the chairman of the Republican campaign committee for one dollar contributions to the campaign fund is President Roosevelt. The president believes in the virtue of example and gives his dollar early with an implied injunction to all Republicans who share with him a true spirit of lovalty to party principle to go and do likewise. Undoubtedly the president's example will bear fruit. Its special value consists in the fact that every public act of the chief executive of the nation commands the attention of the whole people and that accordingly his recognition of the dollar a head idea will bring the merit thereof home to hundreds of thousands of citizens who otherwise might let it pass unnoticed.

He Leads the Way.

"Naturally this simple device commends itself to the president because of the conditions which have made it necessary. In former times the great corporations were the chief donors of campaign funds, and very little money was obtained from the privates in the ranks of the political parties. Largely through Mr. Roosevelt's instrumentality, a death blow has been dealt to the practice of collecting funds from

"Henceforward, therefore, the cam paign committee of all parties must look to individuals for the wherewithal to meet the heavy cost of campaigning. There should be no difficulty on this head if it is only possible to enlist individual attention and to inspire generally an adequate sense of partisan obligation. It is this that Mr. Roose the one method of emphasizing his views where good results are sure to

A State Dollar Fund. Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican state committee, has followed the lead of Chairman Sherman of the congressional committee, and is soliciting one dollar subscriptions to anti-corporation declarations made in the Republican platform in Pennsylvanit, coupled with the knowledge that Edwin S. Stuart as governor will see that all the party pledges are carried out, will without doubt deter many apitalists from contributing to Pennsylvania Republican state committee this year. But this is to be "a people's battle," and the dollars of the people will bring returns in a triumphant Republican

Fortunately, the Republican party has cleaned its household and has placed itself in the van of reform leg-Islation, thus giving no valid excuse for any Republican to desert the Republican ranks. If Emery stands for ~ principle. Stuart likewise stands for l etc. and Stuart, furthermore, has the advantage of representing the Republicanism of Theodore Roosevelt. Common sense is going to win the oming hattle in Pennsylvania, not hysteria, and when the people begin see, as they will, that Stuart is a Republican who owes allegiance only to that which is best in Republicanism and not to individuals, that he is a Republican who stands shoulder t shoulder with Roosevelt for the Square Deal, they will discover only danger in the movement for Emery.

The situation is one of deep interes and it is useless to deny that it is also one of concern. Two years before the nominating convention will be held Bryan is as good as nominated a ready. State after state has declared for him through Democratic state conventions. During the past week two more states fell into line. Wisconsin went wild over his name and indorsed him outright as the standard beare of 1908. Pennsylvania Democrats went on record in practically the same manner, for they hailed him as the great "Democratic commoner, who is now regarded as the certain successor of Theodore Roosevelt."
