The occurrence of high water Friday precipitated an animated discussion in council Friday night relative to the capacity of the Church street culvert and the subject of surface drainage in general.

Mr. Cleaver brought up the matter by calling attention to the flooded condition of the borough in the vicinity of the Stove works Friday afternoon and said that the view is held by some result of a mine cave-in at Scranton that the borough is responsible, it berecently. No buildings collapsed but doors, windows and plaster show the Church street is partially choked up. The relatively small pipes laid under the culvert in the canal by the D. L. & W. Railroad company are also held responsible for flooded conditions. The matter was discussed at considerable length, practically all the members

Since the culverts have been constructed in only a small volume of water the Church street culvert is inadequate to prevent flooding. The fact is, he stated, that a larger culvert should be constructed at Church street.

Council Friday night did not see its way clear to take action looking to an enlargement of the Church street and other culverts to meet the changed conditions. In order to ascertain whether or not the borough is responsible in the premises, on motion of Mr. Deutsch it was ordered that the matter be referred to the committee on streets and bridges for investigation.

With two exceptions the applications, representing the old vehicles at the hotel. stands in which the applicants held license last year and previously, were at once granted, on condition that they be found in proper form and that the law be fully complied with.

The applications of Joseph Hilkert and M. N. Houghton constituted the two exceptions, which were at once taken up and which occupied the proceedings during the day.

Mr. Hilkert, who was an applicant for license at Mooresburg, was called to the stand. He has sold his farm about a mile from Mooresburg and has purchased the hotel property. He explained why in his opinion a hotel at Mooresburg is a necessity, being the only public house between Mausdale and Milton.

MANY WITNESSES

Fifteen witnesses were called by the applicant, the testimony occupying the court until noon. The first witness was M. N. Houghton, the applicant. He is 23 years of age and is married. His present home is at Pine Summit, Columbia county. The hotel property, is owned by his father. He was told that it is urged that application for license is not made in good faith and that others will be pecuniarily interested in the conduct of the hotel In reply he was emphatic that it is his intention to occupy the house and keep hotel in it. He has rented the hotel property for one year paying $25 The lease was offered in

"'Squire" John W. Lore, of this city, formerly of Columbia county, where he was justice of the peace for many years, was called as a witness. He has known the applicant practically all his life and considers his character "all right." In the opinion of the witness Mr. Houghton is a fit person to govern a hotel.

Harvey Houghton of Turbotville, uncle of the applicant, with whom he lived for four years, was the next witness. He gave M. N. Houghton a very good reputation.

Joseph Chamberlin and William Fowler of Pine Summit, who have known M. N. Houghton all his life, testified to the same effect.

S. M. Williamson, butcher of Turbot ville, said the applicant was a person of good moral character and explained the necessity of having a hotel at Ex-

Ulysses Adams and Jacob Smith, who live near Exchange, both gave testimony tending to show that a hotel is necessary at that place.

THE REMONSTRANTS.

Following the noon intermission the witnesses for the remonstrance were called and one hour and a half were occupied with their testimony.

Thomas Dennin was the first witness. Citing the speech of the people he said the applicant is not a fit person to conduct a hotel.

The second witness called was Boyd Stead, postmaster at Exchange. According to the speech of the people, he said, the reputation of the applicant person to be entrusted with a license.

Among other witnesses called, who testified to the above effect were Joseph Kuhns and John A. Ellis.

Harry Cox, the present landlord, described the satisfactory amount of business done at the Exchange hotel. Others who testified for the remons trance were Dr. Lawrence of Turbot ville, Amos Albeck, constable of Anthony township, R. K. Mohr, Millard Betz and W. H. Dildine, of Exchange. A few of the witnesses went on record to the effect that a licensed house is accommodation of the public run on the temperance plan would fill a want

ACTION IN TRESPASS

An action in trespass is against Montour county by Albert H. Deeter, of Mayberry township, to recover damages for the value and permanent loss of the use of a horse through the alleged negligence of the above de fendant.

The plaintiff sets forth that it is the legal duty of the said defendant to keep and maintain the river bridge in a safe and passable condition so that the public at large may have free and safe passage thereon at all times on of all kinds; that the said defendant half wholly disregarding, did negligently on November 14,1908, permit the surface of the floor of the driveway to become slippery and dangerous.

That on November 14, 1908, a hors belonging to the plaintiff, while being driven by the latter fell on the said driveway of the river bridge near the northern approach thereto, within the county of Montour and was permanently injured and crippled, so as to be wholly and forever valueless and useess for draught and all other ordinary
