VOL. 53-NO. 31

DANVILLE, PA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1907

ESTABLISHED IN 1855

DR. IRVING H. JENNINGS,

Office Hours A. M. to 12 M. 1 P. M. to & P. M.

104 Mill St., Danville, Pa.

C. SHULTZ, M.

ITEMS CONDENSED.

Regret for past folly should take the

Much of the stress and roar of modern life is unnecessary.

The prudent citizen will guard most carefully his weakest part.

The happiest people are those who rest one day out of seven.

Several gentlemen who had something to do with the building and furnishing of the State Capitol are believed to be convinced that this is a good year to take their vacations in

If seagulls can talk, as that Chicago "What are the wild waves play called "The Sins of Society," the Washington Post opines that it will be found "much too long."

Friendship may have the true ring, but isn't the kind of ring that is calculated to satisfy the girl who is in Men accuse women of being vain, yet a man seldom misses an opportunity to look in a mirrior.

Attend to your own affairs and you will have no time to butt into the affairs of your neighbors.

From the spinster's point of view, a marries a rich widow.

Patriotic sentiment to be worth any thing should lead its possessors to obey the laws and defend them. The abstemious man is likely to get over the summer much better than his more reckless neighbor. There is apparently no good reason why competent workmen should be out of employment now. The person who makes no mistakes is entirely too good for this world. Progress may occasionally look like retrogression to the superficial observ-

The modern street car is a great blessing to the average resident of a

It is a good thing to go out and meet men and women face to face.

The man who knows himself as he really is, is not always pleased with the acquaintance.

It requires a very hard-hearted person to bear false witness against a Self-examination is a useful and should be a frequent occupation.

Again comes the rumor from Washington that the government is going to move on E. H. Harriman and his once grappled with him. Reilly was purchased $2,500,000 worth of jewels throwing down his antagonist. A mo-

National bank of Mexico City will add to its present capital stock the sum of $9,000,000 in the near future.

He who does not read with attention is liable to fall into many blunders. The boy who knows how to swim acquires an art that may be extremely useful some day.

The cricket on the hearth is the awakener of superstitious fears.

Eloquence of the genuine sort comes directly from the heart and appeals to

A copy of the constitution of the Armenia Hunchakist society, pledging Saturday morning he stuffed his pockits members to assassination has been ets full of biscuits. Soon after he took cantured in New York gathering in force at Casablanca, the out of sight of the attendants, when he purpose being to protect Europeans made a bee line for the woods.

from massacre.

more, bequeathed Cardinal Gibbons $6,000 to be used in the erection of a church in some town in Maryland. The United States has the largest foreign population. Argentina, where twelve out of every 100 are foreigners, ants of the world could stand comfortably in the space of eighty square miles.

INSANE PATIENT

Unrest and a desire to escape seem occur on Saturday, surpassing the others in sensational features and culminating in a capture at South Danville in which the officers and citizens of town participated.

Shortly after seven p. m. a west bound freight pulled into South Danville, where it stopped for some time, Standing near the station were Nathan McElrath, William Hartman and Sidney Reiley, young men living on Iron street, this city, who contemplated taking a trip to Sunbury. When the freight slowed up they noticed an odd looking individual on one of the cars whom they judged to be a lunatic. He wore the regulation overalls distinguished by red stripes and his whole appearance indicated that he was an escaped patient.

Messrs. McElrath, Hartman and professor says they can, perhaps they will kindly anwser that long-standing in overalls, however, was wary and no guilty.

Messrs. Mestrati, Hartman and detection examination of winds and the same and the defendant entered a plea of not ance below the elbow producing a sooner had the three young men gotten on the car than he jumped off on It is said the report of the Capitol the opposite side. The young fellows Commission will spare nobody. That following him jumped off on the same is the kind of a report the people want. side, when the man took to his heels A London dramatist having written and dashed off down along the rail-had a patient to deal with the young men started in pursuit. They were good sprinters, but the patient, bent on securing his liberty, was a better one. Only once or twice did they come near enough to stand any chance of capturing him, but the man becoming for the time being a perfect maniac, by hurling stones and gravel, held his pursuers at bay. Nathan McElrath received a blow in the eye, which completely knocked him out. Fighting des perately and gaining a little now and mercenary wretch is a bachelor who little then the man led his pursuers as far as the silk mill, where he escaped into a cornfield.

At this juncture a telephone call was sent over to town for the police. Chief Mincemoyer in responding was just in time to catch the trolley car, which gave him a fine lift. It was a few minutes after the car left that officer Voris w 3 reached. The latter officer fortunately ran across Dr. Krickbaum of the hospital staff and the two jump considerable crowd present, while excitement was at a high pitch.

The patient, it was learned, was in time the insane man by his resistance and savage mood had inspired a good in which he was concealed.

Chief Mincemover went down to dislodge him while officer Voris and some others took up their position on the opposite side. Alarmed by the approach of the chief the insane man made a dash up the river bank, where associates under the Elkins anti-rebate scarcely a match for the frantic patient at first and probably would have ment later Dr. Krickbaum came up It is announced that the Mexican and the patient was secured. He was placed on the trolley car and accompanied by Dr. Krickbaum and Mincemoyer he was taken back to the

The runaway patient's name is Barber; he is a young man and was committed from Bradford county about two years ago. He was one of the gang working in the stone quarry. His diseased mind was open to suggestion and hearing a great deal about the two session of him that he ought to join

Accordingly, at the breakfast table his place in the quarry, by a clever The warships of the nations are ruse, he managed to get momentarily

The Leesville (Col) Light tells how the two attendants in charge had the members of a lodge at Leesville about all they could do to look after turned out enthusiastically" at a the rest of the gang. While one of the attendants kept watch the other ran The late James P. Rock, of Balti- down to the gas house and telephoned up to the hospital, notifying them of into the window and the glass was the escape. As explained by an experienced attendant Saturday evening it is utterly beyond the power of the attendants to prevent an escape if the task, but the officers accomplished it. intervals such an idea does not enter the heads of the insane men, but when one or more make their escape the oth- the glass yesterday afternoon. ers seem to think they also can get away and at the first opportunity make

ARRESTED ON

R. N. Lyons, former resident of to be epidemic among the patients at Columbia county, but who for some the hospital for the insane. It is remarkable that following on the heels as a representative of the Catawissa of the two escapes that took place at Paper Mill company, was arraigned the same time last week another should before Justice of the Peace Oglesby yesterday morning charged with a charge was such that under the law a broken glass. justice of the peace is not permitted to admit the defendant to bail and

The person accusing Lyons was Annie Gill, the twelve year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Gill, of Welsh hill, The information was lodged Tuesday stairs to unlock the door. and late on the evening of the same

C. P. Gearhart was present and conducted the examination of witnesses.

The scene of the alleged outrage was was highly criminating in its nature and established a prima facie case.

cases the matter of bail is up to court. Nothing remained for the justice of the peace to do, therefore, but to send Lyons back to prison, for the time being, at least, until the matter of bail could be settled.

TORE DOWN A

Town boys who make excursions into the country should remember that farmers have rights which others, whether they reside in town or country, are bound to respect.

There are two boys in Danville who that a trespass notice posted means sewed, eight stitches being required. Altogether, it was a most difficult opman or boy who disregards the warning against trespassing commits the sheerest folly.

The boys in question a day or so ago while walking along the P. & R. railway, ran across a trespass notice posting into one of the buses were driven over to the south side. When they reached the silk mill they found a against trespassing did not awe them contempt for the whole proceeding they began stoning the printed notice, hiding in a dense growth of bushes finally splitting the inch board on down below the river bank. By this which it was pasted and causing it to fall from its support.

The boys returned home little dreamdeal of dread into the crowd a few ing that trouble would result from volunteers were found who cared to their overt act. They were rudely penetrate the dense growth of bushes awakened when Constable Young a they were haled before Justice of the Peace Dalton charged with malicious years and fifteen days.

BOYS BREAK STORE WINDOW

room in the Hartman building, Mill
Two sons survive, Joseph, at whose street, was broken by some unruly home she died, and John W. S. Robboys Monday night, who have since paid for their frolic by replacing the

The mishap was the outcome of much disorder, which has existed on Mill street for some time past, the offenders being half-grown boys, who in crowds of a dozen or more move around from have mischief in their heads and when ever they are seen together it is not long before something is "doing."

quite disorderly in front of the moving picture establishment in Opera He was almost instantly missed but House block. Chief Mincemoyer dispersed them, but they soon reassembled in front of the Hartman building. where they occupied the whole pavement and began to jostle each other.

> To obtain the names of the gnilty parties would seem like a difficult The boys were to appear before Justice Oglesby Tuesday night, but they took time by the forelock and replaced

Nature is beginning to put on a worn

SHOCKINGLY INJURED POST MASTER BY BROKEN GLASS

night, Andrew Magill of No. 210 Ash street, inflicted shocking injury to his left arm, which may cripple him for high noon Tuesday. left arm, which may cripple him for life. The accident was peculiar in many respects, the terrible lacerations, especially, being such as one would hardly believe could be inflicted by white Hall.

The nuptial knot was tied by the will be laid all the way from Centre to the female wing of the institution street to the Danville Milling company's plant, beyond which the street will be macadamized.

probably in a week's time the brick al for the insane, seems to have spread will be laid all the way from Centre to the female wing of the institution and yesterday a woman patient decided to follow the example of the men and took to the tall timbers. Of course statutory offense. The nature of the hardly believe could be inflicted by

On Sunday evening Andrew Magill, who was at home alone with his aged Lyons was, therefore, committed to mother, retired at the usual hour. Between 11 and 12 o'clock he became aware that his brother, John Magill, had returned home and was on the back porch. He arose and started down

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning the defendant was arraigned before Justice Oglesby, Edward S. Gearhart appearing as his counsel. District Attorney Before he could recover himself and ments, carriages, etc. For a number By actual count, when the man was sore and wilted appropriate town. This large establishment on Northumberland street supplies a at the grace and rapidity with which he performed his work.

The entire party is sore and wilted appropriate town. The street countries and a man, attended to the performed his work.

By actual count, when the man was sore and wilted appropriate town. The street countries and a man, attended to the performed his work.

By actual count, when the man was sore and wilted appropriate town. The street countries and a man, attended to the performed his work.

By actual count, when the man was sore and wilted appropriate town. The street countries and a man, attended to the performed his work. extricate his arm the sharp and jagged glass had cut and sawed into the fleshy wound that seemed to nearly half sever laid near the old Catholic cemetery the arm. The blood literally poured north of town. The child's testimony out of the wound and the man seemed in danger of bleeding to death.

John Magill hurried down town Justice Oglesby decided to hold where he ran across Officer Voris, who Lyons for court. Under the law in such called up Dr. Cameron Shultz by telewhere he ran across Officer Voris, who phone and then proceeded to the Magill home to render assistance.

When Dr. Shultz arrived the injurflow after some difficulty had been checked by means of a bandage tightly drawn around the upper arm. The doctor found the muscles severed half TRESPASS NOTICE way around the arm and a gapping wound was produced in which a man could have laid three fingers. In addition the glass had cut an artery, although it appeared that the blood vessel was not wholly severed.

Such was the injury that the doctor was called upon to treat. First, the have learned from bitter experience muscles had to be drawn together and eration and even at that it leaves no assurance that a complete recovery will follow. The injured man will be very lucky if he regains the full use of his arm. At first it was a question with the physician whether amputation would not be necessary.

Andrew Magill is a stove moulder. He is a man of steady habits and popular with his fellow workmen. He is

AN OLD RESIDENT CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. Elizabeth Robison, one of the oldest residents of Montour county, departed this life at the home of her son, little later took them into custody and Joseph J. Robison, Liberty township, on Sunday evening, aged eighty-eight

The deceased was the widow Farmer Krum, who had proven him- James Robison, who departed this life self a pretty good detective, was on about seventeen years ago. Her maidhand in the role of prosecutor. The en name was Elizabeth Sayre and she boys, however, during the hearing spent her entire life in the vicinity of created the impression on both the Mooresburg. She was a woman of farmer and the justice that they were strong personality, religiously inclinmore thoughtless than malicious and ed and kind and generous in disposi-The king of Siam has apparently been overcome had he not by a quick money to burn. He is reported to have movement succeeded in tripping and been overcome had been overcome had he not by a quick been overcome had he not be not been overcome had h larger sum in which they might have regular attendant at the Methodist

For the greater part of the time since the death of her husband she has lived with her son at the pleasant homestead of the latter about three miles west of Mooresburg. Of late years she was somewhat feeble.

ison, of Milton.

Death of Miss Emily Wilkins.

Miss Emily Wilkins, departed this life at her home No. 410 Ferry street, at 12:45 o'clock yesterday morning. was ill for about three weeks.

Miss Wilkins was one of the best known women of Danville. She was a sister of the wife of the late Thomas Beaver, Danville's millionaire and philanthropist. She was a woman of benevolent disposition, who without the least estentation did a vast amount of charitable work in the community. Naturally, she was much beloved by all those who had dealings with her in any of the varied relations of life.

28th of October next she would have been eighty-seven years of age. She Calvin Ritter. was born in Harrisburg, but lived in twenty-five years past she resided in August 13th. the house where she died.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been perfected, but it is to the funeral will be arranged.

Postmaster W. L. Gouger of this and is popular throughout the community. The groom, as is well-known, is one He reached the bottom of the steps of the leading and most enterprising years ago is laying the brick on North got off was a woman whose general and late on the evening of the same day Lyons was taken into custody by Chief-of-Police Mincemoyer. He was committed to jail to await a hearing.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning the day Lyons was saken into custody by Chief was saleping on the floor; he day lyons was taken into custody by and was walking across the room to-occurrence of the leading and most enterprising citizens of Montour county. He is post master of Danville and has long been one of the foremost business men of the town. His large establishment of the town. His large establishment should be an insane patient from the hospital. Accompanying her were two young women and a man, attendants of the hosments, carriages, etc. For a number of years he was one of the trustees of of years he was one of the trustees of the hospital for the insane at this place. He is one of the Republican forty seconds, at the rate of ninety hot August sun. leaders of the county and is a person of acknowledged influence.

> The newly wedded couple took the 4 o'clock passenger train at Washing-tonville Tuesday afternoon for a trip taking in Philadelphia Atlantic City and other points. On their return they will take up their residence in this city, occupying Mrs. Angle's dwelling, No. 218 Mill street.

ONLY FIVE MEMBERS PRESENT

Friday night was a regular meeting night of the borough council. Dr. Sweisfort, Jacob Dietz, George B. Jacobs, Andrew Schatz and A. C. Angle appeared at the building at the regular time but these did not constitute a quorum and a meeting could not

Failure to hold meetings is not among the shortcomings that the Danville town council will have to ans wer for. With a couple of exceptions for good aftendance and for being on hand promptly at the hour. As a result up to the present there had always been a quorum and all the business on hand was disposed of. Friday night the absentees mostly had the very best of excuses for not putting in an appearance. Three are out of town. Two-Messrs. Deutschand Finnigan—who hold positions at the big mill, were on the night turn, while J. L. Russell is still confined to his bed as the result of the fall he sustained while working on a scaffold at the Gaskins residence, West Mahoning street, on Monday.

Little or no inconvenience will result from holding no meeting. There was not much business on hand last evening. The only thing which was at all important was the passing of the bills, payment of which in the absence meeting will no doubt be provided for in some other way.

ANONYMOUS LETTER

A citizen of the first ward, who owns an interesting little fox terrier received an anonymous communication tuesday, warning him that his dog ago, was replaced by new glass yester in squads. would be poisoned if he were not day afternoon. "kept in." The charge brought against the fox terrier is that he barks in town, measuring 127 inches by 98 Creasy, State Grange Lecturer Dorand annoys people.

ions gets outside of the enclosure and is always locked up in the house at men under G. F. Reifsnyder. The anonymous letter with its night. ed him and he is after the writer.

The Nominees.

The committee on nominations has submitted the following list of names as nominees for the board of directors

St. Paul's M. E. B. W. Musselman O. R. Shilling, J. W. Lore, Will G. Brown: Mahoning Presbyterian H. B. Trinity Lutheran, W. E. Gosh, How ard Reppert; Pine Street Lutheran, John Swarts, Joseph Divel: Grove Presbyterian, A. H. Grone, W. L. Mc-Clure; Trinity M. E,, Walter Lovett, David Roderick, Sidney Cannard; St. Peter's M. E., Jesse Shannon; United Evangelical, Edgar L. Rank; First Had the deceased survived until the Baptist, Watkin Evans, David Reese, Emerson Adams; Shiloh Reformed,

The election will be held between Danville for very many years. For the hours of 7 and 9 p. m., Tuesday, Camping Near Cameron.

J. H. Cole and family have gone inknown that interment will be made at to camp on their farm near Cameron Harrisburg. W. B. Chamberlin, of where they have sojourned during the Torresdale, nephew of the deceased, is summer for some years past. With Mr. expected to arrive in Danville this Cole's family is Miss Laura Hughes morning, when all details pertaining and others belonging to 'the force of clerks employed in Mr. Cole's store.

FIRST BRICK LAID YESTERDAY

The first brick were laid on North city and Miss Isabel J. Derr, of White Hall, were united in matrimony at high noon Tuesday.

Mill street yesterday. The last stage which last week became epidemic among the male patients at the hospithigh noon Tuesday.

she has been engaged in teaching and ranks with the best educators of the county. She is most highly esteemed county. employed on the section between cape in this city was when the 4:40 Centre street and the river bridge when the latter was paved a couple of arrived. Among the passengers that brick in one minute or 5,400 brick an

to keep him busy.

The surface where the brick is laid is less argeeable to the eye probably the forenoon. The patient was one than that section of Mill street south- who was found useful in the "nurses" ward where drab colored blocks were home" and was permitted to go backused in paying. The red brick, however, present a much sounder and durable appearance. The blocks, to beign with, weigh nine and a half joyed and at an opportune moment she pounds; the chipping and the frequency with which the bricks broke in When the attendants missed her she now being laid on North Mill street.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN ZETTLEMOYER

Mrs. John Zettlemoyer, a well known woman, died yesterday morning at 4 o'clock at her home near Oak Grove, Liberty township, after an illness of wo days.

health for several weeks, but her condition was not considered serious, until she was compelled to take her bed on Monday. From then on she grew rapidly worse. She was aged 49 years, and had lived in this section all he life. She was a member of the Oak SIX THOUSAND Grove Lutheran church.

The deceased is survived by her husband and her mother, Mrs. Sarah Cooper, of Milton, and by the following sons and daughters: Elmer, of Liberty township; Lloyd, of Michigan; William, Harvey and Jennie, of Milton; Clarence, of New York State; George, of Turbotville; Emma, Adda, Ralph and Ruth, who reside at home The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Oak Grove Lutheran church. Interment will be made in the cemetery adjoining the church. THREATENS DOG BROKEN GLASS

REPLACED BY NEW The large plate glass at J. F. Tooley's inchs. To insert it in the window sett, of Tioga county, Hon. Alva Agee, The owner of the fox terrier declares that the dog only on the rarest occasion deal of care and skill, but it was successfully accomplished by a force of cruel threat has thoroughly exasperat- signboard last winter. There was only a small crack at first, barely perceptible, which seemed to grow steadily until it became such a blemish that the glass had to be removed. The company maintained by local business nen to insure plate galss.

Girl Puts Hand on a Snake.

To reach her hand into a chicken's est to get an egg, and sieze hold of a big clammy blacksnake, was the ex-perience of Miss Mary J. Hess, at her nome in Benton township. Columbia county yesterday. She gave a hysterical scream, and ran breathlessly into party the house. The reptile was afterwards killed and measured five and one half

For days the family has been missng eggs, but they attributed it to the F. G. Peters, Mrs. Charles Jameson, them. So nothing was thought of it.

vesterday morning, and reaching into her hand on the snake.

Her yell when she put her hand against the reptile was piercing, and it was heard by her father Daniel Hess, and a farm hand, Geo Hess. They ran into the chicken house and succeeded in killing the snake. It was as thick as a man's arm.

FEMALE PATIENT JOINS THE EXODUS

The uncontrollable desire to escape, White Hall.

The bride is a sister of Charles W.

Derr, superintendent of schools of Montour county. For fourteen years be her between the bree person and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of them and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of them and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of the men and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of the men and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of the men and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of the men and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of the men and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of the men and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of them and took to the tall timbers. Of course she was captured as the most of them.

The entire party presented a footsore and wilted appearance such as brick in one minute or 5,400 brick an hour. As many men as can work to the hospital wagon, into which the an advantage carry the brick to him whole party were tucked away and from the curbing, but they are unable driven rapidly off in the direction of the hospital.

The escape occurred at 11 o'clock in two, which was noted and commented had not proceeded far, but she was full on when the paving blocks were laid of artifice and knew how to elude puron the other section of the street, is suit. With two female attendants and almost entirely absent in the paving one male attendant in close pursuit she managed to keep concealed and made her way nearly as far as Catawissa. It was a hot and tiresome tramp but hour after hour the plucky attendants kept on their way and finally sometime in the afternoon they were rewarded by overtaking the woman. The party then made its way over the river road to Grovania, where the hospital was called up by 'phone and Mrs. Zettlemoyer had been in ill notified that the woman had been cap-tured. It was then arranged that the attendants with the patient should journey to Danville by trolley and that the hospital wagon should meet them at that place.

AT GRANGE PICNIC The annual picnic of Pomona Grange of Columbia county, held near Zaner's station, above Forks, on the Blooms burg and Sullivan, yesterday was the most stupendous gathering of its kind ever held in this section of the State. Six thousand is given out as an estimate of the number of people who gathered for the outing and to hear the fine array of speakers, who were present for the occasion. Fully 1000 teams were there. The place resembled the big day at a county fair, all the attribues of a gala occasion being in evidence. Games were played, were exhibits of all kinds, politicians from near and far were there, and even

The speakers of the day were State

A number of pickpockets were on the ground and operated with much The glass was struck by a falling success. Among those who were 'touched' was Hon. W. T. Creasy. who was relieved of his pocket book containing $18 and tickets, and E. M. Laubach, who lost about $30.

ENTERTAINED BY MR. AND MRS. JOHNSON

A party of ladies from this city were very pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Johnson at their pleasant country residence near Mausdale yesterday. On their return the ladies were treated to a straw ride by Mr. Johnson. The following were in the

Mrs William Moore, Mrs. Rote, Philadelphia; Mrs. S. E. Woods, Miss Martha Woods, Mrs. Wingert, Mrs. Eyerly, Mrs. W. J. Rogers, Mrs. John Bateman, Mrs. I. T. Patton, Mrs. fact that the hens were not laying Miss Antrim, Mrs. W. H. Mauger, them. So nothing was thought of it.

The young woman went to the chickenhouse to look for eggs early posterday morning and reaching into liam A. Sechler, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. nest without looking into it, she put Bowyer, Mrs. Larue, Mrs. Russell, Miss Albeck, Mrs. liver, Mrs. Rebman, and Mrs. A.

Pierce, of this city. The consistently good man is brave as a lion on his deathbed.