DEATH ENDS LONG SUFFERING

Henry Franklin Search, a life-long and well-known resident of Danville, departed this life at 11 a. m. Saturday at his home, No 226 Ash street.

Some five years ago the deceased sus tained a stroke of apoplexy. Nearly deprived of the power of speech and unable to walk or help himself he lingered until death brought relief on Saturday, his condition at no time holding out any prospects of improvement.

The deceased was a bricklayer and a stone mason. He was an expert work-man whose services were much in demand. During early life he was a rail straightener and was accounted one of the best workmen in that department of the big mill.

He was a representative of one of the oldest families, his ancestors being John Powell, Harry Davis, Thomas among the pioneers who came to this section during the time of the In-bert Jones, David Gower and Robert dians. The deceased was aged 62 years, 1 month and 27 days. He is survived by his wife, and three half-brothers: David, Uriah and William Grove.

It is believed that the move for prothe other day he was permitted to see his snakeship as he was resting in secutions will fall through, inasmuch as the jury did not hold Dr. T. J. B. Rhoads, owner of the opera house, and H. E. Mauger of Pottstwon, the lessee, responsible with Bechtel and Mrs. Monroe, in having allowed oil tanks to act as foot lights.

The apparent attempt to make scape. goats of outsiders is not approved by the district attorney. The question whether Mrs. Monroe, the producer of the play given at the opera house on the night of the fire, can be legally held is also seriously doubted.
