ATTRACTIVE CHURCH WEDDING

The First Baptist church yesterday morning was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Goldie Johnston became the bride of Frederick Lewis.

John Sherman, pastor, at eight o'clock. The church decorations were most beautiful, in the scheme a profusion of hydrangeas and rhododendrons being employed with charming effect. The bride was attended by Miss Edith Reed as maid of honor and Miss Pearl Vastine as bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Benneville Johnston brother of the bride, and Benjamin Rolston, of Middletown, N. Y. Miss Irene Super of Newport News, Va. rendered the wedding march from Loh engrin. The ushers were: Roy Smith. Harry Camp, Edward Aten and Clyde Snyder. Beatrice and Carrie Blue, little daughters of George Blue, were flower girls. Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Johnston, Grand street. Among the large number of guests the following from out of town were present: Mrs. Frank Haas, Miss Eva Levers, Mrs. John Cornelison, of Milton; Mrs. John Super, Miss Irene Super, Newport News, Va. : Mrs. Daniel Hornberger, Miss Bertha Persing, of Shamokin; George Blue, Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, son and daughter, Miss Mary Lawrence, Klinesgrove; Sunbury

The bride is prominent among the oung people of the First Baptist church and is popular and beloved. The groom holds the position of telegraph operator at Grovania and has made many friends during his residence of some three years in Danville. The newly wedded couple left on the 10:19 D. L. & W. train for a trip to Middletown, N. Y., the groom's former home. Returning they will take up their residence in Danville. The bride was the recipient of a large number of presents, covering the usual wide range of useful and ornamental articles. There were large quantities of silver and china ware, cut glass, table linen, counterpanes, a handsome rocking chair, a table, pict-
