WAR VETERAN PASSES AWAY

Robert Paugh, a veteran of the civil war, and a well known resident of this city, died at his home, Railroad street, at 12:30 Sunday morning after an illness of three months. The deceased was a lifelong resident of Danville and was a puddler by occupation.

REAPING BENEFIT

From the Experience of Danville People. We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors.

Mrs. William Robinson, 304 Church St., Danville, Pa., says: "I do not think there is a kidney remedy on the market equal to Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered a great deal from kidney complaint and backache until when I bought a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at Hunt's drug store, I could not have hoped for greater benefit than I received."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Sheatz's Plan to Get Even. County Commissioners and township supervisors throughout the State who have been trying to beat the State out of paying their share of the cost of new roads will sit up and gasp when they learn what State Treasurer Sheatz is going to do.

When a new State road is constructed the State pays six-eighths of the cost, and the county and township each one-eighth. After the road is constructed, the State highway department certifies that fact to the State Treasurer, and he pays the bill. Then the county and township reimburse the State, paying their respective shares into the State treasury.

But it seems, on an examination of the books, that the County Commissioners and the township supervisors have not been in such an awful hurry to reimburse the State, and some of them are woefully delinquent, being indebted to the State for the past four years for money paid out for good roads.

As a matter of fact these delinquents owe the State over $500,000 which they only decline to pay. They make all sorts of excuses to get out of paying their share for the road building, but the chief excuse is that the State is rich, it doesn't need the money, so what's the use?

Within a very short time these officials will wake up and make a discovery. State Treasurer Sheatz has decided that when the time comes to pay for holding the spring primaries and to refund to counties the personal property tax due them, he will deduct from those who are delinquent in paying road building expenses, and thus reimburse the State. There will be a whole lot of protesting, of course, but it won't do a bit of good, according to State Treasurer Sheatz, who is firm in the matter. The counties have all paid for the spring primaries and the State reimburses them, but the delinquents will look in vain for their cash this year. The State proposes to keep what belongs to it, and the highway department and State treasurer have the upper hand on those who try to hold back on the State because it is rich.

Miss Sadie Laird, of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Hinesbill, Wood, Church street.

BEAVER STOVES FOR PANAMA

The Danville Stove and Manufacturing company has been awarded a contract by the United States government for 750 King Beaver ranges, which are to be shipped to the canal zone, Panama.

In the contract an option is allowed to the government to increase the order to 1000 or more stoves if desired. The size of King Beaver contracted for is 8-300, or 30-inch oven.

The stoves are to be delivered during the next nine months in monthly shipments as called for. One hundred of the stoves will be shipped as quickly as they can be gotten out.

The Danville Stove and Manufacturing company had a number of competitors and its stoves had to stand the test and in every detail measure up to the product of the best plants in the country. That the Danville Beaver stove has been approved and accepted is a matter of congratulation not only to General Manager W. A. Sechler and the proprietors of the plant, but to every citizen of Danville as well. It means infinitely more to the plant than the sale of approximately a thousand stoves, embraced in the order just given by the government.

The capacity of the Danville stove works is from a hundred to a hundred and twenty stoves per day, the daily product obviously embracing different varieties, cook stoves, ranges, heaters and furnaces. The government order will increase the running time of the plant, which for some time past has not exceeded three days per week.

The patterns are about completed for the Charm Beaver a new heater in four sizes and in three different styles, which will undoubtedly prove a good seller. The Magic and Prize Beaver ranges, which have been redesigned, are also about ready for the market. They are greatly improved being plainly finished and having movable nickel. The ovens in size are 14, 16 and 18 inches.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. For sale at Paules and Co's Pharmacy.

WAS TENDERED A PLEASANT SURPRISE

A very pleasant birthday surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ware, R. F. D. No. 1 on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Ware's 44th birthday. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present; music was furnished by Messrs. Robert Cornelison, J. Ashenfelder, Russell Umstead and Herbert Hendricks. Mrs. Kate Moser presided at the organ. Fine refreshments were served on the lawn. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cornelison, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Heim, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ashenfelder, Mr. and Mrs. John Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Annos Detrich, Mr. and Mrs. Will Renninger, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Umstead, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ashenfelder, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Moser, Mr. and Mrs. Will Moser, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hagenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rake, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Golder, Mr. and Mrs. W. Will Organize Swimming Class. Under the sizzling sun of a week past the water in the river has reached that delightful, tepid temperature, which makes it irresistible to the small boy, who is always ready for a swim.

Monday the river was full of bathers, quite as many being in evidence on the south side as on the Danville side of the stream. Physical Director Almsworth with a party of boys was out looking over the ground Monday, preparatory to organizing the Y. M. C. A. swimming classes for the summer. He found the water just right and he has several spots in view as a swimming ground. Monday preparations were being made for launching the floating bath house, which was brought into existence at considerable expense last year and which proved such a convenience to the bathers. In order to protect it from the ice last winter the bath house was dragged up on the river bank below the water works.

BATHER'S NARROW ESCAPE. Now that the swimming season is here it is hoped that all possible precaution against drowning accidents will be taken by the bathers. An unusually large number of fatalities have occurred since the bathing season has opened.

The river at the south side came within an ace of being the scene of a drowning accident Monday afternoon. A boy from Danville, whose name could not be ascertained, got in beyond his depth. Some other boys realizing that he was in danger called lustily for help. Aid, however, was not instantly available and it seemed that there was no help for the boy. When rescued he had sunk for the third time and was lying on the river bottom.

Tussle With Alligator. Chester, June 30.—Officer Harry Wier, with Frank Malah and Harvey Harbinson, of Ridley Park, had a vigorous tussle with an alligator which escaped from the residence of Clerk of Council Frank D. Kane Monday night. The reptile was sent to Mr. Kane by a friend in Florida, and escaped from its pond, and was discovered by the three men half way toward the lake, half a mile from the Kane residence. With the aid of baskets, clubs and ropes the alligator was captured and landed back whence it escaped.

There are advantages in stepping long enough to take account of stock.

Death of a Child. Helen Viola, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Grant Jakes, Homelock street, died at 5:40 o'clock last evening. The cause of death was diphtheria superinduced by attacks of scarlet fever and diphtheria, from both of which she had recovered. The funeral will take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon and will be private. Interment in St. Hubert's cemetery.

WINNERS OF P. O. S. OF A. MEDAL

The prizes offered annually by the Patriotic Order Sons of America of Washingtonville to the boy and the girl attaining the highest averages in the public schools of Derry township and Washingtonville was awarded Friday night to William Schultz and Tot Patterson, the former winning out over the boys with 92 per cent, and the latter leading the girls with an average of 87 per cent.

The averages were attained in the regular examination given by County Superintendent Derr on the completion of the eighth grade, at the close of the term. There were twelve competitors for the prizes, which consist of medals approximately five dollars in value. The offering of this annual prize has had the desired effect of stimulating interest among the pupils of Derry township and Washingtonville borough.

Owing to a delay in their arrival the diplomas have not as yet been presented to the eighth grade pupils of the rural schools of the county, who passed the final examination. County Superintendent Derr Saturday said that the diplomas will in all probability arrive during the present week when they will be at once distributed.

In this connection it might be stated that the number of graduates in the rural schools this year are thirty-five in number out of some seventy-five who attempted the examinations. The average percentage of those that passed was 65.

MISS LAURA PAYTON A JUNE BRIDE

Miss Laura Payton of this city and Martin A. Baker of Buffalo, N. Y., were united in the holy bonds of wedlock Monday afternoon. The knot was tied in St. Joseph's Catholic church at 3 o'clock by the Rev. Father McCann. Miss Katie Treas was bridesmaid and Edward Fallon best man.

The newly wedded couple left on the 4:31 Pennsylvania train for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will reside. The bride is a very popular lady of this city. The groom, who was formerly employed under Mosier & Summers on the new buildings at the hospital for the insane, has recently gone into business for himself and has just completed a building contract at Shamokin.

SITE SELECTED FOR FLAG POLE

The public improvement committee of council and the soldiers' monument committee met at Memorial park Friday night for the purpose of selecting a site for the seventy foot steel flag pole, from which a flag 15 by 25 feet will be flown to the breeze on July 4th.

The spot selected is near the eastern end of the park a trifle south of the line on which the monument is located. Unfortunately in the matter of location there was a little misunderstanding between the two committees. John Marshall, chairman, was the only member of the public improvement committee that was present at the meeting. Andrew Schatz, president of council, was on the ground early. Members of the soldiers' monument committee were present as follows: Hon. James Foster, J. C. Miller, W. L. McClure, Sam A. McCoy and Samuel Mills.

The spot selected as the site, it appears, was agreed upon without the concurrence of the soldiers' monument committee, although it did not appear that it had any material objections to offer. The latter committee protested that it was being ignored, especially as the minutes of council show that it had been invited to meet with the committee on public improvements for the purpose of selecting a spot for the flag. Chairman Andrew Schatz took the ground that as the borough is the custodian of the park and is liable for all expense incurred it should devolve upon council to locate the flag pole and that there should be no question as to its authority. He was emphatic in the assertion that the pole should be reared aloft at the very spot marked by Mr. Marshall, chairman of the committee on public improvements.

At this juncture the members of the monument committee asked why they had been invited to be present if they were to have no voice in the matter. The president of council then reiterated his views as to who had authority in the premises and told the monument committee that it had been invited through "courtesy."

RUNAWAY BOY IN A CANOE

Chief Mince-moyer Saturday received a communication from the chief of police of Wilkes-Barre requesting him to maintain a lookout over the river for the purpose of apprehending a runaway boy, the son of a prominent resident of Wilkes-Barre, who was supposed to be making his way down the North branch in a green canvas home-made canoe about thirteen feet in length.

The boy, Bernard Rosenthal by name, the son of Lewis Rosenthal, is seventeen years of age and is 5 feet 5 inches in height and weighs 125 pounds. He has fair complexion and dark hair cut and combed in pompadour style. He has a suit case with him marked "B. R."

The boy disappeared from home Wednesday last. On Friday he was seen on the river near Shickshinny in case no accident befell him it was thought he would pass through Danville Saturday or yesterday. Up to the present, however, Chief Mince-moyer has failed to discover any sign of the runaway boy.

FISHER AFTER A NEW TRIAL

The notice of appeal of the case of Henry Fisher to the supreme court was filed at Prothonotary Dissinger's office at Sunbury on Monday. The case will come before the supreme court of Pennsylvania on the first Monday in October. Arguments for a new trial will then be made by Attorneys Welsh, Morganroth and Welsh, the counsel for the defendant. Fisher was tried twice and twice convicted. The first time he was granted a new trial by the supreme court on the ground that letters to his wife which were admitted as evidence should have been kept out. His counsel this time claim that the jury was divided at times during the trial, contrary to law. The court refused a new trial, and sentenced the prisoner. No further action in the case will be taken until after the supreme court renders its decision.

CARPET STOLEN WHEN BUYER CAME

When Gustav Oelschlager, the dealer in second hand goods, received a customer at his Bloom road place of business on Tuesday evening, and the prospective purchaser stated that he would like to look at some carpet. Mr. Oelschlager led the way to his warehouse only to find that the 150 yards of carpet that he had in stock had disappeared.

An investigation disclosed that the door had been forced and the goods stolen. It is thought the theft occurred sometime during Monday night. The warehouse contains a large quantity of second hand furniture, but the thieves took only the carpet.

Owing to no work at the mines until July 6, scores of miners, many of them the sons of Pennsylvania German farmers, have hired out to assist in cutting hay and grain and become cherry pickers near Pine Grove.

DECORATIONS ARE DISTRIBUTED

The decorations earned during the year 1908 have been distributed among the members of Company F, 12th regiment, N. G. P. The degree of proficiency attained indicates that the matter of marksmanship is receiving due and proper attention and that in this respect at least the rank given Company F is nearly all that could be desired.

In the company there is one who is accounted an "expert," Corporal Willets Beagle of Bloomsburg, who was on the regimental team last year. He received a special badge in the form of a Maltese cross suspended from a bar.

As a sharpshooter Alexander Eisenhower completed his fifth year and was awarded the regulation prize, a silver keystone with a pendant red in color.

Each member of the company who has shot five years received a silver keystone with pendant. The color of the latter indicates the grade. Thus "red," the color of the pendant suspended from the keystone in the case of Alexander Eisenhower, signifies "sharpshooter," a "white" pendant signifies an "expert," "blue" stands for "marksman," black for a first class and bronze second class marksman.

The ten-year marksman medal is very elaborate, consisting of gold, bronze and enamel, the latter being in different colors to indicate grade as explained in the case of pendants, above. Those who won the ten-year medals are: First class, Sergeants Frank Ebling, and John Barry, Corporals George Marshall and Abram Childs, Privates Oscar Burdick, Albert Suidley and Charles Prentiss; second class, Sergeant Rollin Meyer.

Of those who have shot five years Harry Langer and William Smith are in the first class.

All the members are required to "qualify" under penalty of being dismissed from the company. Practicing at target, which takes place near the fair grounds, is of almost daily occurrence since qualifying began on May 1st. Frank Nevius is range master. Each succeeding year sees some improvement on the score of marksmanship. If the progress made in the past may be taken as a criterion the "experts" and "sharpshooters" of the company will compose a pretty large list in the near future.

The decorations up to four years consist of a bar or bars attached to a medal, one bar for each year's shooting. In the case of "experts" the bar is of gold; in the case of "sharpshooters" it is of silver. In all other cases the bar is of bronze. It was in addition to this medal, with the bar of gold, that Corporal Willets Beagle received the special badge in the form of Maltese cross depending from a bar, on which was inscribed: "Expert Marksman, 1908."

The officers also received decorations for revolver shooting. The medal is in the form of a cross depending from a bar. Between the two is a pendant, the color denoting the grade. Captain F. M. Herrington won a sharpshooter's pendant.

HOWE'S GREAT LONDON SHOWS

Howe's Great London Shows are advertised to exhibit here Tuesday, July 13. It has the finest circus features and one of the best traveling menageries in America. Animals from every quarter of the globe are represented. There are real live tigers, a whole cage of lions, fresh from the jungles of India, where their ancestors have supplied upon many a luckless native, and a great cage of lions, baby lions and some of them not babies. There are monkeys to delight the small boy. Those strange animals, the water buffalo, direct from our own Philippine Islands, will be found in our collection. There are sacred cows, camels, buffalo, elk, deer, caribbons and many other strange and curious animals. There are a number of elephants, among them the largest and smallest elephants in the known world.

The street parade will traverse the principal streets of the city in the morning. In the parade will appear about 40 cages and wagons, drawn by four, six and eight teams. A large collipe will play all the latest music of the day.

One of the noticeable features at the grounds where Howe's Shows appear is the courtesy of the employees. Every one is willing and anxious that the spectator shall see all of it. The show employs only those who know how to be gentlemen, and particular care to ladies and children is the first consideration of the Howe management.

Two performances will be given, beginning at 2 and 8 p. m., respectively. Don't forget the date, Tuesday, July 13.

Resigned Position.

J. Harry Bausch has resigned the position of shipping clerk at the Reading Iron works, this city, which he has held for the past five years. Mr. Bausch intends going into the retail coal business in Danville in the near future.

Professor Enoch Perrine, who delivered the address to the graduates, is professor of English literature in Bucknell university. His address was an able and appropriate one.

Clara Alto Waldron, who played the violin solo, is one of the teachers of music in the Bloomsburg Normal school. She is an accomplished violinist.

THE PRIZES

There are three prizes awarded annually to those members of the graduating class who have made the highest general averages in all the subjects of the entire two year's course. The prizes this year are awarded as follows: First prize, Charles Mortimer, Danville; second prize, Ada M. Ande, Maudsley; third prize, Clara Bacon.

Following the commencement Dr. and Mrs. Meredith tendered a reception to the class and alumni. Many people with chronic throat and lung trouble have found comfort and relief in Foley's Honey and Tar as it cures stubborn coughs after other treatment has failed. L. M. Buggles, Resonator, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bullet. For sale at Paules and Co's Pharmacy."

The funeral of Mrs. U. G. Gulick. The funeral of Mrs. U. Grant Gulick took place Friday afternoon and was largely attended. The services were conducted by the Rev. L. W. Walter, pastor of the Pine Street Lutheran church. The deceased was carried to the grave by John R. Winters, of Danbury, Iowa; Peter A. and Jacob J. Winters, of Danville, and Arthur Winters, of Sunbury, all brothers; also by Frank S. Rowe and Wilbur Gulick, of Danville, brothers-in-law. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. John R. Winters, of Dubuque, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Winters, of Sunbury. Tri-County Picnic at DeWitt's Park. The committee on grounds belonging to the Tri-County Farmers' picnic association, has decided to hold the annual outing at DeWitt's park this year and will report to that effect at the next meeting of the association, to be held in the court house Saturday.

The members of this committee met Mr. DeWitt Wednesday evening. The concessions that the association asked were readily granted and the farmers' picnic was booked for the date—which is the same each year—the third Wednesday in August. Very extensive improvements at the park are under way. When completed they will leave little to be desired in the way of first class appointments.

Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haney, East Market street, gave a party Saturday afternoon in honor of the 4th birthday of their son Alby. Those present were E. G. Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys must, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

DR. DIXON GIVES WARNING. "Your child may give up its little life in the horrors of lockjaw if the proper precautions are not taken against wounds that result from Fourth of July explosives."

This statement was made by State Health Commissioner Dixon at Harrisburg yesterday and he added: "I do not mean to be an alarmist, but on the other hand I do not know how to put strongly enough the necessity of immediate and proper treatment of every fresh wound, no matter how slight, that is made by an explosive."

"We know that the children will celebrate with fireworks. All we can do therefore is to try and keep down the list of precious young lives that are annually sacrificed to Independence Day. The health authorities have been sounding the warning year after year and we have been encouraged over the fact that the list of deaths from tetanus following Fourth of July wounds has been steadily decreasing in Pennsylvania."

"Now just a word to mothers. The wound that your child receives from the explosion of some toy pistol, fire-cracker, metallic cartridge or other explosive may seem trivial, but there may lodge under the skin the deadly lockjaw germ. Only immediate and vigorous measures may save the child's life. Take no chances. Send for a physician at once and in the meantime wash out the wound carefully with hot water that has been boiled and apply some disinfecting solution."

MAKE A NOTE NOW to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head. It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membrane that lines the air-passages.
