BOY STRUCK

Harman Edmondson, a half-grown boy, sustained a bad fracture of the right leg and was otherwise injured by being struck by an automobile about 7:30 o'clock last evening.

The accident, it seems, was unavoidable and no blame whatever attaches to the driver of the automobile. In the car was Joseph Goeser, the owner, along with Miles J. Hufford of Wilkes-Barre and Fred Grausam of this city. Mr. Hufford had joined the party at the Montour house; the machine had just started up and had not yet attained anything like full speed when, opposite the court house, it encountered couple of boys playing ball.

Mr. Goeser, who was driving the machine, was obliged to quickly turn aside to avoid running down one of the boys. At the same instant Harman Edmondson came dashing along in pursuit of the ball and, seemingly oblivious of the approach of the car, ran right in front of it and was struck with the left headlight and violently flung aside. Almost at the same moment the car, which was running at scarcely half the legal rate of speed, was brought to a standstill.

It was at once apparent that the boy was seriously injured. He complained or his leg, in addition to which two teeth were knocked out. The boy was placed in the automobile and quickly conveyed to the office of Dr. E. A. Carry. An examination revealed that the right leg was broken between the knee and the ankle, the fracture being a compound one. At the point of injury there was a bad puncture in the leg. In addition to the injury to his

Gully, the Plunger.

A prize fighter named John Gully, born and bred in very humble circum-stances, was so successful in his turf operations, bookmaking and backing horses that he became member of parliament for Pontefract and owned Derby winners and collieries. His horse Margrave won the St. Leger and £80,-000 in bets for him. He had a very big gamble on the race. He won another fortune of £50,000 when his partner's horse, St. Giles, carried off the Derby. When his own horses, Pyrner's horse, St. Giles, carried off the Derby. When his own horse, Pyr-rhus I. and Andover, won the Epsom classic he on both occasions netted a very large sum of money. He was one of the most consistent plungers ever known on the turf. ton of the Commonwealth of Fennsylvania so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Philadelphia and Allegheny counties, and to give the General Assembly power to establish a separate court in Philadelphia country, with criminal and miscellaneous jurisdiction.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly met, That the following amendments to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same are hereby, proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section six of article five be amended by striking out the said section and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas, shall be vested in one court of common pleas in each of said counties, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts of and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of each of the said courts shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in each of said courts may be, by law, increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first Monday of January succeeding its adoption.
