NOTED CASE

APPEALED

His Honor Judge Evans came down to this city Tuesday for the purpose of certifying to the records in the case of Simon Fleishman vs. Paul Swentek, which was tried last February and in which an appeal has been taken by the plaintiff.

This case, aside from the fact that it has been before court for nearly linestone township:--Elmer G. couple hundred dollars' worth of dry Liberty township :- Alexander Mat goods stored in the sheriff's office in tis, John Hoffman, J. J. Auten. the court house. The clothing mostly in the form of pantaloons, which occupies a large portion of the space, has been an object of much curiosity to H. Wintersteen. strangers during the seven or eight years that it has been stored there, Lobach, W. B. Moore. and, on the whole, has suggested a TRAVERSE J clothing store quite as much as a sheriff's office.

Some time prior to October 28, 1903, Simon Fileshman bought from Mr. Dreifuss a stock of clothing in the Swentek building and proceeded to remove it from the city when he was stopped. A question as to the liability for rent on the building had arisen between Mr. Swentek and Mr. Fleishman and the result was that the aid of the sheriff was invoked.

After the claim for rent was satisfied a large quantity of goods remained Mr. Fleishman refused to acunsold. cept the goods and brought suit against Mr. Swentek for damages. After many postponements the case went to trial on February 25, 1907. A verdict was returned for the defendant, Paul P. Swentek. Hon. H. M. Hinckley and E. S. Gearhart were counsel for the plaintiff and Hon. Grant Herring and H. B. Shultz, W. W. Diehl. William Kase West for the defendant. A new trial being refused the plaintiff appeals the case.

The case is the first one on the supreme court list and will come up next D. Bro! st. week
