DANVILLE PA., THURSDAY. DECEMBER 23, 1909

ESTABLISHED IN 1855

ITEMS CONDENSED.

and introduce the new educational work, WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY and ATLAS of the WORLD. Must be educated and able to furnish good references as to ability and character.
THE SAALFIELD PUBLISHING COMPANY, AKRON, OHIO.

cinnati mine at Courtney, near

McCormick was burned at California, ner to buy a school bell and succeeded It will be placed on the new $50,000 building.

John George, of Punxsutawney, was which he was coupling on the Western Allegheny road at Portersville.

Each of the 1,200 male members of St. Stephens' Reformed church at Reading has promised to give $1 toward the Laymen's Missionary move-

Mrs. Sarah Irons, of Philadelphia, who has been separated from her husher in back alimony.

A number of Philadelphia merchants Some bakers of the same place an open grate. Her mother was burned are utterly ignorant of conditions reservouly about the arms and face in lating to a light plant. trying to save the child.

ing experts of western Pennsylvania ordered for the Continental hose comand adjoining districts held at the University of Pittsburg, John H. bose company. Jones advocated having a minimum amount of air in collieries saying that too much carries coal dust.

Perry D. Minnick wrote Black Hand letters at Philadelphia to help pay his way through Drexel institute,demanding $555 from D. T. Walker. He has been freed by the court pending inquiry as to whether he had any criminal intent, as the letters contained no

Eli Wallace, a retired blacksmith a tour of the vicinity where he lives by the borough engineer. every six weeks, providing for the sick who otherwise would be kept out of Borough Solicitor Gearhart: school for lack of them and sometimes in his possession and trying to pass plan suggested by council through its sparious coins, in order to give an ex- borough engineer for the adjustment located in eastern and southern counhead with the drug and formed a big lather. He had chloride of silver too, er alternative than to have the line both these drugs being used in making counterfeit money. The jury found him guilty and acquitted his wife who was charged with the same offenses.

such legal action as may be required the roders.

No mentio

Fifteen alleged offenders are under to establish the line by law. orders of District Attorney John Fox and Pursel. Thanksgiving time in open defiance of

William Derst, of Philadelphia, said to be the only survivor of the famous battle between the Monitor and Merrimae, was in court on Saturday to appear against Warren Scullin whom Scullin was held under $1,000 bail for

J. W. Bridge, aged 35, superintendent of the Pittsburg, Monongahela and Washington Railway company, is dying at a hospital as the result of firing a bullet into his left side at Monongahela. Before he became unconscihe said that the shooting was partly Professor P. B. Schwinezt, of Lehigh university, was appointed the expert by the State railroad commission to digest the reports on the boilers of locomotives on use on railroads throughout the State.

MR. WOOLLEY'S

day night.

John Godschalk was killed at Easto | A. H. Woolley, representing the Mon-crushed to death between two cars at present furnishing coal for the wat-procured for the Washington hose com-

Mr. Marshall stated that the arc dual for $402 which she says is due streets has been reported out very frequently of late.

have been arrested for selling bad tion. He admitted that the light might are known to have been using few if rences are unavoidable. He took oc any eggs, coloring their cakes with casion to utter a protest against the amount of misrepresentation that the Three year old Mary Gardner, of light plant and his personal labors South Canonsburg, was burned to death when her clothes caught fire at absurd stories are told by persons who

On motion of Mr. Iles it was order-Before a large gathering of the minng experts of western Pennsylvania ordered for the Continental hose coming experts of western Pennsylvania ordered for the Continental hose comissued Saturday from Harrisburg give the Episcopal church as soon as at all

W. Kase West, solicitor of Mahoning township, relative to the disputed township line explaining that the supervisors of Mahoning township are not allowed by law to agree to the location of township lines. If there is any sent to the Northampton county jail of the line between the borough of give it a division composed of four for three months for altering a rail- Danville and the township of Mahoning, Mr. West said, it can be ascer tained upon a proper petition present ed to the court to re-locate said line. county, is the kind of a Santa Claus The supervisors, therefore, refuse to the brigades will be composed of that amounts to something. He makes approve anything that has been done three regiments each as follows:—

and helpless, giving shoes to children tive to the above was received from dead. One old woman who inst., enclosing communication from ern counties. died recently at the age of 86,gathered solicitor and supervisors of Mahoning her existence for nearly twenty years township relative to the boundary line Thirdenth regiments, located in centdispute I will state that while it is to ral, northern and northwestern coun-Frank Clausi, a Philadelphia barber, when he was on trial for having fuse to accept the fair and sensible suse for having cyanide of potassium of all differences in the premises, yet ties. in his possession, shampooed his own said supervisors cannot be compelled bail to appear for hearings for run. The following members were presning turkey raffles at Harrisburg. ent: Schatz, Finnigan, Hes, Everhart, Wholeslale raids were made under the Marshall, Connolly, Von Blohn, Curry

BOROUGH DEPARTMENT.

	Regular employes	17.
	Labor in Light Dep't	18.
	Danville F'dy. & Machine Co	26.
	Dickson & Hall	85.
	Dean Bros	14.
ļ	Washington Fire Co	2.
	Walker & Kepler	8.
	People's Coal Yard	4.
į	Wallace A. Hoover	10.
	United Tel. & Tel. Co
	H. B. Patton	11.
	Labor and hauling	61.
	George F. Reifsnyder	19.
1	WATER DEPARTMENT

WATER DEPARTMENT.
Regular employes	169.3
American Car & F'dy. Co	61.6
D. L. & W. R. R. Co	2.2
Dickson and Hall	26.4
Henry R. Worthington	24.8
Danville F'dy. & Machine Co.	42.9
Washington Fire Co	2.2
Labor on Streets	23. 7

TO REORGANIZE STATE MILITIA

issued from National Guard head-quarters in Harrisburg Saturday. The weight, however, and consequently issuing of employment certificates, day in violation of the borough or-A communication was received from A. H. Woolley, representing the Montour Coal and Iron company, relative to a proposition he made at the last meeting, namely that he would furnish meeting, namely that he would furnish the proposition he made at the last meeting, namely that he would furnish the proposition he made at the last meeting, namely that he would furnish the proposition he made at the last meeting, namely that he would furnish the proposition he made at the last meeting, namely that he would furnish the purpose of selling again butter, at the purpose of selling again butter, foot embankment into Mahoning creek which will settle a much mooted question, none was confiscated. Some very antiquated weighing appropriate tion.

As has been previously explained, person to go into market and buy for introduction of the borough or dinance, which provides that "it shall church; in the other the horses along with the cab to which they were paratus were found but they had the merit of giving full weight. One was confiscated.

As has been previously explained, person to go into market and buy for into giving full weight. One with the purpose of selling again butter, foot embankment into Mahoning creek which will settle a much mooted question.

As has been previously explained, person to go into market and buy for the purpose of selling again butter, foot embankment into Mahoning creek which will settle a much mooted question.

As has been previously explained, person to go into market and buy for the purpose of selling again butter, foot embankment into Mahoning creek within the other the horses along with the other the horses along with the other the horses along the person to go into market and buy for the purpose of selling again butter, foot embankment into Mahoning creek within the other the section of the borough of the purpose of selling again butter, for embankment into Mahoning creek within the purpose of selling again butter, for embankment into Mahoning creek within the purpose of selling again butter.

the borough's business and repeated his offer, that he will furnish the best grade of Nanticoke buckwheat coal delivered in the bins at the water works for $2.40 per gross ton. Any length of time from three months to a year will be given for payment. On make ordered filed.

Mr. Marshall took up the subject and demanded to know who constitute the "People's Coal Co.," which is a present farnishing coal for the water has a doorway only a few fere dath the curbstone marking the heavy farn was of the seast the chief-of-pol-to design the leaves the chief that hucksters and the years, nor to annoy those who embed they are whothed in the curbstone marking the heavy farn was others from the coal region, by presticing deception, have succeeded in the livers have been restored as the result of the recent shaking up. For some time payer has a doorway only a few fere detaint.

The child must be able to read and write the subject and this eyes, c

A new brigade is added to the Pennis only a salesman employed.

On motion of Mr. Marshall it was ordered that fifty feet of new hose be propugated for the Washington in the was away with the personal appointment.

The subject of weights and measures were the gainers.

The subject of weights and measures were the gainers. by the major general and brigadier who in future will be officers and ened by the governor

These are some of the changes which will be made by the issuance of this order, which is calculated to bring the way confining itself to an inspection

On motion of Mr. Marshall it was ordered that repairs be made on East Market street between Mill street and the Engage of the Spanish-American war Adjutant General Stewart, who of brigadier general, has been working A communication was received from with this end in view. Twelve company regiments have been gradually ed several years ago along the same lines as the regular army. This reorganization as it affects the brigades, geographically located to meet the best requirements of the needs of any emergency that may arise within the borders of the State. The First Brigade. First, Second and Third regiments, all of Philadelphia. Second Brigade. Tenth, Sixteenth and Eighteenth regiments, located on "Replying to your letter of 8th western, southwestern and northwest-

Third Brigade. Ninth, Twelfth and unnamed) Fourth, Sixth and Eighth regiments.

The extra brigade is composed of the Sixth regiment, and the Fourth and Eighth regiments. The Fourteenth regiment, of Pittsburg and vicinity, i made a separate command until fur-

No mention is made of a new major general or a commander for the new brigade, but military men intimate that General Dougherty will command the division and Colonel Corvell, of Fourth brigade.

ows:

Companies at Huntingdon and BedDr. Welsh went to State college from ford, to Eighth regiment; companies at Lewistown and Bellefonte, to Twelfth regiment; companies at Holard as vice president, financial agent and lidaysburg, Altoona, Blairsville and registrar.
Indiana, to Tenth regiment.

Charles Carson of McKeesport, died before she got there. In a room to his church, this city, has decided to both near to death on account of typ-hoid fever, from which disease Carson parents of their son's death would be

SCALES WEIGHED

Pursuant to action of council the Morton L. Montgomery, of Reading, has written an exhaustive history of Berks county.

Five hundred eighty-one turkeys were shipped from York to Philadel phia last week for Christmas dinners.

Stephen Boreland was killed by a Stephen Boreland was killed by a fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the Chreimagi mine at Courtey, poar fall of slate while coming out of the charge occasioned by the order the folious and girls now employed in this city will be obliged to obtain new certificates of the beload of f set, especially, attracted a good working age limit at 14 years, boys eggs or any other article whatsoever. The first of the two runaway deal of attention. They were coated and girls now employed in this city. The chief-of-police however, detected red early in the forenoon.

Mr. Everhart explained that the sylvania guardsmen, making four in the purchaser or the vender. In this company in question is composed of all, the Fourth brigade being made up connection it is only just to note that T. L. Evans' Sons and that he himself of companies from two of the old bri. in some instances the scales used by general of the members of their staffs, by the borough council at its last meeting. Mr. Von Blohn stated that band since 1871, is suing that indivilight at Church and East Market listed men selected from the several a good many people are under the imdepartments and appointed and assign- pression that council has the authority to conduct an inspection of scales used in the stores of town and think order, which is calculated to bring the National guardsmen as nearly up to of the weights and measures used in the age of the child by the method the standard of efficiency of the reg- the curbstone market. It was deemed proper that the public be informed On January 1, which is the date that the borough can not go so far as the of 110,000 men, fully organized and allaw provides a remedy for each and equipped along the same lines as the every case where the inidvidual finds regular army and ready to take the that he is being wronged by short

CHIEF MARSHAL

The Mummers' association held an important meeting in the parlor of the Baldy House Monday eve, at which the chief marshal of the parade was electjudges who are to make the awards were appointed

On motion Major C. P. Gearhart was elected chief marshal. He was empowered to appoint his own aides. W. C. Williams submitted a list of prizes for the mummers which was ad-

First prize, $35; second prize, $25; $15. In addition there mittee's plan is given. will be two $10 prizes; four $5 prizes; six $2.50 prizes. Total $130.

For the floats the following prizes were adopted: and one barrel of flour have been do-addition to the above prizes will be awarded by the judges President John Cruikshank appoint-

W. A. Sechler, T. J. Price, Dan-

J. V. Lesher, Sunbury.

George Hancock, Northumberland. Russell Karchner, Milton. Sheriff Charles Ent, Bloomsburg. A. T. Bucher, Lewisburg.

Charles Randall, Catawissa. Dr. E. L. Davis, Berwick. Judge L. W. Welliver, Exchange.

DR. WELSH RESIGNS.

he Sixth regiment, will command the nation of Dr. Judson P. Welsh as vice president and dean of colleges at th In order to bring the regiments up Pennsylvania State college, to take efto the twelve company standard, or fect after the next annual commence-near it, it was found necessary to abment in June, 1910. Dr. Welsh tenderolish one of the old regiments and the ed his resignation to the board of trus-Fifth regiment was selected. The com- tees on Pennsylvania day but the matpanies of the old Fifth regiment are ter was kept a secret until public anapportioned to other regiments as fol- nouncement of the fact was made or at a hospital at that place asking for his mother, saying that he would die D. D., pastor of Grove Presbyterian The Rev. William C. McCormack right lay the young man's mother and in the room to the left lay his father, both near to death on account of typ. relating to the change of pastorates died. The doctors say that to tell the have not as yet been formed. Dr. Mc-Cormack will in all probability be in Danville until near spring.

ACCEPTS CALL

ISSUING OF

The subject of furnishing coal to the water works occupied considerable time before the borough council Friday night.

Radical changes will be made in the water works occupied considerable time before the borough council Friday night.

Borough Superintendent D. N. Dieffenbacher Monday received a communication from State Superintendent to the curbstone market Tues day in violation of the borough council Friday night.

Borough Superintendent D. N. Dieffenbacher Monday received a communication from State Superintendent to session of a large load of ducks and measures. No butter was found under its works and considerable time the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard head. Schaeffer, relating the superintendent of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard heads of the curbstone market Tues is sued from National Guard Borough Superintendent D. N. Dief-

a new one issued without challenge as tiate for them, representing himself is being done in Philadelphia. To settle this question Borough Superintendent Dieffenbacher addressed a letter farm. He agreed upon a price, which to the State superintendent of public the market man could not afford to with Jacobs' bread wagon was on instruction. Following is the reply:

law that the new employment certifihave always issued the employment prescribed and that you shall ascertain whether the minor can read and write fense finally went to pieces.

Yours truly

NATHAN C. SCHAEFFER." No charge is connected with the issuing of the certificates. Magistrates, notaries and justices have the right to charge fees and this is the reason why

RESERVE NIAGARA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.

In the report of the committee of landscape architects recommending the creation of a national park at Niagara Falls, which was transmitted to congress yesterday with the favorable enlorsement of Secretary of War Dickinson, much detail concerning the com-

The committee urges that a strip of property be acquired by the United States connecting with the State re servation at the end and extending the First prize, $15; second prize, $10. whole length of the gorge, embracing All will be in gold. Three tons of coal the talus, the cliff and a tract of land not less than 100 yards wide, to be connated to the association and these in verted into a national reservation. It is set forth that all building within the strip can be destroyed or moved ed the following persons as judges in connection with the Mummers' par-

By additional legislation and agreements with the Canadian government ille. the diversion of water for power pur-George H. Sonneborn, South Dan- poses should, in the opinion of the Voris Auten, and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Guyer, of Sunbury; Mr. In the descent the horses along with not be diminished.

Mrs. William Cox of Montandon; In the descent the horses along with the cab rolled over several times. The not be diminished.

HARVESTING ICE

The harvesting of ice began in earnest yesterday. An excellent quality from seven to nine inches in thickness was cut on the ponds at Castle Grove day, but it was not as thick as desir able and the work was discontinued. The first ice harvested, yesterday,

Charles H. Lotier on Ferry street. W. S. Lawrence & Son also expect to cut ice on the dam on Mahoning creek, this week.

NEW STATION AGENT

past station agent on the D. L. & W. ton, where he assumes the position of freight and ticket agent on the same 501.

Thomas W. Irland, promoted to Danville from West Pittston, yesterday entered upon his duties at the local station as Mr. Eggert's successor.

Fire at Poughkeepsie.

shipbuilding plant, located at Newmated at $125,000.

A SLY TRICK

A Shamokin dealer by a bit of sly

wanted the fowls, he said, for his own Half a dozen vehicles escaped collision

At this juncture the chief of police along. Dear Sir: It is the intention of the appeared upon the scene. The man curb and felt sure that he was doomed we that the new employment certification and repeated the wheels of the seemed very plausible and repeated this wagon escaped the wheels of the cates shall not be issued on the basis of the story that he was a farmer and the old certificates. The Philadelphia wanted the fowls for his own use. He breadth. case is different from yours because in was a little nonplused when the chief Philadelphia the school authorities asked him what he had done with the Shiloh Reformed church on Bloom have always issued the employment other loads of chickens, &c., that he certificates. The law evidently intends took out of town recently. He finally that when a man on the sidewalk ran ventured the explanation that he some times held a shooting match. This did in front of them they very readily not help his position any and his de- stopped.

The chief of-police warned him not which was the extent of the damage tempted to do so. The dealer accordingly hunted up the market man and George W. Hoke, the liveryman. They told him that under the circumstances | had just returned from a funeral and he believed he would not take the load of ducks and chickens.

Several other persons, not very well hafer, who had stepped into the office the issning of certificates was taken known, in the habit of purchasing in to warm himself. out of their hands and assigned to the school authorities.

Danville, will henceforth be under surveillance. It is very convenient for cold day such as yesterday and the dealers, if they can succeed in deluding all parties, to swoop down on our started off slowly. Before they were that hucksters from the coal region, especially, find it hard to resist. It is honing creek at the rear of the Jamhoped that the episode above narrated eson property. will have a salutary effect.

THE LAST RITES

The funeral of Joseph H. Auten, of Wilkes-Barre, whose death occurred ular. Monday, took place in this city yesterday forenoon. The body arrived at Danville on the 9:07 D. L. & W. train, accompanied by 9:97 D. L. & w. train, accompanied by eight Free Masons, as pall bearers, rep-resenting Landmark lodge of Wilkesresenting Landmark lodge of Wilkes-

The body was taken to the residence of E. W. Peters, Lower Mulberry bank. The animals instinctively clung street, where services were held at 10:30 o'clock, the Rev. Joseph E. Guy, pastor of Shiloh Reformed church, committee, be kept in such limits that Mrs. Irvin Guyer, of Sunbury; Mr. four feet deep. Wesley Auten of Collingswood, N. J.; Miss Curry, Mooresburg; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Giffin, of Illinois.

emetery, where the wife of the deceas-

Among the floral offerings was a eautiful emblem from the Masonic Lodge at Wilkes-Barre.

MILLIONS FOR U.S. NAVY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. Exactly $42,430,476 will be spent on struction during the fiscal years 1910 to 1913 inclusive, under the estimates submitted to congress by the navy department.

Of this amount $30,732,563 will be She had just returned from a Christ-George W. Eggert, for eight years for hulls and $11,697,913 for machinast station agent on the D. L. & W. ery. The total amount during the curtion is supposed to have brought on railroad at this place, left yesterday rent fiscal year is estimated at $24,-afternoon on the 2:11 train for Kings- 520,755; for 1911 it totals $13,375,220; rent fiscal year is estimated at $24,- the fatal attack. of 1912 and 1913 at aggregates $4,534,-

W. S. Reed Weds.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Half at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The of the plant of Thomas S. Marvel's Rev. Dr. W. G. Keiffer tied the knot. There were no attendants. Mr. and burgh, N. Y., was destroyed by fire Mrs. Reed left on an extended South-The loss is roughly esti-ern trip. Upon their return they will reside at Bloomsburg.

OVER 30-FOOT

Roup, who lives on the Morrall farm near Kipp's run, was delivering farm team stand at the corner of Pine and some business at a doorway only a few decline, and so the bargain was closed. Ferry street when the team came He was caught close to the

One of the single trees was broken.

The second runaway occurred about curbstone market an purchase goods observed the horses had crossed the in large quantities. It is a temptation foot of Factory street and were mak-

> At this point from the top of the creek's bank to the water's edge the distance is at least thirty feet. It is a most dangerous declivity, the bank at many places being nearly perpendic-For a short distance the space is just wide enough for a vehicle. It narrows down, however, and finally there is only a foot path between the Barre, to which the deceased belonged.

The body was taken to which the deceased belonged. to the narrow path on the brink and actually succeeded in delaying the impending disaster. The heavy cab was too much for them, however, and Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Judge down over the high embankment into the creek, which at that point is some cab landed in about three feet of water right side up; one of the horses lav Interment was made in Fairview on his side and only a part of his head was out of the water. The other horse was standing.

Singularly enough neither of the horses seemed badly injured. One of them bears a few scratches about the legs, but that is all. Several parts of the cab are broken.

DIES AFTER SHOPPING

NORRISTOWN, Dec. 22.

Exactly $12,430,476 will be spent on vessels of the navy now under construction during the fiscal years 1910 driveway at the State hospital for the

Miss Bonham was a Canadian and for a dozen years was engaged to conduct visitors through the women's department of the institution

Killed Playing Santa Claus.

Miss Emily E. Ettla, of Milton, and W. S. Reed, of Bloomsburg, who is ed from Christmas shopping laden well known in Danville, were wedded with gifts for his twin daughters, n the Presbyterian church of Milton Charles Weismiller, of this place, kissed them and watched them fall asleep. He then prepared to arrange the presents for distribution, and while loving task was in progress fell for-ward to the floor upon his face, dead. Weismiller was a well-known Penn-sylvania railroad fireman.