BIG BLIZZARD REACHES THE LAST

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. The blizzard, reported to be one of the worst in years, which has been raging in the west, struck New York early today. The storm started shortly before daylight and four inches of snow had fallen in as many hours, without any sign of abatement.

STORM AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—With nine to twelve inches of snow on the level, drifts in many places ranging from three to six feet, more snow falling and a stiff gale blowing, Chicago today is facing the worst winter conditions of many years.

AN EPISODE OF THE CIVIL WAR

The following sketch relating to a brother of our townsman, L. G. Little, was printed in the "Richmond Examiner" during the war: "On the night of the 6th inst., a Yankee prisoner named Myron Little, Company 6th, Pennsylvania regiment, escaped from Belle Isle by swimming the river. On the 16th he was overhauled by some Confederate pickets at the nine mile lock on the canal, and was turned over to Obadiah Gordon, a member of Robin's cavalry, to bring to Richmond. Obadiah got along well enough with his prisoner until he arrived within about a mile of Richmond.

The Yankee had pretended to be a little lame and was obliged to pick up a big cudgel to help him along. It was night and watching an opportunity he turned the tables on Obadiah, compelled him to vacate his horse and arms, and the bold Yankee, mounting the one and buckling on the other, bid the trembling Obadiah, "good night," and put out."

The hero of the above sketch as above stated, was the brother of Jeweler L. G. Little and was the son of Joseph B. Little of Sullivan county. It is explained that he was a member of Company F, 106th Regiment, P. V., instead of the 6th Regiment as stated above.

DID LEE EXPECT DEFEAT?

The General's Significant Statement After Sailors Creek. My last official intercourse with General Lee was on the retreat. I was sent to him with dispatches from President Davis and reached him near mid night of April 6 near Blea's station. I approached without being challenged by a single sentinel and found him standing near a smoldering fire with one of his hands resting on an ambulance wheel. He was dictating some order to Colonel Marshall, who sat in the ambulance with a lap desk receiving his dictation.

HER ECONOMY.

She Wasn't Ashamed of It, but Didn't Like It Advertised. "Of course," said the pretty school-teacher who had just returned from her long vacation trip to Europe—"of course foreign labels slapped all over a suit case may give it an interesting look, and they certainly indicate that one has been abroad, but I don't feel very proud of the record pasted on my bag. The trouble with it is that I had to economize frightfully while I was in Europe in order to have the trip at all, and I had to stop at the very cheapest hotels I could find. It seemed as if those Europeans were determined to conduct a large advertising campaign through the medium of my suit case, for I couldn't escape their labels.

Hearing Both Sides. Last summer there died at Washington a lawyer who for many years had shocked a large number of his friends by his rather liberal views touching religion.

Chickamauga. The word Chickamauga, like a great many other proper names of places in this country, is of Indian origin. It is said to be a Cherokee name signifying "the river of death," and, according to a legend which had floated down among the Indians, the streams received its name from the accidental drowning of the people of a village by a sudden rise attributed to a cloud-burst.

RESULTS IN PENNSYLVANIA CITIES

Following are the results of Tuesday's elections in Pennsylvania cities:

Philadelphia—Howard D. Gendell, Republican, City Controller, elected by a large majority, Republican Select and Common Councils elected. Owen Wister, novelist, defeated for Select Council in Seventh ward, by Charles Seger, Republican. Franklin—Former Assemblyman John P. Emery, Republican, Mayor by a good majority, fought by the gambling element. Allentown—Former State Senator Stiles, Democrat, elected Mayor over former Mayor Fred E. Lewis, Republican, by 1,000 majority. Williamsport—Charles D. Wolfe, Republican, elected Mayor over James Mansel, City Party candidate and Perry Harman, Democrat. Wilkes-Barre—Lewis P. Kniffen, Republican, elected Mayor by 1,200. Johnstown—Wilson, Republican, Mayor, by 1,500. Reading—William Rick, Republican, Mayor, by 1,200. Lebanon—George B. Marquart, Republican, Mayor, by 100 majority. Lancaster—J. P. McCaskey, Republican, Mayor, by 1,607. York—Jacob E. Weaver, Democrat, Mayor, and entire Republican city ticket elected. Altoona—Hooyer, Democrat, Mayor, by 300. Erie—Lieber, Democrat, Mayor, elected by a good majority. Last year Lieber was elected to fill an unexpired term but the Republicans brought suit against him under the corrupt practices act for buying a glass of beer for a voter, and he must stand trial in March. His triumph Tuesday is regarded as a vindication. Easton—Henry McKean, Democrat, Mayor, by a large majority. Pittsburg—Very little contest. Eunice A. Morrow, for Controller, had no opposition, and was supported by both parties. Sunbury—Republicans elect city officials, Council and School Board. Bloomsburg—James H. Coleman, Democrat, defeated Ralph G. Phillips, Republican, by decisive majority for president of council.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON CITY—THE MAGNET OF THE PEOPLE.

The eyes of eighty million American people are now on Washington, the Capital of the Nation. The wheels of the National Government are now in full motion. Congress is in session and the busy whirl of the legislative mill is intensely interesting. Many hours may be spent in the Senate or House gallery watching the legislators at work. The other workshops of the Nation are also well worthy of a visit. The White House, the home and office of the President; the State, War, and Navy Building, with its huge vaults; the Government Printing Office, the Patent Office, and the Congressional Library; the National Museum, the Smithsonian Institution, the great Mument, and the new Union Station are all attractive features of the Capital City. The splendid city with its numerous parks and statues never loses its charm at any season. The service of the Pennsylvania Railroad to Washington serves a wide territory. Its trains afford a direct means of reaching the National Capital, and tickets at reasonable rates are on sale at all ticket offices. For the special accommodation of those desiring to visit Washington at this season of the year, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged an attractive four-day Personally-Conducted Tour to leave Wilkes-Barre, Williamsport, Renow, Altoona, Chambersburg, Lancaster, and other points in Central Pennsylvania on Monday, March 30. Tickets including in addition to railroad transportation, accommodations at either the Normandie, Gordon, or Riggs hotels in Washington for three full days, will be sold at $15.00 from Wilkes-Barre, $14.25 from Williamsport, $15.85 from Renow, $13.90 from Mt. Carmel, $15.40 from Altoona, $13.00 from Chambersburg, $11.60 from Lancaster, and at proportionate rates from other points. Detailed itineraries and full information may be obtained of Ticket Agents.
