PURE FOOD LAW IN EFFECT

State Dairy and Food Commissioner Foust announces that on July 1 the enforcement of the new pure food law will begin in every county in Pennsylvania and that the department is fully prepared to begin a thorough inspection. All of the agents of the department were called to Harrisburg Thursday and given final instructions regarding the new law.

The commissioner sent out more than 30,000 bulletins giving the features of the new law, the chief of which permits the retailer and jobber to place in evidence a guarantee of the manufacturer that the goods are as represented and conform to the State and Federal standards of purity. In case of a dealer being able to produce such a guarantee after his goods are found below standard the commissioner will certify the facts to the National Department of Agriculture. Information was also given in 600 newspapers of the State of the same effect, and the commissioner says that if any dealers have failed to obtain the guarantee it is their own fault.

Reunion Of The Lutherans. The program has been arranged for the seventh annual convention of the Susquehanna Lutheran Reunion association, which will be held at Island Park, Sunbury, Thursday, July 10, and Friday, July 11. The program is very favorable and no doubt will eclipse the efforts of former years.

The officers of the association are: President, Rev. J. M. Reimsnyder, of Milton; secretary, Rev. C. R. Botsford, of Berwick; treasurer, Rev. G. W. Genzler, of Selinsgrove. These officers with Rev. To Whom Does The Calf Belong. Does a calf born of a cow rented with a farm belong to the owner or the tenant? This very interesting question has come before Justice Blanchard, of the Supreme Court, and he says it will take him a week or more to decide it, says a New York dispatch.

Alvin Doughty rented a farm near Parkville, Sullivan county, New York, from a New York City man. It wasn't much of a farm; some called it a "near farm," but it had on it a stock of agricultural implements and several cows.

One of these cows last spring gave birth to a calf, and when Doughty moved from the farm he took the calf along, since both its parents did not belong to the owner of the farm, James H. Marsh.

Marsh seized the calf and placed it in the barn with its mother. Then Doughty got out a writ of replevin, and that is the way the case came before Justice Blanchard. Farmers up in Sullivan county are anxiously awaiting the judicial finding.

The Frog Season. So vague is the new law governing the frogging season considered that aldermen in York have given different decisions regarding it. In response to a request State Fish Commissioner W. E. Meehan has decided that the open season extends from July 1st to November 1st.

CAPTURED AN AMERICAN EAGLE

Arthur Cook, son of County Commissioner Charles W. Cook, on Friday enjoyed the novel distinction of capturing a bald eagle alive. In company with his father he was driving into Danville and was passing through Warner's hollow near the slope when he spied the majestic bird among the water plants evidently in pursuit of prey.

The young man at once saw that there was a possibility of capturing the eagle and prevailed upon his father to hold up the horse while he made the attempt. Picking up a couple of stones he stole within easy range and proved his skill by hitting the big bird the first time he tried. The eagle endeavored to fly, but, wounded in one of its wings, was unable to rise.

The young man waded into the water and succeeded in capturing the eagle, which he dragged to the roadside, later placing it in the buggy. The big bird, although young, measured some four feet from tip to tip of wings, and was pretty hard to handle. As may be imagined it was not a pleasant companion in the buggy and it required the united strength of the two men to keep it in subjection.

Arriving at the farm of William Churm a little further on they were glad to get rid of the eagle and presented it to the farmer, who imprisoned it in his corn crib. During Saturday and Sunday the bald eagle was the object of much curiosity, as it was the first time that many persons ever had an opportunity of viewing the great king of birds.

While imprisoned at Mr. Churm's the eagle devoured a chicken, which was thrown into the corn crib giving evidence of a most voracious appetite.

Installation of Officers.

The installation of officers took place on Monday night at Montour Castle, No. 186, Knights of the Golden Eagle. The installing officer was F. M. Herington, district grand chief, assisted by grand castle officers. The officers were installed as follows: Past Chief, B. C. McLain; noble chief, John Foulk; vice chief, Herbert Hendricks, high priest, Charles Wagner; venerable hermit, B. F. Foulk; sir herald, Harry Moyer; esquire, Roy VanGilder; esquire, George W. Robinson; first guard, Clark Rishel; second guard, George Gulliver; worthy chamberlain, William F. Bell; worthy bard, Dallas Hammer; trustee, John G. Vastine.

There was a large attendance considering the humidity of the weather. It was a most enjoyable occasion and the interest manifested was due to the fact that an invitation was received and accepted from the Montour Castle to join them on July 4, in the participation of their annual picnic at Columbia park.

The members of Montour Castle with their wives and families will have the opportunity to enjoy a day's outing with the brothers up the river. The members will bear badges only and will proceed to the park by way of the D. & B. trolley.

As It Is Viewed By The Public.

The news that Borough Superintendent Gordy had resigned his position called forth many expressions of regret Monday. The view generally taken was that Mr. Gordy should be worth just as much in Danville as his services would command elsewhere. It is pretty clear that in view of Mr. Gordy's attainments and the excellent services he has rendered our schools the school board would be sustained by the public if it should place his salary at a figure that would induce him to remain.

Tomato Crop a Failure.

Farmers from nearby localities say that the tomato crop this year will be so short that it can practically be considered a failure. The cold weather of May and June, while it did not actually freeze the plants put out in the fields, lowered their vitality so much that the fiercely hot sun of the past few days has caused a great part of them to wither.

Personal Work.

Sermons and discourses from the pulpit are out of date. They must give way before a new era of "personal work." This is the belief of the Rev. Johnstone Myers, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church, expressed before divinity students at the University of Chicago.

Snake in The Kitchen.

Mrs. Nast, residing at the lower end of Tharptown, discovered a copperhead snake, about two feet long, coiled in the kitchen of her home Saturday morning, the dangerous reptile being frightfully close to her two small children.

Picking up the children she placed them in the stairway and with a fire shovel and poker killed the reptile.

ARGUMENT IN EQUITY CASE

A session of court was held on Saturday with his Honor Judge Evans and Associates Blea and Welliver on the bench.

An argument was held on the equity case of John B. Smith vs. Peter S. Moser et al. It will be remembered that some time ago a preliminary injunction was allowed restraining the defendants from pumping water out of lime stone quarries in Derry township, the allegation being that land belonging to the plaintiff contiguous to the quarries was damaged by the water.

Hon. R. S. Ammerman moved that the injunction be dissolved and in a lengthy argument adduced a number of reasons of a technical nature. Hon. H. M. Hinckley contended that the exceptions were without weight and that the whole procedure was regular and legal.

Judge Evans made the following order relating to the case: "And now June 29, 1907, rule is granted to show cause why the preliminary injunction should not be continued. Returnable Saturday, July 6, 1907, at 10 o'clock, a. m."

In re E. B. Witman vs. Mina Witman a subpoena in divorce was allowed by the court. In re the estate of William Sall the petition of the committee to sell real estate was granted and sale ordered as prayed for.

The bond of Charles Geringer, guardian of Florence, Margaret and Mary Hannah Geringer was approved by the court.

Elk's Tooth a Conuention Issue.

A royal battle is expected to occur at the coming convention of Elks in Philadelphia next month over the question of prohibiting the members of that order from wearing as badges the teeth of the noble animal from which the order takes its name. The chief opponent of the practice is Grand Exalted Ruler Judge Henry Melvin, who aroused over the wanton slaughter of the animals, has sent to every Elks' lodge in the country a stirring appeal for the unprotected elks of the wild, and hopes that enough delegates will be instructed to vote for his measure at the convention to make it a law.

Elk teeth are becoming very scarce and the possessor of a fine specimen of this kind considers himself fortunate. The price of a fine tooth is such as to induce the hunting of elks for no other purpose than to get their teeth.

The veterans of Goodrich Post No. 22, G. A. R. at their regular meeting Monday night adopted the following resolutions:

During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. For sale by all dealers.

Goodrich Post Adopts Resolutions.

Whereas, Gov. Edwin S. Stuart has seen fit to veto the Cochran Soldiers' Service Pension Bill which was almost unanimously passed by both branches of the Pennsylvania legislature recently adjourned; and whereas said bill in our opinion was a just and honorable and deserving one for the reason that without any pauperizing sections it recognized the honest obligation of the State of Pennsylvania to her Civil War veterans.

Resolved, That to Hon. A. K. McClure we profrond the following arithmetical problem to be solved by the rule of proportion viz: comparing the $10,000 annual salary of clerk of the Supreme Court of Penna. with the $73.00 in gold average annual salary of a private soldier in the war for the preservation of the Union; is the additional compensation provided by the Cochran Service Pension Bill for the benefit of the Survivors of Pennsylvania's Civil War Veterans excessive or not? Further

Resolved, That a more substantial appreciation of our services in lieu of so much sympathetic appreciation will be much more gratefully appreciated by us.

W. M. HEDDENS, B. B. BROWN, JACOB SLOOP, Committee.

REAL DAUGHTER OF REVOLUTION

The Bellefonte Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has discovered a "real daughter" in the person of Mrs. Mary Ann Allison Rishel, of Clintondale, and by special invitation she was duly received as a member of the Bellefonte Chapter at a special meeting, and at once pensioned by the organization. There are only six real Daughters of the Revolution living in the entire State of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Rishel is the daughter of Martin Allison, who was born in Ireland in 1750. He came to this country with his parents shortly after the breaking out of the Revolution, and in 1777 he joined the Continental army and fought to the close of the war in 1783. He was married three times and Mrs. Rishel is the next to the youngest child by his third wife.

Her half brother served in the war of 1812, and her son fought in the war of the rebellion.

Mrs. Rishel, despite her more than 86 years, is still in good health and quite active. She has received from the National Society of the D. A. R. a golden spoon, the mark of honor and recognition conferred only on real Daughters of the Revolution.

Mrs. Rishel is an aunt of Mrs. W. S. Hamlin, of West Third street, Bloomsburg; and the half brother referred to is Mrs. Hamlin's father.

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Danville People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined by backache, head aches, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy Doan's Kidney Pills.

Henry Collins, moulder, of 445 N. 6th St., Bloomsburg, Pa., says: "For years I suffered with kidney complaint, backache and bladder weakness. I used all kinds of remedies but none of them seemed to have any beneficial effect. The secretions from the kidneys gave me constant annoyance and bothered me night and day. My back became so weak and painful across the loins that I could scarcely get about at times. I have had to lay off from work time after time. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in the papers and very highly recommended by people that I knew. I obtained a box and used them as directed. I never had anything act so promptly in my life. The first box cured me of the pain and weakness. I kept on taking the remedy until I had used four boxes when the bladder weakness left me. I have had no trouble with the kidney secretions for at least two years. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worth their weight in gold."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Coldest June on Record.

The weather bureau at Washington Sunday night announced that the month just closed was the coolest June in the last thirty-five years, and that the same is probably true of New England, the Middle Atlantic states and the lower lake region. In other parts of the United States the temperatures were also lower than usual. The bureau's official statement says in explanation:

"As in previous cold June's the distribution of atmospheric pressure over the Canadian maritime provinces and the North Atlantic was such as to cause a predominance of ocean winds in northeastern districts and a blockade of the continental winds either in the Ohio valley or off the New England coast."

A Woman Inventor.

Mrs. F. Brown, of Sunbury, has invented a machine to save the lives of shipwrecked victims. It is a combination swimming and life-preserving contrivance, to be attached to the body and so constructed that any person can operate it to keep afloat and propel himself in the water. It combines a kind of buoy support to enable the user to rest up between efforts to reach a place of safety.

Mrs. Brown is a woman of an inventive turn of mind, having several useful inventions to her credit.

OUTING WAS A FINE SUCCESS

The outing of the missionary workers under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary society of the Grove Presbyterian church held in the grove around the latter pleasant house of worship Friday proved a very successful affair, quite as enjoyable as the occasion was novel.

About 150 delegates were present, representing, in addition to the ladies of the Grove Presbyterian church, the Woman's Missionary societies of Berwick, Bloomsburg, Orangeville and Mooresburg. The visitors arrived between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock. Previous to that hour the ladies of the Grove church might have been seen wending their way to the church accompanied with baskets containing dishes and good things to eat. Tables were tastefully spread in the grove and by the time the visitors put in an appearance everything was ready for dinner.

The meal, through the combined efforts of the ladies of the Grove church, was a most sumptuous affair and proved a feature of the day's outing second only to the excellent addresses which followed.

About two o'clock the assemblage retired into the church, where the addresses were delivered. The first address was by Mrs. Bailey, State synodical president, who selected as her subject, "Service for Christ." She is a pleasing speaker and her remarks were most convincing. She presented her discourse under the different heads of "Holy Service," "Joyous Service," "Satisfied Service," "Reward of Service," "Whole-Hearted Service" and "Willing Service," explaining and illustrating each by passages of Scripture and experiences from religious life.

Mrs. Bailey was followed by Miss Rupert and Miss Frick. Miss Rupert is a home missionary from New Mexico and her remarks related to the school for girls at Santa Fe, of which institution she is a teacher. Her address was most edifying and proved a great inspiration. Miss Rupert was formerly from Bloomsburg. The village of Rupert was named in honor of her grandfather.

OLD CHART DISCOVERED

An old chart has been discovered showing the location of graves in the cemetery on Bloom street, which just at this time is proving very valuable. The time stained old sheet was found among the personal effects of the late Lewis Hoffman, for many years sexton of the church to which the cemetery belonged.

In view of the probability that the old burial ground will be condemned there is more or less activity among those who have relatives buried there, seeking first to locate the nearly obliterated graves and then to arrange for the removal of the remains, should the cemetery be abandoned.

The difficulty, however, has been to locate many of the graves. This next to impossible task has been rendered somewhat easier by the old chart, which is in the possession of Charles V. Amerman, Esq. Several citizens who contemplate removing bodies were out in the cemetery with the chart yesterday, and although it is deficient in some respects, the persons were surprised to discover that in each case in which they were interested the chart proved a valuable aid and that through it graves were found whose exact location before had always been an enigma.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years

G. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. Danville Young Lady Heard From.

In this year's graduating class at the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, is Madge Books Sanders, formerly of Danville, who has successfully completed her examinations and thus become one of the alumni of America's oldest and largest music schools. The diploma of this institution, founded in 1853 by Dr. Eben Tourjee, signifies that a student has made a serious study of music with a view to a professional career in some branch of the art—conditions which Miss Sanders has satisfactorily fulfilled. Her class has just been celebrating the events of Commencement week which are of the same general character as those of any of the great eastern universities. The Conservatory had an enrollment of upwards of 200 students during the past school year. The graduating class numbered 72.

Some half a dozen elk calves prove a great attraction at Billmeyer's game preserve just at present. The little elk are about the size of an ordinary calf and in general appearance are little different from a fawn. As is natural in the case of all wild animals born in captivity they are objects of great curiosity and no one visits the park nowadays without visiting the spot where the elk calves may be seen.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

Borough Surveyor G. F. Keefer, accompanied by Superintendent of Construction P. J. Keefer and Street Commissioner E. S. Miller, is making a tour of the third and fourth wards for the purpose of obtaining data to be used in making a map to show the exact location of the intakes to the new sewer in their relation to the various dwellings that are to be connected.

When the sewer was constructed each of these spots was marked and at this time are mostly found without much difficulty. To provide for the future when the marks shall have disappeared the map is planned, which will be carefully preserved. By its aid the owner of a property who wishes to make connection with the sewer will have no difficulty in finding the location of the intake.

Advertisement for Ayer's Hair Sick? That's too bad! We had noticed it was looking pretty thin and rough of late, but naturally did not like to speak of it. By the way,
