolf from the door and to supply all the comforts needed in the household.

On Wrong Side of River.

Most of the structural steel to be used on the Catawissa bridge was unloaded on the north side of the river, and the engineers when they were ready to use the material yesterday were presented with the problem of how to get the heavy pieces to the south side where they are to be used. The method finally adopted was to reship the material to Northumberland, and there transferring to the Pennsylvania R. R., south bring it back to Catawissa on the other side of the river.

A POINTER FOR CANDIDATES

The souvenir post card craze has suggested a new and very practical idea to candidates, who will this fall send through the mails their photographs on a small card containing for example the familiar legend: "Vote for John Smith, etc." The card need be the usual inexpensive affair and all the candidate will have to do will be to place a one cent stamp and the address of the voter he wants to reach on the blank side. Thus at a minimum of expense he will be able, as it were, to meet the voter face to face and present his claim for support.

Post Master Harder yesterday said he could not see that such a use of the mail would conflict with the postal law. It would make no difference so long as weight, etc., were within the proper limits whether the post card contained the picture of the various sorts in vogue with a legend urging for or otherwise or the matter of affixing a candidate with a direct appeal for support.

This method of electioneering will have some advantages. It will not only be cheap and involve little labor but will have the charm of novelty. The face of the candidate will turn up smilingly with the morning mail and the voter does not exist who will turn it down without some consideration.

New Law Explained.

There has been some misapprehension concerning the trespass law which was recently enacted and many believe that one-half of the fine goes to the prosecutor, and that the fine is fixed at ten dollars or ten days. The law says the fine shall not exceed ten dollars, hence a justice of the peace could place the fine at any amount under that sum which he thought equitable in consideration of the facts in the case.

Thus if a man simply went through another man's woods and did no damage the justice of the peace might conclude the offense was so slight that the nominal fine of a few cents would be just right. On the other hand if the trespasser tore down a fence, cut down a chestnut tree, picked berries, or tramped down grass or growing crops it would seem that the offense might most equitably be treated by the imposing of a fine of five or ten dollars which would have a tendency to remind the trespasser that he should respect the rights of his fellow man.

In regard to the disposition of the fine the law states that the entire fine shall be paid into the treasury of the school board of the township in which the trespass occurs. The costs in case of conviction shall be placed on the defendant. The intention of the law does not appear to be so much to restrain hunters—the regular fish and game law does that—but rather to cover more thoroughly that class of trespassers who go into woods to pick berries and enter woods and cut down trees to obtain nuts.

Grain Crop Enormous.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—If it were possible to load all the grain raised in the United States this year on a single train, that train would be 11,363 miles long—nearly four times the distance from Philadelphia to San Francisco. More than a million and a half cars would make up this train, and it would require 77,500 locomotives to draw the load. These locomotives alone would extend from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh.

And if the farmers were to receive present prices for their crops they would have $1,573,518,333 to deposit in bank.

The foregoing figures give some idea of the enormous size of the crops harvested this year—the greatest in the history of the nation. To get the wheat and the corn and oats and all other cereals to the consumers is the problem bothering transportation managers.

There is already a car shortage, and it will grow worse as winter approaches. Reports from Buffalo show that 6,000,000 bushels of grain are stored there, and not a car yet available to move it. In Minnesota and the Dakotas the wheat and barley alone will fill 173,000 cars.

Efforts to meet the present situation have just about exhausted the railroad clerks who have charge of the car records. Lights are burning far into the night in every freight agent's office east of the Mississippi and car tracers are using all their skill to find box cars that have strayed or are idle in order that they may be rushed, loaded or empty, to the grain growing districts. Whether these derelict cars can furnish transportation for the tremendous surplus that will be demanded by grain export houses is something that will not be decided for more than a month.

To Purchase Fort Augusta.

A session of the Daughters of the American Revolution, held at Reading last week, a committee was appointed in the matter of the purchase of Fort Augusta, after one member said that if it is left to the Legislature or the Sons of the Revolution nothing will be done, the Sons preferring to let the women do the work.

Mrs. C. A. Sidler, of Sunbury, was appointed a member of the auditing committee. It was decided to hold next year's Conference at Clearfield.

Want Mt. Carmel Minister.

At a largely attended congregation meeting held last week at the Presbyterian church of the Covenant, at Williamsport, it was decided to extend a call to the Rev. Herbert T. Ure, now in charge of the Presbyterian church at Mt. Carmel. The selection was made unanimous after the first ballot.

This Tan Got Rich.

An exchange tells of an editor who started about fifteen years ago with fifteen cents and is now worth $100,000. His accumulation of wealth is owing to his frugality, strict attention to business and to the fact that an uncle died and left him $39,298.

COMPPELLING VACCINATION

The enforcement of the school law relating to vaccination admits of no exceptions. The State Department of Health by a judicious use of printer's ink has made it perfectly clear to school superintendents, principals and others in charge of schools just what their duty is in the premises in order to avoid a penalty.

In town our school authorities have very closely to the line and at the very beginning of the term no pupil is admitted without bringing evidence that he has been successfully vaccinated. In one or more of the rural districts, it seems, the teachers whatever their methods may be, have a difficult time of it in bringing about a compliance with the law. While in town schools vaccination is a closed incident, in some of the rural districts sore arms among the pupils are just now the rule.

At Styers' School house, West Hemlock township, yesterday the teacher in order to compel the enforcement of the law sent home every pupil that could not produce the approved evidence that he or she had been vaccinated. This, it is reported, left but four pupils in school. The measure aroused a good bit of feeling in some quarters, but the teacher has the school law on his side and had no choice but to proceed as he did.

Under the State Department of Health in whose hands the enforcement of vaccination has rested since September 15th, the law is more rigidly applied than before. The change in the form of certificates required, however, has given rise to the impression among some people that the act of 1895 does not apply and they seem to be to some extent at sea as to just how far the law makes vaccination compulsory.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Danville People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words, but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills. For Danville kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation. Prof. Louis in the testimony of Danville people who have been cured to stay cured.

Mrs. Edward E. Langer, of 11 Church St., says: "I still think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills. I would not think of being without them in the house. I made a statement for publication in 1898 in which I gave my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills on account of the great benefit I had received from their use. I have never had any cause to regret making that statement and now over eight years afterwards, I can reiterate the statement. Before taking this remedy I suffered for months with backache and lameness and soreness in the back. The pain over my hips was continuous and when on my feet it was one steady gnawing ache. It hurt me to do anything requiring a bending position, and my knuckles would catch me so suddenly that I had to brace myself until they stopped. The kidney secretions annoyed me and I often suffered from headache. I read statements given by people in this vicinity who had used Doan's Kidney Pills and concluded to try them. They did me more good than any other medicine I ever tried. After a few doses I no longer experienced such severe pain and finally the pain was removed entirely. The annoyance caused by the irregularity of the kidney secretions was entirely removed. I can honestly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to those suffering as I did."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Action Under Trespass Law.

The first action under the new 1905 trespass law, enacted for the special purpose of aiding the operators in the event of a strike was taken Saturday morning at Mt. Carmel and it was instituted by a coal company.

It appears that for some time past coal has been taken from the culm bank of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company near Mt. Carmel. Much timber has also been confiscated unlawfully. The company complied with the new law and posted notices prohibiting trespassing.

Saturday morning Paul Volka was found upon the company's land and although apparently doing nothing was arrested and taken before Justice Armour, who gave him a hearing on the charge of trespassing. The new law allows the punishment of a trespasser for the mere act of getting upon another person's land if the person has a trespass notice displayed.

Volka was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $5. He refused to pay and was sent to the county jail for five days. This action shows for the first time that the coal companies now have. They can incarcerate all miners found upon their premises even if no harm is intended. That the law will be used in case of a strike there can be no doubt.

A Splendid Idea.

A new idea in a Cough Syrup is advanced in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Besides containing Pine Tar, Honey and other valuable remedies, it is rendered Laxative, so that its use induces a prompt and efficient evacuation of the bowels. It relaxes the nervous system, and cures all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. A red clover blossom and the honey base is on every bottle of the Original Laxative Cough Syrup—Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. An ideal remedy for children. Mothers praise it. It is best for all. Sold by Paules & Co.

Benjamin Tanner Improving.

Benjamin Tanner, the son of Henry Tanner, Liberty township, who was found unconscious, is improving rapidly, although still unable to be out of bed.

At the time the affair was very mysterious, for the lad, being unconscious, could not tell what had happened to him. Even now he can not tell the exact cause of his injuries. Something struck him on the back of the neck, and he remembers nothing until he recovered his senses some hours later. When he was struck down he was standing near a colt's stall. The colt was in the habit of playfully raising the pole between the stalls, and it is thought he was hit by this.

DANVILLE DEFEATS NORTHUMBERLAND

The Danville High School football team, in its second game of the season, scored an easy victory over the Northumberland High School at DeWitt's Park Saturday afternoon.

In the fast, snappy playing of the local team could be seen the hard practice of the past week and a great improvement over the work in the first game was noticeable. The teamwork used in Saturday's contest was especially commendable. Danville won easily, and at no time was there a likelihood of Northumberland scoring. The visitors made first down only four times while the local team was held for downs but once.

The game started with Northumberland kicking to Peters who was downed without gain. Several long runs on trick plays around the end, admirably carried out, carried the ball well into Northumberland's territory and Peters took the oval over for the first score. Dreyfuss missed the goal. Williams got the pig skin and made a short run for the second touch down. Peters missed the goal. Danville again kicked to Northumberland, and the visitors gained first down, but were then held and Danville took the ball. Peters at once kicked, and Northumberland fumbled, the ball rolled behind the goal posts, where Reifsnyder fell on the ball for a touch down. Peters kicked the goal. Northumberland kicked to Danville, and time was called with the ball in Northumberland's territory.

In the second half Northumberland kicked to Danville. End rans took off 20 yards when Danville kicked. With the ball in their possession Northumberland was again held for downs, and Danville got the ball on visitors 10 yard line. Peters made touch down through tackle. Dreyfuss missed goal. Danville kicked to Northumberland. They were Saters, full back. Wilfred Umpire, Vanderender. Referee, John H. Danner. Line-men, Price and Geddis. Touchdowns, Peters 3, Williams 2, Dreyfuss. Goals, Peters and Dreyfuss. Time of halves, 25 and 15 minutes.

Tinners Not Saving Money.

The following article clipped from Sunday's Philadelphia Press, contains some interesting facts given out by D. L. Manger, district passenger agent of the Shamokin division P. & R. Railway, who is well known in Danville.

"The tinners entertained in metropolitan centers concerning the possibility of a general anthracite coal strike next Spring is not shared by residents between Tannaqua and Shamokin, judging from the manner in which many enjoyed themselves the past Summer season.

Alarmist reports were that in every home there was a tightening of household supplies in order to swell an emergency fund for the time when mines would be idle and starvation stalking by on all sides.

Concerning these reports, D. L. Manger, district passenger agent of the Shamokin division of the Reading Railway, made the interesting statement Saturday that during the Summer excursion trips he arranged to Atlantic City, Willow Grove, Switchback and Reading were attended by 13,000 persons in this section. Many more went to Lakeside Park, and Edgewood Park which are in the coal region. He said these resorts alone drew 12,000 excursionists, who thoroughly enjoyed themselves and spent money freely.

During the last week 2000 people went on excursions from this field to Philadelphia to attend the base ball world championship games. The past year the region has been in a highly prosperous condition, and the outlook is bright for another successful year. When poverty shows its face the miner is first to fight it bravely, and when good times prevail there is no more eager to enjoy the fruits.

When the Reading ran its first excursion train to the shore this year officials were surprised to see such an attendance of people. Says then Mr. Manger, who is a very popular excursion agent, has met with hearty response from pleasure seekers.

Edson J. Weeks, general passenger agent, also recognizing the holiday travel in the coal field, gave Mr. Manger every encouragement in furthering the excursions."

AUCTION SALE OF HORSES

A horse sale at the City Hotel stables was the center of attraction in Danville on Saturday. The horses for sale, twenty in number, included some very fine specimens. As usual there was a difference of opinion as to the true value of some of the horses. A few were knocked down at figures which seemed to make the bargain an enviable one, but probably in the majority of instances the horses brought all they were worth.

The sale was held by Waldron, the horse man and the horses disposed of included roaders, farm and general purpose horses, brought in from Canada.

T. L. Evans' Sons bought a large gray for $175, which is a beauty. The horse is a match to the other gray belonging to the firm and they have now as fine a team of grays as can be found in this section. The outfit was much admired yesterday as the two brothers enjoyed a spin through town behind the matches.

Liveryman G. W. Hoke bought a beautiful little bay for $168, which matches the liveryman's other bay and gives him a very desirable team. The horse is young and as gentle as a lamb.

Frank Fry also made a purchase, buying a grey colt for $95. William Lindner got a grey pony for $35.

A small bay horse was knocked down to Roland Meyer for $117.50. Francis Fisher, of Mahoning township, bought a fine black mare for $142. James Pollock, of Washingtonville, bought a black horse for $160.

A good looking bay horse was knocked down to John Patton for $110. A big bay was knocked down to Clarence Campbell of Rush township for $125.

A big grey team, which proved quite an attraction, was knocked down to Wellington Moser, of Limestone township, for $35.

The remainder of the horses were sold mostly to farmers living throughout the county. Three good horses went to Bloomsburg.

Johnny Williams, of Bloomsburg, was auctioneer and he kept things moving during the afternoon.

New Cure for Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it, and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at Paules & Co.'s drug store.

Basket Ball Team.

The patrons of sport in Danville will be pleased to learn that a basket ball team has been organized here, and that during the coming winter a series of games will be played at the Armory.

William Ellenbogen has been chosen to manage the team, and is at present arranging a schedule of games that will bring to Danville the best teams in this section, and a number from points more distant. In a talk upon the prospects for the season's sport Mr. Ellenbogen stated yesterday that the team would be managed in a thoroughly business like and straightforward manner. A schedule will be made out and strictly adhered to, and if through any mischance a team does not fill its engagement, the patrons' money will be refunded.

Loss of Sleep Means Loss of Mind.

Inability to Sleep is Nature's Plain Warning of an Exhausted Nervous System.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

When you overwork any muscle or set of muscles they tire and must have rest. What is true of muscles is doubly true of the brain, as from it emanates all power to act and to think. The brain is full of little cells that during the waking hours are never quiet in their efforts to furnish to every organ the power to do its duty. If these little cells of their rest at night—keep them at work all the time and soon they tire, refuse to act, fail to generate nerve force, and the system goes to ruin. Headaches, sad headaches, irritates only hasten the end—they do not build up, they tear down. The true remedy is in one only, lies in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. This medicine is relaxing, rejuvenating, and by properly nourishing these overworked little cells, give them rest and quiet and enables one to sleep naturally and easily again.

The Largest Trout.

Perhaps the biggest trout that was ever taken from any inland stream in the state was caught out of Logan's branch, near Bellefonte, Saturday. The fish was about dead from the sulphur in the water dumped into the creek from the Nitany furnace, and though it was put into cool spring water it did not revive. The trout measured just 28 1/2 inches in length and weighed six pounds and fifteen ounces. It was obtained by Kinsley Brothers, who will have it mounted and placed on exhibition.

BOARD OF HEALTH RECEIVES REPLY

Dr. C. Schultz yesterday received a reply from the Department of Health, Harrisburg, relative to the old canal, which has twice been declared a nuisance by the local Board of Health. As will be seen the State Department of Health has no specific recommendation to make.

The local Board of Health took the matter up with the Department of Health at Harrisburg at the request of the Borough Council, which was made at the last meeting one week ago. The reply, which is from the Commissioner of Health, reads as follows:

Harrisburg, October 12, 1905.
 DR. C. SCHULTZ,
 Danville, Pa.

Dear Doctor:—In answer to your communication of the 10th inst. I beg to say that as I understand the question your borough has built culverts in canal at the intersections of the streets crossing the old water way. The grade of the said culverts may dam the water up and cause it to become stagnant.

The local authorities should not permit the public to place animal and vegetable matter in the property complained of by the citizens.

If it has become a nuisance why do you not remove it and lien the property?
