

DR. IRVING H. JENNINGS, DENTIST.

Office Hours: A. M. to 12 M., 104 Mill St., Danville, Pa. I. P. M. to 4 P. M.

SHULTZ, M. 425 Mill St., Danville, Pa. cases of the Stomach and Intestines a Specialty

ITEMS CONDENSED.

A thoroughly honest man is always a brave man.

The bearer of false witness against his neighbor ought to be in better business.

Millions of pounds sterling are now invested in rubber growing in Ceylon and millions more will be invested.

One of the fashionable clubs of New York has recently installed a stenographer and typist for the benefit of its members.

Secretary Metcalf, of the navy department, has once more resumed his official duties at Washington after his recent encounter with Father Neptune.

The latest news from Salvador is to the effect that the rebels have been defeated.

The class of 1907 at Vassar college bids fair to break the matrimonial record. At the class supper the other night it is said that every member except one admitted to an engagement.

Language may be a power for healing or for destruction.

The birds are not finding the spring beyond their enjoyment.

You can't tell what a prospective employe is going to do by his looks or his introductory words or actions.

The genuine critic always has an adequate remedy for every evil condemned.

The political campaign during this year promises to be slow.

Tolerance of the errors of others may not be demanded by our own failings, but it's a Christian virtue.

The most patient of people are beginning to look upon the existing spring as a nuisance.

Rhode Island has a hen that "sings like a bird." Evidently some poetic fellow has been listening to her lay.

Politicians and politicians in the United States have an evil reputation, but are they really worse than in other countries?

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, calamity converts a comparative quiet avenue into a babel of sound.

No inhabitant of the earth is more dangerous or more contemptible than the incendiary.

It costs 25 cents to be admitted to the Iowa penitentiary. But if you steal the price of admission you can go in free.

The severest critic of the movements of the firemen during the progress of a fire is the one who usually knows the least.

Hero isn't the only man who made a foolish promise to a vengeful woman.

Time always vindicates truth and exposes error.

The intimation that sewing is a lost art in the modern household is denied by a Chicago authority who declares that 30,000,000 spools of thread are annually purchased by the housewives of that city.

It has been established by the testimony of expert authorities that the tramp does much less walking than riding.

Eloquence is the flower of the heart's deep thought.

Public sentiment is not always right, but it is usually sincere.

The public schools are the colleges of the people.

The weather is simply waiting for a chance to annihilate a few more prophets.

For one thing, it is never well to listen to the remarks of the scandal-monger, much less to repeat his reckless assertions.

The value of the farm lands along the Union Pacific increased by more than $7,500,000,000 in the five years from 1900 to 1905.

There are no happier people in the world than the old couple who are journeying down life's hill arm in arm and well content.

It is quite true that the Fairbanks boom seems to be sound asleep. And yet there are those who suspect that it is much livelier than its foes imagine.

Children's Day programmes require great patience and much toil while the rewards are intangible.

Peter Yost, aged 77 years, of York, was overcome by the heat on Monday while standing on a high embankment and fell down the slope about twenty feet, sustaining injuries that, with his prostration, may prove fatal.

DEATH OF JAMES F. DOUGHERTY

James Francis Dougherty, the well-known third ward hotel man, died last evening after a six weeks' illness, of a complication of diseases.

Mr. Dougherty had been in a critical condition for several weeks, but at each crisis his remarkable constitution pulled him through. He was taken ill on May 3rd, with pleurisy. Later this became complicated with bronchitis and pneumonia. The deceased was conscious up to the last and passed away at 6:55 last evening.

James F. Dougherty was one of the best known men in Danville. He was a staunch Democrat and prominent in his party. For twelve years he represented the third ward in council. He was born in Danville, on East Market street, in 1852, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick C. Dougherty, and spent all his life in this city. For 28 years he had been in the hotel business, the past 12 years at the stand on Northumberland street, where his death occurred.

The deceased was prominent in the Knights of Macabees, and a member of the order at Mt. Morris, New York. He was the organizer of Dougherty tent, Knights of Macabees, of this city, the tent being named in his honor. He was also a member of the local aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Mr. Dougherty was a widower, his wife having preceded him to the grave several years ago. He is survived by one son, William C. Dougherty, three brothers also survive: W. C., of Wilkes-Barre; J. H., of Chicago and H. P. Dougherty, who has been residing with the deceased for the past eighteen months.

The funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed.

Curbing Is Nearly Completed.

The first stage in the paving operations on North Mill street—the curbing—will be finished by the middle of next week.

The work has been proceeding most satisfactorily, and T. L. Evans' Sons, the contractors, have now reached the Farmers' hotel with the curb. The curbing will extend only to the northern end of the grist mill. Remarkably large stones are being used for the curbing. None of the pieces are less than 8 feet, and a number of the big slabs are 16 feet and 6 inches long. As they have been proceeding the contractors have been laying only the straight curb, so that the intersections all remain to be installed.

D. J. Rogers, with a force of men is at work on the macadamization at the northern portion of the pave. Yesterday he had a traction engine and several teams on the job and was making good progress. He is at present cutting down the grade at the top of the grist mill hill.

At the Approach of the Fourth.

With but two weeks intervening between this and the Fourth of July, the time has about arrived for the annual admonition against the sale or use of the noisy articles of celebration before the appointed day.

Each year the small boy, and sometimes his elder brother, is anxious to begin the observance of the nation's birthday several days early and to continue the same several days after the Fourth has passed.

There is always more or less danger to life, limb and property in the fiery enthusiasm of the Fourth, so the borough fathers have seen fit to enact a law that fireworks and fire crackers may not be sold until the day preceding July 4th, and that they may not be exploded until the great day itself arrives.

Burgess Rogers, therefore, announces that the ordinance will this year, as in the past, be strictly enforced.

Hickey—Kinney.

Miss Mary Kinney, of Buffalo, New York, and Daniel Hickey, of this city, were united in marriage yesterday morning at 7 o'clock at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Rev. M. I. O'Reilly officiating.

The bride was until recently a nurse at the hospital for the insane, where the groom has for several months been employed in the blacksmith shop of the Reading Iron works. Miss Jennie Hickey sister of the groom was bridesmaid and Michael Hickey brother of the groom acted as groomsmen. The newly married couple left on the 10:19 D. L. & W. train for Buffalo, where they will make their home.

In Honor of Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hartman, of Derry township, gave a very delightful ice cream supper at their home on Tuesday evening in honor of their guests. Among those present were Mrs. Sara Ware, Mrs. Robert Oswald and children, Kathryn and Robert, of Allentown; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hollibaugh, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hartman, Mrs. Mary Thomas, Charles W. Dyer, Alonzo C. Phillips, Miss Fanny Hollibaugh and Master Alva Hollibaugh.

ST. HUBERT'S COMMENCEMENT

The second annual commencement exercises at St. Hubert's school took place last evening in St. Hubert's hall and consisted of a finely rendered program followed by the serving of refreshments.

In the class are 15 boys and 20 girls. There was a good sized audience present. The program follows:

Welcome Address, Agnes Meintzer Gedicht, (Die Versuchung), Anthony Basler National Song, Chorus Recitation, (The Colored Girl), Carrie Jones Dialogue, Six Boys Have Courage to Say "No", Chorus Recitation, (A Stupid Mistake), Edith Lechner Solo, (Kissing Papa Thru' the Telephone), Anastasia Mayan Little Brownies, Our Little Boys Recitation, (A Boy's King), Anthony Lechner Recitation, (The Mother's Strike), Clara Reeder Doll Drill, Our Little Girls Recitation, (A Boy's Opinion), Charles Pehourae Gedicht, (Die Traene der Mutter), Bluma Basler Milk Maid's Drill, Thirteen Girls Recitation, (Little Chatterbox), Juliet Jones Valectory, Claud Basler Good Night, Our Little Ones

The program will be repeated this evening and at a matinee this afternoon.

A Crusade on Kerchew.

That detestable preparation, Kerchew, has been put under the ban by the authorities of this town, and from now on any person using the concoction, or even selling it, will do so at the risk of "settling up."

Yesterday Burgess Rogers issued orders that any one detected selling or distributing Kerchew should be arrested, and Chief-of-Police Mincemeyer stated that he would carry out the order to the letter.

The use of the stuff, which at first was taken as a sort of a poor joke, has come, with the increasing prevalence of its use, to be an abomination. One is not safe from it anywhere. In the stores, barber shops, restaurants—in fact anywhere that the fool killer can get—there you will find it. Monday evening the practice reached the climax when an audience in one of the moving picture shows was compelled to leave in the midst of a performance on account of the stuff.

Care of the Children.

Words of President Roosevelt in one of his recent speeches at Jamestown deserve to be heeded everywhere.

"As regards children," he said, "it is essential to look after their physical as well as their mental training. We cannot afford to let children grow up ignorant; and if they are sent to school they cannot, while young, also work hard outside without detriment physical, mental and moral. There is urgent need for the health authorities to increase their care over the hygienic conditions and surroundings of children of tender years and especially to supervise those in the schools."

"It is a good thing to try to reform bad children, to try to build up degenerate children; but it is an even better thing to try to keep healthy in soul, body and mind those children who are now sound, but who may easily grow up unsound if no care is taken of them."

"The nation's most valuable asset is the children; for the children are the nation of the future. All people alive to the nation's need should join together to work for the moral, spiritual and physical welfare of the children in all parts of our land. I am glad that there has been founded a national society of public school hygiene, and I wish it and all its branches well in every way."

Death of a Well Known Lady.

Mrs. Henry Deightmiller, of West Hemlock township, died Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock after a short illness.

The deceased was a widely known woman of kindly disposition. She had many friends who will sincerely mourn her death. She had been ill only since last Friday. She was aged about 63 years and is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. Hannah Mitchell, of Philadelphia; William, of Pittsburgh, Charles, of West Hemlock; Mrs. Ada Fry, of Valley, Mrs. Lloyd Dildine, of Washingtonville; Mrs. Sallie Styer, of Berwick; Maggie, Nellie and Ella, who reside at home and John.

The funeral will take place Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from the home. Interment will be made at New Columbia, where the deceased was a member of the Lutheran church.

Fire Axes for Danville Laddies.

The four firemen's axes, the purchase of which was recently authorized by council, arrived in town yesterday, and are beauties.

The axes were procured through the Welliver Hardware company, from Lippencott & company, of Pittsburgh. The axe and handle are painted a bright red and present a fine appearance. After the axes are inspected by the fire committee of council next Friday night they will be distributed, one to each company.

APPEAL TAKEN IN DIETRICH CASE

An appeal has been taken to the supreme court at Philadelphia in the case of Commonwealth vs. Peter Dietrich.

A writ of certiorari was received at the prothonotary's office Tuesday and is made returnable on the first Monday of March, 1908. At this time the paper books will be presented by the prosecution and the defense and arguments will be made by counsel for both sides. Later the supreme court will decide whether or not a new trial will be granted. Meanwhile Peter Dietrich will remain at the Eastern penitentiary unless a motion for bail is made and granted.

Refrigerator Thieves Busy.

Stealthy thieves, of the genus refrigerator or back porch variety, have been getting busy with a vengeance lately. Within a few days no less than four homes in the first ward have been visited by the midnight marauders.

Monday night the thieves paid a visit to the home of ex-Sheriff George Maier, Ferry street. The first intimation Mr. Maier had of the theft was yesterday morning, when preparations were being made for breakfast. It was found that the refrigerator had been thoroughly cleaned out.

It was on Saturday night, however, that the prime raids were made, when the homes of Reese Edmondson, corner of Front and Pine streets, and the residences of Dr. Patten and W. C. Boyer, East Market street, were robbed of the large stock of edibles that had been procured for over Sunday. At all of the places the refrigerators were on the rear porch, and the thieves seemed to have but little trouble in accomplishing their purpose.

One of the gentlemen whose refrigerators suffered yesterday stated that he had a pretty straight tip as to who the guilty ones are. He believes that it is the same man or party of men who have operated in each case. He said that he was morally sure that he could lay his hands on the men, and all that he lacked was the positive proof.

It is now claimed that the revolver found Friday is the weapon with which Dietrich did the shooting, and inasmuch as it had but one chamber empty the find may have a bearing on two very important contentions of the Commonwealth in the several trials. If, as will likely be contended, Dietrich did the shooting with the weapon found on Friday, then Jones was not killed with a revolver for which it was necessary to go into "the other room." Also, if the shooting was done with the recently discovered weapon, then there were not two shots fired, but only one, as the revolver had but one empty chamber. Both of these conclusions, if true, would lessen the possibility of premeditation.

FIND AFFECTS DIETRICH'S CASE

An interesting and rather startling discovery has been made that will likely have bearing of some consequence on the case of Peter Dietrich, who was charged with the killing of "Corky" Jones, and who has undergone trial for the third time in the courts of Montour county.

Recently Dietrich gave to Adam W. Mayan, of this city, the power of attorney, to take charge of his property. On Friday, Mr. Mayan, with Theodore Doster and Fred Mayan, were at Dietrich's hotel appraising the goods.

In the bar room, on a shelf behind the bar, they found a revolver. The weapon was in a cigar box and had four chambers loaded and in one an empty shell. It was not a self-cocking revolver.

At the trial two revolvers figured in the testimony. One for which it was contended by the Commonwealth, Dietrich had gone into "the other room" a short time before the shooting; and another which was in the bar room all during the evening and which upon examination later was pronounced unloaded.

It is now claimed that the revolver found Friday is the weapon with which Dietrich did the shooting, and inasmuch as it had but one chamber empty the find may have a bearing on two very important contentions of the Commonwealth in the several trials. If, as will likely be contended, Dietrich did the shooting with the weapon found on Friday, then Jones was not killed with a revolver for which it was necessary to go into "the other room." Also, if the shooting was done with the recently discovered weapon, then there were not two shots fired, but only one, as the revolver had but one empty chamber. Both of these conclusions, if true, would lessen the possibility of premeditation.

Thirteen Innings—Danville Lost.

After thirteen hard fought innings at DeWitt's park Saturday afternoon Springfield scored the winning run in the second game of the season.

It was a hard loss for the locals, and throughout the thirteen innings they played with a vim and determination that deserved a better result. But it was a good game, full of clean fast ball, so nobody kicked even if Danville didn't win.

Springfield played an errorless game and this coupled with the twirling of Covaleskie, who had seventeen strikeouts and allowed Danville only four hits, were the winning attributes that the visitors had up their sleeves. The score:

Table with 5 columns: Name, R, H, O, A, E. Danville total: 1 4 37 20 5. Springfield total: 2 8 39 14 0.

Invitation in Each Envelope.

The employes at the Danville Foundry & Machine company's plant were very agreeably surprised Saturday on receiving their pay envelopes to find in each one a cordial invitation to the social to be given in their honor at the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday, June 27th at 8 o'clock.

During the past winter noon meetings have been held at the shop every Thursday and the social will be a fitting close to the season's work. It will be an event of more than usual interest as A. F. Hoffsommer, State field secretary, will be present. W. J. Rogers, Miss Margaret Ammerman and the ladies' mandolin club are down for numbers on the program that is to be rendered. The ladies auxiliary will serve refreshments.

In Honor of Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Gaskins entertained a party of young folks at their home on Church street Monday evening in honor of the fifth birthday of their daughter, Bernice. A very pleasant evening was spent after which refreshments were served.

Those present were: Lottie May Wintersteen, Elmira Moyer, Hattie Heller, Trace Wolf, Edith Jenkins, Helen Gaskins, Bernard Howery, Paul Howery. The party was chaperoned by Misses Nelle Howery, Mary Kreiger, Katherine Moyer and Mary Heller.

Picknicked at Indian Run.

The following party of young people enjoyed an outing at Indian Run park yesterday: Misses Florence Price, Bertha Cloud, Marion Jones and Marguerite Evans; Messrs. Edward Price, William Jones, Thomas Foltz and James Kase.

A Baby Boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Hoffman are the parents of a bouncing baby boy born on Wednesday morning.

KICKED BY HORSE-- TERRIBLY INJURED

Ernest Gademan, of Rustown, was kicked by a vicious horse Monday afternoon. He suffered injuries of a terrible nature, and now lies at his home hovering between life and death.

Mr. Gademan is a man of about 33 years and somewhat of an invalid. He owns a vicious horse, which he uses on but very few occasions. Yesterday there was work to be done in the fields and a temporary lack of horses made it necessary to use the vicious animal.

Mr. Gademan managed the beast successfully during the morning, and was bringing his team into the stable for dinner. As he was putting the horse in the stable the animal wheeled and with terrific force kicked Mr. Gademan just over the hip and below the ribs, the toe of the horse's hoof taking effect.

Mr. Gademan fell to the ground, and, in the most excruciating pain, was unable to rise. His plight was soon discovered and he was carried into the house. Dr. N. M. Smith, of South Danville, was summoned, and in little less than an hour the physician was at the injured man's side.

Dr. Smith found the injuries to be of an extremely critical nature. There were internal hemorrhages that indicate lacerations of the kidneys, beside the probability of other internal injuries.

At sight of the auto Mr. Heller's horse became terrified and plunging to one side, collided with the buggy of Frank Boyer, Jr., which was standing in front of Paules' drug store.

In Mr. Boyer's buggy was his son, Irvin, a lad of 6. The impact was of such force that the boy was thrown over the dash board, and falling upon the horse and thence to the paved street, he suffered severe injuries that for a while were thought to be of a critical nature. After he had recovered somewhat from the shock it was found that the extent of his casualties were a badly wrenched back and a scraped arm.

In the other buggy Miss Yeager suffered the only harm. The top of the Boyer buggy struck her in the face, causing a laceration of the lip and a slight dislocation of the nose.

The car was numbered 5311, and from the "List of licenses, issued to operators of motor vehicles by the State highway department," it was ascertained that the owner is Charles K. Eagle, of Shamokin.

When the accident occurred the car was stopped and the occupants went to the aid of the injured persons. The operator was not held as he was running his machine entirely within the limits of the law.

Iron Moulders' Successful Picnic.

The third annual iron moulders' picnic, held at DeWitt's park Saturday, was pronounced the most successful, both socially and financially, of any of the outings held by the union.

The game between Springfield and Danville and the dancing, both afternoon and evening furnished those in attendance with plenty of amusement, while the big crowd totally depleted the refreshment stands several times during the day. The event was not marred by any accident.

In the morning the moulders, sixty strong and headed by the Mechanicsville band, marched to the park, after parading the principal streets of the town. The hacks were kept busy all day transporting people to and from the park, and it was late in the evening when the last of the pleasure seekers had returned.

Pulled Boy Out of Pond.

The iron workers at the Danville rolling mill yesterday afternoon effected a thrilling rescue, when with ropes they pulled a boy from the swampy pond just opposite the mill.

The boy, whose name could not be learned, had built a raft, and was navigating his vessel, when it sunk. The boy tried to wade ashore, but finding himself unable to make headway on the muddy and treacherous bottom of the old pond, he became terrified and was wallowing about with the mud and water up to his arm pits when his agonizing cries were heard by the men at the mill.

They quickly procured ropes and hauled the lad from the pond. As soon as his feet touched the shore he was fast as his legs would carry him.

Birthday Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Pursel Hummer, South Danville, gave a party Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Josephine's 15th birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent playing games, after which refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Elsie Riffel, Bertha Rudy, Lillian Treas, Violet Pegg, Ruth Kase, Bertella Wolverton, Elsie Fetterman, Pearl Roat, Annie Kinn, Mable Kimbel, Helen Mills, Nellie Smith, Helen Savidge, Bertha Ammerman, Carrie Huber, Nora Unger, Carrie Woodruff, Mae Hummer, Mary Hummer, Alice Roat, Edith Roat; Messrs. James Mills, Charles Kear, Arthur Reese, Earl Treas, Heber Treas, Clyde Shannon, Frank Gearhart, Joseph Hummer, Reed Smith, Harold Savidge, George Nice, George Hummer, Chester Hummer, Walter Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roat.

Death of Earl Keiser.

Earl Keiser of West Milton, died Sunday night at the Williamsport hospital of lung trouble. The deceased was twenty-six years of age. He was a brother of Ammon Keiser, operator at the D. L. & W. station, this city.