Public opinion is not always right, it usually gets right in the end. Political matters are again coming to the front. A wise citizen avoids litigation. A man who rocks the boat should be kicked up in a lunatic asylum. A period of the free press is never to return to this country. The best of men and women are of the victims of their environment. There is only one way to acquire an education that will prove valuable and is by hard study. Fireworks have all been packed up for another year, while the roads are slowly recovering. The thing of taking shelter under a earring during the progress of an electric storm is a mighty dangerous piece of business. An unknown Fourth of July celebrator who killed a little girl in Hazlet by the discharge of a revolver is sorry he was born. A Pan-American conference will be held at Rio de Janeiro on the 21st of month. Secretary of State Root the United States delegates sailed for New York on the steamship 'Colo' a couple of days ago. Admiral Rogovsky takes all the credit on himself for the surrender to Japan. Which involves a higher sense of bravery than to have battled hopeless finish against the Japs hips. Winston Churchill, the author of 'The World As I See It' and 'Gods Gift to Man', entered the race for the Republican nomination for governor of New York, upon the platform of interference by the Boston and New England railroad or any other corporation with the political affairs of the Commonwealth. Automobiles are now accused of doing insect pests. They also stir up the dust that they stir as they tear along. A deadly cholera is at work early in the Philippines. Every care should be exercised to keep it out of this country. The present condition of Russia could not be surprising if the government should decide on the official situation of Rogovsky. American Bridge company broke previous monthly records during by book orders for an aggregate of 60,000 tons of structural steel during the month of July. It is undoubtedly a fact that the sh government regards with an eye to the present situation in Egypt and northern Africa as possibly indicating the outbreak of a 'holy war.' The boat and shoe industry continues to occupy a position of prominence because of the steady increase in orders from Boston in comparison with previous seasons, more than 600 cases having been forwarded during the first half of the year. Expected the government crop reports for July, will be very favorable and is considered of much importance as a guide to the condition of wheat, as well as of the start of the winter wheat figures by the last of the season and will be revised when the actual crop reports are known. Considerable activity is experienced at some of the iron works of the scarcity of men. Farmers would like a couple of straight sunshines, to get their corn and cured and lay put in the weather is too catchy for them. Atlantic City lawmakers have an ordinance declaring street lighting of the Salvation Army display, and that everybody participating in it is disorderly. Of course passage of the law cannot be regarded as reflection on the municipal officers. Railroads threaten to increase freight rates on breakfast foods, in the interest of the public. Reports of an excellent hay crop throughout Eastern Pennsylvania, is good news, for it means money in the hands of the farmers, by being one of the best paying crops. PETITION FOR STREET PAVING

It would seem that a hitch has occurred in the matter of paving North Mill street under State aid, which is likely to hold up the improvement for a while. The borough was preparing to enter upon the work under the impression that the State would pay three-fourths of the thirty-foot street, and bear a portion of the expense of the curbing. It finally became a matter of some doubt whether the State could be relied upon to bear the above proportion of the cost and to obtain some light in the matter a letter was addressed to the State highway department. The following letter has been received and was read before council Friday night: Harry E. Patton, Danville, Pa., Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 25th would say that I am advised by the attorney general's department that I have no right to build or construct a section of road in a borough of greater width or to expend more money in proportion to a township road. I have acceded to a slightly increased width on some borough roads in order to help them out, but I can not accede to what I have already suggested that I would do in regards to the improvement in Danville borough. Very truly yours, Joseph W. Hunter, Highway Commissioner.

Two college students, George Bowman and Charles Hunter, of Harrisburg, students at State college, passed through Danville yesterday afternoon. They are spending the summer vacation on an unique walking and canoe trip and left Harrisburg a week ago. While college was still in session, they planned and prepared for an unusual vacation jaunt. The plan was to leave Harrisburg and make a trip on foot up the Susquehanna valley to Wilkes-Barre, whence the shortest route to Albany, N. Y., will be taken. At Albany they will take to the Hudson river, and in a canoe, previously shipped to that point, will paddle up the Hudson and on into and through Lake Champlain and via the Risleau river to the St. Lawrence river, and on through to Buffalo. After a visit to Niagara Falls they will return home by rail. The young men are both sturdy athletes, and are already showing signs of their outdoor life. Each wears canvas shoes, a light suit and Panama hat. Each carried a small bundle containing a blanket and heavy sweater, the latter for cold days. Hunter also has a folding kayak to take views en route. They made but a brief stop in town, as municipalities seem to have but little attraction for them. Picnic Date Changed. The picnic executive committee of the Susquehanna district, G. A. R. held a meeting at the Washington house in Northumberland yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and decided to change the date of the annual outing from August 16 to Thursday August 2. At the first meeting of the committee held some weeks ago, the date of August 16 was chosen but it was found necessary to make a change as the national encampment at Minneapolis, August 14-30, would make it impossible for the State officers and others to be present at the picnic. Arrangements have been made for a round trip fare of $1.00, which includes trolley and from the park at Shamokin. The Shamokin band will furnish music for the occasion. Free coffee is distributed to all who desire it, and ample provision is always made on the grounds to furnish meals to those who do not wish to carry baskets. The invitation to the picnic is general. Goodrich post was represented at the committee meeting yesterday by Post Commander William M. Holdens. Entertained at Sechler Home. Up to last evening 26 members of company F, 12 regiment, N. G. P., had qualified in rifle practice. This is considered an excellent showing. The men are shooting on the range every day. Q. M. Sergeant George R. Gross, range master, will meet the men each day at 9 a. m. or at 2 p. m.

AFTER A THIRTY YEARS' ABSENCE

Conyngham, June 10, 1906. To the AMERICAN—I am spending a few days at this romantic little mountain town, attracted hither after an absence of thirty years for the purpose of renewing associations with old and well nigh forgotten friends. I need not remind you that in such an experience there is something to remind me of the trials of Rip Van Winkle. It is true, I have not been taking a prolonged nap as was the case with the hero of Sleepy Hollow, but in point of absence I have gone ten years better than old Rip. Thirty-three years ago, then a boy, of nineteen years, I stood my first examination for a teacher's certificate at this place. I won the coveted paper and at the coal mines a few miles down the valley, taught my first school. I later became teacher of the school at this place, following a line of successful teachers, among whom was I. G. Barber, now a practicing physician of Danville. Naturally the little town, the center around which I swung for years during the most joyous and impressionable period of life has always been a bright and shining spot in my memory and the present visit is one I have looked fondly forward to for many years. I didn't expect to find the town as I left it thirty years before, but some how all the images that unconsciously lingered in my mind, whether of landmark or individuals, were such as I was familiar with in the olden days. It is something of a shock, therefore, when the name of this one or that one is mentioned that instead of the lively youth or blooming dandy that one has in mind altogether another sort of a person looms up before one—a man with bent shoulders and face beginning to take on wrinkles, or a matronly woman who probably has a second husband or is a grandmother. One's first impression is that a cog has slipped somewhere but it does not take long to reason it out. The effect of it all is to make one feel something like a patriarch. Last evening I dropped into the newspaper office, the proprietor of which was an intimate friend of three decades ago. He was the same earnest companionable fellow, but his face had a careworn appearance and his shoulders were bent as under a great burden. He said the newspaper did it all. Then, sad to relate too, the newspaper no longer lives and has a being. My friend started the paper. It served its day and generation and then died, the victim of adverse circumstances. "Running a weekly newspaper is the hardest work in the world." My friend made this sage observation and punctuated it with a deep sigh. Among my old friends who are making it very pleasant for me during my stay here is Dr. F. M. Brundage, who for eight years was American consul at Aix la Chapelle, Germany. Dr. Brundage retired from the consular service last September. He had many interesting experiences and unearthed many romances or rather tragedies in real life while dealing with the affairs of the two nations. Dr. Brundage will continue to live at Conyngham and may eventually resume practice. There must be something in this mountain air conducive to longevity. It is surprising how many people are still living that I considered old thirty years ago. Even the towns "horrible examples" and there were several of them—who every one thought would die of their excesses in a few years are still living and are as "horrible" as ever. F. M. G. Pleasant Surprise Party. A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Joseph S. Rishel, East Danville, Saturday evening, the occasion being Mrs. Rishel's 78th birthday. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Those present were: Mrs. Catherine Fryndt, Mrs. Emanuel Lazarus, Mrs. Kashner, Mrs. Scott, Sr., Mrs. Scott, Jr., and sons John and Corine. Mrs. George Yost and daughter Martha, Mrs. Isiah Geiger, Miss Mary Stangley, of Bloomsburg, Mrs. John Cromley, Mrs. Barton Foust and daughter Mary, Mrs. Eli Krumm, Mrs. Pierce and Emma Krumm, David Heimback, of Grovania; Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Heimback and children Earl, Veron, Nellie and Mand, Mrs. Samuel Heimback and daughter Mae, Mrs. William Hartzell, Misses Verna, Dora, Laura and Hannah Morrison, of East Danville. Interment at Mt. Vernon. The remains of Mrs. Sarah Runyan who died Sunday at the home of her son, C. R. Gearhart, at Lock Haven, were brought to South Danville yesterday morning on the 10:17 train and interment was made in Mt. Vernon cemetery. The funeral services took place at Lock Haven Tuesday evening. Rev. E. T. Swartz, pastor of St. Peter's M. E. church, Riverside, conducted the committal services at the grave. Those who attended the funeral yesterday from a distance were: C. R. Gearhart, son and daughter, of Lock Haven; Wesley Gearhart and two sons, of Scranton; Mrs. M. E. Eckman and Mrs. Philip Mettler, of Kinrossville; Mr. and Mrs. James Kipp, of West Pittston; Mrs. Derr, of Philadelphia; Jared N. Diehl, of Northumberland; Clark E. Diehl, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Mary Diehl, Miss Annie Diehl, Mrs. Cordelia Poff and Mrs. Isaac Bloom, of Sunbury. Getting Camp in Readiness. Colonel William H. Richardson, division quartermaster of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, has been in Gettysburg for the past week with a large force of men arranging the camp for the annual encampment of the Guard of the State which is to be held there from July 21 to 28. The planners who were awarded the contract for laying the water pipes on the grounds have been at work and have almost completed the laying of the pipes for the entire camp. Colonel Richardson is superintending the work of laying out the camp and it is expected that this will be the most complete of its kind held by the State. The infantry will be on the side of the battlefield nearest Little Round Top, while the cavalry will be arranged along Stone Avenue, near the Chambersburg road. Colonel Richardson says that the camp will be in first-class condition by July 19. While Mt. Gettysburg is by far the best, most convenient and healthiest site for the encampment of troops, our local soldier boys are pleased that Gettysburg is the place where they will do duty this month. However, Mount Gettysburg is to be the camping place of the government soldiery, the Twelfth infantry on Governor's island, left Monday for the place in question. The battalion of the Twelfth infantry has just got back from a long tour of service in the Philippines, and the men certainly will enjoy the beautiful scenery, the harvest fields, the cool nights, pure water and delights at Mount Gettysburg. In addition to all the commands in the Department of the East, exclusive of the coast artillery, there will be encamped with the regulars at Mount Gettysburg at different times during the Summer one regiment of the National Guard of New York, one regiment of infantry, and one troop of cavalry of the New Jersey National Guard, two regiments of infantry from Maryland, one regiment of infantry from Connecticut, two regiments of infantry from Connecticut and one company of signal corps from West Virginia, four companies of infantry from Delaware, two regiments and one battalion of infantry, one battery of artillery, one company of signal corps, and one hospital corps company from the District of Columbia. Pleasant Surprise Party. A pleasant surprise party was tendered Chris Springer at his home near Washingtonville on Tuesday evening. All sorts of games and music were indulged in and refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William St. Clair, Elmer St. Clair, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Catherine Edith, Thelma Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Springer, Emma Springer, Miss Flora Robbins, Margaret Robbins, Lizzie Beaver, Stella Beaver, Minnie Keefe, Mable Albeck, Elsie Foust, Verna Zartman, Mary Zartman, Emma St. Clair, Emma Moser, Nellie Billmeyer, Clara Dietrich, Maggie Bogart, Mary Spring, Rosie Steinman, Calvin Gresh, William Patterson, Horace Appleman, Charles Murray, Harvey Moser, Harry Unstead, Lewis Hoffman, G. W. Runyon, John Fruit, James Keefe, Warren Fenstermacher, Elwood Dietrich, Charles Snyder, Martin Robbins, Harry Yeager, Artha Whitnigt, Percy Whitnigt, Boyd Christian. Elderly Man's Severe Injury. Robert Blue, an elderly resident of Maudsall, had the misfortune Saturday about noon to fall from a hay wagon that he was helping to load, fracturing his collar bone and four ribs on the right side. Mr. Blue was working for W. S. Lawrence on the Reading Iron company's land just north of the borough line. He was on top of the partly loaded wagon, receiving the hay as it was passed up and distributing it on the load. When the team moved to another spot Mr. Blue lost his balance, and falling off the wagon struck his right shoulder on a stone. Dr. Paulus was summoned and Mr. Blue removed to his home at Maudsall, where yesterday he was resting easily. It is thought that no internal injuries were sustained. It will, however, be some time before Mr. Blue fully recovers, as the mending of a broken bone, at his advanced age, is a tedious process. Barnhart-Huff. Mr. George E. Barnhart, of Danville, and Miss Clara Matilda Huff, of Milton, were united in marriage at the United Evangelical parsonage by Rev. J. D. Shortess. After the ceremony the wedding party went to the home of the bride on Church street, where an elegant wedding supper was served, a number of invited guests being present. Mr. and Mrs. Barnhart will reside in Danville—Milton Standard. Improving Residence. Thomas Krebs is improving his residence at Gulick's addition. He is building two-story additions at the side, and rear. E. H. Myerly has the contract for the improvements. Cement Sidewalk. W. C. Williams, proprietor of Baldy house, is having a cement sidewalk laid in front of his hotel on Mill street.
