CAMDEN, N. J., April 8. Joseph Wood, the eighteen-year-old boy who last week was convicted of murder in the second degree for the killing of Ethel Nevin, a nine-year-old girl, here last fall, was today sentenced to thirty years in State prison. The little girl's body was found on a lot. She had been maltreated and her head crushed with a hatchet. The boy is alleged to have confessed to the crime immediately after his arrest, but denied the alleged confession at his trial.
