NEAL BRACELIN DIES AT HOSPITAL Neal Bracelin, a well known iro

years of age. He was a puddler by oc-cupation and during his life worked at many different rolling mills of this country. He was a man of generous impulses and was well liked by his associates. He was unmarried and is survived by a sister, Mrs. Sallie Kennedy, Centre street, with whom he resided during the last several years of his life. He seems to have no other relatives in this country than Mrs. Kennedy, who came to this country with her brother and who as the result of his death is left entirely alone. The deceased was a hard working man and up to about a year ago followed the arduous employment of puddling. For several months prior to death he was in very poor health suffering from a complication of diseases incidental to advanced age. On Fri-day morning he was removed to the M. Packer hospital. He was then very ill. He lingered until Saturday morning when he expired. The body was brought to this city Saturday evening.

The funeral took place from St. Jos eph's Catholic church yesterday afternoon. Interment in St. Joseph's cemetery.

But they had all the miner's enthusiasm, and the fact that they found gold at all merely stimulated their zeal to try in another place, so they went to the side of a hill where the Glaize creek had washed away the earth and made a clay precipice. They dug a hole there, where they also found traces of the precious metal, but in no greate quantities than before. Then they went up the creek about a quarter of a mile and sank another shaft, with no better result. They spent the whole spring and summer digging holes around in and summer digging holes around in the neighborhood of the park, but the only benefit⁶ they realized from their work was the sobriquet "two luna-tics," and people laughed at them so much that both left and went back west, where digging holes in the search for gold was taken more seriously than in St Louis St Louis Globa Damo.
