

LECTION LAWS TO BE REVISED

The next legislature will be asked to amend a number of defects in the schedule of the recently adopted amendments to the constitution of the State. Since the adoption of the amendments the State department has been flooded with inquiries regarding the effect on the terms of various public officers not provided by the schedule, or the benefit of inquirers a compilation has been made of the things that will have to be taken care of by the legislature. All of these will be incorporated in a bill that will be presented early in the session of 1911.

As judges of the county courts can only be elected in odd numbered years, municipal elections, it will be necessary to lengthen for one year the terms of the judges whose commissions expire with the end of the years 1912, 1914, 1916 and 1918. The schedule as already provided that those judges whose terms expire with the end of 1910 shall continue in office another year.

Terms of justice of the peace end on the first Monday of May of each year, except those to be elected in February, 1910, who shall serve until the first Monday in December, 1915. The proposed act must state specifically that the terms of those elected in 1906 shall be lengthened to the first Monday in December, 1911; those of 1907 and 1908 to the first Monday of December, 1912, and those of 1909 to the like date in 1913.

The schedule takes care of city, borough, township and ward officers elected in 1908 for three years; their terms to end on the first Monday in December, 1911, and their successors to be elected in November of that year but it remains for the legislature to extend the terms of such officers elected in 1909 to the first Monday in December, 1913.

Terms of officers who in the past have been elected for four years will have to be elected to the first Monday in December of the proper year, as follows: Those elected in 1907, to December, 1911; those elected in 1908, whether to the same date (which would shorten their term a few months) or to December, 1913, which would lengthen them one year and eight months. Those elected in 1909 for four years are provided for in the schedule and will serve until the first Monday in December, 1913.

Officers elected in 1909 for two years should serve until the first Monday of December, 1911, but this is not provided for in the schedule and will require action by the legislature.

One of the mistakes in the schedule is a provision that assessors elected in February, 1910, shall serve until the first Monday in December, 1911, although heretofore these officers have been elected for three years. Under the amended constitution those elected after this year will serve four years.

CURED TO STAY CURED

How a Danville Citizen Found Complete Freedom from Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—From urinary disorders—From any disease of the kidneys, Be cured to stay cured. Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures.

Danville people testify. Here's one case of it: Mrs. Charles Whispell, 127 W. Mahoning Street, Danville, Pa., says:

"My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills justifies me in saying that they are a remedy of merit. I had sharp twinges in my loins and at times my back was so painful that I could hardly straighten. I did not sleep well and in the morning when I got up, the backache was as distressing as ever. It was difficult for me to change my position when lying down and the stiffness across my loins made it a task for me to arise after sitting. A tired, languid feeling clung to me and I was all out of sorts. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills and hearing them highly spoken of by a local friend, I was induced to give them a trial. A supply was procured for me from Hunt's Drug Store and the use of one box made a decided improvement. The pain and soreness was relieved and I regained my strength and energy." (Statement given January 3, 1908.)

CONFIRMED PROVE. On January 24, 1910, when Mrs. Whispell was interviewed, she said: "I am glad to say that Doan's Kidney Pills completely cured me of kidney complaint. My former endorsement of them still holds good."

MARRIED HIS COMPETITOR

Charles Faux, the Bloomsburg merchant who married a corner storekeeper to stifle competition, is now in the Columbia county jail, facing a number of charges, all outcroppings of his matrimonial experience. Soon after his marriage several months ago, Mrs. Faux returned to her old store and Faux went to live with his daughter. His wife had him arrested on a non-support charge, his former housekeeper caused his arrest on an assault and battery charge and when he learned he was to be arrested for breach of promise by a third woman, he left his store behind to be sold out by the sheriff and skipped to Canada. He returned, however, to Berwick and was there arrested by Chief of Police Bason.

Hoarse Coughs, Stuffy Colds. Pain in chest and sore lungs, are symptoms that quickly develop into a dangerous illness if the cold is not cured. Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough, heals and eases the congested parts, and brings quick relief. For sale by Paules & Co. Pharmacy.

MANY PERSONS SUSTAINED FALLS

The firm stand taken by the borough in insisting that the snow be removed from the sidewalks within the limit of time prescribed by the ordinance seems to have been productive of good results. A gentleman whose business took him over a good part of the borough Saturday remarked that he never saw the ordinance so well observed. By evening it was rather the exception than otherwise, even on the back streets, to find a sidewalk from which the snow had not been removed.

The snow rendered the ice covered sidewalks very treacherous. Even where they had been shoveled off the thin coating of granulated snow that remained seemed to make the underlying ice more treacherous. A very large number of persons sustained painful bumps by falling where the walking had the appearance of being pretty safe. How some of those who fell escaped sustaining broken bones it is hard to understand. The most painfully hurt was William Hullein who was injured about the hip. He was taken to the home of his son, Wilford Hullein, Lower Mulberry street, where he received surgical attention. Dr. Curry, who attended him, saw no evidence of a fracture, although the bruise sustained is very painful.

A natural concomitant of this long and rigorous winter is icy and almost impassable sidewalks. The oldest citizen can not recall a similar condition during a winter of the past. Practically ever since the holidays many of the sidewalks, especially those on the sheltered or southern side of the streets, have been coated with ice. While in many instances this condition is due to the frequent thawing and freezing and is unavoidable, yet in too many instances it is caused by defective and leaking rain pipes, which drain the water from the roofs to the sidewalk, where it adds to the constantly accumulating mass of ice. Another cause lies in the fact that as a very general thing the sidewalks lie, too, low and as the snow in the street melts the water drains upon the pavement.

It is, of course, impossible to do anything to remedy these conditions at present, but their repetition can be avoided by giving proper attention to the piping and raising the pavements where needed before another season rolls around.

A Safeguard to Children.

"Our two children of six and eight years have been since infancy subject to colds and croup. About three years ago I started to use Foley's Honey and Tar, and it has never failed to prevent and cure these troubles. It is the only medicine I can get the children to take without a row." The above from W. C. Ornstein, Green Bay, Wis., duplicates the experience of thousands of other users of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures coughs, colds and croup, and prevents bronchitis and pneumonia. For sale by Paules & Co. Pharmacy.

FIRST RAILROAD

In a historical sketch contributed to the Pottsville Historical society by Dr. J. J. John, of Shamokin, the Danville & Pottsville railroad is spoken of as being the first railroad chartered in America.

The information appears in an article in Sunday's Philadelphia Record. That part of the article containing the local reference is as follows: "A series of three papers by Dr. J. J. John, of Shamokin, have for their theme that fascinating subject, 'The Great Road or King's Highway.' This was the road of 1770 which led from the site of Schuylkill Haven on the Schuylkill to the site of Sunbury on the Susquehanna, and which was the follower of the Lightfoot survey of 1759. Lightfoot was authorized by an act of the Provincial Assembly to see if it was practical to construct a road between Philadelphia and Fort Augusta. Dr. John's history of the Danville & Pottsville railroad of 1826, the first chartered road in America, is another of his characteristic contributions."

INJURED BY FALL

B. F. Kelly, Water street, sustained a fall on Saturday which will doubtless incapacitate him for labor for several days if indeed the injury does not prove more serious.

Mr. Kelly, who conducts a blacksmith shop on the south side, was on his way home to dinner when at the corner of Pine and Front streets he slipped on the icy pavement, falling on his left side. The arm and hip are bruised and severe pain at the base of the spine would indicate that there may be other injuries.

Shenandoah Making Plans.

Shenandoah firemen are at work collecting funds for the entertainment of the firemen who attend the six-county convention at that place during the week of June 6th. The firemen promise a lively convention with the quality of entertainment that has made the coal region towns noted.

Y. M. C. A. MEN'S MEETING

The attendance at the second of the meetings for men held at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon was double that of the meeting held two weeks previous, which augurs well for the successful continuance of the gatherings. Rev. A. J. Iroy was the speaker last Sunday. An effort is being made to re-awaken an interest in the Sunday afternoon meetings that were formerly one of the best features of the Y. M. C. A. work in this city. To this end Acting Secretary Miller is endeavoring to arrange a series of meetings with prominent speakers of this city and elsewhere.

MANAGERS FILE RESERVE LIST

At a recent meeting of the Susquehanna league managers held at Berwick, it will be remembered, action was taken that it would be unlawful for a manager to sign a player who had been a member of any other team last season before he had first been released by his manager.

Following this ruling a request was made by the president of the league for each manager to furnish a list of last season's players which would constitute a reserve list. The list of reserves and releases follow:

Opened Pimple Found Needle.

Clinton Sober, a farmer residing near Shamokin, felt an itching sensation on his chest and investigating discovered a pimple. This his niece opened and discovered a hard substance protruding. With the aid of a pair of pinchers a needle two inches long was taken from the man's body.

The only way Mr. Sober can account for the needle being there is that he swallowed it while drinking water.

The peculiar part of it is that he never knew it and he never experienced any pain. The wound is rapidly healing now.

Birthday Party.

The parsonage of Trinity Methodist church, was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Saturday evening when Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Snavely entertained a number of little folks and members of the congregation at a birthday party in honor of the eleventh birthday anniversary of their daughter Evelyn. Miss Evelyn was the recipient of a large number of beautiful presents. There were between forty and fifty people present.

Store Room Vacated.

The store room at No. 288 Mill street, occupied as a clothing store by S. F. Ricketts for the past twenty-three years, was vacated by Mr. Ricketts Monday and formally handed over to F. W. Howe, who will conduct a similar business. James Hodges, for many years a clerk with Mr. Ricketts will continue in that capacity under Mr. Howe.

Two brothers will marry two sisters at Reading on March 16. A double ceremony will be held. Miss Elizabeth Klapp Yocum will marry Dr. Ferdinando Colletti and Miss Mary Yocum will marry Dr. Nicholas Colletti.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FOR GIRL

Engineer Harvey Brumbach, of Sunbury, while on his run on the passenger train from Mt. Carmel to Sunbury on Saturday afternoon had one of the most unusual experiences in his railroad career, when a little girl, who was run down by the train, crawled unhurt from underneath one of the coaches after being dragged one hundred yards.

Mamie Jones' parents are dead. She is eight years old and lives with her uncle John Haddock, of Shamokin. On Saturday she started to visit her grandmother, Mrs. Haddock, who lives at Boydtown. She travelled on the Mt. Carmel and Shamokin trolley line as far as Coal Run. There she got off and started to walk the rest of the way on the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad. While she was crossing bridge 25, the afternoon passenger train suddenly appeared around a curve. The little girl was too frightened to move.

She was knocked down by the engine, which passed over her body. The train ran on a hundred yards before Engineer Brumbach could bring it to a stop. Then the little girl picked herself from underneath the baggage car and started to run down the track. One of the trainmen grabbed her.

To all of the persons who were present, her escape was miraculous. The engine, tank and baggage car had passed over her. She was taken back to Shamokin and removed to her home. Outside of a couple of scratches on her forehead, she was unhurt.

DISTRICT S. S. CONVENTION

Rev. A. J. Iroy, president of the Montour County Sunday School association, has decided that in view of the prevailing weather conditions it will be better to postpone the time of holding the convention in the five districts outside of Danville, from the present month to the last week in April. The district presidents have been notified to that effect.

While no definite action has been taken as yet it is probable that the convention of district No. 5, comprising the schools of Danville, will be held before the latter part of April.

The inclement weather and the resulting bad condition of the roads, both last year and the year before, when the meetings were held during the first part of February, were responsible for the slim attendance at the majority of the conventions in the outlying districts.

All Cables Strung.

The last of the six cables to carry Harwood current has been swung across the Susquehanna above Berwick and Nescopeck, and the work of fastening them to the heavy insulators is completed. The connecting of the towers with the Berwick plant and the completion of the installation of the new machinery is all on that end that remains to be done.

The Mt. Joy Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Mt. Joy Orphans' school will be held on Washington's Birthday at the school. All former pupils and also pupils of other orphan schools are invited to attend.

Hahn-Thomas.

James Hahn, of Danville, and Miss Isabella Thomas, of Moorsburg, were married at the parsonage of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. George S. Womer.

Feaster-Crossley.

Delmor M. Feaster and Miss Edna V. Crossley, both of near Moorsburg, were married Tuesday afternoon at the Shiloh Reformed parsonage by Rev. Joseph E. Gay. The young couple were attended by Roy Feaster, brother of the groom and Miss Margaret Crossley, sister of the bride.

Sledded to Frosty Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stettler, Frosty Valley, entertained a sleighing party of young people from Riverside on Tuesday evening. Jerry Hagan, of Coatesville, after having applied for lodging at the Lancaster police station, fell down stairs in the lockup and died from concussion of the brain.

Boyer's Heights, one of Reading's suburbs, is to be beautified by the planting of 500 Carolina poplar trees. George M. Eisenbrown will plant trees of the same kind in Hyde park.

BIG SCARE AT THE HOSPITAL

A dreadful scare occurred at the hospital for the insane Sunday morning, when for a few minutes it looked as though the great institution for the second time in its history was to be swept by fire.

Simultaneously, at a very early hour, in all the wards a peculiar black smoke with a pungent odor made its appearance. From minute to minute it increased in volume and before a general alarm could be given the long corridors were literally black with smoke and persons standing a few yards apart could scarcely recognize each other. The greatest alarm was occasioned not only among the patients, but also the attendants, who saw visions of a great conflagration. One of the first notified was Steward H. B. Schultz. He was amazed at the condition of affairs as he ran through the wards. It took time to do the right thing without wasting a moment at that critical period of time.

Mr. Schultz quickly developed a theory. He hurried to the boiler house and began an inspection of the tower erected there in connection with the heating and ventilating system.

What he found at the base of the tower, was a mass of waste and oily rags on fire, the dense and suffocating smoke emitted being carried through the underground duct to the buildings housing the insane and thence distributed throughout all the wards.

Nothing remained to be done but to throw out the burning mass and to wait for the smoke to pass out of the wards. The fire it is believed, was caused by spontaneous combustion.

All were greatly relieved to learn that the building was in no danger of falling a prey to fire. Mr. Schultz acknowledges that it looked to him at first as though the very worst was about to occur.

Sleighing Party.

A sleighing party was entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett near Maudsall. Refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Carrie Roberts, Alice Gross, Blanche Myers, Flora Kashner, Emma Peterson, Martha Rounsley, Hannah Cleaver, Maud Pyle, Etha Bennett, Lottie Martz, Hattie Zimmerman, Florence Fry, Ruth Deitz, Margaret Clark, Laura Bennett, Alice Deitz, Rachel Jones; Messrs. Lewis Says No Strike.

Indianapolis, Feb. 16.—T. L. Lewis, national president of the United Mine Workers, has announced that the operators would surly grant a wage increase to the soft coal men, thereby averting a general strike of the bituminous diggers.

The operators and miners recently could not come to any agreement regarding the seal for the next year.

Entertained Ladies Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Trinity Lutheran church were entertained on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Susan Reynolds, Mill street. Those present were Messdames George Leighton, J. B. Laidacker, Peter J. Berger, Reuben Boyer, J. H. Boyer, J. H. Woods, J. C. Minceover, J. D. Gosh and A. M. R. Russell.

CLOSED ENGAGEMENT

The Wills musical comedy company closed its engagement in this city with two performances yesterday, presenting in the evening, "In Gay Atlantic City."

It is the general opinion that this company is one of the best popular priced organizations that ever appeared here. John B. Wills himself is a whole show. His versatile comedy brings him out each time with a new laugh. His acting company and the specialties are all of the very highest class.

Pentecostal Mission.

Special religious services are in progress at the Pentecostal Mission, Walnut and Church streets. Eleven have professed conversion in ten days. Rev. H. G. Trumbauer, of Bloomsburg will preach tonight, and Rev. Wilson Lewis, of Mt. Carmel, tomorrow night. A praise and experience meeting will be conducted Saturday night.

Supper at Y. M. C. A. Tonight.

A Martha Washington Supper under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary and Gymnasium Committee will be held this evening from 5:30 to 8:00 in Y. M. C. A. Hall. Tickets 25 cents. Mans Farm Spring Water will be used.

Struck by a window cleaner who had fallen from the third story of a building at Pittsburg, Dr. George T. Rihetti, after regaining a semiconscious state, scrambled to his knees and started to give treatment to the other man. In the course of his ministrations, after a crowd had gathered, he weakened and fell. Both men will die. The window cleaner, Harry O. Barrell, is suffering from compound fractures of the right leg and arm as well as internal injuries, while the physician suffers from paralysis and internal injuries.

A FLOOD OF LOVE TOKENS

The mail carriers of the Danville post office Monday found the job of playing Cupid's messengers a strenuous one. Laden all day like pack horses they distributed and collected the love tokens, but the most determined effort failed to bring them to the bottom of the pile before the end of the day.

There remained over for Tuesday's delivery an amount equal to that handled Monday, which it was found impossible to deliver in the eight hours allowed by the post office department for a day's work.

The mail, with the exception of that of last Easter, was the heaviest known here for years. It was made up for the most part of post cards and small packages, containing valentines, a great number of which were posted in Danville and which had to be gathered by the carriers while on their routes. It was this delay that rendered it impossible for the mail carriers to make more than half their usual number of deliveries and collections.

POMONA GRANGE MEETING

The next regular meeting of Pomona Grange, No. 31, of Montour and Northumberland counties, will be held at the P. O. S. of A. hall in Sunbury on Wednesday, February 23rd, and a most interesting day has been arranged.

During the forenoon the fifth degree will be given in full form. In the afternoon there will be installation of officers and a program of addresses by a list of very able speakers, which will include Hon. W. T. Croasy, State master; E. B. Dorsett, State lecturer; A. L. Martin, member of State board of agriculture; Charles Dildine, member of the executive committee of the Pennsylvania State grange, and others.

ALL NEXT WEEK

Chas. K. Champlin and his clever stock company are booked to appear at the opera house all next week. This company is considered one of the best stock companies on the road. Mr. Champlin has surrounded himself with the very best artists that money could secure. The repertoire consists of nothing but the best Metropolitan productions and every play will be staged with all special scenery and beautiful electrical effects. The play for Monday evening is "The Powers That Be," a drama belonging to the better class of plays. Its story is one of love and romance, enlivened by comedy of a wholesome and natural type. There is a refreshing freedom from the "blood and thunder," so inseparable from many plays of the present day. High grade vaudeville will be introduced between the acts of every performance by the famous Aerial Budds, the lightning change gymnasts; John J. Kennedy, everybody's favorite comedian; Lulu Morrison and her five Japanese girls; Thomas Schaefer; Dottie Green, Dot Kennedy and the very latest illustrated songs and the four Everetts.

Will Invite Conference

The Bloomsburg Methodists on Sunday voted to invite the Central Pennsylvania Methodist Episcopal conference to meet in the First church of that town in 1911. It has been thirty years since Bloomsburg has entertained the conference though the sentiment which culminated in Sunday's formal invitation was started several years ago, during the pastorate of the Rev. William Perry Eveland. The conference meets this year at York next month.

It was expected by some that with the completion of the new Pine Street Methodist Episcopal church at Williamsport the Central Pennsylvania conference would be entertained in that city next year. It is said now, however, that the sentiment of the conference is that Pine Street entertain on the next general conference year, at which time larger accommodations than ordinary are needed.

It is the general opinion that this company is one of the best popular priced organizations that ever appeared here. John B. Wills himself is a whole show. His versatile comedy brings him out each time with a new laugh. His acting company and the specialties are all of the very highest class.

UNSETTLED WEATHER

According to the weather forecast last evening unsettled weather conditions are apt to continue, snow being among the possibilities.

During the rain yesterday the snow melted at a rapid rate, sleighing being badly spoiled between this city and Maudsall. Beyond that point on all but the most frequently traveled roads last evening plenty of snow remained, although the sleigh runners cut through to the ground and the horses traveled with difficulty.

A drop in temperature would preserve the sleighing but the change would have to occur very soon.

TWO MEN KILLED

Two Slavonian laborers, Andrew Pesockos and Mike Shudock, were killed Tuesday evening at the plant of the Berwick A. C. & F. company when a pile of steel side sheets for freight cars toppled over upon them.

The men were part of a gang of eleven men who were working at the foot of the pile, all of whom would have been killed had it not been for the warning of Foreman Fred Hess, who saw the pile beginning to fall. The two victims were horribly mangled, their bodies being buried beneath many tons of steel.

Mrs. Hannah Mitchell, of Sunbury, is visiting her brother, W. W. DeWitt, South Danville.

OBSEQUIES WERE VERY IMPRESSIVE

The funeral of Jeremiah Donovan, which took place in St. Joseph's Catholic church on Monday morning was one of the most impressive and unusual funeral services that was ever held in this city. The services were very largely attended both by people from town who were friends of the deceased when he lived in this city and those from a distance who came to Danville to attend the last rites.

The body arrived in South Danville from Philadelphia on the 7:02 Pennsylvania train Monday morning and proceeded to St. Joseph's where low mass was said immediately upon the arrival of the funeral party by Rev. Fr. Donovan.

Following this solemn requiem mass was sung. In the sanctuary were six priests, included being three nephews and a cousin of the deceased, Rev. Francis J. Sheehan, of Philadelphia, was celebrant; Rev. John J. Donovan, of Philadelphia, was deacon, and Rev. Thomas T. Sheehan, of Philadelphia, was sub-deacon. These are nephews. Rev. Father Feaser, of the Holy Family convent, of this city, was master of ceremonies. Rev. Michael Donovan, of Philadelphia, a cousin, and Rev. Father McCann, rector of St. Joseph's, assisted in the sanctuary.

The pall bearers were Jeremiah Donovan and Michael Linehan, of New York City; John Sheehan, of Williamsport, and Thomas Fennell, of Messengerville, New York.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were Mrs. Margaret Smith, Dennis, Daniel, Catherine, Elizabeth and Michael Donovan, sons and daughters of the deceased, all of Philadelphia; Mrs. Thomas Sheehan, of Williamsport and Mrs. Thomas Fennell, of Messengerville, New York, sisters; Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. Coughlin, Mrs. John O'Donnell, Mrs. James Connelley, Mrs. Philip Smith and Mr. D. Linehan, of Philadelphia; John Linehan, and Mrs. Catherine Linehan, of Yonkers, New York; Mrs. Catherine J. Donovan, Michael Donovan and Edward Condon, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fennell, of Messengerville, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sheehan and children, Mary and John, of Williamsport; Cornelius Haley and family, of Rupert, Jeremiah Dineen, of East Longmeadow, Mass.; Mrs. M. H. Haley, of Catawissa and R. Savage, of Kingston.

WILL INVITE CONFERENCE

The Bloomsburg Methodists on Sunday voted to invite the Central Pennsylvania Methodist Episcopal conference to meet in the First church of that town in
