Among local members of the national garad, this order is taken to mean that the proposed trip to Jamestown has been definitely abandoned. Most of the men are greatly disappointed.
The third brigade has been going to Mt. Gretna for the past fourteen years and every man who has been in the service any length of time hoped for a advantages, than because one of its promoters as a summer resort exercises undue influence in the councils of the national guard of Pennsylvania.

For this reason company commanders throughout the third brigade find grad afficulty in enlisting men. The talk of going to Jamestown was the means of bringing in many recruits,
