The only case of interest is that of Dauiel Thompson, who will be tried for the murder of his uncle William Burch, at Mt. Carmel, about six months ago. Thompson who is now held in the county prison without bail, claims that he acted in self de-fense. Another feature of interest in connection with the nearness of criminal court is the fact that the case of Henry Fisher has not been disposed of, the arguments for and against a new trial not having as yet been heard.

This means that Fisher cannot be sentenced at least until the next term of court.
