

LOCAL TIME TABLES.

THE COUNTY INSTITUTE

County Superintendent C. W. Derr Tuesday for the first took up the work of visiting the schools of the county. The rural schools are now all in full swing and are doing good work.

Big Barn Burned.

Evidently the work of an incendiary, who was discovered and shot at as he fled into the darkness, the barn of Russell Karns in Benton township, Columbia county, near the McHenry distillery was burned to the ground last night.

Balustrade Being Installed.

The front of the court house took on an additional attraction yesterday when the handsome balustrade of metal was installed above the artistic stone-work enclosing and forming the three doorways of the building.

Challenges County.

The record for farm work in this section of the State is without doubt held by David Howe, who is employed on the farm of Joseph Patterson, in Mt. Pleasant township, Columbia county.

The Breath of Life.

It is a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creature.

Junior Bible Class.

The Junior Bible Class of the Y. M. C. A. will hold its first meeting of the season at Association Hall on Friday evening at seven o'clock.

COMMISSIONERS' APPOINTMENTS

Below will be found a list of appointments made in accordance with the act authorizing the county commissioners in each county to appoint a sufficient number of suitable persons in each township and ward at the expense of the county to look after, bury, and provide headstones for the body of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine, who served in the army or navy of the United States during the late rebellion or any preceding war.

Last year seven veterans were buried in Montour county under the above act; hence it will be seen that the position for which the appointments are made is an important one and calls for men who will carefully attend to their duties.

Anthony township—Joseph Asor. Cooper township—Henry Wertman. Danville—First ward, W. M. Hedrick; second ward, Samuel Mills; third ward, E. B. Brown; fourth ward, Abraham C. Angle.

Threaten to Blow Up Trolley.

The situation over the failure of the Shamokin-Mt. Carmel Transit company, through a strike, to resume operations is becoming desperate at Gettysburg, and the residents threaten to blow up the entire track and not allow the company to again put a track on the borough streets unless cars are soon running.

HATCHING SNAKES.

When a dozen snakes a day is not a large enough supply to suit the department, so it has started a snake incubator. Scores of snake eggs are hatching out. Saturday morning a black snake was partially hatched, its head protruded only an inch from the shell, but it showed signs of vigorous life, darting its tongue out and biting the fingers of Professor Surface.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY IT.

The young people of Centralia are getting bunches of real fun out of the trolley strike situation. Many young men and maidens from the town on the hill walk in Mt. Carmel. There is no early train to bring them down and they must walk to work.

HICKORY HORN DEVIL SECURED.

In another portion of the museum are 800 larvae-cases. Probably a more repulsive set of worms was never collected. The department studies all of these, learning particularly on what they feed and what parasites feed upon them.

Trolley Line in 'More Trouble.

The Shamokin-Mt. Carmel Transit company is getting into deeper water every day. The borough council of Centralia at a meeting held Monday night served notice that unless cars were run within the next 10 days they would tear up the tracks, pull down the wires and cut down the poles within the borough limits.

When Two Strong Men Come to Blows.

When two strong men come to blows, even if they are four inches apart, it is not a pleasing sight, but if the man who gets the worst of it will use DeWitt's Little Blue Pills, he will feel better and feel better in short order.

100,000 TO ATTEND THE DEDICATION

Harrisburg must rise to the occasion when the new capitol is dedicated on October 1, for there promises to be more people in Pennsylvania's capitol on that occasion than there has ever been before at one time, the estimate made by the new capitol dedication committee at its meeting in Philadelphia Friday giving the figures at 100,000.

SNAKES THAT HELP THE FARMER

Professor Surface sent to the State printer Saturday his copy for the first "Snake Bulletin." The object of this bulletin is to give the farmers of Pennsylvania accurate information with regard to the food of snakes. It is generally supposed that all snakes are harmful and that they should be killed on sight.

PAYNE TO BUILD STAND

George F. Payne & Co., of Philadelphia, will erect the grandstand to hold 3,000 people, for $5,619, and it will be guaranteed to be the most substantial character. It will be placed over the brownstone stairway on West State street and will command a view over a great stretch, so that everybody can see President Roosevelt, although many may not be within the sound of his voice.

MUSEUM IN NEW CAPITOL.

The department of agriculture has quite a large museum on the fifth floor of the new capitol. Any person wishing to see it may find plenty of it there. At least a dozen large snakes arrive daily, there are live alligators and eel-pikes, as well as live alligators and eel-pikes, as well as live alligators and eel-pikes.

SO SOOTHING.

Its influence has been felt by So Many Danville Readers. After suffering from Helling Piles, From Eczema or any Itchiness of the skin, Makes one feel grateful to the remedy.

Death of Samuel H. Morrall.

Samuel Morrall, a widely known resident of Riverside, departed this life at 11 o'clock Sunday night after a protracted illness. He was 61 years of age. He was a native of Staffordshire, England, and came to this country with his parents when seven years of age.

Death of Patrick Brennan.

In the death of Patrick Francis Brennan, which occurred at Exchange Monday morning, Montour county has lost one of her most prominent and reputable citizens. Mr. Brennan was taken ill a week ago Monday. His illness rapidly developed into a critical case of pneumonia.

Insurance for Candidates.

The Franklin Herald, which is a prohibition daily, gets off the following joke in its editorial columns. "There are insurance companies now for most everything under the sun and moon, the latest being a company to insure those who file in an airship. Why does not some enterprising genius get up a company to insure candidates of their election, or recompense them in case of defeat? This is no joke. And it is no joke to be defeated, and a good deal of cash in case of the loser could be put to good account."

Bitten by Mad Dog.

Helen Ross, a little girl residing in Berwick, was bitten on the chin and lips by a bull dog last Wednesday. Since then an examination by the State veterinary shows that the dog has a violent case of rabies. The little one was taken to the Pasteur Institute at New York yesterday and every effort will be made to save her from a horrible death from hydrophobia.

Remodeling Gerstner Building.

The Gerstner building is being remodelled to conform with the change made in the grade when Mill street was paved. The remodeling takes in the two lower floors of the building. The floor on the first story will be raised some ten inches to bring it up to a level with the pavement.

For Coughs and Colds.

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

THE MAHONING TOWN CLOCK

The town clock on the Mahoning Presbyterian church on Saturday afternoon proclaimed the correct time for approximately two hours and a half. This is an unusual record for the Mahoning time piece, which for a long time past has been giving us any old time.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Almost everybody who reads the newspaper is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is said to promptly cure wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will find just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., 189 N. 2nd St., Hamilton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent bottle of Swamp-Root, dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

NOT PLEASED.

Sanbury is not a bit pleased about the addition of a number of foreigners to its population. Recent disaster at other places contribute to the uneasiness. But Sanbury wants the improvements on which these men will work and will have to put up with the means to the end. It is a good opportunity for the people who don't believe in foreign missions to do or promote a little home mission work.

TO OURE A GOLD IN ONE DAY

Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.

DOGS IN HAZLETON.

Hazleton has just 585 honest citizens who own dogs, according to the Standard. There are supposed to be about that many more whose owners are determined to evade the tax by escaping the vigilance of the police who are equally determined that they shall pay tax for their canines or else surrender them to be shot.

Of Interest To Young People.

We have just received the catalogue of the Literary Institute and State Normal School located at Bloomsburg, Pa. This institution has just closed the most successful year in its history, and is building another large building to enable it to take care of its constantly increasing attendance. Every young person should send for a catalogue of this school, if for no other purpose than to learn how a progressive school is managed and equipped.

ALL THE GOOD QUALITIES OF ELY'S Cream Balm.

Ely's Cream Balm, sold, are found in Liquid Cream Balm, which is intended for use in atomizers. That it is all an unflattering cure for Nasal Catarrh is proved by an ever increasing mass of testimonials. It does not dry out nor rasp the tender air passages. It stays in the inflammation and goes straight to the root of the disease. Obsolete old cases have been cured in a few weeks. All drug stores, 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street New York.
