MELISSA'S LETTER

By Martha McCulloch-Williams Copyright, 1905, by Martha McCulloch-Williams

It was rainy within and without. Melissa looked through dim eyes at the streamy window panes.

Dear Uncle John! I bring you all I can this year. Aunt Ju owns the flowers—and she hates your name. But I love it.

There was no signature. John 3d needed none. He bent and kissed the knot of flowers, still fresh under the pouring rain.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

It is used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.
