Booth, "I found it necessary to climb down from the high plane of art to common ground and take steps to announce my repertory to the public. This was done almost entirely by way of posters, and I could not trust the job to the native boys, because they always ate the paste and threw away the bills. My actors would not do it, because they were such eminent artists and thoroughbred gentlemen, so I had to do it myself. Many a time have I taken off the costume of Iago or Hamlet or Othello and gone out with a bucket of paste and a roll of paper to 'bill the town,' as we say here in Amer

The Robin and the Caterpillar. The robin hops along in the furrow and picks up worms as the farmer plows, which it eats itself or carries to its nest as food for the young robins The robin prefers smooth coated worms, such as the common earth worm, but if such food is scarce it does an evil day for the caterpillar when a robin strikes it. The robin picks it up and shakes it and shakes it until i hakes the spines out of it-the fur, a
