SERMONS ON TUBERCULOSIS

"Tuberculosis" Sunday was generally observed by the pastors of the churches of Danville yesterday. The Rev. Joseph E. Guy, the Rev. Jules Foin, the Rev. A. J. Irey and the Rev. Edward Haughton, among others went into the subject extensively Sunday morning. The Rev. James Wollaston Kirk, who is preaching a series of sermons, touched upon tuberculosis Sunday, but took up the subject in a more extended manner on Wednesday evening. The Rev. Charles Cameron Snavely, the Rev. Samuel Fox, the Rev. George S. Womer, Rev. J. H. Musselman, Rev. J. L. Yonce among others all took up the subject, calling attention to the dangers of the white plague and giving methods for preventing its spread.

The heavy rain kept down the attendance at the churches somewhat, which is to be especially regretted, considering the nature of the services. Another circumstance, which militated against the full success of the day lay in the fact that comparatively few of our ministers had received a communication from the National association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis setting forth just what was expected of the pulpit, and these ministers, accordingly had to depend upon meagre facts gleaned from the public prints. Thus they were not fully prepared yesterday. Another year, if tuberculosis Sunday becomes permanent, every minister in Danville will be in the front ranks in the observance of the day.

The crusade against the White Plague becomes a very appropriate Gospel theme. The Rev. Joseph E. Guy of Shiloh Reformed church took as his text, Third Epistle of St. John, 2nd verse: "Beloved, I wish above all things that thou may prosper and be in health even as thy soul prospereth." Mr. Guy dwelt upon the nature of tuberculosis, predisposing and immediate causes, early symptoms, treatment, cure and prevention. In conclusion he expressed the opinion that should the society be as successful during the next quarter of a century as it has been during the last five years a person would almost be censurable for having tuberculosis.

Services at Christ Episcopal church also showed that the campaign against tuberculosis lends itself very conveniently to treatment in a sermon. The Rev. Edward Haughton took as his text, Acts 5-15: "They brought forth the sick in every street and laid them on beds and couches that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them."

Taking up the subject of "Tuberculosis Sunday," its work and observance, Mr. Haughton proceeded to consider Christ's practice of healing the sick and the miracles performed in connection with the healing; his command to the disciples and their practice; the historic and present relation of Christianity, the church and the Christian ministry to the sick, prayers, etc. etc. The Christian religion and the church was the foster mother of medical science, nursing, sanitation and hygiene and the care and cure of the unfortunate. The hospital as we know it is a direct result of Christian influence. The purpose of it all is to save and uplift the whole man and cure the ills to which the flesh is heir; for Christ came in the flesh. There is no single good or benefit in which the church and church people should not be concerned. St. Paul said: "The body is the temple of the Holy Ghost."

Mr. Haughton stated that prior to the crusade fourteen per cent. of all the deaths in Danville were due to tuberculosis, whereas in 1908, the last year for which a report is available, but seven per cent. of all the deaths were due to that disease. He stated also that in Danville the predisposing causes in the greatest number of cases were found to be a weakened physical condition due to drunkenness, gluttony and sexual immorality.

Subject of These.
A circular has been received from South Bethlehem announcing the subjects of these for the senior class. Among those who will receive degrees is the name of Frank Raymond Kemmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kemmer, this city, who will graduate as an electrometallurgist. Mr. Kemmer's thesis subject is, "Heat Losses through Electrodes in Electric Furnaces."

THE FIRST BARN PREY TO FLAMES

George Krajzel, a foreigner who purchased the late Thomas Mensch farm, about a mile from Roaring Creek station, is the victim of the first lightning fire in this vicinity during the present year.

The barn was struck about 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, during the early part of the first heavy shower. The family found the whole roof of the big structure bursting into a blaze almost at the instant the lightning struck, and it was at once evident that all efforts to save the building would be futile. The efforts of the family and neighbors were therefore, devoted to saving the stock and preventing the flames from spreading to the house.

Mr. Krajzel's son took from the burning building some valuable horses and mules and then reached the limit of his endurance. It was at this point that the heroism of Mrs. Krajzel, an aged woman, was shown. At the risk of her life she dashed into the blazing barn and rescued 10 head of cattle.

The only livestock burned was a calf and about 40 chickens. A binder, a new drill, 4 wagons, 50 bushels of wheat, 50 bushels of oats and 100 bushels of corn were burned.

During the fire the wind was blowing in the direction of the house, and it is probably due to the fact that the house is covered by a slate roof that it was not also burned.

The barn burned was one of the largest in this vicinity. About a year ago Mr. Krajzel built an addition to the barn and a straw shed. His loss, which is heavy, is partly covered by insurance carried in the Locust & Franklin Township Mutual Insurance company.

Clark, John McCloghnan, John Keim, T. W. Clayton, John Conway and Luther Bassett.

One Conductor Who Was Cured.

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes about it. "Some time ago I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism. I used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect, and the third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., Street Railway. It gave me more relief than any medicine I had ever used and it will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures rheumatism by eliminating the uric acid from the blood. For sale by Paules & Co's. Pharmacy.

DIED AT HOSPITAL

Edward Kramer, an aged resident of East Market street, this city, died Monday eve at the Joseph Ratti hospital, Bloomsburg, where he had been undergoing treatment for the past two months for cancer and paralysis.

The deceased was a well known man. Before his retirement several years ago he was employed by the Lackawanna railroad. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Albert Kemmer, East Market street.

"The Man on the Box."

Few comedies produced in recent years have aroused so much hearty laughter as the play "The Man on the Box," taken from Harold McGrath's popular novel of the same name, which will be the attraction at Danville opera house, Saturday, April 30, for matinee and night.

The play will be presented here by a special company, headed by Wilmer Walter in the role of "Bob Worburton," supported by Miss Louise Langdon and a cast of metropolitan favorites. The play will be staged with special settings, and the production will be complete to the smallest detail. Seats on sale at Leniger's drug store Friday morning.

Lost a Horse.

Patton's livery lost a valuable horse Saturday morning. A price of $225 had been refused for the animal a short time before it died.

DANVILLE MEN ARE ACTIVE

That our former residents are attaining positions of prestige is attested to by the number of Danville men prominently identified with the numerous undertakings of Holy Trinity Brotherhood Gymnasium association of Philadelphia.

The organization is the outgrowth of the Bible Class taught by A. J. Drexel Biddle, the millionaire philanthropic worker and society leader, and one of the most noted authorities on athletic questions in the United States, having made several world tours in the interests of manly sport and possessing an intimate working knowledge of every feasible system of instruction in use today. Founded two years ago with but three members, one of whom was J. DeWitt Jobborn, the organization now embraces 300 active and over 2000 contributing members.

The active gymnastic work is under the supervision of H. Frederick Wilson, former director of athletics in the Elkton, Maryland, high school, assisted by G. Alvin Spaide, supervising aide and H. Ambrose Robinson, drill master. Mr. Robinson assumed his position on January 1st last and the remarkable success of the annual exhibition given on Friday evening is clearly the work of his master hand and well merited the commendation of the United States governmental officials who judged the various competitions.

The phenomenal work of the basketball team organized during the past winter, under the direction of its able captain, G. Alvin Spaide attracted the attention of the sporting populace of Philadelphia. Mr. Spaide is supported by H. Ambrose Robinson, Robert L. Arms, William J. Spaide, C. Walter Raver, Jr., and its publicity department is under the direction of John C. Mitchell, all Danville young men.

The association has entire charge of the Sunday school of the church of St. John the Evangelist, one of the largest parishes in the city, of which J. DeWitt Jobborn is secretary, and through its efforts, the attendance has been doubled and a long standing debt obliterated since taking charge last October.

Its influence will be still further extended, when, on May 14th, at the request of the civic club, Mr. Jobborn, will be representative of the association deliver the lecture of the Civic club, "Philadelphia," and this will be regularly continued by him under the auspices of the association.

MANY FARMERS CAUGHT

About a hundred farmers in this section are sadder and wiser now than they were a year ago, after a dear experience in live stock insurance. It seems that about a year ago an insurance agent went through the county placing insurance at many of the farms near here on the live stock. The farmers paid a quarterly premium or more in advance. In due time they received their policies. After the insurance had been carried a short time most of them allowed it to drop. They thought nothing more of it until recently when they received notice from the company to pay up their back premiums which were almost a year in arrears. They protested on the ground that they did not desire insurance any more and had decided to give it up. They then learned that in the fine print of their application for insurance on their stock they agreed to have all the premiums paid in full before they notified the company that they intended to drop it. Few of them read the application which they signed. They expected that when they stopped paying, that they would stop receiving insurance. They now discover that unless they pay the premium for the time which they thought their stock not insured at all, they will have trouble, especially if they have any property to be levied on. The amount for which the farmers are caught varies from $20 to $50. Most of them are highly indignant, but can see no way out of the difficulty but to pay the premiums.

BASE BALL

The Danville high school team defeated the Milton high on Saturday afternoon by a score of 7 to 1. In a game that was a good exhibition of amateur playing.

Danville sailed the game away in the fourth. With two men out and Treas on base, Jacobs sent a liner to right field which Huff dropped. Treas advanced to third and Jacobs stole, making a spectacular slide. The local students then began swatting the sphere in all directions and after the smoke had cleared away six runs had been tallied.

In the first half of the sixth Milton succeeded in sending a man around the course for their only run.

In Danville's half of the sixth, with Jacobs out, Sidler clouted a two bagger to the center garden, stole third and scored on Farley's single to right. George Grove, a freshman, pitched a most creditable game for Danville. The high school boys play away from home for the next three Saturdays. Next Saturday they meet Bloomsburg H. S.

MORE PLAYERS SIGNED.

Manager Hoffman Monday eve announced the nucleus of his pitching staff. At least two twirlers will report this week. John Brainerd, of Philadelphia, a member of last year's Mt. Carmel Atlantic league team, has been signed. Brainerd pitched against Danville here last season in the game that was won by Danville by a score of 3 to 0.

Percy Young, of Fernsville, near Lock Haven, has also been signed. Last season he was with the Lock Haven team.

Outfielder Charles Mitchell, of Luzerne, who played with Shickshinny last season will be given a try out with Danville this season and will report here for duty on Wednesday. Mitchell was by far the best player on the Shinnery team last season. This year he has been playing with the Binghamton New York State league team. The Binghamton Press, speaking of his playing in a recent game, says: "Mitchell in left field proved to the satisfaction of the fans present that he is fast on his feet. His catch of a fly on the run in the eighth caught the crowd. And in the fourth inning when he stole second and third he further showed his ability. It is not expected that he will be retained as the coming of Cook will give Binghamton an outfield as good as any in the league. Mitchell will probably be farmed out with a string attached to him. Another season ought to make him ripe for New York State league ball."

Nescopeck lost two games to Scranton on Friday and Saturday by scores of 16 to 2 and 9 to 4.

The Shickshinny Susquehanna league team defeated Hudson Saturday by a score of 5 to 3. Harned, the former Bloomsburg man, who finished last season with Shickshinny, was in fine form, and struck out 18 Hudson batters.

Manager Sharpless, of Bloomsburg, has signed catcher "Red" Edgar, last year with the Easton team. He has also signed Ed. Splain and "Red" Hagenbuch of last year's team. The players have been ordered to report a week before the opening of the season when several exhibition games will be played.

Hugh Fischer has resigned from the umpiring staff of the Susquehanna league and has accepted the management of the Nanticoke team. This change follows the resignation of Manager Job, of Nanticoke.

Accepted Position.

Walter Marshall, for the last ten years in the employ of the Welliver Hardware company as salesman, has accepted a similar position with the Acme White Lead and Color works, of Detroit, Michigan. He is for the present, covering territory in Indiana.

The blood of the martyrs is still the seed of the church.

THE MOVEMENT IS POPULAR

The Organized Adult Bible class movement set on foot by the International Sunday School association is meeting with popular support in Danville. Indeed there is scarcely a church but has seen the advantages of class organization and has fallen in with the movement.

Since the State convention in October when the importance of this great world movement for Christian conquest was first brought home to our people no less than six of our leading churches have organized adult Bible classes. From a small beginning the number has grown rapidly. At present the Organized Adult Bible class of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church has sixty-nine members; of the Mahoning Presbyterian church, fifty members; of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church fifty members; of the First Baptist church, forty members; of Trinity Lutheran church, thirty-five members. The Pine Street Lutheran church has three organized Adult Bible classes—one for women, containing thirty members, and two for men, with a membership respectively of forty-four and forty-five. In the Sunday school of the Shiloh Reformed church there always has been an organized Adult Bible class, the membership at present reaching thirty. Other churches not mentioned above are in the movement and are organizing Adult Bible classes.

Each of the above classes consists of members who are sixteen years of age or over. The "organized" class gives each of its members a voice in the class management and activities. Each member is given something definite to do. Its ideal is "every member at work." It holds the boys and girls to the Sunday school at a time when they are so easily lost from its membership.

The object is to build up the Sunday schools, to increase the attendance, bringing in the grown persons along with the children. Each member every Sunday aims to bring in as many new members as possible; there is a friendly rivalry among the members to see who can accomplish the most. Naturally, under such circumstances, enthusiasm runs high and rapid increase in membership is the logical sequence.

The world's sixth Sunday school convention will be held at Washington, D. C., May 19-24, when the aim is to secure two thousand men from Pennsylvania to take part in the great Adult Bible Class demonstration.

LAI D TO REST

Mrs. James T. Magill was consigned to the grave in Odd Fellows' cemetery Saturday. The funeral took place from the family residence, Vine street, at 11 a. m. and was largely attended.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Joseph E. Guy, pastor of Shiloh Reformed church. The pall bearers were: B. H. Harris, John Tovey, Edgar Rank and James Sherwood.

HOLLOBAUGH MAY LIVE

The physicians at the Mary M. Packard hospital in Sunbury last evening stated that there is now a slight hope that Earl Hollobaugh, of this city, who was injured by a freight train on the Reading railroad near Milton on Monday, may recover.

The physicians who have examined the case consider the tenacity with which the boy clings to life as remarkable, in view of the critical nature of his injuries. The fact that he has lived this long is, in itself, considered encouraging. Yesterday Hollobaugh was fully conscious for the first time since the accident. He recognized his mother and his brother and spoke a few words to them.

TOWN DESTROYED

SALONICA, April 27. Five hundred Albanians, mostly women and children, were killed in the Turkish bombardment of Godantz, according to dispatches from Godantz today. The town was practically destroyed. The government is today hastening the mobilization of 60,000 troops to be rushed to Albania to suppress the rebellion that has thus far gone against the 30,000 soldiers now in the field. One thousand soldiers and rebels were killed in a battle at Stimlja and 200 in a fight at Tchernolava Pass. Several thousand were injured in these engagements. The facilities for caring for the injured, are wholly inadequate and hundreds are dying from lack of attention.

DUG UP SKELETON

The skeleton of a man, probably a six-footer, was unearthed Sunday while employees of the Philadelphia & Reading were digging a trench to make a connection for water service at the new Reading station at Catawissa. It was found about three feet beneath the surface and at a point beneath the tracks where at one time the old coal dock stood.

The body was lying east and west when found and all the bones of the body were there. How it came to be in that location is a question that has since aroused considerable agitation in Catawissa.

The finding of the body was the occasion for a number of youngsters stealing the teeth for souvenirs while one of the workmen, in an effort to demonstrate what a wonderfully brave man he was, filled the skull with water and then drained the contents. No disposition has yet been made of the body.

Alton V. Hoover was recently convicted of the murder of his wife in the Crawford county courts and now a petition, signed by 400 persons has been presented the court praying that a change of venue be granted. The commonwealth will oppose the granting of the same.

PENN'A FOREST RESERVATIONS

The remarkable work that is being done in Pennsylvania under the plans adopted by the department of forestry is shown by the fact that at the beginning of the present year the State owned nearly 917,000 acres.

The forestry reservations are distributed through twenty-six counties, by far the greater portion of the land being in the Susquehanna valley. Potter county with 117,937 acres has a greater area of such reservations than any other county, but Clinton is a very close second with 117,819 acres. Wyoming county has the least of all with 1,176 acres.

Not all of the forestry reservations are forest land, strictly speaking, for some of the ground has been burned over so frequently that it is bare of timber. All of the ground is naturally forest land, however, and well adapted to such purposes, and where bare acres exist they are being reforested as speedily as possible.

It is for this work that the department of forestry maintains three nurseries—one at Mont Alto, Franklin county; one at Greenwood, Huntingdon county, and one at Asaph, Tioga county—all located on forestry reservations. The nurseries are devoted to raising young forest trees, both conifers and hardwoods, for restocking the forestry reservations, and also for selling at cost to those who wish to accomplish private reforestation. Trees are sold, of course, only when the supply at the nurseries exceeds the demands of the State reservations themselves.

Several million young trees are now being planted upon the State forestry reservations by Commissioner Conklin's men, and the report of the activities for the present year will show in all probability, that it has been one of the most progressive years in the history of the department.

MISSIONARY IN MEXICO

Miss Anna Limberger Saturday evening arrived in this city from Pueblo, Mexico, where for nineteen years past she has been stationed as a missionary. She is home on her vacation, which she will spend at the residence of her father, Charles Limberger, West Mahoning street.

Two years have elapsed since Miss Limberger's last visit, when as a delegate she attended the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at Baltimore.

Monster Egg.

A monster egg, eleven inches long circumference, and weighing over a pound was found Saturday on the farm of Amos Yastine, tenanted by Lloyd Kerstetter, above Boyd's station. The egg was probably laid by a goose belonging to Mr. Kerstetter, although up to date nobody has been found who ever saw a goose egg that was quite so large.

Watch for the Comet.

The Red Dragon of the sky. Watch the children for spring coughs and colds. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. MRS. CHARLES BEAVER

Mrs. Lucretia Pollock Beaver, of Strawberry Ridge, widow of the late Charles Beaver, died Saturday evening at 6:45 o'clock at the Joseph Ratti hospital, Bloomsburg, where she was removed for treatment on Friday, April 15th. She had been in ill health for about a year.

Mrs. Beaver was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pollock and was born in Derry township 60 years ago the 15th of February. She was a resident of Derry all but several years of her life. For a number of years before her death several years ago, her husband was proprietor of the hotel at the Ridge and Mrs. Beaver was conducting the place at the time of her death.

Mrs. Beaver is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Charles Martz, of Jerseytown, R. F. D. No. 1 and the following brothers and sister: John Pollock of Muncy; Thomas Pollock, of Washingtonville; Mrs. Lottie Seidel and William Pollock.

She was a member of the Washingtonville Lutheran church and was a highly esteemed woman.

IMPORTANT RESOLUTION

The county commissioners at a regular meeting Saturday took important action relating to county work. The board passed a resolution to the effect that hereafter all work for the county amounting to twenty dollars or over must be given out under a system of competitive bidding; also that in no case will advances be made on any work. On completion of the contract and on approval of the work by the county commissioners the bill will be paid.

May Dividends.

May dividends and interest disbursements will be nearly 50 per cent. greater than in 1908 and 1909. In 1908 $85,000,000 was paid out; in 1909, $88,000,000. This year the total is estimated at close to $116,000,000.

WILL OPEN BIDS THURSDAY NIGHT

The bids invited for
