PHILADELPHIA STREETS QUIETER

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23. Determined action on the part of the police and State Fencibles and the threat to call out 10,000 National Guardsmen has evidently cooled the temper of the street car rioters, for no disturbance has been reported since street cars were withdrawn from the street at dark last night. The street car officials say this morning that they have more cars running than at any time since the beginning of the strike and the police report no trouble thus

GENERAL STRIKE DANGER SMALL.

Stories that a general strike of all the union men in Philadelphia would be called out, published yesterday, shed. Several sympathetic strikes were the numeral "1. called yesterday, but it is impossible ority of the 30,000 union men reported of double line above the middle of the for Washington's birthday, and that stamp

NO EFFORTS TO END STRIKE.

declare the failure of the company to operate a thorough and safe service the company must yield to their demands. On the other hand, the company officials declare they have suffici-As they are given proper police protec-tion. So far 750 cars have been attacked and partially wrecked by the riot

Penrose, upon being appealed to by different labor officials has expressed himself strongly about the strike, sayant to President Kruger, of the Rapid riot duty. Transit company, declared today the company would not arbitrate.

CARS ALMOST ON SCHEDULE.

It had been feared that there might be rioting in the Kensington and Germantown districts during the noon hour, when the thousands of employes in the shipyards and big factories stopped work for lunch. To forestall such action, every available police man was put on duty in these suburbs but no untoward incident occasioned police interference. Police Superinten ! ent Taylor with 5,000 uniformed pol-icemen and about 300 plain clothes men, patrolled the entire northeastern district and arrested a few minor disturbers of the peace. The great crowd of police overawed the mob, and no violence toward street cars was attempted. The cars are running almost on schedule time in that hitherto riot ridden district.

The Benefit of the Doubt. Horrified Citizen-Hey, there: What are you pounding that man for? Man on Top-He says he can't remember whether he ever called me a liar o not. I'm (biff) giving him (biff) the benefit of the doubt.-Chicago Tribung.

Thirteen years ago a banker lent a farmer $1,000 with which to buy stock. The farmer, of course, gave his note. The borrower lost on the stock deal and had hard luck generally, so he couldn't pay the work. couldn't pay the note. Later he went away, and after many years he made good again and returned. The banker tried to collect his note, but it was outlawed by a lapse of thirteen years One day the banker stopped at the man's farm and admired his fine pumpkins. The farmer made him a present of two large ones.

"I'll just credit these pumpkins on your old note," the banker said. "All right" the farmer said. That revived the obligation. The banker brought suit and recovered in full for the note and interest.—Kansas

WINDOWS SEED SHIP OF COMMISCONING ASSESSMENT R-I-P-A-N-S Tabule

Doctors find A good prescription For Mankind.

The 5-cent packet is enough for usua occassions. The family, bottle (60 cents contains a supply for a year. All-drug

WINDSOR HOTEL W. T. BRUBAKER, Manager.

> Midway between Broad St. Statio and Reading Terminal on Filbert St European, $1.00 per day and up

American, $2.50 per day and up The only moderate priced hotel of

PHILADELPHIA

Montour American NEW POSTAL

this city. As vet none have been re-caused some excitement. The official on the end, containing a profile portrait Hurlburt of Lock Haven in connectannouncement by the officials of the of William McKinley, looking to the ion with his attendance at the encamp-Central Labor union that no such left, with a background of horizontal ment of the Grand Army of the Restrike would be called at this time allines and a border bearing the followlayed greatly the fears of those who believed a general strike in Philadel-Cent. McKinley," and on the other phia would be followed by great blood- side of the portrait, within the border, to determine how many men are out.

address only" appears in outline It can be said, however, that the majout yesterday were men who laid off card, on a line with the bottom of the

No tangible efforts have been made thus far to end the strike. The strikers occurred at Shamokin, Tuesday, will pany E. Ninety-third Pennsylvania ent men to man all their cars as soon Interment will be made in Episcopal ing it should never have occurred, and calling in all the details from the sur that he would exert himself to prevent rounding counties and the full organtrouble. D. T. Pierce, executive assist- ization is now intact and ready for company would not arbitrate.

'If the old men come back, it must be as individuals,' he said. "We will not negotiate with the union."

They Like rat Mills.

A Tunisian girl has no chance of marriage unless she tips the scale act 200 pounds, and to that end she company to fatten when she is lifteen mences to fatten when she is fifteen years old. She takes aperients and eats a great deal of sweet stuff and leads a sedentary life to hasten the process. Up to fifteen she is very handsome, but at twenty what an immense, unwieldy mass of fat she be-comes! She waddles, or, rather, undu-lates, along the street. Her costume is very picturesque, especially if she be of the richer class. She is clothed in fine silks of resplendent hues of a bright red, yellow or green and wears a sort of conical shaped headdress, from which depends a loose white drapery. Turkish trousers and daluty slippers, the heels of which barely reach the middle of the feet, complete the cos-

Honor In Wall Street. magazines, this might be the last place to look for the very soul and spirit of integrity. But there it is "in the midst of them." Between members of that marble mansion of trade in securities on New York's famous Broad street no paper writing passes certifying to the binding obligation of a transaction. In the very fiercest rush and maddest vortex of the wild corner a word, a the merest sign, amply suffices. V ever it may lead to-irreparable loss, ruin, bankruptcy, no matter—the deal is closed. I am not professing to be an apologist for whatever crimes may be committed in the name of honor. I simply record the fact, to be easily man forced her way in through the committed in the name of honor. I simply record the fact, to be easily verified, that the dealings on that exchange are "on honor." The Corinthian fairness of its pillared and entablatured front is not shamed by the constant and consistent uprightness of the traffic within.-Christian Register

HAY FEVER eet, New York

TRADE MARKS DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C. Scientific American.

MUNN & Co. 361Broadway. New York

COMRADE OF CARD IS OUT DAVID R. ECKMAN FORMER RESIDENT

Civil war and a member of the Union Veteran Legion, received a couple of ceived for sale by the local post office interesting mementoes and it is not likely that any will be which recalled wartime memories.

this city, were comrades. Mr. Eckman yesterday stated that he can bear witness to the fact not only that Mr. Hurlburt was the youngest soldier actively engaged, but also that he was one of the bravest men in the

What adds interest to the above is the fact that Danville also lays claim | Beef Trust's quotations. to having the youngest soldier in the person of C. P. Harder, who was a drummer boy during the war of the Rebellion.

Finding His Bride.

In one part of the canton of Ticino, in Switzerland, a very quaint marriage ceremony prevails. The bridegroom companied by as many friends and relatives as he can muster for the fete, goes to claim his bride. Finding the door locked, he demands admittance. The inmates ask him his business, and One would hardly consider the New York Stock Exchange exactly in the light of "a communion of saints." Inpresented to some large dolls, all of which he rejects with scorn, amid genwhich he rejects with scorp, amid gen-oral merriment. The bewildered bride-groom, whose impetuosity and temper are now sorely tried, is then informed that his ladylove is absent and in-vited in to see for himself. He rushes into the house and searches from room to room until he finds her in her bridal dress ready to go to chuych. Then redress ready to go to church. Then are his troubles over and his state as a benedict assured.

The other day a person dropped down in an apoplectic fit immediately crowd gathered around the door, ex

"My husband! My poor husband Clear the way and let in the air!" She then busied herself by taking off the man's cravat and performing other little offices until a surgeon ar-rived, when the patient gradually recovered his senses. On this the ser-geant in charge observed that it was a happy relief for his distressed wife as well as for himself. "My wife!" exclaimed the man

"Why, I am a bachelor!"
On seeking for the woman it was found that she had disappeared and with her the watch and purse of the patient, which she had advoitly ab-stracted under the very eyes of the police.—London Tit-Bits.

A Touch of Nature.

A Touch of Nature.

He was the worst boy in school; she was the teacher. She was angered by his stubbornness; he was defiant. She took him to the hall for punishment Angrily she administered the penalty and—then somehow a great wave of pity for the boy swept over her. She looked at the worn coat of the little fellow. She thought of the frail body deprived of nourishing food. She thought of the hard and loveless home and of the starved soul of the poor kid. Tears sprang to the teacher's ever as the boy waited for further punish-ment. Then he saw the tears. His own eyes grew moist and overflowed. Thinking of how the poor boy had no chance, in an impulse of love she put her arms around the boy, and they

That is religion. She and the boy both found it .- Mor-

DEATH OF

ed resident of Bloomsburg, well known here, who was born and passed the years of his early manhood near this

TO ALL CREDITORS, LEGATERS AND OTHER PRISONS INTERESTED—Notice is hereby give that the following named persons did on the date affixed to their names, file the account of their administration to the estate of those persons, deceased, and Guardian Accounts, &c. date affixed to their names, flee the accounts of their administration to the estate of those persons, deceased, and Guardan Accounts, &c. whose names are hereinafter mentioned, in the office of the Register for the Probate of Wills and granting of Letters of Administration, in and for the County of Montour, and Court of said county, for confirmation and allowance, on Monday, the 14th day of March A. D., 1910, at the meeting of the Court in the afternoon.

Feby 1, First and Final account of Daniel Cotner, Guardian of Lydia Fietta Hartman, Clarence Wellington Hart- Awful Fate of a Russian Political Ofman and Martha Elizabeth late of Cooper Township, Montour County, deceased as stated by William L.

Hartman, Executor &c. Feby. 12, First and Final account "Then,' Said Grachevsky, 'It remains for me but to kill myself.' He was taken to the 'stable' and kept there under most vigilant watch.

"One night,' related Ludmilla Volkenstein, 'n terrible, inhuman shriek kenstein, 'n terrible, inhuman shriek kenstein, 'n terrible, inhuman shriek Feby. 12, First and Final account of H. M. Hinckley, Anciland State of Indiana, deceased said decedent having property in Montour County, Penna.

Feby. 12, First and Final account of Thomas C. Bogart and Elmer E. Bogart, Executors of Aaron Bogart, late of Liberty Township Montour County, deceased.

Feby. 12, First and Final account of Harry M. Yeager, Administrator of Ellen Yeager late of Valley Town ship, Montour County, de Feby. 12, First and Final account of Frank Carey, Administrator of Mary F. Welliver, late of Anthony Township, Montour County, deceased. WM. L. SIDLER, Register.

Register's Office, Danville, Pa., Feby 12, 1910. SHER

OF VALUABLE

REAL ESTATE!

By virtue of a certain writ of Levari Facias, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Montour County, to me directed, will expose to Public Sale or Outcry, on Saturday, March 5th, 1910,

Several of the new seem of McKinby posteriad have been received. Circl war and a member of aboughe of increased for sale by the local post office and increasing mementoes yesterday, and it is not likely that any will increasing mementoes yesterday, and it is not likely that any will be presented for all east a week as a supply of the old style cards had been and the proof of the war at first fadel to receive and the first of the card will be imitted and will not be issued. K. Ekama at first gale to receive a first fadel to the public will not be important and will not be issued and they need early. This receives the first of the public will be a miletar tumber of cards to supply all. The present cards will be in the two proofs and they are now No. 2 and No. 3 mcKinger of the card upon Mr. Exkman that now the public will be transported to the public while they light means to the public while the public while the public while they light means to the public while was the public while the public w from tested recipes arranged to cut table expenses in half.

Ti is is the first cookbook ever complied with a view to showing how to prepare the cheaper parts of the beef which are quite as nutritious as the costlier ones.

This collection of recipes puts the bousewife in a position to beat the high prices, please her family and keep her expenses normal in spite of the Beef Trust's quotations.

Hundred and Nine Perches, more or less.

No. 2. Beginning at a stone in the public road at corner of land of said and catherine E. Fern and Baldy and consulting the perches to a stone in a public road corner of lands of said Baldy and Frick and Grove Brothers, thence North thirteen and one-half degrees East twenty-one perches to a post and stone in said public road corner of lands of said Grove Brothers, thence Scatt wenty-one perches to a post and stone in said public road corner of lands of said Grove Brothers, thence Scatt wenty-one perches to a post and stone in said public road at corner of land of said Catherine E. Fern and Baldy and prick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees East sixteen and one-half degrees and corner of lands of said Baldy and Frick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees are successful to the production of the prick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees are successful to the production of the prick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees are successful to the production of the production of the production of the prick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees are successful to the production of the prick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees are successful to the prick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees are successful to the prick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees are successful to the production of the prick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees are successful to the prick, thence North seventy-eight and one-half degrees are successful to the prick, thence North seventy-eight and the production o sher expenses normal in spite of the Beef Trust's quotations.

Why He Could Beat McGregor.
Alexander Ure, the lord advocate of Scotland, is a keen golfer, and he has a good store of golfing tales. These he is always rendy to relate, even if they tell against himself.
Playing on a certain course in Scotland, he remarked incidentally to his caddle: "By the way, I played a round with Todd McGregor the last time was here. Grand player, McGregor!"

"Aye," said the caddle, "but ye could bate McGregor the noo."

"Do you think so?" exclaimed the gratified lord advocate, being well aware of McGregor's prowess.

"Aye," drawied the caddle. "McGregor's deld."—Golfing.

PEGISTER'S NOTICES.

To All Creditors, Legatees and other that the following named persons did on the following named persons did on the fall of the place of beginning. Containing one Acre and Thirty-four Ferches.

Upon which are erected a 2-STORT FRAME DWILLING HOUSE.

2--STORY FRAME DWELLING HOUS

W. V. Oglesby, Attorney.

A PRISON HORROR.

man and Martha Elizabeth Hartman, minor children of Wellington Hartman, selburg, Russla's political prison.

"Grachevsky, unable to stand his life any longer," says he, "struck a guard in order to be executed. But the commandant of the fortress declared him to be insane and therefore exempt kenstein, 'a terrible, inhuman shriek was heard. Footsteps hurried toward of H. M. Hinckley, Ancillary Administrator of the estate of Margaret Rogers, opened, and it was evident that somelate of the County of Allen thing terrible had happened to him. Smoke and the smell of burnt clothing and flesh pervaded the silding and hung about it till the following day. We then knew that Grachevsky had burnt himself alive. He had soaked his clothes and bedding with the oil from the little night lamp and, rolling himself up in his blanket, had set it on fire. For several days beforehand he had disarmed the suspicions of his guards by exceedingly rational be-havior, so that they had relaxed their watchfulness a little and enabled him to commit the dreadful deed."

Chop Suey Without Meat Now. Habitues of Chinese restaurants in Pittsburg are disturbed. Chop suey has fallen under the shadow of the ment boycott. Normal chop sucy is supposed to be constructed of about one-third ment, principally pork, and celery, onions, Mongolian artichokes and rice sprouts. Ment now has been abandoned, and a substance with fiber resembling wooden varn and of about resembling woolen yarn and of about the same flavor has been substituted.

DNER.

within the narrow confines of his cell.

"When they unchained me,' said Schedrin subsequently, 'I could not get enough movement. I wanted to run and run, and it seemed to me that I could never stop. How strange it is that men who can enjoy perfect freedom of movement never realize the wonderful happiness that is theirs."

HENRY CAVENDISH.

A son of Lord Charles Cavendish and a nephew of the third Duke of Devonshire, possessed of enormous wealth, the subject of universal admiration because of his scientific attainments, he preferred the solitude of his study and the company of his books to the pleasures society could

For many years he lived at Hampstead in a large, roomy house, attended by a number of female servants, who, however, were strictly enjoined to keep out of his sight. If a domestic by the merest chance came into the presence of Cavendish she was instantly dis-

Every morning the philosopher would leave a note on the hall table naming what he wanted for dinner. No one saw him place the note there; but, accustomed to the strange customs of the establishment, the meal would be prepared, and only the remains of the repast signified the presence of the master of the house. When Cavendish died in 1810 he left

STONE AGE CUSTOMS.

Ancient Habits Still Endure Among Natives of Rural Roumania.

Customs and habits directly traceable back to the end of the stone age are still observed by the inhabitants of the remoter parts of rural Roumania, says Dr. Emil Fischer of Bucharest in the Umschau. The latest statistics show that there are still in Rou-mania over 54,000 cave dwellings in ings of the stone age.

As recently as in the eighties millet, the oldest indo-Germanic grain, was still crushed in Roumania by means of hand mills and stored in peculi shaped granaries similar to those by the natives of central Africa.

day the Roumanian peasants ancient plows. At funerals a named coliba is partaken of ing of soaked and boiled corn act way corn was first prepa eaten by the tribes of Europe.

Even today crabapples at pears are the only fruit known Roumanian peasant, and his bles are wild herbs boiled of peasantry as wizards.

pressed from sunflower, being a gourd seeds. Medical men in ru Roumania are still known among Pian to Mark Lincoin's March. Congressman Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, formerly of Burlington, Ia., is planning a project to set up permanent markers to outline the march of Abraham Lincoln during the Black Hawk war. Mr. Lowden has donated considerable money to the plan, and object is permanently to fix the march and the places where the followers of tinued to Oquawka and thence to the mouth of Rock river. The markers are to be of stone with suitable in-also to have maps drawn of the terri-tory, copies of which will be kept in the public records of the state of Illi-others have become interested the martyr president camped. march started from Boardstown cor scriptions. It is Mr. Lowden's morry an' end me days."

nois.

losophy .- London Telegraph.

offer him.

Do You Get Up Was Chain-

With a Lame Back? schuesselburg Kidney Trouble Makes You Misgrable.

with a Lame Back?

With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Missrable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilbner's chained to a wheelbarrow:

Schedrin had been condemned to hard labor in the convict mines of Siberia and for an attempt to escape from there had been sentenced to be chained to a heavy wheelbarrow. When the order came for his transfer from Siberia to St. Petersburg no conveyance could be found large enough to contain him, the wheelbarrow and the convoy of gendarmes. Yet, as the wheelbarrow had become a part of the prisoner, the gendarmes were afraid to leave it behind. It was therefore decided to place Schedrin with his convoy in one cart and the wheelbarrow behind in another. For several months, day and night, Schedrin and the gendarmes galloped through Siberia upon a troika (a three horsed cart or sledge), while another sped behind them upon which the wheelbarrow reposed, causing the deepest amazement among the peasants in the villages through which they passed. Upon the arrival of the prisoner in SS. Peter and Paul he was once again chained to the barrow, and only after he had been six weeks in the Schluers was be finally detached from it and given freedom of movement. Within the narrow confines of his cell.

"When they unchained me,' said Schedrin subsequently, 'I could not get brough movement. I wanted to run and run, and it seemed to me that I could never stop. How strange it is set that men who can enjoy perfect freedom of movement. I wanted to run and run, and it seemed to me that I could never stop. How strange it is that men who can enjoy perfect freedom of movement. I wanted to run and run, and it seemed to me that I could never stop. How strange it is that men who can enjoy perfect freedom of movement never realize the wonderful happiness that is theirs."

DANCING ROLAND.

A Scotch Shepherd's Remedy For All A Recluse, He Lived Far From the Madding Crowd. Henry Cavendish, the famous natural philosopher and chemist, was a recluse who astonished England.

Kinds of Maladies.

A highland shepherd, one Donald McAlpin, a famous dancer, was reputed to have cured his mistress of a mysterious malady by means of dancing a reel with her, and this story being nosed abroad, each of the research. ng nosed abroad gained him the repuing nosed abroad gained him the reputation of being a successful physician. His humble cottage in Slockmulck, overlooking Strathspey, was besieged with crowds of patients who hoped to get rid of their ailments by a dance with Donald. The shepherd did not hesitate to take advantage of this stroke of good luck and soon had a large and thriving practice.

The treatment adopted was very simple, the main features being as follows: In cases of indigestion moderate doses of medicated "agua" were takdoses of medicated "aqua" were tak-en, followed by the ceum shuil, or promenade step. For catarrh Donald prescribed in order to produce perspiration a large dose of gruel mixed with honey and butter, followed by ceum crask, or highland films. All the different processes terminated in the patient being well wrapped up in warm blankets, and the doses of medicine and dancing were repeated, ac-cording to the patient's constitution and the nature of his disease.—British behind him nearly a million pounds sterling, besides a lasting reputation as a scientist and writer on natural phi-The Telephone and Julius Caesar. Julius Caesar missed a great deal in not knowing the telephone or at least in not using it if he knew it. One can see the telephone engineer attached to the Roman postoffice endeavoring, but without avail, to get an instrument in stalled at the capitol and at the pal-ace. "I am instructed by the emperor to say that he does not desire these to say that he does not desire these barbarian novelties, and so Thomas Alva Edisonus need not call again with his magician's apparatus." A signal blunder! We can imagine what would have happened. "Hello, 2187 Tiber! Is it thou, Artemidorus? I understand thou raugst me up this morning. What? Details of a plot? Go not to the senate today? Beware of Brutus? Go not near Casca? Hight, and I thank thee, Artemidorus. I will have an extra guard put on instantly and the conspirators arrested." And so, though Artemidorus was unable to give his warning in the street, he gave it over the telephone, and Caesar's valuable life and with it the fortune of Rome were saved.—St. James' Gazette. existence, in which a quarter of a mil-lion peasant folk live. These caves are almost as primitive in their ar-rangements as the original cave dwell-

A Glorny African Poel.
There is a large, deep and mysterious pool in the valley of the upper Kafue river, northwestern Rhodesia.
This wonderful pool lies in flat country, and one comes to it quite suddenly, its banks being concealed by dense forest. There is a small native village forest. There is a small native village near the poel, and the inhabitants have a superstitious dread of it. They refuse to drink the water or use it for any purpose whatever. To sit beside this still, pellucid pool of unknown depth, surrounded by precipitous walls in the heart of the tropical forest, breast of even the most civilized man.

-London Mail. would induce a feeling of awe in the Sport and Athletics In America.

Sport and athletics in America are vastly different terms. Sport should be play, not work. Athletics as practiced in general are too strenuous, too spectacular and too exclusive. We are not an athletic nation. Far from it We talk athletics, but there is too much grand stand and too little actual participation in games.—Maicolm Ken-neth Gordon in Century.

Evolution of the Apple.

Appies are new in the ec the world's use and taste Quite Willing to Migrate.

A traveler passing through a fever infected locality said to an Irish resident:

"Pat, I'm surprised that you stay in "Pat, I'm surprised that you stay in where neople die so thick and "Salush. Away back in time the research of the craft apples and is in its wildness nodeling but the craft apple." fast."

"Faith," rejoined Pat, "if you'll be afther tellin' me av a place where payple niver die O'll move there to-payple niver die O'll move there die O'll move there die O'll move there die O'll move there d game grandmoth

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR Stops Falling Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor is composed of sulphur, glycerin, quinin, sodium chlorid, capsicum, sage, alcohol, water, and perfume. Not a single injurious ingredient in this list. Ask your doctor if this is not so. Follow his advice. A hair food, a hair tonic, a hair dressing. Promptly checks falling hair. Completely destroys all dandruff.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR Does not Color the Hair