Home Paper

the circulation of this paper is in creasing rapidly. It will pay you to advertise in the AMERICAN.

SUBSCRIPTION $1 PER YEAR

DR. IRVING H. JENNINGS.

-- DENTIST --

Office Cours A. M. to 12 M

( P. M to 4 P. M. Danville. 1' ( SHULTZ, M.

425 MILL ST., DANVILLE, PA. iseases of the Stomach and Intestine . Specialty

CONDENSED NEWS.

A little touch of winter weather nakes the whole world feel better. "The House of Mirth" is the one in which the coal bin is full.

mills. The majority of men and women ive in glass houses.

The school children are looking forvard to vacation.

he provisious sent to her by the neigh-

Miss Polly Simpson, the heroic little undreds of dollars' worth of propery by remaining at her post and givng the alarm when she discovered the Darby postoffice building to be on fire µ June 18, is just recovering from a ritical illness.

Henry Sleukiewitez, the well known Polish novelist, has sent to British nd French newspapers an open letter 'russia's treatment of Poland, especi- ployed and to get back to town. ly in cornection with the school aestion n to him by Cecil Rhodes.

Mrs. Hetty Green, the richest wo-

The largest and heaviest deer of the enry Fulk and Lyman Wagner, of shigh Tannery. It was a five-prongd buck weighing 290 pounds dressed ad was shot by Mr. Fulk at the juncon of Single Mill and Tobyhanna cally, as temperance in drinking.

oliday stimulus. A man's conduct always talks loudthan his deeds. Representations are being made it is id, from au official sourse urging the sirability of the appointment of an-

the sacred college and this circum- the infirmities of old age. ance appears to the nation to be a e regarded as questionable.

cked him, tearing off one of his William Foley, of Berwick. ms, one of his legs and disembowel-

The school authorities of Chester Il prosecute the dealers who sell garettes to children.

The champion checker player of estern Pennsylvania is Henry onaker, of Cooperstown, Venango unty, who is in his 99th year. He allenges to meet any player at any me. Mr. Slonaker is a stalwart re blican and says he never voted a lit ticket.

The Interstate Improvement company lands at Hyner, Clinton county. e company has four producing gass-1.300 feet deep.

The city of York has an organized nevolent society to look after the in effect after next Sunday. ents of its needy poor. During the st year was given to 1,200 persons coal, flour, potatoes and other pro-

Building Inspector Ferre, of Harrisver been surpassed. There are now zs. mostly dwellings.

Berwick. The preachers of the town ve been giving sermons on the subt and the citizens are thoroughly fused. It is hoped that the agitation Il result in a better observance of day of rest.

aw abiding citizens of Scranton rejoicing in the successful carryout of the mayor's order which ve Scranton a "tight" Sunday. The icemen had to keep a close watch m midnight Saturday till midnight eday to keep the saloon back doors 1, but they came off victorious.

— For the Home difficulting

American

"THIS COUNTRY WILL NEVER BE ENTIRELY FREE UNTIL IT SUPPLIES ALL OF ITS OWN DEMANDS WITH ITS OWN PRODUCTIONS.

OL. 52-NO 48.

DANVILLE, PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1906.

ESTABLISHED IN 1855

ADVANCE ACCEPTED DEATH AS BY EMPLOYES WALK THEIR HORSES RESULT OF ACCIDENT

on Monday next, December 3rd.

on last Thursday. It amounted to a ing is the legend set forth for the rise to false impressions both as re-121/2 per cent. advance for the pud-edification of those who use the lates to the victim and the place where dlers, which raises the price to $4.59 bridge: per ton. In addition to this the company makes slight advances to the lower priced employes of the finishing

Saturday forenoon the employes of the Reading Iron works held a meeting at their usual meeting place in the armory, when the advance subeived a salty sentence because he not mitted to the men Thursday was formonly refused to provide for his sick ally considered. It was agreed to acwife, but remained at home and ate cept the proffered terms and after the meeting the committee waited upon the general manager at the company's

> The old employes will all go back dollars. to their places. A large number of the The large boards or notices were Once inside he was directed to the Carlton McHeury arrived yesterday ing himself. He is gratified with the inexperienced way as though probably in her dismay. Then arising and placassume its wonted activity.

and file seemed to act upon the advice holding all down to a walk. Business is beginning to show the suffering.

Death of Edward Foley.

her American cardinal at the next dustry in this city for over half a centapal consistory. The plea is that ury, died Tuesday at 5:30 o'clock

Staffordshire, England, in 1848 with but injury must result. "Eve's Dairy," by Mark Twain, a Charles Hunt and William Twist, both py of which is among the books of whom are now dead. By occupation ought recently for Charlton public a roll turner, he was employed at the ing health.

Elk county a few days ago John 9 months. He is survived by his wife home. ielt, aged 18 years, shot a bear, bring- and the following son and daughters:

He was a life long member of the had just said good bye to his visitor man was fatally injured and that he yesterday afternoon with friends in Sibley & Co. Methodist church and a charter mem- when a short while later the cow came ber of Beaver lodge, No. 132, Knights running back. Puzzled at the return of Pythias, of Danville.

will have charge of the services. In- dead when Mr. Martz arrived on the and the man lingered until about 1 terment will be made in the Episcopal cemetery.

Sunday Services at St. John's.

Arrangements have been made whereby service will be held at St. John's fore, as a great shock. s decided to drill another well on German Lutheran church twice each Sunday, morning and evening. Services will be held for the Lutheran ville on alternate Sunday afternoons. This arrangement of services will be Practicing for Christmas. Since Christmas is but four weeks ning to practice the work by which of friends. they expect to observe the birth of the rg, says that the building activity Christ child and at the same time enthe present year in that city has tertain their friends. The practice at the present time consists largely in der course of construction 260 build- | drill in the musical numbers and the recitative will be taken up later. The Sunday observace is being agitated present indications are that the services in all of our churches will be vrey beautiful and appropriate.

Robbed Mine Box Cars.

freight cars on the siding at West Mil- right lower leg. ton were broken into by robbers and a merchandise was taken. The matter was kept as quiet as possible Monday Art.' by the railroad people and several detectives were on the ground during

All details seem to be arranged and . In a few days a notice will be conthe fact is understood that the big spicuously posted at each end of the red in this city about noon Monday in Williamsport. mill, idle since June, will start up river bridge, which will give not only in which a well-known and highly Mr. and Mrs. Henry Horner, of Rob. Monday. It was precipitated seem. climbed to the top notch of their shady It is not clear whether the person The advance granted by the Read- quite a jar. Each board will be some lost his life. The accident was especi- of the latter's sister, Mrs. Alfred Voris, standing about the system ing Iron company, which grew out of 41/4x31/4 feet, the lettering being of ally "unfortunate" in that it occur- Ferry street. the recent revision of the wage schedules, was submitted to the workmen one who "runs may read." Follow-perfectly understood are apt to give

> 'To drivers of horses, etc. : Notice is hereby given that any person or persons who shall ride or drive across any portion of this bridge faster than a walk shall forfeit or pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than thirty dollars for each and every offense. By order of county commissioners of Montour and Northumberland counties." The board contains a similar notice office and informed him of the action to owners and drivers of automobiles, narrow alleyway between Elias Maier's for a visit at the houe of his parents, taken by the employes. This was who are warned not to operate or drive Keystone telephone girl, who saved about all that was necessary and it any automobile or motor vehicle which leads around to the rear of the now seems to be perfectly understood across any portion of the bridge at a restaurant. The man followed the between the management and the men speed greater than a mile in six min- walk and understanding that the conthat the plant will start up next Mon- utes, under penalty of a fine not less, veniences were installed in the house than ten dollars nor more than twenty he entered the side door that leads in-six or seven hundred men employed, it painted by Chris Hershey and were front apartment in which the bar is from Easton to spend a few days with excellent results following the experiis true, are out of town working else- delivered at the county commission- located and from the rear of which his mother, Mrs. Emma McHenry, ment and clearly defined his position, where, but they have a week in which ers' office on Saturday. After some opens the door to the room he was in Centre street Emperor William, denouncing to adjust affairs where they are em- slight alterations in workmanship they quest of. will be posted at the bridge. The post- Now comes the really remarkable ing friends in this city. The Reading Iron works is the main ing of the notices imposing these part of the story. In entering the bar Miss Florence Cousart left yester- ing called upon, stated that he was standby in the town. During the long rather radical restrictions upon drivers room from the rear a person walks day for a visit with relatives in watching the experiment being made with a bolt of ribbon, a handkerchief, "Madam, I have my duty to per-Rudyard Kipling, who dislikes the period of its idleness, covering a period is pursuant to action taken at a joint through a short passage from the side Wilkes-Barre. inter climate of England, is prepar- of five months, the business interests meeting of the county commissioners of which opens a door leading into Misses Stella Saudel and Bessie Hess was confident that it was a perfect wings. The roll of ribbon, which is She then flew to the chief-of-police, ng, as usual, to blot out the winter of Danville suffered materially and of Northumberland and Montour count the cellarway. The cellarsteps are rathonthis from his calendar by sailing until assurance was given that an ties recently and grew out of the abuse er steep and treacherous and in order burg. r South Africa where he has a agreement had finally been reached be- of the bridge by automobilists and to prevent persons from falling great eautiful house near Cape Town giv- tween the company and the employes persons wishing to show off their care has always been taken to keep everyone looked forward to the long horses who habitually used the bridge the door closed. More than this, in Aten will spend Thanksgiving at winter ahead with dread and misgiv- as a speedway. The Montour county order to prevent even the remotest an in America, was 72 years old on ing. Under the circumstances Thanks- board of commissioners might have possibility of accident. Mr. Maier deast Wednesday, and is in perfect giving, only a few days distant, will compromised on some rate of speed a vised an ingenious lock or contrivance ing from Selinsgrove to spend Thanksealth. She is more deeply engrossed have a new significance to our peo- trifle faster than a walk-if the main- by means of which the door is sure to giving in this city. business affairs than ever, and lets ple. Trade will no doubt instantly retaining of any middle ground were fly shut and lock itself. It can only be Miss Sarah Unger, teacher in the month following. o opportunity pass to increase her vive and in a short time Danville will practicable in the premises—but the opened by pulling a cord to which an public schools at Berwick arrived last On motion it was ordered that the Too much can not be said for the not see that a compromise was practi- trudes at the opposite side of the home of her parents, at Union Cor- County Superintendent Derr for teachconduct of the workmen during the cable and insisted on carrying out the door where the hinges are fastened. ner, ason shot in the vicinity of White long strike. At no time was there the letter of the law in such cases made In this way the greatest possible se- Miss Elfriede Weiss, of Tyrone, is On motion it was ordered that the cool-headed and discreet in every em- more that the bridge has been open outside was obviated. ergency and who seemed influenced by there has been no restrictions as to But alas as the sequel shows, a Temperance in eating is quite as one consideration and that was the speed. The horses have become ac- strange fatality seems to control some friends in Sunbury. ecessary, morally, mentally and phy- general good. All classes were well customed to trotting across and it will cases and all precautions are in vain. ken care of and so far as known prove a hard job to hold some of them As Mr. Yorks in obedience to direct there were no cases of destitution or down to a walk. The sweeping restrictions was passing from the rear to the with relatives in this city. of speeding their horses over the "This way, my friend." Edward Foley, one of Danville's bridge. Whether a slow or moderate most notable citizens, and a man who trot injures the bridge to any appreciand consternation of everybody the has been identified with the iron in- able extent might be a question but as door flew open - inward- and Mr. Mr. Foley came to this country from at such times and no one can doubt and that is that in the single moment

Dropped Dead on Public Road.

George Watson, a well known resibrary at Worcester, Mass., has been Co-operative mill and later at the dent of Jerseytown, succumbed suderred by the trustees because there North branch and Mahoning. About denly Monday afternoon to an attack e pictures in the book of a kind that six years ago he retired owing to fail- of heart trouble. Death evertook Mr. Watson while he was walking on the While a party of men were hunting The deceased was aged 81 years and public road about a mile from his

Mr. Watson had been to the farm of g it down. Thinking it was dead he Mrs. John Harris, Mrs. T. J. Price Charles Martz, about a mile from room. Dr. Shultz and Dr. Newbaker ent up to it to bleed it, when the and Miss Kate Foley, of this city; Mrs Jersevtown, and was on his way home nimal suddenly jumped up and at. Jennie Eavenson, of Kingston, and when he was overcome. He was on arriving first. foot and was driving a cow. Mr. Martz of the animal, Mr. Martz investigated The funeral will take place Friday and found the unfortunate man about and general paralysis, the sym<sub>1</sub> toms afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late 500 yards away, he having sunk into a being those of fatal apoplexy. The ac residence. The Knights of Pythias kneeling position. Mr. Watson was cident occurred just before 12 o'clock

> The deceased had been a sufferer from heart trouble for some time, but The two physicians, who remained his ailment of late had not been of with the man until death ensued, were sufficient severity to cause immediate fully convinced as to the cause of alarm. The sudden death came, there death and agreed that an inquest was

The deceased was 52 years of age, and is survived by a wife, a half brother, John Watson, principal of the in its territory. The new well will congregations at Grovania and Ridge- Third street schools of Bloomsburg and and Miss Sallie, who resides in New Jersey. He was a member of the Jerseytown M. E. church, and was known as a man of exemplary character. He was generally liked and his ions to the value of over $3,200 away, the Sunday schools are begin- loss will be felt among a wide circle

Cancels Engagement.

Ira T. Howreth, the well known ducator, who was to have been one injured man was dead. of the lecturers at the local institute which convenes in this city next week | dent of Valley township He was sixtyhas been incapacitated by a serious accident and compelled to cancel all of his engagements for this fall.

Mr. Howreth was lecturing at an institute in Indiana when he was caught under a falling roof and sus-On Sunday night nine Reading tained a fructure of both bones of the Mr. Howreth was to have taken part quantity of wine and cigars and other in the institute on Monda, and Tuesday, lecturing on "The Teacher's "The Artist Teacher" 'The Raw Material of the Common Schools.

County Superintendent Derr states known there is no clue to the thieves. be secured in Mr. Howreth's place.

PERSONAL

Market street.

Wilkes-Barre.

Sunbury.

nd Louisa Voris, Pine street.

Miss Helen Daniels, of Williams.

port, is the guest of Miss Mary Roney,

Miss Elsie and Edwin Moore spent

Mrs. Martha Gearhart will spend arrived last evening to spend Thanks-

Thomas Foltz will spend Thanksgiv

Bert McClure and Arthur Campbell

will witness the Pennsylvania-Cornell

Miss Grace Shepperson left last even ing for a visit with relatives in Scran-

Sarah Wilson left yesterday for a for a visit with friends in Wilkes-

Mrs. James G. K amer, of Allegh-my, is visiting at the home of her

Misses Rachel Goodall and Harriet with relatives in Philadelphia.

with relatives in Williamsport.

ing with his parents in Shamokin.

game at Philadelphia today.

East Market street.

of Mrs. Grace Bradbury.

evening.

in this city.

Mill street.

Barre

ville.

A most unfortunate accident occur- Miss Rae Johnson is visiting friends The subject of self government came the sad affair took place. The man who lost his life was Henry D. Yorks and briefly told the circumstances under which he sustained fatal the eastern end of Valley township, West Mahoning street. started from home and walked into W. Cook.

After reaching Danville and while Mrs. Emma Christian, Bloom street. others. walking up Mill street Mr. Yorks became desirous of seeking a toilet room visiting relatives in Scranton. and was directed by Mr. Cook to the restaurant and the property adjoining, least semblance of disorder. The rank and provided, or in other words on curity seemed assured, as no one but visiting at the home of her mother on schools close on November 28th, and those familiar with the device could Bloom street. of those who had been entrusted with A great big kick will no doubt re- open the door at all, and thus all dangthe leadership and fortunately for the sult from this action of the county er that might arise from strangers success of the cause these were men commissioners. During the year or mistaking the door for one leading ions as to speed has of course been all front room he paused at the celler brought about by reckless and incon- door. E. Z. Witman, the bar tender siderate people, who are in the habit observing this called to Mr. Yorks:

At the same moment to the surprise to the racing of horses or speeding of Yorks with a crash went head first giving in Harrisburg. automobiles through the driveway down the long steep stairs. How the The effect on the bridge is perceptible a mystery. There is but one solution giving with Miss Lorraine Phillips. that he was fumbling around in the Harold, Donald and S. Montgomery, dim light he accidently caught his will leave today for a visit with relafinger in the iron ring and opened the tives in Philadelphia. door, at the same moment falling to his death. Elias Maier, C. W. Cook, and a couple of others present rushed down street. into the cellar and found Mr. Yorks lying at the foot of the stairs unconscious He was carried up onto the first floor and placed on a cot in the rear were immediately called, Dr. Shultz

The physicians both agreed that the could live but a short time. The in- Sunbury. jury sustained was at the base of the brain, causing cerebral hem vrhage o'clock when he expired. At no time was he conscious after the accident.

not necessary. There never was a death that was more purely accidental and for which more clearly no blame, even in the remotest degree, attached to anyone. two sisters, Miss Ella, of Bloomsburg, Mr. Yorks, the victim, was a man of prudence and sobriety. He did not re- visit with her sister, Mrs. August fresh himself at Mr. Maier's restaur- Deener, Williamsport. ant and as explained above was there purely for another purpose.

As soon as the accident occurred Barre. word was telephoned out to Mr. Yorks' home, and in response, his son, Peter A. Yorks, at once drove into town. Upon the latter's arrival the

The deceased was a life-long resi three years of age and is survived by his wife and one son. Peter A. Yorks. township.

Tendered Chicken Supper.

The members of the Keystone quart ette who gave a concert at the Luth eran church in Washingtonville Tuesday evening, weretendered a fine chicken supper at the home of Mrs. Moser after the concert.

Miss Myrtle Sidler, of Catawissa, i the most of the day. As far as is that another and competent man will the guest of Miss Bertha Cromwell, noon to spend Thanksgiving in Dan- were not at all serious, consisting of

'MONITORSHIP' IN HIGH SCHOOL

automobilists but drivers of horses respected citizen of Valley township inson, Kausas, are visiting at the home ingly by a whole lot of misunder- profession, came to grief in this city addressed paid any attention to the Proceedings for a while promised to the county prison. spent Sunday with relatives in this ever, when all sides had been heard two prepossessing and stylishly dress- and the chief-of-police lost no time in Thomas Bennetts, of Lewistown, Miss Margaret Austin, of Scranton, spent Sunday at the home of her sis- to think the system employed was not Lowenstein conducted the women to ing two large pasteboard boxes cramter, Mrs. Frank Russell. so bad after all.

Mr. and Mrs. John Limberger and injury are as follows: During yester. daughter, of Sunbury, spent Sunday Fischer, who demanded to know by see, after which they purchased a of D. R. Eckman and others that of day forenoon Mr. Yorks, who lives at at the home of Charles Limberger, whose authority "self government" Mr. and Mrs. William Christian, and He denounced the system, as it had tion.

Paul Vannan arrived last evening eye on the school while the princip-Joseph Schwartz and daughters, al's back is turned. He denied the re-Ethel and Mary, of Plymouth, are port current in some quarters that spending Thanksgiving at the home of to one of the apartments at the rear. Rush Yerrick, West Mahoning street stated he in all instances does the mark which was wrapped in a careless and the justice's desk and fairly shricked showing that there was a vast amount > John Sandel, of Plymouth, is visit- of misrepresentation. Borough Superintendent Gordy, bein the high school very closely and a pair of coque feathers and two white form." will spend this afternoon in Blooms. success. He felt sure, he said, that under the system Professor Taylor, during the past five weeks, has been Mrs. Alice Beaver and Miss Emma doing better work than has been accomplished in the high school for ed them as articles missing from her crowd present and implored:

years past. Miss Sue Shindel arrived last even-On motion of Mr. Fischer it was Northumberland county board could iron ring is attached and which pro- evening to spend Thanksgiving at the use of the high school be granted to pointed out the two women that were producing the plump lady's cloak, a remain closed until December 10th.

Mrs. Charles Hauver returned last Treasurer M. H. Schram presented evening from a visit with friends in a statement of finances to date, which showed a net cash balance on hand of Miss Margaret Aten is visiting $13475.07.

The treasurer reported that the school districts of Liberty and Valley in Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jamesou, of Montour county and Gearhart town-Burnham, are spending Thanksgiving ship and Riverside borough in Northumberland county have not yet, after Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Voris, sons a period of ninety days, made a settle-Archibald and William, of Milton, are ment with the Danville school district spending Thanksgiving at the home of for non-resident pupils in the high the former's sisters, the Misses Mary school. The several districts in arrears represent 27 pupils. Arthur Prout is spending Thanks.

On motion it was ordered that unless the above named districts settle Miss Lengra Holtzheiser, of Milton with the Danville school district by merica is inadequately represented at his home on East Front street from there can be no difference of opinion. automobiles through the driveway down the long steep stairs. Now the arrived last evening to spend Thanks- the first of next month the treasurer should give each of them notice that unless payment is immediately made Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McClure, sons the pupils from these districts will be sent home.

The following members were pres ent: Burns, Orth, Harpel, Swartz, was learned that a package was also all of which were identified by Abram Miss Bertha Haring, of Philadelphia, will arrive today for a visit at Haring, Fish, Fischer, Trumbower, left at the Racket store. This package Rosenstein. The latter is still minus the home of Edward Wetzel, Front the Americus ball at Sunbury last Water rent . Ginn & Co Geo. W. Hendricks Thanksgiving day at Espy as the guest Isaac Pitman Sons. J. B. Cleaver ... George Jacobs and Harry Schoch, of O M Leniger Susquehanna university, Selinsgrove, C. H. Schmidt. Geo. F. Reifsnyder giving at the homes of their parents S. W. Armes Washington Hose Co. Smith Premier Co Roberts & Meck A S. Hartman Emery Shultz Friendship Fire Co. Peter H. Winters Ezra S. Haas. Trumbower & Werkheiser Joseph Lechner Silver Springs Quarry Co. E. W. Peters (com) 50.00 J. P. Bare (com) Mrs. Emma Pease left last evening Dauville Stove & Mfg Co.

The following bills were then approved for payment: James Heckendorn. U. S. Express Co. Mr and Mrs. E. W. Peters attended Adams Express Co Standard Gas Co. C. L. Eggert ...

Horses Passed Over His Body. Six-year-old John Monahan, son of parents, Mr. and Mrs. G Fred Smith, Thomas Monaban, West Mahoning street, had an experience vesterday afternoon that the won't forget for a while. Boudman left yesterday for a visit He was playing in the alley in the rear of the City hotel as a cab came Miss Alice Guest will leave today down that thoroughfare. The boy ran above named, also a resident of Valley for a visit with friends in Wilkes- straight into the horses, and was knocked down, while the animals pass-John Bateman, of Shamokin, spent ed over his body. The front wheel of yesterday with relatives in this city. the cab then caught him and had roll-Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes and ed him several feet when he was pull-

> G. Brown, who happened to be near-Mrs. Harry Savidge, of Bloomsburg, The lad was nearly overcome by his is visiting Miss Tillie James, Vine thrilling experience, and was removed to the office of Dr. Newbaker, where a few bruises about the month

STYLISH WOMEN

Two women, from all appearances cuse us of doing it. Can't you come up for discussion in the school board bold and expert shop lifters, who have up here. I'll meet you at the door." Tuesdoy eve and are now confined in appeal. But the subdued conversation and the subject had been talked over ed women entered the store of S. Low- visiting the hostelry to determine soberly a better feeling prevailed and enstein, Mill street, and requested to whether they might not have left some the majority of the members seemed be shown some ladies' cloaks. Miss goods there. He was rewarded by findthe rear end of the store where they med full of goods. The matter was brought up by Mr. examined the goods they desired to Some of the articles bore the name couple articles of small value and dis- Fred Howe. These gentlemen being was introduced into the high school. appeared. So much by way of introduc- summoned identified the whole batch town with County Commissioner C. Miss Lucretia Christian, of Blooms- been reported to him, especially the About 5 o'clock the women entered ed to D. R. Eckman. All the other burg, spent Sunday at the home of feature of one pupil marking for the the store of Abram Rosenstein and af- articles belouged to Howe and were as ter making a couple of trifling pur- follows: Suit of underwear, two pair Miss Jessie Russell, Vine street, is Professor Taylor was present and chases requested permission to leave a of garters, three neckties, one pair of rose to explain. He denied that the package there and left the store. The half hose, one pair of gloves, one system introduced was "self govern- young lady clerk did not like the ap- muffler and one shirt. ment" as that term is understood. His pearance of the women and instinc- About this time the justice inform-Mr. and Mrs. Irvin H. Vaunan, West practice, he said, is merely to appoint tively felt that something was wrong. ed the women that he would have to a pupil as a "monitor" to keep his Mr. Rosenstein was at supper and as hold them in three hundred dollars municated her suspicions.

these "monitors" do the marking, but ed by the appearance of the package, going to prison she bowed her head on investigation and Mr. Rosenstein own begged appealingly: store, which had not been sold, along sternly:

stock of goods. At this juncture Mrs. W. P. Angle, ordered that the teachers be paid for who was in her mother's store, notifi- bail." county institute and one-half of the ed the chief-of-police of what had oc-

the package

At this point the officer arrested them. The women both protested their innocence and affected to be thoroughly indignant at the accusation. Justice of the Peace Oglesby was called own to the store and on being assur ed by the women that they were innocent he asked them to give their and is well known. Neither of the certain whether their story was true. He was somewhat surprised to be informed that it was none of his business, the women justifying their reticence by informing the justice that they were not at all interested in knowing his name.

The two women were taken to the office of Justice Oglesby accompanied by the goods they had left at Rosenstein's. The ribbon and handkerchief were identified as articles missing from the Racket store. At this point it was produced and on being opened was found to contain a costly skirt, which was identified as belonging to Mr. Lowenstein, which had not been purchased.

At this juncture Mr. Lowenstein swag at other stores, which relieved 56.00 formally lodged information, charging them from the danger of being caught 2.25 the two women with theft. As the with the goods. In every instance .63 two accused would not divulge their they said they would call for the pack-15.00 names the warrant had to be a sort of ages later. 13.20 a "John Doe" affair, which set forth 5.69 substantially as follows:

That S. Lowenstein appeared before 14.15 November, 1906, at the store of S. 82.46 stout, wearing eye-glasses, and Sallie a hitch. 5.00 Roe, tall and slender, did steal, take The columns of smoke and steam isand carry away from said store on suring from the south side of the big 6.92 Mill street in first ward, borough of plant presented a familiar sight, which 194 25 Dauville, a black Panama skirt of the was welcome enough after the five value of ten dollars, property of the months' idleness. 2.80 | said Samuel Lowenstein.

7.50 During this process, "Sallie Roe." tall and slender, maintained a stolid about the mill so that everything now 1.25 indifference, and was most of the time is in good condition and ready for a 49.47 half concealed in the shadows in the long and steady run. 28 15 rear of the room. "Lizzie Doe," tall 18.44 and stout, however, adopted different tactics. She went swinging backwards 50.00 and forwards across the room, groan-that Mr. George B. Wright has been 599.88 ing, sobbing, wringing her hands and appointed District Superintendent of exclaiming, "Oh, my! Oh my!" The the United Telephone Company to room was half filled with men, and oc- succeed Mr. H. N. Daniell, who recasionally the grief-stricken woman signed on November first and went to stopped before some sympathetic face Scranton in the employ of another and in appealing voice begged to know telephone company. Mr. Wright it if "something could not be done for will be remembered was a former Dis

When the information was read and and resided in Sunbury. Since leaving the two women were asked to plead there he has been located at Bingthey both unhesitatingly and emphat- hamton, New York. He has many ically proclaimed their innocence in friends here who will extend him a these words:

"Why not guilty of course!" Samuel Lowenstein the first witness identified the skirt and said that it daughters left yesterday for a visit ed from his perilous position by Will was taken without being paid for.

peing paid for.
Miss Blanche Lowenstein identified the women arrested as the two who spending Thanksgiving in this city as B. P. Harris arrived yesterday after it was ascertained that his injuries had been in her father's store; she also identified the skirt as one taken from his store.

JOB PRINTING

The office of the AMERICAN being furnished with a large assortment of job letter and fancy type and job material generally, the Publisher announces to the public tnat he is prepared at all times to execute in the neatest manner.

JOB PRINTING Ofall Kinds and Description

At this juncture things began to look pretty dark for the women and Lizzie Doe, asking permission to use the 'phone called up the clerk of one of our hotels and in a voice that was low, pathetic and sweet withal said: "We are in a nice mess here Some goods have been stolen and they ac-did suffice to turn attention to the become stormy. After a while, how | About 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon place where the women were stopping of goods. Three pairs of hose belong-soon as he returned the clerk com- bail. At this there was a fresh outburst of grief, on the part of Lizzie Mr. Rosenstein was at once attract- Doe and as it became a clear case of done up in a great hurry. The situa- ing her hands on the justice's shouldtion seemed to be one that demanded er and lowering her face down near his opened the package and was surprised ''Can you not show us some mercy?' to find a cushion top from his own The justice refused to melt. He said not the way in which such articles who was getting ready to lead her to are sold, seemed to confirm suspicion. jail and begged for consideration. The The attention of Mrs. Douglas was chief, too, was a stranger to mercy. called to the feathers and she identifi. The woman then appealed to the

"Is there no one present-not one who will have mercy, who will go our

At this juncture Constable Young, curred. The chief walked down Mill who doesn't take any stock in sentistreet accompanied by Mrs. Angle who | ment, said there was enough of it and objects of suspicion. At the sight of very stylish affair, assisted her to get the officer they showed uneasiness and into it and then harded her over to seemed to clearly give themselves the the chief-of-police, after which he away. The officer, however, kept at a led Lizzie Doe out of the shadows and distance until the women re-entered linking his arm in hers led her out in-Rosenstein's store and inquired for to the hallway and on to durance vile, Chief Mincemover following with the other woman. An enormous crowd of boys accompanied the two couple up the street toward the bastile.

At the jail the women still stubbornly refused to revea! their identity. although there is a theory pretty we confirmed to the effect that one of the women is from a neighboring town two seems to be over 35 years of age. A short time after being committed the stouter and more nervous of the two women became hysterical and Dr. Shultz was summoned to administer to her. After the hearing another dress suit case, full of goods, was discovered, which had been left at Fallon's, but was later removed by another known party, who took orders from the women at the hearing. This batch of goods consisted of a night dress, and an assortment of ladies underclothing, two furs and a $15 skirt, which, it is thought, will yet be found. That the women are experienced in their line is evident from the plan they had adopted, of leaving their

Two Puddle Mills Resume.

The old puddle mill of the Reading 2.79 Justice of the Peace Oglesby and on Iron works started up yesterday mornoath declared that on the 27th day of ing and notwithstanding the long time that it was idle the machinery 35.50 Loweustein & Co., Lizzie Doe, tall, worked very nicely and ran without

Following the Fourth of July several weeks were spent in making repairs

New Superintendent.

It is stated, although unofficially, trict Superintendent for the company cordial welcome

Mrs. Foulk's Condition.

Mrs. Ralph Foulk, who has been undergoing treatment in the memorial Miss Verdilla Cashner identified the hospital at Johnstown, and whose conhandkerchiefs and ribbon as articles dition was reported as improving sevtaken from the Racket store without eral days ago, has suffered a change for the worse. Last Friday she underwent a severe operation, but is now doing as well as can be expected.

> Miss Helen Irland has returned from a visit with friends in Carbondale.