GORDON'S FAMILIAR TACTICS

Worked in Quay Case, the Hill Trial and Filtration Suits, All of which Ended the Same Way After Election.

Reports come from the inner circles of the Emery Democratic conspirators showing that they have arranged for a most spectacular and sensational game for the closing days of the canvass.

Following the tactics carried out by men in the Wanamaker-Gordon-Van Valkenburg combination in previous political fights, it is reported that arrests are to be made with a view to sustaining charges made in connection with the expenditures on the state capitol.

It is declared that something of this kind must be done in view of Governor Pennypacker's recent statement, or the people will not place credence in any of the charges that have been made by Emery and others in this connection.

Even conceding that there have been violations of the law in connection with some contracts in the capitol, although up to date there has been no evidence submitted to substantiate such allegations, citizens of Pennsylvania, it is believed, will be loathe to accept this as a reason why the Republican party should be defeated, especially in view of the manly declaration made by Edwin S. Stuart, who has said that in the event of his election he will insist upon a thorough investigation of all expenditures in connection with the state capitol, and that he will prosecute any that may be found guilty of wrongdoing.

But it is the policy of men in the Gordon-Van Valkenburg political combine to play to the galleries and to make arrests in order to influence voters, even where there is no foundation for such action.

It was this policy that prompted the arrest of the late Senator Quay, and which for the time being prevented his election to the United States senate.

Arrests For Political Effect.
 This arrest was made in the heat of a bitter faction fight, and the trial was drawn out so that a conclusion could not be reached until after the adjournment of the legislature. Then it was that Senator Quay was acquitted, but the Wanamaker-Gordon-Van Valkenburg conspirators had accomplished their purpose, for the time being, at least.

But the people were heard from later, and Senator Quay's triumphant election followed.

Last year the same influences led the fight against the Republican ticket, and succeeded by similar tactics in gaining a temporary victory.

Nearly all the Republican leaders of Philadelphia were then accused of various high crimes and misdemeanors.

None of them, however, was arrested, but John W. Hill, Chief Engineer of the Filtration Bureau, one of the most highly respected men of his profession, became a victim when he was made to figure as a culprit in a desperate game to deceive the voters.

Mr. Hill was arrested. He demanded immediate trial, but this was denied him as the political conspirators knew that if the facts of the case were presented in court he would be immediately acquitted and their game would be blocked.

They played for time. They threw obstacles in the way of his getting an early trial, and succeeded in having the matter held over until after election.

As in the Quay case, they accomplished what they were after. They deceived the people, and were the means of causing thousands of Republicans who believed there might be some foundation for their charges, to cut their ticket.

Kindred influences inspired the suits against contractors in Philadelphia, the first of which has just been settled by the city and has revealed a condition of affairs that fairly startled the community.

Instead of the city being defrauded of nearly half a million dollars it was shown that the work was properly done, and that there was a balance of over $100,000 due the contractors.

But the political game of which these suits were a part was played successfully.

UNDER WHICH FLAG?

A SERIOUS QUESTION WHICH EVERY PENNSYLVANIA MUST DECIDE AT NEXT TUESDAY'S ELECTION.
 WILL YOU VOTE FOR EDWIN S. STUART FOR GOVERNOR AND INSURE A VICTORY FOR THE PARTY OF ROOSEVELT AND PROSPERITY?
 WILL YOU VOTE FOR EMERY AND HIS THREE BRYANITE RUNNING MATES AND INDORSE THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM UPON WHICH THEY STAND, AND WHICH SAVES PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT?
 SPLENDID RECORD IS A "FEEBLE AND PRETENDED" IMITATION OF BRYAN, WHOM IT HAILS AS THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES!
 AS "UNCLE JOE" CANNON SAYS: "IT'S UP TO YOU."

Never has that idol of the people, Theodore Roosevelt, been known to turn his back upon the glorious emblem of his party. Those who want to see him sustained in the great policies he has under contemplation for the future, and endorse the great things he has already accomplished, can do so only by supporting Congressman Samuel for re-election.

Prisoner is Insane.
 A commission in lunacy, which was appointed by Judge Savidge, on Monday, has decided that Joseph Hunezak, a prisoner in the Northumberland county jail, is hopelessly insane. He is also almost stone blind. Hunezak was sentenced at the last term of the Northumberland county court to serve six years in prison.

Tests by the Curious.
 Sunbury has recently installed an expensive fire alarm system. To send in an alarm it is necessary to break a small piece of glass in the front of the alarm box. Now the police of that town are having their hands full of trouble with curious people who are breaking many of the glass fronts in the boxes to see how the machines work.
