He left this vicinity about 15 years

The following account of the accident is from a Knoxville, Tennessee, newspaper:

"Lying at the Knoxville hospital. with both legs amputated above his knees, but doing fairly well under the circumstances, is Mr. Charles Litterer, well-known brick manufacturer of Maryville.

Late last week Mr. Litterer fell a victim to a most painful accident but withal he gave a display of cool nerve that is hard to excel. Mr. Litterer was busy at his plant when in some manner, a portion of his clothing was caught in the cogs of a big brick machine, and before the machine could be stopped both limbs had been ground to pulp in the cogs of the machine.
"While pinioned in the machine he lay there and saw one of his limbs crushed between the cogs, up to his knee, and then fell from the machine habits to the floor. While viewing this sight es & c his other leg was being slowly mashed to pulp.

"The machinery having been stopped he coolly directed the workmen who surrounded him, how to extricate him from the machine, a task which in itself required some forty-five min-

LONG AUTO TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. F. H Vannan, with their son, Irvin Vannan, Saturday afternoon returned from an automobile trip of 1117 miles, taking in portions of the three States of Pennsylvania, New Yorks and Ohio.

During the long trip they did not meet with a single puncture, nor a mishap of any kind to cause delay; neither was there any illness among the party nor a circumstance of any kind to mar the pleasure of the trip.

The objective point of the journey was Elyria, Ohio, where Paul Vannan, son of Mr. Irvin Vannan, is located. The party left Danville in Mrs. Vannan's Elmore car with Warren Johnson as chauffeur on Tuesday, Septem ber 28th, proceeding by the way of Muncy Valley to Williamsport. Their next stop was Elmira, where they spent one night, proceeding the next day to Watkin's Glen, and thence to Pen Yan, Canandaigua, Batavia, Buffalo, Dunkirk, Westfield and Erie, arriving at Cleveland, Ohio, Friday, October 1st. On Saturday they proceeded to Elyria, where they remained until Tuesday October 5th, on which date they start ed for home. On the return trip they ed successively through the towns of Akron and Canton, Ohio, and Buter, Kittaning, Punxsutawney, Clear-eld, Bellefonte, Lock Haven, Jersey Shore and Williamsport, Pa., arriving at Danville at 3 o'clock Saturday afteroon. The roads in the main were ood. The scenery at places was beautiful and the trip throughout was very pleasant.

SHOULDER DISLOCATED

Mr. and Mrs. David Wintersteen, of Valley township, were both injured in a driving accident Saturday morning. They were driving into town and had just crossed the P. & R. track at North Mill street when the horse took fright at a passing locomotive and became unmanageable. Veering suddenly to one side the animal caused the carriage to strike a telegraph pole, the jar throwing Mr. and Mrs. Wintersteen out into the road. The shafts were broken and the horse succeeded in tearing himself loose from the buggy, after which he ran down to the steam grist mill where he was caught.

Mr. Wintersteen's right shoulder was dislocated, while Mrs. Wintersteen sustained bad abrasions about the face. Dr. Paules reduced the disloca tion and treated the injuries sustained by Mrs. Wintersteen.
