FOUND WAY TO GET CHEAP LIGHT

The Shamokin and Coal Township Heat, Light and Power company tripped up six Coal township hotelkeepers in their work of "beating" the light meters recently introduced throughout the township. For the past several months the saloonkeepers who have places of business in Springfield and Marshallton districts of the township, have been defrauding the light company through a simple method introduced there by a fellow who had a knowledge of electricity. Up until the introduction of the fraud the hotelmen were paying from $6.00 up per month for the light service.

Model Houseboat. A model houseboat in course of erection on the lot of P. G. Baylor, South Danville, is attracting a great deal of attention. The boat which is now ready to launch, is being built by Druggist O. M. Lenziger, who has conceived the idea of spending a summer's vacation on the river. As a houseboat it is safe to affirm that the craft has no counterpart on the North branch. It is built along graceful lines, ornate in every feature and is so well appointed that a family could dwell for a month in the house boat and enjoy all the conveniences accustomed to at home.

TENNIS LEAGUE WAS ORGANIZED

The organization of the Central Pennsylvania Tennis league, comprising teams from the towns of Danville, Pottsville, Bloomsburg, Berwick, Sunbury, Shenandoah, Girardville, Mt. Carmel and Shamokin, was effected at a meeting of representatives from the several towns held at Maysville park, Shamokin, Friday evening. The tournament between the various towns which was to be held at the same time was called off owing to the rain. The delegates, however, all arrived and were escorted by the members of the Shamokin club to the club house, where they proceeded to effect an organization and elect officers. After the regular business of the evening, the delegates and members of the club enjoyed a banquet at the Maysville park cafe.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The following comprise the executive body, who will arrange the schedule and transact the business of the league: Thomas E. Hill, Shamokin, president; William E. Gosh, Danville, vice president; P. G. Seiwel, Shenandoah, secretary; A. H. Glick, Girardville, treasurer. Board of governors—C. H. Gaskins, Shamokin; A. H. Glick, Girardville; Charles Watson, Danville; W. W. Shuster, Sunbury; P. G. Seiwel, Shenandoah. Within the next few days the board of directors will make up a schedule of games which will be played during the season.

Rev. I. W. Williamson's Letter

Rev. I. W. Williamson, Huntington, W. Va., writes: "This is to certify that I used Foley's Kidney Remedy for nervous exhaustion and kidney trouble and am free to say that it will do all that you claim for it." Foley's Kidney Remedy has restored health and strength to thousands of weak, run down people. Contains no harmful drugs and is pleasant to take. Sold by Paules & Co. Pharmacy.

CHILD'S CLOTHING TAKES FIRE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dietz, Spruce street, was the scene of a shocking occurrence Friday morning, when the clothing of their four-year-old child, Frank, caught fire and he was so badly burned that he died a few hours later. The accident occurred about 7 o'clock during the temporary absence of the mother. Miss McDermott, who lives on the premises adjoining, heard the terror-stricken screams of the little child in the rear yard and, divining that something unusual must be the matter, hurried over to the neighbor's house. To her dismay she saw that little Frank, who was clad in his night gown, was on fire, the flames enveloping nearly his whole body. Calling loudly for help Miss McDermott attempted to tear off the burning clothing. In the effort she burned her hands very painfully. Orders who gathered on the scene assisted, but by the time the clothing was removed the child was fatally burned. Nearly every thing on his body was consumed with the exception of the part at the top of the garment known as the neckband.

Example for This Town to Follow

Several of the more progressive towns and cities of the country are observing what is known as "cleaning week." Usually two days of a week are set apart for general renovation and cities are urged on these particular days to clean up their premises and put things in shape for the summer. This improvement includes the sowing of grass seed, making flower beds, mowing lawns, correction of sewer difficulties, arrangement of shrubbery, the removal of old boxes and barrels and other rubbish, the repairing and painting of fences, the construction of sidewalks and a general clearing out of old stuff that has been hoarded with any promise of being used.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

HOW HORSES ARE IMPERILED

A valuable horse belonging to Rufus Bird of Mayberry township fell down on the river bridge Friday afternoon and broke its leg. This accident again demonstrates the unsafe condition of the wood paving on the driveway of the bridge whenever it rains. During the winter season when the horses are "rough" it is not noticed so much. But during other seasons when the horses are smooth accidents such as occurred yesterday are likely to happen. When the paving is dry, the horses can manage to keep a foothold; but it requires only a little rain to make the creosinated blocks as slippery as glass to a smooth horse shoe. At least half a dozen valuable horses have been permanently injured by falling on the bridge. The more serious accident Friday brings the subject home in a way that must make a deep impression. The animal that fell Friday was hit to a two-horse wagon. As it lost its footing the other horse also slipped and fell on top. The result was that the large meta carpal and the two small bones of the front leg on the right side of the under horse were broken, the fracture, as implied, occurring just above the knee. Veterinarian Kline, who was called, determined the extent of the injury and gave it as his opinion that the horse would never be of any use and that it had better be killed.

NO DECEPTIVE

Many Danville People Fail to Realize the Seriousness. Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing. Learn the cause—then cure it. Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it. Cure every kidney ailment from backache to diabetes. We present the following case as proof. E. M. Campbell, 133 E. Walnut St., Milton, Pa., says: "I hold a very high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills, as their use in my case proved them to be a most reliable remedy. Four years ago I was having considerable trouble from disordered kidneys. At times my back would become so painful that it would be difficult for me to stoop or straighten and any sudden movement would send sharp twinges through my loins and kidneys. Although I used a number of remedies, I did not succeed in finding relief. When Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me, I started using them and they went at once to the seat of the trouble, relieving the pain in my back and driving every symptom of kidney complaint from my system. You are welcome to use my name as one who can endorse this reliable remedy in the highest terms." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BIG CIRCUS AT SUNBURY

The Barnum & Bailey greatest show on earth is to visit Sunbury on Wednesday, June 9th. Never since the beginning of time has an amusement enterprise so tremendous in size been organized as this one. Its magnitude is almost beyond belief. All America, together with every foreign country, has been scooped from end to end by agents of this big show in search of novelties and the result is a performance brim full of sensational acts new to the circus world. In the big Barnum & Bailey show are nearly 4000 arena stars, most of whom are seen now for the first time. A new sensation will be seen at every performance in "Jupiter, the balloon horse." This remarkable animal with its fearless rider ascends to the dome of the circus tent in a balloon and descends to the ground in a shower of fireworks. Nearly 1000 animal wonders are to be found in the big 105 cage menagerie. 8 herds of elephants, including one herd that actually plays upon musical instruments in time and tune. A group of giant giraffes, monster trained hippopotamus, only living bi-horned rhinoceros and hundreds of other strange beasts. Barnum & Bailey's big, new, free street parade is the most gorgeous professional display ever attempted in the history of circus business. Its tremendous size and wonderful length can only be believed in the actual seeing. It is natural to expect this big circus to lead all others in quality and quantity of its street spectacle as well as in other departments of the big show, yet never in its splendid history of nearly half a century has it displayed such extravagance as is shown this year.

Visiting the West

Benjamin S. Dieffenbacher of Washingtonville will spend the summer in the west. He left a day or so ago for Cheney, Kansas, to visit a brother and sister and will probably remain there three months. Before returning home he will visit a brother in Illinois and two brothers in Ohio. Local Shaft Like One Taft Unveiled. From photographs which are appearing in the big city dailies it appears that the Montour county monument which now adorns Memorial park is almost a counterpart of the monument to General Hartranft's Third Pennsylvania Division, Ninth Army Corps, Army of the Potomac, at Fort Mahone, which was unveiled by President Taft on May 19th. The monument, a most imposing shaft, was erected by Pennsylvania veterans to the memory of their comrades who fell at the siege of Petersburg. From the photographs it would appear that the Danville monument is even slightly more imposing than the one at Fort Mahone, as the base of our shaft is much more massive and imposing, while the shafts are of exactly the same pattern.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty. If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Swamp-Root is sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmor & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

CONVENIENCE OF THE RURAL PHONE

A cool headed farmer's wife, who knew enough to rush to the telephone while her husband was exchanging pistol shots with two horse thieves near his barn, aroused a posse that chased the strangers away and perhaps saved the farmer's life. This little incident, a striking demonstration of the usefulness of the rural phone, occurred Sunday, May 16th, at Union Corners, near East Chester, N. Y. John Gruber, a wealthy farmer, grabbed his revolver when he heard noises outside and opened fire on the intruders he saw in his yard. Mr. Gruber owns some valuable trotters, and had already been aroused by the frequency of horse thefts in West Chester county. Mrs. Gruber immediately called up Fisher's hotel. It took very little time for Gustav Fisher to get his shotgun and collect a posse. The men pursued the thieves, but were unable to catch them. Luckily the bandits did not hit Gruber. The farmer says he saw a trail of blood leading away from his barn, and is certain at least one of his shots took effect. What would have happened to this farmer and his wife, had they not been protected by the telephone, one can only conjecture. A bullet would undoubtedly have reached Mr. Gruber but for the timely arrival of the aid summoned over the wire. Farmers know that without a telephone they are practically helpless in a case of this sort. The rural telephone has outlived the stage where it has been a luxury, or even something very handy to have about the house. It is a necessity in every rural district—for protection, for business, for social life and for education. The great growth of the rural telephone's popularity is shown in the enormous sales of phones. The Western Electric company, the largest manufacturers of telephone apparatus in the world has sold more than 50,000 rural telephones during the past sixty days.

Death of Mrs. Joseph Gerst.

Mrs. Dora Gerst, an old and highly-esteemed resident, died at her home, Lower Mulberry street, at 4:10 o'clock Monday morning. Death was quite unexpected. The deceased, although in failing health, was not confined to her home. As late as Sunday afternoon she called on one of her sons in another part of the town. During the night she was seized with the fatal attack. The deceased was the widow of Joseph Gerst, who died as the result of being bitten by a rabid dog about a year ago. She was a native of Germany and, along with her husband, came to this country in early life. In 1865 Mr. and Mrs. Gerst moved to Danville from Middletown; here both spent the remainder of their days. Mrs. Gerst was seventy-three years of age and is survived by four sons: John Gerst, of Sunbury; and Joseph, Charles and Harry Gerst, of Danville. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran church.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD BULLETIN

SUMMER TRIPS AFAR AND NEAR. Summer days are coming fast. Already vacation days are being discussed in the home and in the office, and in a few weeks the annual exodus to country, seashore and mountain will have begun. America abounds with delightful summering places, in valley, on mountain and beside the sea—thousands of resorts whither wend the pilgrims in search of pleasure and recreation. Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agents now have on sale excursion tickets to the greater number of these resorts; by the first week in June there will be about eight hundred points covered by Pennsylvania Railroad summer excursion tickets. From the rock-bound bays of Newfoundland to the sunny slopes of the Virginia shores; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; along the forty beaches of New Jersey; even to the far coast of the Pacific Ocean, these summer resorts stand ready to entertain the transient or all-summer guest. Any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent will cheerfully give information concerning routes and fares to these resorts, enabling summer pilgrims to plan their outing at a minimum of time and cost.

Waiting for Bass Season. While the trout fishermen of the city are scattered far and wide along the banks of celebrated angling streams in various sections of the country, the bass fishermen are eagerly awaiting the opening of the season for catching this gamey fish. The majority of local anglers are bass fishermen, according to a well-known sportsman. To be a good trout fisherman, this authority says, one must have the time and money to spend several weeks away from his work and visit the streams some distance from the city. Bass fishermen declare that sport just as good as angling for trout, and say the fish are just as gamey. The small-mouthed bass is a gamier fish than the large-mouthed variety, for the reason that a man doing open-air work is stronger physically than a man doing clerical work. The small-mouthed bass lives in swift running water, and must be agile to secure a livelihood, while the large mouthed variety inhabits placid and untroubled waters. Fish Commissioner William E. Meehan, of Harrisburg, says that the law forbidding the use of any net excepting a seine and a dip net for shad will be strictly enforced. No shad net is allowed from Saturday noon until Monday morning at six o'clock. Sunday fishing in Pennsylvania means a fine of $20. Fishing for shad, herring or alewife in the interior waters of the State, which means the Susquehanna river and the Juniata as far as shad go, with a seine, must pay to the county treasurer a license of $2. Mr. Meehan says that the provisions of the new fish code will be rigidly enforced. If you desire a clear complexion take Foley's Gripe Laxative for constipation and liver trouble as it will stimulate these organs and thoroughly cleanse your system, which is what everyone needs in the spring in order to feel well. Sold by Paules & Co.'s Pharmacy.

Making House to House Canvass. In their final effort to swell the funds of the Six-County convention the firemen today will begin a house to house canvass of the town. The plan devised bears the stamp of originality and will no doubt work out very well. The canvassers will leave at each house a circular letter explaining that more money is needed to meet the expenses of the firemen's convention. The family visited is kindly requested to contribute money to the extent of its ability. Accompanying the circular letter is an envelope addressed to the committee, which the contributor is supposed to use in forwarding his contribution to the firemen. The persons distributing the circular letter and the addressed envelopes will complete the canvass of the town in a day or so. Next week they will collect the envelopes. In the interim the persons called upon will have ample time to decide what they are able to do in the premises. The firemen expect to realize several hundred dollars by this method.
