REV. M. L. SHINDEL

All that was mortal of the Rev. M. L. Shindel, D. D., whose death occurred Saturday morning, was consigned to its last resting place in Odd Fellows' cemetery Tuesday after noon. The funeral was held in the Pine street Lutheran church and was very largely attended, every bit of available space in the large auditorium being occupied. Among those who gathered around the bier of the beloved minister, were not only practically all his former parishioners, but a large number of others from out of town, among whom were many clergymen of the Lutheran church.

The funeral services began at o'clock. Invocation was made by the Rev. J. A. McGann of Lewisburg, after which a quartette composed of Miss Elizabeth Russell, Miss Margaret Ammerman, Walter Russell and Carlton McHenry rendered very impressively the hymn "Abide With

The ninetieth psalm was read by C. T. Aikens, A. M., president of the Susquehanna University, after which the Rev. F. P. Manhart, D. D., of Selinsgrove offered a feeling prayer. The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. J. R. Dimm, of Selinsgrove. He took his text from II Tim othy, 4th, 7th and part of the 8th verses: "I have fought a good fight: I have finished my course; I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge shall give me at that day.'

The flowers were very beautiful and included tributes from the Sunday school and from individual members of the congregation.

The honorary pall bearers were Samuel Werkheiser, D. S. Bloom John Krum, Joseph Breitenbach, Edward Pentz and George A. Rossman. The active pall bearers were: George Jacobs, Frank G. Schoch, John W. Eyerly, Jacob Fish, William E. Kase and John Fox.

The body was carried from the church to Walnut street, where two trolley cars were in waiting. All the space in the two cars was occupied. Rev. I. A. McGann officiated at the grave assisted by the Rev. Dr. Dimm and the Rev. L. W. Walter, pastor of Pine Street Lutheran church.

Among those present at the funeral were C. M. Adams, M. D. Bastian and Austin Wilvert, of Sunbury, rep resenting lodge No. 203, I. O. O. F. of that place of which Rev. Dr. Shin dl had been a member since 1850.

General J. P. S. Gobin of Lebanon a nephew of the deceased, was present at the funeral. He arrived on the 10:17 train and left for home on the the following from out of town were present: Rev. J. R. Joseph Ratti Seriously III.

A report reached Bloomsburg Mon day to the effect that Joseph Ratti treasurer of the Silk Mill at that place, was seriously ill at his summer home in Italy.

Mr. Ratti is now at Rogeno, Brianza. Italy, and a letter received by his friends in Bloomsburg some days ago that he was then quite seriously ill was followed yesterday by a wire communication that his condition had become worse. F. G. Yorks, supintendent of the Bloomsburg Silk Mill left vesterday for the bedside of Mr. Ratti in Italy.

STROYED BY LIGHTNING

An electrical storm of unprecedented everity passed over this section Monlay afternoon. The down pour of ing played all sorts of capers while he thunder following peal upon peal esembled the firing of heavy artillery. Altogether the effect was most trying o persons of weak nerves.

The first shower came up about noon Monday and the bulk of it passed around northward. It was acompanied by very vivid lightning and heavy thunder. During this shower the barn of Clarence Shultz, situated on the road leading from Strawerry ridge to Jerseytown was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. All the live stock was saved with the exception of a calf, which perished in the fire. The season's crops however with the exception of the oats, which was not yet housed, was destroyed with the barn. The building was insured in the Millville Fire Insurance

About two o'clock the second and fore severe storm began to gather. It came directly from the west and presented a dark and threatening front as it spread out over the heavens. As the result probably of the intense heat of the last couple of days the air was heavily charged with electricity. No sooner had the storm burst in all its fury than the lightning became nearly one continuous glare, frequently playing through the interior of the buildings accompanied by snapping ounds or reports that resembled the discharge of a pistol, while all the time crashing peals of thunder followed each other quick succession.

The down pour of rain was tremer lous. Bloom street below the P. & R. crossing was again flooded as on Saturday night, while elsewhere through town the gutters were overtaxed and the streets looked like miniature riv-

It was during the second storm that the heaviest damage was wrought by the lightning. The house belonging to Alfred Blecher, Bloom road, was struck by lightning, but did not take fire. The chimney was demolished, shingles knocked off the roof and several weather boards wrested from the side of the house. The family although badly frightened escaped injury.

The barn of Mrs. Susan Berger, Lib erty township, was struck by lightning and destroyed with the season's erop of hay. The live stock was saved. The barn of Romanus Mull, also in Liberty township, was struck and burned to the ground. The live stock also was saved, but the season's crops with the exception of the oats went up in smoke along with the barn. Mrs. Berger's barn is a little off from the Milton road about two miles this right of the road, scarcely a mile washing. way from the Berger farm.

During the heaviest part of the shower the lightning struck and set on fire a shock of oats on the Maus farm Mausdale. The dashing rain was not sufficient to extinguish the fire and the oats burned to askes. In this city the lightning struck a large tree on the premises. Spruce street. occupied by D. C. Trolley Line a Money Maker.

There is again talk of building the trolley railroad from Sunbury to Sha 4:31 train last evening. Among others mokin. "Farmer" Kulp has never given up the idea and Manager Calla han, of this city, is a great believe in the money earning power of the proposed line. It is reported that these two gentlemen have pooled their issues in regard to building the road. If this is a fact the line will come and that at no distant day. There is no question that the road would carry a large number of people and it would not be a very expensive line to construct—Sunbury Daily.

Affairs at Exchange.

Hon, L. W. Welliver of Exchange drove down to this city yesterday and spent several hours very pleasantly chatting with friends at the county

Mr Welliver also reports that the foundation for the new bank is now ready for the wall and that stone and brick are both on the ground.

The other new buildings at Ex change, in number, are very rapidly approaching completion. Each of th dwellings is a very fine structure and will be quite an ornament to the place. The owners of the new buildings are Thomas Sharon, John Ritter and John Dennen.

SUNDAY FISHING.

W. F. Reuther, one of the aspirants for the democratic nomination for as sembly in Reading, denies that he is in favor of introducing the continental Sabbath in this State, but he says he does believe workingmen ought to have the privilege of fishing on Sunday. There are sections of the state in which a candidate on that platform would not win.

CONCERNING THE STATE HIGHWAY

It is a matter of surprise and also of egret that the State highway in Mahoning and Valley townships connectng the borough of Danville with Mausdale, condemned as falling short of specifications, are permitted by the contractors to lie so long without being completed in a way to conform with requirements. This is especially true of the highway in Mahoning kidney trouble. township, which was begun in 1904, and which was condemned by a repreed the location of some heavy pipe and is sold on its merits
