MAXIMS FOR HOUSEHOLDERS

The time for the annual Spring clean-up of one's home surroundings is at hand. In some places one of the weeks of the present month has been fixed on as the time when the whole city or town will be gone over and all rubbish and garbage disposed of in a way that will make for generally healthful conditions.

MAXIMS FOR HOUSEHOLDERS.

"Let every one do his and her share, in order that all may profit. You owe it to yourself; you owe it to your neighbor; your neighbor owes it to you." "There is no happiness without health. There is no dirt without disease."

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the senses of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them.

Examination of School Children.

Out of 12,565 school children examined by State medical inspectors in the rural districts of Dauphin, Cumberland and Lancaster counties, 2,439 have been found to have physical defects. Those showing defective vision number 1,929; defective hearing, 249; defective nasal breathing, 284; conditions showing probable existence of tuberculosis, fifty-five.

A Johnstown dispatch says pitcher Al. Hine, with Bloomberg last year, is showing great promise and his work has made an excellent impression on Manager Conn.

DIFFERENT KINDS OF EGGS

The fact that George B. Markle, the millionaire coal operator who is about to open a mammoth chicken farm at Esby, having studied the tastes of New York and Philadelphia egg eaters and users, proposes now to send five different varieties of eggs to the consumers, will arouse interest among the farmers, who have been taught to believe that, as far as eating is concerned, one kind of an egg is as good as another, so long as it is fresh.

A perfectly white egg of uniform size is to be sent to New York and Philadelphia, where it is popular in the restaurants and club houses, the restaurants and hotel keepers believing that when they are served in the shell it looks better to have eggs of the same color and size than an assortment of sizes and colors.

A dull white egg is to be sent to the dealers in New York and Philadelphia. They also demand a white egg, but the dealers are not as particular as the hotel and restaurant men, and a dull white egg suits them well enough.

Another egg, with an unusually yellow yolk, is desired by the bakers of both cities and is in much demand, as it aids in giving the cakes the yellow, egg color which makes them look like home-made cakes.

Why Boston should like a very brown egg best is not known, but it does; and from the Markle farm all of the deep, rich brown-colored eggs will be picked out for the Boston market.

Perhaps Boston likes them because they match in shade the Boston bean. But whatever it is, the brown eggs are the ones that Boston housewives ask for when they buy.

One Conductor Who Was Cured.

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes about it. "Some time ago I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism. I used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect, and the third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky. Street Railway. It gave me more relief than any medicine I had ever used and it will do any one claim in cases of rheumatism." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures rheumatism by eliminating the uric acid from the blood. For sale by Paules & Co's. Pharmacy.

PARENT-TEACHER ASS'N.

The Parent-Teacher association held a meeting in the high school auditorium Tuesday night, at which there was a very good attendance. Mrs. I. H. Jennings occupied the chair.

Dr. E. A. Curry gave a very interesting talk on the subject of adenoids, a troublesome disease that frequently afflicts children between the ages of three and fifteen years. It may be described as a soft fleshy mass that grows in the upper part of the throat back of the nose. It prevents natural breathing, causing the child to breathe through the mouth instead of through the nose. Thus the child fails to get a full supply of oxygen; nutrition is impaired and the general health suffers.

The most prominent symptoms are a dry persistent and irritating cough and a more or less chronic discharge from the nose. In all cases Dr. Curry recommended prompt treatment embracing the removal of the adenoids.

About 3 per cent. of children are affected with adenoids. Dr. Curry also dwelt upon the subject of enlarged tonsils, which like adenoids yield to treatment if properly applied.

Dr. Curry's address was followed with a discussion on the subject of a curfew law. The Rev. James Wollaston Kirk, introduced the subject. He dwelt upon the beneficial effects of such a law but stated that the first move should be to discover what the sentiment of the people of Danville are on the subject.

Mrs. Jennings read a letter which she received from an ex-mayor of Wilkes-Barre, where the curfew law had been enacted. The mayor's experience was not of a sort to encourage a belief that the law would be wholly a success in Danville. Dr. Stock and others spoke on the subject.

Mrs. Meyers rendered a recitation. Charles W. Stock of Gettysburg sang a solo with his brother Dr. Stock at the piano. Miss Lora and Miss Tooley also rendered vocal solos.

Birth Day Party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McKinney entertained a number of young folks at their home on Ferry street Monday evening in honor of their son, William's tenth birthday. Those present were: William Eyerly, Alfred Jacobs, Edward Eilenbogen, Alfred Patton, George Beyer, Roland Richard, Lewis Richard, Maurice Weiner, George Ricketts and Richard Demott.

Russell H. Foust Properties.

Carl Hilscher has purchased the Russell H. Foust property on Cherry street. Consideration $824.50. The East Market street property was purchased by Lulu R. Foust, wife of Russell H. Foust, for $2,815.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney and bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. For sale by Paules & Co's. Pharmacy.

BERWICK MAN WAS KILLED

Harvey Shell, of Berwick, was killed in the Pennsy yards at Nescopeck Saturday afternoon by the West bound passenger train due to arrive at South Danville at 8:17 p. m.

Nothing was known of the accident until the train arrived at Sunbury, when the man's hat was found on the pilot, which was also stained with blood.

South Danville was informed of what had occurred and a searching party was sent out but nothing was discovered to indicate that an accident of the sort had occurred in this vicinity.

A searching party sent out from Nescopeck found the body in the yards, just above the station. The wheels of the locomotive had run over the man's forehead severing the top of the head. Both arms were broken. The body was viewed by hundreds of people Sunday but it was not until Sunday night that his identity was discovered. He had been given to wandering since a recent attack of typhoid fever.

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Danville Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement will add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of Danville citizens who have been permanently cured? Leo Metzger, 254 W. Mahoning Street, Danville, Pa., says: "About a year ago I was troubled by pains in my back and could hardly walk when I first got up in the morning. At times I had a dull, heavy ache across my loins and whenever I took cold my condition was worse. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and often accompanied by a scalding sensation. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills, I had my wife get a supply for me. Half the contents of one box cured me and from that day to this I have had no further trouble from my back or kidneys. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Hunt's Drug Store and my experience was so satisfactory that I have unlimited confidence in their ability to cure kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT

Captain F. M. Herrington of Company F, 12th regiment, N. G. P., Tuesday received a communication from headquarters imparting the information that the Third Brigade of the National Guard of Pennsylvania will participate in the combined maneuver of the regular army and the National Guard at Gettysburg from the 11th to the 19th of July, 1910.

It is required that no enlisted men shall participate in the camp who have not been in the service three months prior to going into camp. That is, no pay will be allowed by the war department to men with less than three months enlistment. Captain Herrington is advised of this fact that he may hold to the men he has in the ranks and make no new enlistments between the present and the date of the encampment. Enlistments, however, may be made of ex-soldiers, who have served in the command whose term of service will equalize the enlistment between now and the time of camp.

There is no cough medicine so popular as Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to cure coughs and colds and is especially recommended for chronic and bronchial coughs. For sale by Paules & Co's. Pharmacy.

Funeral Tuesday. Mrs. Catharine Flanagan, whose death occurred Saturday, was consigned to the grave in the Episcopal cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

The services were conducted by the Rev. George S. Womer, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member for fifty years.

The pall bearers were: F. G. Schoch, Tarring Brown, Will G. Brown, John H. Hunt, B. W. Musselman and W. V. Oglesby.

Diehl-Lorner. Arthur D. Diehl and Miss Emma F. Lorner, both of this city, were united in marriage Saturday evening in a newly furnished home at No. 14 Vine street, which they will occupy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jos. E. Gny in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

A Coming Wedding. Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Harriet Belle Lowrie, daughter of Mr. J. W. Lowrie, a prominent Montour county farmer, of Strawberry Ridge, to Mr. William Edwin Murray, of Pottsgrove, which will take place at the bride's home on Wednesday, April 27th.

D. L. & W. Officials Here.

The following party of D. L. & W. officials yesterday made a trip over the local division of the road. They stopped off in Danville to take dinner at Heddens' restaurant:

From Scranton—H. H. Shepard, J. B. Keefe, C. E. Tobey, A. B. Thompson, J. C. Fritts, J. Walker, H. S. Booth, P. J. Langin, F. H. Schoeffel and W. G. VanDewater; G. J. Schoeffel, of New York; S. Wigfall, of Bloomsburg.

BASE BALL

DANVILLE H.S. LOST TO SHAMOKIN

The Danville high school lost the first game of the season here on Saturday afternoon to the strong Shamokin high school by a score of 11 to 1. A large crowd witnessed the game.

The ripper experience and general all around superiority of Shamokin was responsible for the one sided score. Dan Farley pitched a good game for Danville, but his support was not at all what it should have been. He had 11 strike outs and registered two out of Danville's three hits, besides covering nine assists.

It is altogether likely, too, that a little case of stage fright had something to do with Saturday's reverses, but the ice broken it is believed by those who have been watching the work of the local high school boys that they will be in good shape to give Milton a hard tussle next Saturday when they meet them on the home grounds.

SIGNING A TEAM.

Manager Hoffman, of the Danville Susquehanna league team, says that signing up a bunch of players is a job that requires the leading of a pretty strenuous life during the several weeks prior to the opening of the season.

Enough men could be signed to fill up a dozen teams, and the trick of the manager's job is to pick out the good ones, not necessarily from those who apply, but from those he goes after. Few people realize the work that has been done on the team and the work that still remains to be done before the boys will trot out on the diamond on May 7th. Manager Hoffman for a month has been making several trips to town to towns far and near looking up likely players. In addition he has a mail budget that would do credit to a small sized mail order house.

Every mail brings in offers that range anywhere from the broken down big leaguers to a 16 year old boy. One letter that Manager Hoffman is preserving is from a pitcher, who claims that if he is given a chance on the Danville team he will "stand the Susquehanna leaguers on their heads."

NESCOPECK'S FIRST GAME

The first team in the Susquehanna league this season to get into the game is Nescopeck and in its game of Saturday afternoon with a team from Shamokin won by the one sided score of 16 to 4. Manager Splain tried out his whole bunch during the nine innings, and for the first game they showed up remarkably well.

Even taking into consideration that Shamokin's playing was remarkably weak, the showing of Nescopeck's two pitchers in striking out nineteen men between them is a very strong one. Nescopeck's batting was heavy. Langdon, a new man in right field, leading with a home run and two two baggers.

SHICKSHINNY OPENS SEASON

Shickshinny also opened its preliminary season on its home grounds Saturday by defeating Dunmore by a score of 9 to 7.

The game was loosely played by both sides and had all the marks of a raw opener. Harned, a left over, was on the mound for Shickshinny. He allowed but 3 hits, but the errors of his team mates were responsible for most of Dunmore's scoring.

Welsh Singer Dead.

A dispatch was contained in yesterday's Enquirer papers from Liverpool, England, announcing the death of John J. Brazell, the tenor soloist who sang in this city on March 17th as a member of the Llanelly Royal Welsh choir. Mr. Brazell's solo, "My Dreams," was the second selection on the program and was "one of the prettiest numbers of the evening."

Wife of Former Resident.

Carrie, the wife of Albert H. Jones, a former resident of this city, died Saturday at Sharon, Pa., aged 34 years. She is survived by three children.

Thieves Get Into Poor Box.

Thieves at Bloomsburg broke into St. Paul's Episcopal church, broke the lock off a box in which members of the congregation dropped offerings for the poor and took the contents.

ANNOUNCES FOR GOVERNORSHIP

PITTSBURG, April 17.

Following a conference here yesterday with his political friends and advisers in this section of the State, Lieutenant Governor Robert S. Murphy, of Johnstown, last night announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, being the first to formally enter the race.

In making his announcement Mr. Murphy issues a statement in which he in a general way, places himself in line with the policies of the Stuart administration, and indicates his determination to run upon the record of the chief under whose banner he was elected to the second place on the Republican ticket four years ago.

Lieutenant Governor Murphy is widely known throughout the State. He is a son of Francis Murphy, the famous temperance advocate, and a brother of T. Edwin Murphy, of Overbrook, Philadelphia. Both the lieutenant governor and his brother, in their earlier years in public life, aided their father in his various campaigns throughout the country.

MISSED OPENING DAY

The Harrisburg Telegraph, in its Evening Chat column, says: "For the first time since he grew up and was able to yield a rod, he missed the opening of the trout season. He was in court Friday when the season opened and the anglers began to angle and on Saturday, instead of fishing for the trout, he was fishing for some points in the Huston case. He is one of the great fishermen of the State, just as he is one of the great lawyers. He began to fish when he wore knee breeches and he has kept it up religiously ever since. He fishes whenever he has the chance and he has generally managed to make the chance fit. This year the Huston trial got in the way and he was not able to select some dozen flies out of his collection of some hundreds to throw in front of the noses of the gamiest fish in Pennsylvania. James Scarlet has probably the greatest collection of trout flies in the Susquehanna valley. He has all kinds, and the list of names sounds like the roster of a yacht club or the list of plays at a metropolitan theatrical agency. And to think that April 15 came around and not one of the bunch was even dipped in water."

LAI'D TO REST

The funeral of Mrs. Maria Amesbury, whose death occurred Friday, took place from the family residence, Bloom street, yesterday afternoon and was largely attended.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Charles Cameron Snaveley and the Rev. George S. Womer. The pall bearers were six grandsons of the deceased: Clyde Dyer, Arthur and Richard Amesbury, Harry and Frank Cromwell and Wilbur Amesbury.

The flowers were very beautiful. The following persons from out of town attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. William Amesbury, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Amesbury, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Amesbury, Mrs. Charles Tilson, of Wilkes-Barre; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cromwell, Mr. and Mrs. William Connor, Wilbur Amesbury, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Neyhart, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Neyhart, Elvin Neyhart, of Williamsport; Mrs. M. G. Quick, Mrs. Clark Brown and Mrs. Shuman of Bloomsburg.

The High Cost of Living

It is the best remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and all ailments of the throat, chest and lungs. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. For sale by Paules & Co's. Pharmacy.

A FROST

There seems to be very grave fear that the crop of early cherries may be a failure. Mercury yesterday morning dropped down to 35 degrees and there was a frost, which at some places in the vicinity of Danville was quite heavy.

A number of farmers were interviewed yesterday and there seemed to be a diversity of opinion as to what damage had resulted from the frost. The early cherries seem to be the principal variety of fruit that have advanced far enough to sustain injury. Not a few persons seem fully of the opinion that the blossoms are killed. Others think that the crop is only slightly damaged and assign as a reason the fact that the sun did not shine brightly, if at all, after the frost, during the morning hours.

STRICKEN AT FUNERAL

Rev. E. H. Leisenring, pastor of the Lutheran church at Middleburg, and widely known in this section, was fatally stricken Tuesday afternoon just after he had preached a funeral sermon over the body of one of his congregation.

The services had just been concluded and the minister was standing by the pulpit as the people were leaving the church, when he fell. He lived but an hour.

DIED AT MILTON

John Boudeman, formerly a resident of Mooresburg, died at the home of his brother, George Boudeman, in Milton, at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening aged 75 years.

The deceased was nearly a life-long resident of Liberty township. For many years he was school director and was a leading and representative citizen. He was a widower and is survived by three brothers, George of Milton; and Albert and Henry, of Illinois; also one sister, Mrs. Harriet Jones, this city. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Funeral of Mrs. Crossley.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary C. Crossley was held yesterday at 1 p. m. at Mansdale. The pall bearers were Norman Boyer, Frank Bennett, Jesse Conway, Elias Williams, Russell Umstead and Gilbert Roup.

The services were conducted by Rev. J. C. Stamm.

Tax Receiver Voris within a couple of days past has caused the arrest of half a dozen men for failure to pay their 1909 tax. In every instance thus far the delinquents have paid up and thereby escaped jail.

An arrest, when it occurs, adds a dollar to the tax.

A MEMORIAL TO PRIESTLEY

The movement started some time ago to secure the little old Unitarian church at Northumberland as a memorial to Dr. Joseph Priestley, the discoverer of oxygen, whose body rests in the cemetery and who himself helped build the church, has taken the form of actuality.

During the past few days the work of strengthening and preserving the old structure has developed. Aside from being kept as a memorial of the town's famous citizen, it will also be utilized as a public library. A bronze tablet, erected by the door, will tell the story of Dr. Priestley's coming to Northumberland and something of his life previous to that time.

The dwelling built here by Dr. Priestley and in which he had his laboratory has long since passed into hands from which ownership cannot be obtained.

The Unitarian church, the right to which has been vested in the Priestley Memorial association, is of brick, one of the first brick buildings in the Susquehanna valley.

Dr. Priestley was born near Leeds, England, March 13, 1733. He came to this country in 1794, and for a time lived in Philadelphia. He was offered the professorship in chemistry at the University of Pennsylvania, but elected rather to seek a refuge from the political persecution that had followed him from England in the quietude among the hills of interior Pennsylvania. He died in February, 1804.

BASEBALL OUTLOOK FOR 1910 PICTURED IN N. A. SUPPLEMENT

Unique among all newspaper enterprises relating to baseball, The North American's fifth annual baseball supplement will appear on Sunday, May 15.

This year's remarkable issue will surpass even the high mark set by its predecessors.

The front and back pages will be in three colors, the front page illustration being an effective grouping of the players of the Phillies and Athletics in a manner that shows the length of time each man has served with the Philadelphia clubs.

Every player in the Tristate League is photographed and every one of a many league teams in the state comes in for consideration, the line-up being given, together with the outlook, photographs and other matters of interest.

The batting and fielding averages of American, National and Tristate Leagues constitute a valuable reference feature.

Hundreds of independent and amateur teams throughout the state figure in this advance announcement of the activities of the coming season, this department carrying the same profuse illustrations as the remainder of the edition. Schools and colleges will find themselves liberally represented.

James C. Isaminger, baseball humorist, who covers the big league games for The North American, has a signed article, illustrated by Hoban George M. Graham, sporting editor of The North American, well known throughout the state for the attention he has given its baseball, looks out for this speciality, and Ross E. Kauffman contributes the school and college page.

Previous editions of The North American's baseball supplement were always quickly exhausted. To be on the safe side, get your order in with your newsdealer now.

COUNTY BRIDGES

As was the case last year new bridges will figure largely in Montour county's expense account this year. The county commissioners have decided to replace four of the old wooden bridges still in use with new and modern ones. Plans for these structures were approved at a regular meeting of the board Saturday, and invitations for bids will be printed the present week.

Of the new bridges one known as No. 27 will be located in Anthony township one will be in Limestone township at Kelly's, and two in Derry township, one at Watt's and the other at Boone's.

ALL THE GOOD QUALITIES of Ely's Cream Balm, solid, are found in Liquid Cream Balm, which is intended for use in atomizers. Because of his failure to attend council meetings, W. F. Whitman, of West Alexander, was removed by the court at Washington and J. H. Wetzel was appointed councilman in his place. A petition of borough residents moved the court to this action. Another councilman had removed from town and Whitman's absence made it impossible to get a quorum for organization.
