Forest fires have wiped out the most Danville productive huckleberry patches in the Shickshinny vicinity of Hazieton.

Andrew Brown, a 9 year old lad of Pittsburg, while trying to make a difficult catch while playing base ball fell down over the bank of the Alleghony river and was drowned.

Brother Adolph Wolf, of the Holy Ghost college, Pittsburg, while on a ladder fixing a screen, stepped on a broken rung and was precipitated to the sidewalk. He was so badly injured that he died shortly afterward.

Eighteen men employed in the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company's No. 11 mine, at Tamaqua, were on Thursday overcome by gas in the shadow of death but were brought to the surface in time to save their lives.
