The child must be "successfully" had been successfully vaccinated when it is only fair to state that the physipositive the vaccination was a success.

The law as in effect, however, prevents neglect from any source. A county medical inspector is provided who must visit each of the schools in a given district and personally inspect the children to see whether they have been successfully vaccinated.

The county medical inspector for Montour county is Dr. E. A. Curry of this city.

Farmer Injured by Savage Bull. Henry Martin, a well-known farmer residing about four miles from Danville on the Shamokin road, was badly injured by a savage bull Tuesday. The bull is a two-year-old Jersey animal, dehorned. Although occasion ally very quiet the bull at times gives evidence of an ugly disposition. Owing to the fact, however, that he was divested of his horns until Tuesday he was not regarded with much dread. Tuesday just before noon Mr. Martin entered the barn yard where the bull was confined with a basketful of grass. The animal, which was in a very ugly mood, charged upon the the trees are quite as heavily fruited, farmer, knecking him down and mauling him in a dreadful manner. Mr. Martin is seventy-nine years of age and although not a feeble man, was unable to free himself and lay on a pile of straw while the bull rammed his head into his side and tried his best to kill him. The cries of the man at last brought succor and the infuriated bull was beaten off.

Mr. Martin sustained two broken ribs and is very badly bruised, but his injuries are not considered dangerous Had the bull possessed his horns it is not likely that the farmer would have escaped with his life.

156 Shut Outs.

No other team in the world has such a record of shutouts as Green's Neb raska Indians. In 1903 the husky red skins shut out their opponents 64 times. In 1904 they succeded in let ting the other team down without a run in 49 instances, and in 1905 they prevented the teams contesting with them from reaching home plate on 43 occasions. A BIG APPLE CROP.

We trust the promise of a big apple rop will be fulfilled. There is no fruit grown which will equal the apple, to eat from the hand or table, so many different ways may it be served, and withal no fruit has greater credit for nealthfulness.

Reports from the extensive apple rehards of western New York show that the crop will be heavy and profitable. This apparently holds good all over the country, and it is being prelicted that the crop may be as great s that of 1896, which has hitherto held the record. There is a larger acreige of trees now than there was then, and the quality is said to be unusual ly fine. It is not to be expected that prices will run so high next Winter as they did a year ago, but without there hould be an unexpected slump in the market, the farmer who has a bearing apple orchard may expect to make a nice profit out of the crop.

SPLENDID CROPS.

Agriculture is king, and with the great crops assured it does not look as if anything could now dull the pros pect of another year of prosperity ahead. Our crops last year approxim ated in value all the gold produced in the world in thirty years. This year's rops are worth more. The railroads will have all they can do to move the crops, in addition to the other traffic and busy railroads mean busy coal and ore mines and other kindred in dustries.

Mr. Sober has nearly 400 acres in young, from three to seven years old, but as they are grafted on native chestut sprouts they begin to bear early. It was estimated that Mr. Sober's crop this year would be considerably ver 1000 bushels of chestnuts, but ow ing to damage done by the locusts it will not be half that quantity. In sections of the orchard fully three fourths of the bearing branches have been killed by the locust sting.

On several trees not a green leaf was left, but new shoots are starting again, and very few trees will be killed. When the locusts began to swarm in to the grove in June Mr. Sober made an effort to keep them off, but it was ike fighting against an incoming tide. Chickens were placed among the rees, and they did valuable work, They would leave corn and run after the locusts, chasing them from morning until night. When the Hair Falls

Then it's time to act! No time to study, to read, to experiment! You want to save your hair, and save it quickly, too! So make up your mind this very minute that if your hair ever comes out you will use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the scalp healthy. The hair stays in. It cannot do any thing else. It's nature's way. The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."
