TO SAVE FOURTH OF JULY VICTIMS

HARRISBURG, June 21. Health Commissioner Dixon plans to fight for the lives of poor children of Pennsylvania who may be in danger of tetanus by distributing anti-tetanus serum free of charge to such needy ones as may be injured by explosives on July 4.

The serum will be distributed at forty-two points throughout Pennsylvania, chosen by reason of their accessibility. The danger of tetanus from explosive wounds is very great, as the appalling sacrifice of lives in the past shows. If, promptly after the wound is received, the injured one is treated with immunizing doses of anti-tetanus serum the danger of lockjaw developing is warded off, just as diphtheria anti-toxin is used to protect children who have been exposed to that disease. That no poor child in Pennsylvania shall die for the want of this preventive treatment is the purpose of Health Commissioner Dixon.

These tetanus anti-toxin stations will furnish the serum on the application of a physician who certifies that it is for the use of an indigent case. The doctor also agrees to furnish the State Department of Health with a clinical report of the case for tabulation and study.

The place nearest to Danville where the serum may be obtained is at the drug store of Wm. K. Armstrong at Sunbury.

Dr. Dixon said today that encouraging results are being obtained along a number of lines of scientific research work that is being done at the State Department of Health laboratories. The cancer experiments are proving exceedingly interesting, he stated, from the fact that the cancers in the animals treated seem to be favorably affected by the organic products used.

Moving Books. Many persons complain that their books suffer in transit. The head of a moving company was interviewed on this subject, and he said: "After several years' experimenting with different things for the best conveyance of books I have found that the use of small boxes is by far the most advisable, the smaller the better. These boxes are easily secured for a few cents from your grocer. For storage purposes, where the matter is left to us, we move books in long, narrow boxes fitted with handles made especially for this purpose, but this is not necessary, of course, for the ordinary moving. Barrels simply ruin books, and large boxes filled with heavy volumes have caused more than one strike among our men. They are the clumsiest of all things to handle, as well as the heaviest."

Another mode of moving books is to tie them up in small bundles with stout wrapping paper and heavy twine, leaving enough of the twine to make a loop handle for lifting.—New Idea Woman's Magazine.

The Drummer's Serron. "Certainly I will make a few remarks," says the cigar salesman who, because of his solemn garb, has been mistaken for a man of the cloth ascending the platform, he says: "Men are much like cigars. Often you cannot tell the wrapper what the filler is. Sometimes a good old story is more popular than an imported celebrity. Some men are all right in the showcase on display, but are great disappointments when you get them home. No matter how fine a man is, eventually he meets his match. A two-for often puts on as many airs as a fifty-center. Some men never get to the front at all except during campaigns. Some are very fancy outside and are selected for presents. Others have a rough exterior, but spread cheer and comfort about them because of what is inside. But all men, as all cigars, good or bad, two-fers, stogies or rich or poor come to ashes at the last."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mourning in Japan. The Japanese code of mourning is very elaborate and complicated. As followed by the well to do classes it involves the wearing of special garments and abstinence from animal food. At the death of a husband or real or adopted parents the custom demands thirteen months of mourning apparel and fifty days' abstinence from meat. Grandparents are honored by 150 days if they are on the paternal side; if only common, insignificant, maternal grandparents, they have to put up with ninety. The same rule applies to maternal uncles and aunts. It is one way of introducing the oriental contempt for women.

Comparing Notes. Mrs. Slowly—My husband's so lazy that if it wasn't for me I don't believe he would get up in time to go to bed. Mrs. Rounder—My husband's different. He scarcely goes to bed in time to get up.

BUILDING LARGE WAREHOUSES

Extensive building operations are on foot in the rear of the Welliver company's establishment on Mill street. Ground has already been broken for a warehouse one hundred feet square and two stories in height on the west side of the alley.

The plans include the demolition of the group of buildings between the store and the alley and the erection on the site of another building 130 feet long by 25 feet wide. The warehouse proper will be of frame with cement floor. The second building, between the alley and the store, will be of brick. Combined the two structures will afford ample floor space for a large business.

At the warehouse a portion of the concrete foundation is already constructed. Work on the other building will begin in a short time. Mr. Welliver yesterday stated that both buildings will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. He hopes to have them ready for use in three months' time.

It is Mr. Welliver's intention to launch out into the wholesale business. Pending the completion of the buildings the firm will do a moderate jobbing business. The wholesale business will be conducted in the name of the W. W. Welliver Hardware company.

Scared Into Sound Health. Mr. B. F. Kelley, Springfield, Ill., writes: "A year ago I began to be troubled with my kidneys and bladder, which grew worse until I became alarmed at my condition. I suffered also with dull heavy headaches and the action of my bladder was annoying and painful. I read of Foley's Kidney Pills and after taking them a few weeks the headaches left me, the action of my bladder was again normal, and I was free of all distress." For sale by Paules & Co.'s Pharmacy.

HIGHWAY OFFICIALS

POTTSVILLE, Pa., June 21. Sequel to the order of the judges that delinquent road officials who have been neglecting the highways in Schuylkill county be brought into court to give an account of themselves, the Ashland borough council and the supervisor of the borough, Charles Lucas, were yesterday indicted by the grand jury for failure to repair roads.

Supervisor Lucas was also charged with neglect and refusal to open public roads. The indictments were submitted by order of court and unless a settlement is made will be pushed to trial.

The Ashland Councilmen indicted are: George Goetz, John B. Oppel, Louis Schneider, Fred Wallyner, C. W. Fenstermacher, Luke Lynch, Daniel Finlan, John Hardneck, Nelson Clayton, John Dreshman, James Payne, Henry Omlor, John Morrissey and Henry Falker.

THE ONLY WAY

Many Danville Citizens Have Discovered It.

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected, is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to life-long suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth or age, languor, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness make life a burden.

There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys and cures these troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills owe their world-wide fame to the fact that they cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Follow the example of this Danville citizen and you will be convinced that this is so.

Mrs. Leo Metzger, 354 W. Mahoning Street, Danville, Pa., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills about three years ago when suffering from backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. A few doses of this remedy relieved me and I was thus induced to continue its use until cured. Doan's Kidney Pills have my hearty endorsement." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Funeral at 10 A. M. The funeral of Joseph L. Frame, which was to have taken place at 2 o'clock this afternoon, will be held in the First Baptist church at 10 o'clock this morning.

Double Birthday. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooke delightfully entertained a large number of young people at their home at Logan Run Saturday evening, in honor of the twenty-first birthday of their twin sons, Edwin and Harry. The house was tastefully decorated and a dainty luncheon was served.

A Reunion Near Exchange. A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Deihl, near Exchange, Saturday, in honor of Mr. Deihl's 57th birthday. Fine refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. May and sons Charles and George, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Deihl and son Allen, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Deihl, of Exchange; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, and son Howard and daughter Eva, of Schuylker; Mr. and Mrs. Paules Gibson and daughter Helena, of Danville; Mr. Mentor and Elmer Deihl of Exchange, and Misses Minnie, Helen, Savannah and Ada Deihl of Exchange. A very pleasant day was spent.

DIED AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Joseph L. Frame, veteran of the Civil war and for many years assessor of the first ward of Danville, died at his home, No. 130 East Front street, at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, following a protracted illness.

The deceased served during two enlistments in the Civil war. He was a member of Goodrich post No. 23, G. A. R., and was nearly a life-long resident of Danville. He was a good citizen and true to every trust reposed in him. For twenty-three years he was assessor in the borough of Danville.

He was aged seventy-four years. Besides his widow he is survived by one son, James; also by three brothers—Charles of Philadelphia; Thomas of Coatesville and George of Pittston—and one sister, Mrs. Sarah Haupt of Shamokin.

The deceased had been in declining health for some time, death being due to a complication of diseases.

Killed by Weasel. Amos Wohlforth, proprietor of the poultry farm below Riverside, one night last week lost ninety-four young chickens, about one-third grown, that were killed by a weasel.

Saved Four Children. Several men, headed by Sol Lang, a merchant, recently rescued four children of Mrs. Howard Knipple, of Pittsburg, from a smoke-filled room. The little ones, whose ages ranged from 1 to 8, had been left alone for a while by their mother, who was shopping. A curtain blew against a lighted gas jet and caught fire. The children screamed from a window and the men went to their aid. The door on the second floor had to be broken down with an ax and it was necessary to break through the door of the third floor room which held the youngsters. The room was filled with dense smoke. The damage was slight, as fire companies arrived quickly and much of the furniture was thrown from the windows.

Pleasant Surprise. A very pleasant surprise was held Friday evening at the home of George W. Moser in honor of Eliza A. and Mary C. Moser. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moser, Mr. and Mrs. William Cornelison, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Geartner, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ware, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. William Bogart, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sheatler, Mrs. Mary C. Moser, Mrs. Ray Golder, Mrs. Earnest Hill, of Berwick, Mrs. Kate Bogart, Misses Matrona Sheatler, Lizzie Robbins, Stella Ware, Mary Robbins, Olive Golder, Myrtle Cornelison, Mable Mowery, Bernadine Hill, Maude Golder, Annie Fruit, Messrs. Sidney Moser, John Grut, Homer Sheatler, Edward Farnsworth, Nelson Cornelison, Warren Fenstermacher, Russel Moser, Seth and James Snyder, Samuel, Lloyd and Casper Sheatler, Stewart Golder. The evening was spent in playing games and music after which ice cream and cake was served.

MERITORIOUS WORK

St. Joseph's parochial school closed on Friday. Especial interest attaches to the school this year by reason of the splendid showing made by the commercial department, which completes its first year.

The work done by the pupils, which is displayed in the school building, has been viewed by a large number of persons. Every specimen is a striking example of merit, attesting alike to the aptness and diligence of the pupils and the thoroughness and painstaking care of the teachers.

The branches taught relating strictly to the commercial course are penmanship, shorthand and typewriting, arithmetic, spelling, commercial law and rhetoric. The neatness and the accuracy of the work is remarkable. This is especially true of the penmanship, embracing the Palmer method of muscular movement business writing, which has to be seen to be appreciated.

Specimens of work produced by two pupils—Helen Frances Marks and Mary Josephine Guine—were forwarded to A. N. Palmer, the author of the system, who readily granted a diploma to both.

The work in all the grades is equally meritorious. Free hand drawing, which is taught in all the rooms, in the eighth grade is a remarkable feature of the exhibit. The drawings, finished in charcoal, are displayed on the walls, as one enters the room they instantly command admiration. In the eighth grade the class in Irish history has produced very fine work. In all the grades composition receives due attention and some of the most remarkable work is in this line.

VERY LARGE FUNERAL

One of the largest funerals ever held in the northern part of Montour county was that Sunday afternoon of Miss M. Lizzie Wagner. Hundreds of friends and relatives gathered to do honor to the memory of the deceased, and the funeral procession that wended its way from Exchange to Derry church extended over a mile.

A short service was held at Exchange by Rev. DeWitt, of Muncy. Rev. H. C. Munro, of White Hall, was in charge of the services at Derry church. The following acted as pall bearers: Dr. F. C. McElroy, of Elmira, New York; William Wagner, of Winchester, Virginia; Frank Charles Wagner, D. H. Wagner, Judge Wagner and Jacob Wagner, of Watsontown. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, among them being a beautiful cross from the Episcopal church at Exchange.

Meeting Tonight.

The committee of arrangements appointed Tuesday night in connection with the Fourth of July celebration will meet in council chamber at 8 o'clock tonight, when sub-committees will be appointed. It is hoped that there will be a good turnout; otherwise owing to the late date it may be impossible to go on with the preparations.

A Strawberry Picking Stunt.

Charles Ortmann, of Madison township, Columbia county, with his wife and son Albert, on Monday picked 405 baskets of berries in nine and a half hours.

MAN EXPIRES IN A STABLE

William English, an old-time ore miner to whom the fates in recent years were not kind, died in a stable at the rear of hotel Eagle, early Saturday morning. It is the story of a man who was ill and feeble and without a home.

The deceased was a single man. He was over fifty years of age and was well known about town, recently being employed as a laborer on the borough sewer and at other work of the same kind. Last fall his mother died. Following her death until recently he lived with his niece on Sidler hill. Recently, it seems, he had been leading a precarious existence, without any home and shifting as well as he could.

On Friday evening he went into the barn in which he died. He was unmistakably ill and Dr. Hinchellwood was called, who prescribed for him. His brother Peter English and Harry Owen looked after him during the night.

A story was current Saturday morning to the effect that he was found dead in the barn but this is denied. Martin Slavin, it is explained, was with him when he died. To ease the man Mr. Slavin assisted him to turn around. A moment or so later he breathed his last. Dr. Hinchellwood is of the opinion that pneumonia developed during the night and was the direct cause of death.

Justice of the Peace James Dalton immediately investigated the man's death and came to the conclusion that an inquest was not necessary. District Attorney Gearhart started an investigation at the same time and came to the same conclusion.

The body was turned over to John Doster's sons, undertakers, by whom it was removed to their undertaking rooms, where the funeral will be held.

120 RED MEN

One hundred and twenty members of the Improved Order of Red Men, representing tribes of Danville, Bloomsburg and Berwick attended services in the First Baptist church, this city, Sunday, where the pastor, the Rev. A. J. Irey, preached an appropriate sermon on "American Manhood."

Seventy Red Men arrived on a special car on the Danville & Bloomsburg line at 9:40 o'clock. Of this number 48 represented Pevawackee tribe, No. 240, of Berwick, and 22, Hoanayawas tribe, No. 372, of Bloomsburg. The regular 10 o'clock car brought some twenty-five additional Red Men, members of the Bloomsburg tribe.

At 10:30 o'clock the three tribes in a body marched from the hall on Mill street to the church, forming an imposing column.

Mr. Irey took as his text, First Corinthians 16-13: "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong." It was a specially prepared sermon in Mr. Irey's best vein. Throughout it was a plea for a manhood embodying courage, resolution and those qualities of patriotism and Christian citizenship, which make our country great and insure the perpetuity of American institutions.

Glad to Recommend Them.

Mr. E. Weakley Kokomo, Ind., says: "After taking Foley's Kidney Pills the severe headache left me, my kidneys became stronger, the secretions natural and my bladder no longer pained me. I am glad to recommend Foley Kidney Pills." In a yellow package. For sale by Paules & Co.'s Pharmacy.

Mills-Allison.

Thomas W. Mills and Miss Hattie Allison, both of this city, were married on Saturday, June 11th, at the home of Peter A. Winters, Front street, by Rev. A. J. Irey, pastor of the First Baptist church.

TRADE AND INDUSTRY

Bradstreet's Review says: Irregularity and relative quiet are still the ruling features in trade and industry, but evidences of improvement in Western distribution are rather sharply in contrast with the reports of slow trade recently received. Winter wheat, oats and corn have responded to better growing weather, while lack of rain is checking otherwise satisfactory growth of spring wheat. Short time is evident in nearly all lines of textile manufacture, cotton goods still reflecting the stress of high prices for raw material and arrested demand for goods. The percentage of idle looms and spindles ranges from twenty-five per cent upward. Short time is also witnessed in woolen goods manufacture. The lumber trade is rather quiet—North and South. The leather and shoe trades are somewhat quiet, past poor weather conditions being reflected therein. The wool trade is very quiet, with buyers and sellers far apart and much foreign wool being reshipped abroad for presumably better prices.

Does not Color the Hair

We wish you to positively and distinctly understand that Ayer's Hair Vigor does not affect the color of the hair, even to the slightest degree. Persons with the whitest and most delicate blond hair may use it freely without having the hair made a shade darker.

Ingredients: Sulphur, Glycerin, Quinin, Sodium Chlorid, Capsicum, Sage, Alcohol, Water, Perfume.

Show this formula to your doctor. Ask him what he thinks of it.

Falling Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor promptly destroys the germs that cause falling hair. It nourishes the hair bulbs, restores them to health. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly.

Dandruff

Ayer's Hair Vigor just as promptly destroys the germs that cause dandruff. It removes every trace of dandruff itself, and keeps the scalp clean and in a healthy condition.

Sold Farm to Buy an Auto.

Solomon Wetzel, of Audenriem, sold his farm in Quakake Valley and purchased an automobile with the proceeds. His maiden effort as chauffeur was a signal failure. He started out to see a brother in Jeddo and collided with a telephone pole while rounding a curve in the road, causing serious damage to the machine.

AN ORPHAN'S BEAUTIFUL LIFE

The Orphanage Bugle Notes, a monthly paper issued by the Old Fellows orphanage, near Sunbury, contains the following article relating to Ralph Lenhart, the Danville boy who died recently at that institution:

Ralph Lenhart died on May 20th. He was born at Danville May 22, 1896. He was admitted to the Home from Myrtle lodge Aug. 9th, 1904, his father and mother both being dead. He was never strong and for the past three years has suffered intensely at times from heart trouble. During the past winter he has been unusually well and has been able to be out of doors nearly every day. On Tuesday evening he was taken suddenly ill and although a physician was at once summoned he steadily grew weaker until the end, Friday at 2 P. M.

He was always patient; happiest when he was with the boys; and his enforced inactivity has made him thoughtful far beyond his years. Every one was fond of him and the many special privileges granted him were never resented by a child in the Home.

A common sight was Ralph carried on the shoulders of a strong boy, up and down the stairs, to the ball diamond or pigeon houses or wherever he wished to go. His life was short, but he taught a lesson of patience and his weakness was a school in unselfishness to his playmates.

During the last night of his life in his hours of weakness he asked for a story. We told him of the tender Shepherd who gathers the tired little lambs in his arms and carries them in his bosom. We told him of the Home where there shall be no more death or crying, neither shall there be any more pain. And there shall be no night there; they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth light. "Oh I am so tired," he said, "and the night is so long, I wish Jesus would take me in his arms and carry me," and we believe He has.

The funeral services were held from the Home on Monday at eleven o'clock, interment at Danville. Rev. E. H. Gerhart officiated and four of our boys, Evan Jones, Clarence Miller, Reginald James and William Grieshaber acted as bearers.

Beautiful floral tributes were sent by friends and from the Home. One once before in the history of the Home has death visited our midst and it was a sad procession that followed the little white casket to the station.

What a Summer Cold May Do.

A summer cold if neglected is just as apt to develop into bronchitis or pneumonia as at any other season. Do not neglect it. Take Foley's Honey and Turbidity. It loosens the cough, soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, and expels the cold from the system." For sale by Paules & Co.'s Pharmacy.

CHAMBERS-STRAUSER

Miss Mary Strauser and William G. Chambers were married at the manse of the Mahoning Presbyterian church by the Rev. James Wollaston Kirk at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

The groom, who is the son of William T. Chambers, chief engineer at the hospital for the insane, was formerly employed at electrical work at that institution. He at present holds a position in the electrical department of the American Car & Foundry company's plant at Berwick. The newly wedded couple will reside at Nescopeck.

HAIL'S DAMAGE ALL ROUND US

One of the worst hail storms that ever visited this section of the country on Saturday swept a number of towns about here, but fortunately missed this town. From points on all sides of Danville stories of serious havoc come, but while it grew dark and threatening here, a little rain was all that resulted.

The storm visited Sunbury between 12 and 1 o'clock, the hail stones being as large as hen eggs, the largest of them measuring six inches in circumference. Windows were broken, roofs dented and in some instances broken through and gardens and farm land laid waste. One resident of Sunbury was struck on the head by a hail stone and an inch gash was cut.

At Shamokin the damage is estimated at $3000 in windows broken alone. The hail stones were driven by a terrific wind and did great damage.

No hail fell at Bloomsburg, but in the upper end of Columbia and at Berwick the hail stones were described as being as large as lemons and one picked up at Briar Creek measured 11 inches in circumference.

The storm extended on up the north branchland was severe at Shickshinny where many windows were broken.

In all the intervening territory the farmers suffered more or less loss. In some places crops were beaten to the ground and even trees were stripped of their foliage.

At Danville no hail fell at all, but hail is reported from Valley and Cooper townships and from Roaring Creek, not so severe, however, as at the more distant places.

PROMOTING A NEW AMUSEMENT PLACE

In an interview with a prominent resident of the south side Friday plans were disclosed to an American reporter for an amusement enterprise which will eclipse anything in that line in this section of the State. The gentleman who gave the information desired that his name be withheld and also the identity of those who are backing the movement.

The plans, however, are well developed, the gentleman stated, and include principally the beautifying of a large section of the river bank in the vicinity of the D. & S. trolley terminal on the south side and the erection of a magnificent pavilion.

The tract of land on which the improvements are contemplated lies within 300 feet of the D. & S. trolley terminal and includes about 300 feet of the river bank at this point, with Susquehanna avenue on the north.

The plans of the half dozen men who are interested in the project, is to erect a pavilion 75 by 150 feet surrounded on the four sides by a 15 foot promenade. On the south the promenade will overhang the river bank and afford a view that will be unequaled in this vicinity. On the north Susquehanna ave. will be improved so as to afford a beautiful and convenient approach to the pleasure resort.

In the pavilion a first class dancing floor will be installed and the whole brilliantly illuminated. It is also the intention to install docking facilities for small craft and bath houses.

WILLIAMSPORT LOST

A team from Williamsport met a team of the Danville Whist Club in a trial of skill in this city on Monday night and was defeated by two points.

The visiting team was composed of Frank Clapp, Dr. J. A. Klump, Fred K. Moore and Joseph G. Rhodes. On the Danville team were: Major C. P. Gearhart, Thomas C. Welsh, Dr. I. H. Jennings and J. E. Pfalzer.

The contest was a warm one, Danville scoring a total of twelve points to the visitors' ten.

DO YOU USE AN ATOMIZER in treating Nasal Catarrh? If so you will appreciate Ely's Liquid Cream Balm the quickest and surest remedy for this disease. In all curative properties it is identical with the solid Cream Balm, which is so famous and so successful in overcoming Catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in the head. There is relief in the first dash of spray upon the heated sensitive air-passages. All druggists 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., New York.

Entertained at Dinner.

Miss Jessie Hemmerly, Vine street, pleasantly entertained a few friends at 6 o'clock dinner Saturday evening, in honor of Mr. Percy Mottern, a sailor on the U. S. Ship Georgia, who is spending his furlough in this city. Those present were: Misses Florence Beaver, Bertina Kessler, Mae Sidler, Jessie Hemmerly and Percy Mottern.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
