BUG EXPERTS AT SAVAGE FARM

The second horticultural demonstration in district No. 3, given under the direction of the division of zoology, State department of agriculture, was held at the farm of Orville B. Savage, 1 1/2 miles from Danville, yesterday afternoon.

D. E. Murray, in charge of the district, was ably assisted by Prof. B. S. Moore, of Kulpsville, Montgomery county, an inspector from the division. The attendance was not so great as might have been desired but the 40 or 50 who were present were deeply interested and they came prepared for the occasion. The questions they asked were pertinent and were answered by the speakers.

Mr. Murray, who is the permanent inspector of this county, told in his address what had been done and how, and pointed to the tangible results as shown on the trees. In the original treatment one tree of each kind was left as a check and by comparison was shown the beneficial results from intelligent treatment and care of trees. Mr. Murray spoke at length on the financial returns to the owners of such orchards and based with the statement that nowhere can such fruit be grown to better advantage than in this section of the State.

Mr. Murray then introduced Prof. Moore, who, in a most happy vein, addressed the audience on spraying, pruning and also on the work being done by the division of zoology. The burden of his remarks on spraying was that the first consideration must be an effective solution which should combine cheapness in application and should not be injurious to the tree. Lime sulphur he knew would kill scale, would invigorate the tree and is a cheap application. He next emphasized the fact that spraying must be thoroughly done.

Pruning is a science as applied to horticulture and none but the most experienced should attempt it. The meeting was a great success and credit must be given to Dr. Surface, the chief of the division and to his inspectors for the great earnestness shown in the work of ridding our orchards of the insect pests and fungi diseases. Also for the cheering note that no longer need the orchardist fear these pests and diseases as they cannot only be controlled, but wholly eliminated.

"IN A BAD WAY."

Many a Danville Reader Will Feel Grateful For This Information.

When your back gives out; becomes lame, weak or aching; when urinary troubles set in; your kidneys are "in a bad way," Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Here is local evidence to prove it: Seth G. Lormer, 4120 Pine Street, Danville, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are worthy of endorsement, being a remedy of great merit. A cold which settled in my kidneys disordered these organs and caused sharp pains throughout my back. I had to be careful when getting up after sitting, for this action was always accompanied by sharp twinges. I could not lie in one position long for if I did, the pain almost unbearable. Trouble with the kidney secretions also existed. Doan's Kidney Pills which were procured at Hunt's Drug Store helped me from the first and before long had entirely relieved me. This remedy is certainly worthy of endorsement." (Statement given January 3, 1908.)

A SECOND STATEMENT. Mr. Lormer was interviewed on January 24, 1910 and he added to the above: "Since I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, there has been no recurrence of my former trouble and I have had no further need of a kidney medicine. I think that my experience is convincing proof of the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

When Merit Wins When the medicine you take cures your disease, tones up your system and makes you feel better, stronger and more vigorous than before. That is what Foley's Kidney Pills do for you, in all cases of backache, headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness and general weakness that is caused by any disorder of the kidneys or bladder. For sale by Paules & Co. Pharmacy.

CHARTER BEING APPLIED FOR

A very important industry is springing into existence at Strawberry Ridge in the form of a creamery. A very complete building has been erected, the most modern machinery for the manufacture of butter and dairy products has been installed and as a final move before starting up, application has been made for a charter.

The intended corporation is to be known as the Strawberry Ridge Creamery Company and among those applying for the charter are: Clark E. Boone, Amanda C. Shultz, Jonathan Mower, William McQuay, John Ashenfelder, Charles W. Shultz, William B. Shultz, William Springer, H. Alfred Snyder, J. Harvey Litchard, William H. Dye, and Perry E. Mower.

The building, which stands near the station, along the railroad, is of frame, twenty by fifty feet. The creamery is two stories high, the first floor being of concrete. Architecturally the building is pleasing in appearance and is tastefully painted. The ground on which the creamery stands was purchased of Jonathan Mower.

All the arrangements are such as to conform with the most sanitary and approved methods. All the waste is piped to a point one-fourth of a mile from the creamery. A large ice house is connected with the building.

The capacity of the creamery is 2,500 pounds of cream, which implies that it will take care of the product of 1,200 cows.

Among the up-to-date machinery is one revolving power combined churn and worker with a capacity of 150 pounds of cream at one churning; one milk tempering tank for separator; one No. 1 rotary power milk pump. In addition are installed scales and all other paraphernalia essential in the manufacture of butter.

On the first floor is a manufacturing room, a butter storage room, with ice rack, boiler and engine room. A feature in front of the building is a covered driveway, 12 1/2 by 34 feet, which will afford shelter for the teams while loading and unloading.

The steam plant consists of an eleven horse-power upright steel boiler of 60,000 pound tensile strength and a sixteen-horse-power upright engine with all connections.

The creamery contains an improved tubular Sharpless separator, with a capacity of 2,500 pounds of milk per hour; one milk receiving heating vat of 4,200 pounds capacity and one twin cream vat ice box.

The creamery will start up as soon as the charter is obtained, which will probably be during next month.

The building was erected by O. Pressprich & Co. of New York.

A FAKE OCULIST

One of the boldest swindles that has come to light recently was perpetrated in this city during the last few days.

A naive young man, who represented himself as an oculist sent out by a Harrisburg firm, appeared at the door of one of our leading homes, and asking to see the head of the house informed that person that he had learned that he was in need of a pair of glasses. The "oculist" said he had been referred to him by a well known person, a friend of the gentleman addressed, whom he named.

The man of the house was not in need of glasses, but the reference to the friend in whom he had confidence, was not without weight and the upshot of the affair was that he submitted to an examination of his eye.

The "oculist" was very sorry, but he was obliged to tell the truth. "My dear sir," he said: "A cataract is growing on your eye."

That this was an alarming bit of intelligence goes without saying. "But don't be alarmed," the stranger added, soothingly: "a cataract is not such a serious thing—not with us. All you need is the proper kind of glasses, which we furnish and a certain eye wash, which we prescribe."

The fellow was very plausible and while he was speaking he produced a pair of glasses which he placed on the man's eyes. He then wrote a prescription. The bill was $24.50. This seemed cheap enough considering that a siege of blindness with a dangerous operation was being obviated. The money was handed over.

The "oculist" has not been heard of since. The glasses are of the cheap sort such as are for sale at the ten cent stores. The prescription on being deciphered called for an eye wash of "cold tea and salt."

ICE WATER KILLED

When Allan Arnold, a seventeen year old boy, employed by John Bowser, on the old Creamy farm, near Cameron, on the road between here and Northumberland, drank ice water while overhauled he succumbed to the effects of the chilling daught and dropped over dead.

Young Arnold had been helping to thresh and Monday evening he walked to the barn and drank six glasses of the cold water. "In a few minutes he fell to the ground and expired.

Mrs. William Reed, of this city, and Miss Bessie Reich, of Riverside, spent yesterday in Wolverton.

GUNNING SEASON IS APPROACHING

The gunning season, part of it already here and the more important part yet to come, is looked upon by local sportsmen with a great deal of interest. There will be about the usual amount of game, it is said, and a little sharpening up of the game laws would not come amiss, as there is much complaint heard against the complications which for several years past have been a part of the laws. You may kill wild turkeys and quail from October 15th to November 15th; ruffed grouse, commonly called pheasant, and English, Chinese or Monoglian pheasant, from October 15th to December 1st. Doves, redbirds and blackbirds may be killed without limit from September 1st to January. Woodcock may be killed from October 1st to December 1st, upland or grass plover from July 15th to December 1st, and Wilson or jack snipe from September 1st to May next, following. No Hungarian quail shall be killed for two years from May 8, 1910. Do not kill in one day more than five ruffed grouse commonly called pheasants, or more than twenty in one week or fifty in one season; or if woodcock ten in one day, twenty in one week or fifty in one season; or English, Chinese or Monoglian pheasant, ten in one day, twenty in one week, or fifty in a season; five Hungarian quail in one day (closed for two years); quail, commonly called Virginia partridges ten in one day, forty in one week and seventy-five in one season; wild turkey, one in one day, two in one season. Plover, jack or Wilson snipe and all shore birds except woodcock may be killed without limit in their respective seasons.

Your kidney trouble may be of long standing, it may be either acute or chronic, but whatever it is Foley's Kidney Remedy will aid you to get rid of it quickly and restore your natural health and vigor. LODGE SIGN Montour Lodge, No. 109, I. O. O. F., in a short time will hang out a gigantic emblem or sign illuminated with electricity in front of City Hall on a level with the third story, which will eclipse anything of the kind seen in this section.

The sign will be seven feet by three feet six inches. On the top will appear the word "Montour" in nine-inch letters. Below will occur the emblem of the order—three links—twelve inches high. In the emblem will appear the lodge number "109," one figure in each link. Below in thirteen inch letters occurs the initials "I. O. O. F."

At the last meeting of council it was ordered that the current for illuminating the sign be furnished by the borough free of cost.

FIRST MEETING

The Danville Ministerial Association held its first meeting following the vacation season yesterday morning. Danville has two new pastors this year to become members. One of these, the Rev. J. L. Yonce, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, yesterday was present for the first time. The other, Rev. William Kerr McKinny, pastor of the Grove Presbyterian church, was unable to attend owing to a meeting of the presbytery in Philadelphia at which his presence was required.

The proceedings of the ministerial association yesterday did not embrace anything of marked importance. At the next meeting, which will take place on the third Monday of October, officers will be elected and one or more lines of work may be taken up.

LAI D TO REST

The following is a clipping from the Sunbury Daily, relating to the funeral of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Nickerson, a former resident of Danville, an account of whose death at Sunbury appeared in these columns: "The obsequies of the late Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Nickerson, were held at her late home on Arch street, Monday morning at ten thirty o'clock. The services at the home were brief and impressive. They were conducted by Rev. G. M. Glenn, of the Methodist Episcopal church of which denomination Mrs. Nickerson had been a life long member. In his prayer he paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased. The casket was covered with the most beautiful floral designs placed there by loving friends and relatives, all of which spoke of peace, purity and immortality. At the close of the services a long procession followed the funeral car to the silent city, where, in beautiful Pomfret Manor the casket was lowered to its last resting place in the earth. The last bearers were Mr. A. Oppenheimer, Mr. A. R. Trexler, Mr. W. H. Drackemiller, Mr. P. P. Smith, Mr. Urias Bloom, Mr. G. B. Reimensnyder, Mr. C. A. Sider and Mr. I. F. Guyer."

G. Dal Fox, of Milton, who is a charter member of the Milton lodge of Elks and who has served as its exalted ruler and its representative to the Los Angeles convention, has received notice of his appointment as district deputy grand exalted ruler for Pennsylvania, northeast, from Augustus Hermann, the grand exalted ruler.

Mad Dog Bites a Child.

South Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 21.—Arthur Biting was bitten yesterday by a mad dog while he was working at Benner's green grocery at the Five Points. The street was crowded at the time and there was a small-sized panic among those scrambling for places of safety.

The dog continued on down the street and bit the 2-year-old daughter of Albert Hoover and then disappeared over the mountain toward Seidersville.

25 MILLION ON LANCASTER FARMS

One need not go to the west for examples of scientific farming, in fact the greater increase of yields in the west is due more to the natural fertility of the soil, which has not been exhausted, as it has been in the east, and where big crops are raised in the latter it is due more to the application of theoretical plus the practical knowledge gained through chemicals and modern methods of tilling the soil. Manifestly the Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, farmers are on excellent terms with the soil. There are in that county some 9,000 or 10,000 farms, great and small, and their crops this year are valued at $25,000,000. The output of wheat is worth $7,000,000; corn, $8,000,000; hay, $1,500,000; tobacco, $3,000,000, a total of $12,500,000 for the four staples named. A similar total is reported for other crops, including rye, oats, potatoes, fruit, vegetables, livestock and dairy products. We will give some of the staid old farmers of northeastern Pennsylvania credit for excellent crops, but it is a fact that the greatest transformation in farming in this and surrounding counties, is on lands purchased by wealthy or well to do people of the city, who in connection with a summer home have become interested as a diversion as well as expected profit in intensive farming, rather in following the direction of the State and national boards of agriculture, in the application of fertilizers, just as the soil is in need, as indicated by the vegetation, color, etc. The knowledge of farming is not picked up in a moment and like every vocation the tilling of the soil requires hard work as well as hard work. In view of the rundown condition of the land, through proper fertilization and cultivation, it requires several years to obtain results from the more modern methods of farming, which requires a considerable expenditure of money as well as work to make a showing, but we shall have tangible evidence of what can be accomplished in a very few years in the Abington region, Spring Brook, Madison and Jefferson townships.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: 'Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house.' A TIMELY RESCUE Joseph, the eight year old son of A. E. Hostley of this city, came within an ace of drowning Saturday afternoon. He was playing alone at one of the deep ponds near the steel plant when he fell into the water.

Joseph English, a twelve year old boy, was walking down the railroad, and on hearing cries ran to the spot. He succeeded in rescuing the drowning boy just as he was sinking for the third time.

When pulled out of the water young Hostley was unconscious. He was taken to the home of Jacob Winters, East Market street, where he finally came around all right.

MILITARY ROLL OF THE COUNTY

Montour county has 1551 men subject to military duty, or in other words who are between the ages of 21 and 45 years.

It is part of the duty of the clerk of the board of county commissioners to make out the military roll. The books are filed away in the commissioners' office for possible use. Statistics are made from the books and sent to the State department and filed there. With such returns from each county the full military strength of the country can be computed.

THE MILITARY STRENGTH. The books are made out each year by the assessors when they sit at the polls prior to the election. Except should an emergency occur as during the civil war when drafts were made the military roll will be of no practical use.

Following is the number of men who are available for military duty in each of the districts of the county: Danville borough, 778; Anthony township, 106; Cooper township 52; Derry, 82; Liberty township, 121; Limestone township, 87; Mahoning township, 199; Mayberry township, 15; Valley township, 64; Washingtonville, 26; West Hemlock, 21.

Northumberland county with its much larger area has 25,000 men available for military duty.

THE STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Arrangements are being made for the greatest Sunday school convention yet held in the state, at Altoona, Oct. 13, 14 and 15. Among the speakers are Marion Lawrence, general secretary of the International and the World's Sunday school associations; Dr. Camden M. Coburn, Professor of English Bible in Allegheny college, Meadville; Rev. John F. Carson, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Antoinette Lamoreaux, Chicago, Ill., author of the Unfolding Life; Hon. J. Frank Hanley, of Indiana; Prof. Edward Steiner, Grinnell, Ia. S. Parks Cadman, Brooklyn, N. Y. Prof. E. O. Excell, Chicago, will have charge of the music. Mr. Alvin M. Roper, the pianist who delighted everyone at the World's convention will be the accompanist.

Among the special features will be a pastors' congress, the theme of which will be "Pastoral Leadership in Sunday School Evangelism." The call has gone out for one thousand pastors to be present. Every church in Montour county should make it possible for its pastor to attend this congress. There will also be a superintendents' congress. This will be led by Marion Lawrence. The elementary grades will have two full afternoon sessions, under the direction of the new elementary superintendent, Mrs. M. J. Baldwin. The organized adult Bible Classes will come in for plenty of help. There will be a conference, a mass meeting and a mammoth street parade with ten thousand men in line. Every Men's class in Danville should have a representative in this parade. There will be a conference on Missions, Temperance, Teacher Training, Home Department and Advanced Divisions. A great exhibition of supplies is being arranged by various publishers.

A two cent rate will be granted on all roads, but only on presentation of card orders. These you may get by applying to the county corresponding secretary or by writing the state office, 701 Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia.

Danville is about 135 miles from Altoona. Boarding may be secured at moderate rates either at hotels or private homes, so that ten dollars will cover the necessary expense of any one going from this county.

Montour will again receive recognition this year as a Front Line County. Unless there is representation from the county to the Altoona Convention it will be barred from such recognition in 1911. The county is entitled to fifteen accredited delegates, and as many unaccredited as will go. Every Sunday school in the county should endeavor to have present one or more representatives. Those planning to go should notify the president of the County Association, Dr. A. J. Irely, or the secretary, Samuel Miller.

Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out. Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. How to Swamp-Root. You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
