PROVISIONS OF THE ROAD LAW

A great many persons are constantly making inquiries about the provisions of the new road law. In order that authentic information may be available upon the subject, Commissioners' Clerk Horace C. Elne has obtained the following explanations from Attorney General Carson, which by his kindness we are enabled to print:

It will be remembered that Mrs. VanHorn, whose home is at Benton, went to visit her son Elmer in Greenwood township, Columbia county, and as the family sat in the parlor, she went out doors and did not return. After a time search was started, and the woman found unconscious, lying in an empty car on a road near the fence. Strenuous efforts by the physician finally resuscitated the woman, and she gradually regained strength until the last few days she was able to get up and walk about the house. Her son's family were hoping that the woman would shortly be fully recovered.

On Saturday afternoon, however, she was in the kitchen, and when she thought no one was looking, she suddenly grabbed a large carving knife and was just in the act of drawing it across her throat when discovered by Miss Martha Hess, who was working in the kitchen, with a scream the girl grabbed Mrs. VanHorn's arm, and prevented the awful deed, and together with Mrs. Elmer VanHorn, who came running at the scream, tried to take the knife from the elder woman. The latter became desperate, and a terrible struggle followed, in the course of which the two young women became badly cut up about the arms by the keen edge of the knife. They were unable to take the improvised weapon from the elder woman, but their cries brought Elmer VanHorn running from the field in which he was working, and he soon got the knife from his mother's grasp.

It now being considered advisable, arrangements are being made to have her taken this week to a private sanitarium for treatment. She has been melancholy for some time, but this has developed into a form of insanity.

Nearly Buried In Deep Trench. Peter J. Keefe, superintendent of sewers, came within an ace of being buried in a deep trench at the works Tuesday afternoon. He had just stepped into an excavation where some men in his employ were digging for the foundation of the retaining wall and was giving some directions when without a moment's warning the cribbing gave way on one side and the wall of gravel, which towered above his head, came rolling in upon him.

To escape was impossible and the first thing Mr. Keefe knew he was buried up to his shoulders. A large mass of gravel hung above him, which luckily was not released, otherwise he would have been buried out of sight and in all probability killed.

The men working on the trench instantly flew to the superintendent's rescue. While some shoveled back the gravel others tugged at the nearly buried man. Finally through the united efforts of nine men Mr. Keefe was pulled out of his perilous position. He escaped with a few bruises.

No Talking While Working. Talking during working hours and partaking of lunch has been tabooed by the Lehigh Valley officials in a notice posted at the Weatherly shops. The notice says that no employes shall converse with another during working hours under penalty of discharge, neither are they allowed to eat anything during working hours. The employes do not take kindly to the new order, stating that they abused no privileges in the past. This latest rule, it is claimed, will simply make them dissatisfied with their jobs.

EMPLOYED AT MILTON. The P. & R. railway company, which is building a long siding at Milton to connect the main track with Shimer's mill, is not only drawing on Danville for help but also on the farm ing section between here and Milton. A gentleman from Moersburg who was in this city yesterday stated that a number of working men from that place and Pottsville along with others from Danville are daily taken over to Milton on the morning train and carried home in the evening by the railroad company, which pays $1.40 per day and gives free transportation. The short hours are exactly to the men's liking, while the wages are a little better than are commonly paid for laboring. Meanwhile the farmers are much in need of help and the township supervisors, who are responsible for the condition of the roads, are begging for hands, but as the latter pay only $1.25 per day and have no premium to offer in the form of short hours and free rides their work has no attraction for laborers.

RECOVERED HIS "POCKET BOOK". A gentleman from Williamsport, who, accompanied by his family, arrived in this city yesterday for a pleasant vacation lost his pocket book and but for the honesty of a trolley conductor would have been minus a big roll of money, much needed to add zest and pleasure to his visit.

The Williamsport man arrived early in the forenoon on a Danville and Bloomsburg car. With his family he had proceeded a short distance from the car when Conductor J. S. Rayer came running after him holding in his hand a large pocket book. Finally attracting the man's attention the conductor presented the purse, saying: "Here, you had better take this; you might have use for it before you go very far." The Williamsport man stared in amazement. "Why, where did you get that pocket book?" he asked. "On the seat where you left it," the conductor explained. The visitor was profuse in his thanks and confided the fact that it contained seventy-five dollars in cash.

Neat Wagon in Fishap. One of the front wheels came off of the meat wagon belonging to Simon Hoffman Saturday afternoon on Market street. The horse was stopped before any further damage was done.

Court Notes. The bond of W. J. Rogers as guardian of Marguerite Evans was approved.

The bond of C. L. Cronis, tax receiver of Washingtonville, was also approved.

On petition, David Unger was discharged as executor of the last will and testament of Ella R. Conant.

SECOND ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

A second attempt at suicide, this time by slashing her throat with a large carving knife, was made on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Clyde VanHorn, who a couple weeks ago drank carbolic acid but was discovered in time to save her life.

It will be remembered that Mrs. VanHorn, whose home is at Benton, went to visit her son Elmer in Greenwood township, Columbia county, and as the family sat in the parlor, she went out doors and did not return. After a time search was started, and the woman found unconscious, lying in an empty car on a road near the fence. ATTEMPT TO ROB BARBER SHOP

An attempt was made by thieves during Sunday night to enter the barber shop of Thomas J. Evans on Bloom street, near the P. & R. crossing, and although the robbers were scared away the evidence of their operations were easily discernible Monday morning.

Fred Held, Sr., who resides next door to the barber shop was awakened by the furious barking of his dog. He arose and made an investigation but was unable to discover anything of a disquieting nature.

When Mr. Evans opened his shop Monday morning, however, he found the screen door at the rear badly broken and the lock fastener pulled out. The robbers had evidently been frightened away in the midst of their raid by Mr. Held's dog.

Mr. Evans' shop has been robbed on two previous occasions. At one time the thieves got about $3.00 and at another time about $7.00. He states that the vicinity of the Reading crossing on Bloom street is a spot often frequented by thieves and bad characters, who alright from passing freights.

Surprise Party. A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hartman, West Henlock township, Saturday evening, in honor of Mr. Hartman's birthday. All sorts of games were played and refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. C. E. Styer, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Brugler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deighmiller, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Flick, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kester, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Maus, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ando, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mausteller, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mausteller, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cronley, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kitchell, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Arwine, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pursel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crossley, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gable, Mrs. J. C. Oram, Mrs. Alice Arwine, Misses Mary Crin, Ella Mausteller, Bessie Anie, May Mausteller, Elsie Deighmiller, Margaret Fry, Annie Tanner, Myrtle Ando, Nellie Deighmiller, Carrie Flick, Emily Crossley, Mary Arwine, Sara Ando, Grace Mausteller, Burdette Standvater, Eula Ando, Hattie Arwine, Libbie Pursel, Bessie Arwine, Dora Arwine, Margaret Gable, Tillie Workheiser, and Annie Styer of Philadelphia. Messrs: S. J. Styer, Chas. Crin, Paul Mausteller, Frank Tanner, Jacob Arwine, Jesse Crossley, Chas. Maus, J. Blaine Hartman, Shuman Ando, Wallace Hughes of Danville, Chester Gable of Philadelphia, Chas. Lockhoff, Wellington Pursel, W. R. THE PROBABLE REASON. The unusual number of barns struck by lightning in various parts of the country is a notable feature of this season. The frequency of severe thunder storms this summer is of course the primary cause, as they are indispensable factors in performances of that kind and we never had more of them in a given length of time than have occurred within the last four or five weeks. But there must be some other reason for so many barns being made electrical targets. Have not the farmers become more negligent in providing the defence of lightning rods than they were some years ago? This appears to be the case, and why it is so may be due to the fact that some of the lightning rods have become so slippery in their dealings that a farmer couldn't get his barn "roddeled" without running the risk of having a law suit on his hands before the transaction was closed. The cause of action was often a negotiable note worded in a way that made the honest and mystified granger liable for an amount almost equal to half the value of his farm. With such risks involved in "roddeled" barn owners of those rural structures, while not doubting the efficacy of Ben Franklin's lightning deflectors, had reason to be shy of the lightning rod peddlers.

ONE ARMED MAN FAKE. Faking the public with his arm tied tightly behind his back, a stranger, played upon the sympathies of the residents of a neighboring town, Saturday, by posing as the victim of a bright bolt of lightning. He claimed that he had lost his arm through being struck by lightning, and rather than beg outright he had a few lead pencils for sale with which to keep body and soul together. He did a land office business as the get-up of the arm was so good that it appeared to be off at the shoulder. But the game did not work long for an officer tumbled to the game and he placed the lightning victim under arrest. At the lockup the arm was found to be swollen from being tied so tightly behind his back. He is a man of about 35 years of age and stoutly built. His sympathy racket had netted him a nice sum.

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES. Itching, Blind, Bleeding, Protruding Piles. Druggists are authorized to refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure in 6 to 14 days. 50 cents.

Teachers Elected. At a special meeting of the Malone township school board the following teachers were elected for the ensuing year: Gravel bank school, Edwin C. Foust; Mechanicsville, first grade, Lloyd Krum; second grade, Miss Gertrude Mapstone; Silder Hill, Miss M. C. Madison; held top, Samuel Krum; Toby run, Miss Seesholtz.

Iron Co. Truck Breke Down. One of the large truck wagons used by the Reading Iron company loaded with stone broke down Saturday at the corner of Second and Chambers streets. The mishap was caused by the front wheel getting in a rut and the axle breaking. It was necessary to get another truck and reload the stone.

The P. & R. pay car went through Danville yesterday.

SUNDAY WORK FOR THE AMBULANCE

The good people of Bloom street in the vicinity of Mill were given a great scare Sunday morning when a man, fell from a D. & B. trolley after making a frantic effort to catch his hat which had blown from his head. He struck the street with a sickening thud and lay motionless.

In falling the man cut a gash on his nose that bled rather profusely and otherwise injured himself, so that it was a gruesome sight that met the gaze of the people who hurried from their homes to administer first aid to the injured. A pillow was procured and the man was made as comfortable as circumstances would permit.

Summons flashed over the wire for the police and for medical aid and in response quickly came Chief Mince-moyer and Dr. Paulus. The doctor, first to arrive, was soon able to supply the information that the man's dazed condition was not due to any extent to his fall but to an overindulgence in strong drink. Chief Mince-moyer then arriving on the scene relieved the minds of the anxious citizens of all further doubt by stating that the man was Mike Smith, an old offender, and that this episode was somewhat of a common occurrence with him.

Twenty Year Battle. "I was a loser in a twenty year battle with chronic piles and malignant sores, until I tried, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which turned the tide, by curing both; till not a trace remains," writes A. M. Bridge Not Up to Contract. The New Jersey Bridge company, which had the contract for the erection of the roadways and other repairs on the bridge across the river at Milton, will lose $2,000 on their job or make good their work according to specifications and contract on the structure. The bridge was completed so far as the contractors were concerned, and recently viewers were appointed to inspect the structure and pass repairs to the bridge. The Union and Northumberland counties at a cost of $17,827.25. The viewers from Union county were Walter Frick, Chas. M. Foster and Frank Dietrich. Three were also appointed from Northumberland county. The viewers found the brick roadway not up to contract, and recommended that $2,000 be withheld from the contractors until the work was made satisfactory, and a reasonable time be given the firm in which to do it. At argument court last Thursday Judge McClure affirmed the report of the viewers.

Borough Offices Go Begging. A borough with not enough voters to fill all the borough offices is the situation likely to be presented in Stillwater, Columbia county, the removal of the Edgar & Stanifer planing mill and many of its employees to Berwick is the cause. Stillwater is a regularly incorporated borough and boasts of forty-four qualified voters, the majority of whom worked at the planing mill. The constitution requires twenty officials—a chief burgess, six councilmen, six school directors, two constables, two justices of the peace, one assessor, one tax collector, besides election officers and other minor officials.

His Treasure of Hazleton. One of the four decorators now in Hazleton decorating the city for the Old Home week in August sized up that city thusly: "Without any exception Hazleton is the tightest and cheapest city in the State. I have traveled the State over, and have never encountered a city where civic pride is at such a low ebb as in Hazleton. I would never have believed it, had I not had the personal experience and now full well know why the committee is compelled to cringe and beg for funds to give a celebration that means all for the city of Hazleton. Never again will I come to the city in a business capacity."

A Tragic Finish. A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In Hokenm Kenneth McIver, of Vaneboro, Me., permitted a little child to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me a neglected cold, but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure. At Pauler & Co. drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

KNITTING MILLS HANDICAPPED

The Danville Knitting Mills are in operation again after being closed down last week to allow the employees a week's vacation and to give an opportunity to take account of stock. This was the first time the mill had been closed down for a week since it started. It will be made an annual custom to cease operations during the week of the Fourth of July.

In conversation with Thomas DeLany, superintendent, Friday eve, a lamentable fact was brought out. Mr. DeLany states that the scarcity of girl labor or the unwillingness of the girls to go to work is greatly handicapping the plant. The mills could, and did at one time, employ 210 people; now there are but 180 on the pay rolls. Yet there is no knitting mill in the State that pays higher, if as high, wages.

The company last September purchased a small plant at Ringtown and here the machines that scarcity of labor in Danville keeps idle are being sent. The company, however, would prefer to have all the machines at the home mill.

If it were possible to secure the help desired, the company would enlarge the mill indefinitely and install its own dye plant. Within the past three months orders for 75,000 dozen hose were turned down because the present facilities would not permit their being filled.

Sent Obscene Postal. Since the picture postal card has struck the people of these United States, the mail carriers have been kept busy. Some of the cards, however, are both insulting and criminal in offensive.

Not long ago a certain young man of Shenandoah, who was in New York City, sent a card to a lady of that town. The lady became highly insulted and when the fellow came home a few weeks ago, she met him in a grocery store and proceeded to trim him in a la Jefferees. After dodging washboards and canned tomatoes for awhile the sender of the postal got out of the place. It is safe to say he'll be more careful in the future.

'PHONE MEETING AT EXCHANGE

A meeting of the People's Telephone exchange was held Friday at Exchange for the purpose of reconsidering some of the business transacted at the last meeting.

At the meeting on June 19th the 'phone lines were taken from the contracting company's hands by the shareholders. It afterward developed that a number of the Turbotville shareholders were dissatisfied with this action. At Turbotville the People's wires are strung on the U. T. & T. company's poles, and it was thought by the subscribers there that the People's company should have a pole line of its own.

At the petition of ten shareholders, therefore, the president called Friday's meeting. The question of putting the line back into the contractor's hands was thoroughly discussed, but no action was taken, the disagreement being amicably adjusted.

The trustees presented a set of by-laws which had been drawn up. The by-laws which had been drawn up. The by-laws were read and laid over until next meeting for adoption.

Each line, of which there are now 11 completed, has its own sub-organization, with officers—president, secretary and supervisors. These have all been elected since the meeting on June 19th.

The People's company is steadily extending its lines and by fall will have 17 lines in operation with nearly 250 'phones.

Seventeen 'phones will be installed within the next few days. Two construction gangs are at work now and will be employed all summer. The work just now is being delayed somewhat by the non-arrival of material which is expected every day.

Only 82 Years Old. "I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by Pauler & Co., druggists. Price 50c.

Anent the Knockers. Says Congressman Acheson's paper, the Washington Observer: "A town is often kept back because some of its citizens knock on others who did not fall in line with their ideas as to the best way to advance it. One man succeeds in his business because he has good ideas and carries them out. It is not to be supposed that he can take the idea of another man which is contrary to his own, and make it successful. A man who is guided by certain ideas and defined principles must carry them out in his relation to every enterprise with which he is associated. And they will apply to the advancement of a town. Let us work for our town but do not let us be knocked because other people just as good as we are and perhaps better, cannot work on our ideas."

While this was written to fit local conditions, it is just as applicable to some Danville people as to the folks in Southwestern Pennsylvania whom the editor excoiates. There is nothing so contemptible as the man who decries everything not done along the lines he wants and who spatters with mud those who do not see fit to agree with him.

THE POPULAR SUMMER RESORT. The Stroudsburg Times lifts its eyes skyward and thanks the creator that it would be quite out of the question to form a trust big enough to control Monroe county's chief source of revenue and business—the summer resorts. There is too much land in sight, it believes, to be bought up by the money power, while "the air can never be mortgaged, bonded or sold in blocks by syndicates. The scenery, free as the air, can never be fenced by the money grabbers. The water supply is too natural and free, too abundant to be 'cornered' by. Every body will wish Monroe unbonded felicity and perennial joy with her air, her scenery and her water."

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable. Almost everybody who reads the newspaper is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine. It is the great triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmor, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble. It has been tested in so many ways in a hospital ward, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmor & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and Home of Swamp-Root dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Nearly a Mile of Sewerage. Danville is moving steadily forward. Very little noise or ado is being made about it, it is true, but it is nevertheless the fact remains that there is healthy and material progress. This condition is most conclusively shown by the fact that in the short interval between April last and the present nearly one mile of sewer extensions has been added to our splendid system installed a couple of years ago.

The various extensions made this spring are as follows: Front street, 900 feet; Ferry street, 700 feet; two alleys nearby, 800 feet; Lower Mulberry street, 700 feet; Mill street, 1100 feet; Centre street, 700 feet. The total length of sewerage added is 4900 feet. In addition to this another extension taking in A street, Bloom and Cherry streets and comprising a length of over 1,000 feet, is contemplated and a petition will probably be presented at the next meeting of council.

In addition to the steady extension of its sewer our borough is constantly improving its light plant, adding new lamps, perfecting and enlarging the system. Added to this is the massive retaining wall which the borough is constructing at the water works and which represents considerable expenditure of money. The care and activity shown in all departments is evidence that the borough aims not only to
