Danville, Pa., Feb. 14, 1907.

The fifty-ninth congress has only fifteen legislative days left before it expires by limitation at noon on March 4th. In that short time a vast amount of legislation must be crowded hurriedly through according to the pernicious custom which the short session has engrafted upon the federal government. Although congress has been in session since December 3 only one measure of large importance to the general public has been passed by both houses and approved by the president -the anti-campaign contribution bill. To be sure congress found time to in-$5,000 to $7,500 per annum.

From the present outlook there is serious danger of a repetition of the experiences undergone in the closing hours of the last session. At that time there was such an avalanche of bills, finally agreed to by both houses after long delay, that the enrolling clerks were simply overwhelmed and could not keep pace, thus delaying the adhappen again this year the only parliamentary resource will be to turn back the hands of the clock when noon of March 4 arrives.

The Modesty of Women Saturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treat ments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grew and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annogance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Rierce's Favorite Prescription of the cure tion write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses that the examinations and local treatments. There is no other mediate to the cure of the cure o modicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non - secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of pro-fessional endorsements of its ingredients will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free

HAVE ORATORIO Charles O. Skeer, well known in Bloomsburg musical circles, is reorganizing the Bloomsburg choral society and his plan is to present in the Spring Stainer's oratorio, "The Daughter of Jarius." It is expected that there will be a chorus of 60 voices chosen from frequent desire to Bloomsburg's best musical talent. The soloists will be from out of town and it is fully expected to have singers of wide reputation. Futhermore, it i hoped to have orchestral accompaniment making it the most elaborate musical production ever given in this section of the state. Mr. Skeer has been engaged in the work of reorgan izing the chorus for some weeks.
