GIVE THANKS FOR PLENTY SAYS TAFT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. The vigorous growth and progress of the country as reflected by the records of population and harvest and the general conditions of international peace are things for which thanksgiving is especially due for the year 1910, according to the annual Thanksgiving Day proclamation issued by President Taft today.

This year of 1910 is drawing to a close. The records of population and harvest which are the index of progress show vigorous national growth and the health and prosperous well-being of our communities throughout this land and in our possessions beyond the seas.

"We continue to be at peace with the rest of the world. In all essential matters our relation with other peoples are harmonious, with an ever-growing reality of friendliness and depth of recognition of mutual dependence. It is especially to be noted that during the past great progress has been achieved in the cause of arbitration and the peaceful settlement of international disputes.

"Now, therefore, I, William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America, in accordance with the wise custom of the civil magistrate since the first settlements in this land and with the rule established from the foundation of this government, do appoint Thursday, November 24, 1910, as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, enjoining the people upon that day to meet in their churches for the praise of Almighty God and to return heartfelt thanks to Him for all His goodness and loving kindness.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and ten and the independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-fifth.

WILLIAM H. TAFT, By the President. Alvey A. Adee, Acting Secretary of State.

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Danville.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen and worse troubles quickly follow. This is often the true cause of the bearing down pains, lameness, back-ache, headache, etc. Uric poisoning also causes headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well. Let a Danville woman tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Edward Diehl, Pine street, Danville, Pa. says: "Doan's Kidney Pills proved to be an effective kidney medicine in my case. The use of six boxes of this remedy, procured from Hunt's Drug Store entirely relieved me of pains in my back and other troubles caused by disordered kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills should have a permanent place in every household."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Seeks $10,000 From Pennys.

Mrs. Lizzie Schell, through her attorney, Paul J. Sherwood, at Wilkes-Barre, Monday, filed a trespass suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad company, and asks $10,000 damages for the death of her husband, whom she alleges was killed through the negligence of the defendant company, at Nescopeck, on April 16, 1910.

The plaintiff sets forth in her statement that while her husband was crossing the tracks along a regular highway, his view of an approaching passenger train was obstructed by a freight train, and he was run down and killed.

REPAIRING CULVERT

For the third time since the completion of the canal culvert on Mill street the vitrified brick paving at that point is being torn up in order to raise the road bed where it has sunk. Due to the nature of the fill used at the culvert the process of sinking has been gradual, making the surface of the street uneven and causing the water to accumulate.

The borough and the Danville and Sunbury Transit Company jointly are striving to keep the street in good repair and twice previously have torn up the brick and raised the track. A quantity of crushed limestone has been delivered on the spot to be used in filling up the street.

A WINDFALL

A heavily loaded wagon was driving down Bloom street about 11:40 o'clock yesterday morning, and when near the intersection of Ferry street a bag of peanuts on the top of the load became unfastened and nearly a bushel of peanuts were lost. They were strewn along the ground for a couple of rods, while quite a large heap lay in the mud by the side of the wheel where they dropped after the wagon stopped, before the driver could close the bag.

About the time that the accident happened school was dismissed and what occurred when the youngsters came trooping along can easily be imagined. Never had such a windfall come their way before. Pockets were hastily filled out of the super abundance that was going to waste. The driver recovered what he conveniently could and left the rest to the children. A large quantity was trampled in the mud.

OFFICIAL COUNT

The official returns from the election districts of the county began to pour into court house at an early hour yesterday. By noon, with a couple of exceptions, all the returns were received.

The official count will take place at high noon today at the ringing of the court house bell. It will be conducted by the associate judges, the prothonotary and his sworn assistants. It will be held in the court room and will be open to the public.

Divine services will be held at the Temple B'nai Zion, Friday evening, at 7 o'clock. Rev. Joseph E. Guy, pastor of Shiloh Reformed church, will deliver a sermon on the subject: "Forgetting God." The public is cordially invited.

CLERGYMAN'S NAME FORGED

Music Dealer J. H. Fry on Saturday night accepted a forged check as security for the payment for a violin purchased on credit. The fact that the check was bogus was discovered in the nick of time and the man who presented it was arrested. He is now in jail awaiting a hearing.

About 11:30 o'clock Saturday night a man entered the music store of J. H. Fry, Mill street, and wanted to purchase a violin. He desired a good instrument, he said—along with the best bow—in stock. He was not long in being suited. He had not enough money to pay for the violin, he said, but promised to settle for it at an early date. He presented a check on the First National Bank of Danville drawn to the order of John B. Giltner and purporting to be signed by C. C. Snavely, which he desired Mr. Fry to hold as security. The proposition seemed like a fair one and the music dealer agreed to accept the check as security.

Scarcely had the stranger retired with the violin than Mr. Fry became dubious as to the proceeding. With the check in his pocket he started out to look for the purchaser of the violin. At Diets' meat market on Mill street he fortunately ran across the Rev. C. C. Snavely, whose signature the check purported to bear. Mr. Snavely promptly and emphatically declared the check a forgery; he had signed no such paper. The man, John B. Giltner, had made some repairs on Mr. Snavely's organ during the week and had been paid three dollars for the work.

While the music dealer and Mr. Snavely were talking Chief-of-Police Minemeyer came along. Being apprised of the facts the officer recalled that he had seen Giltner only fifteen minutes before and he believed that he could find him at that moment. Taking possession of the forged check he started out to make the arrest.

At Treas' hotel the Chief found the man wanted and at once took him into custody. The fiddle was recovered and handed over to Mr. Fry.

The man arrested acknowledged that he was John B. Giltner, to whose order the check was drawn. His home, he said, was in New York City. By way of excuse he explained that he had cashed the check for another fellow, "a short man." When the chief asked him to explain how it happened that the check he cashed was drawn to his own order he had no satisfactory answer.

He was committed to jail to await a hearing, which will take place before Justice-of-the Peace Dalton at 10 o'clock this morning. The man arrested is about forty five years of age and was in town all last week.

HEAVIER RAILS ARE BEING LAID

The force of workmen employed in changing the rails on this division of the D. L. & W. railroad has now reached a point within two miles of Danville, and the rails have been delivered all the way between that point and Northumberland.

The rail being displaced is the ordinary sixty-seven-pound rail, which has been in use on this division for many years. The new rail is a seventy-six pound rail and is perceptibly larger and heavier. At intervals in the borough they may be seen lying along the track in piles.

The object in changing the rail, it is said, is to provide for the running of heavier engines on this division. The passenger locomotives at present in use can not start up as quickly as the more modern and heavier engines, and it is said that in the aggregate much time is lost at the numerous stops made on a single run.

At present two section gangs are employed laying the track. At times the work train with a crew of fifty to seventy-five men is on the job. When the work is being pushed in this manner it is possible to lay as much as three-fourths of a mile of track per day. Much less progress is made when only the section hands are employed.

The process of changing the rails, which is done between trains, is quite an interesting one and shows to what a complete system the work is reduced. The new rails are laid end to end parallel with the rails to be displaced and are fastened together just as they are to lie upon the ties. Then, when all is ready, the spikes are quickly withdrawn; the old rails are thrown aside and the new rails connected are bodily lifted over and spiked down.

WM. R. FOLLMER COLONEL OF 12TH

Major William R. Follmer, of Lewisburg, was elected Saturday night colonel of the Twelfth regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, to succeed Charles M. Clement, of Sunbury, recently appointed brigadier general.

Captain William Heim, of Company K, of Sunbury, was chosen major to fill the vacancy caused by Colonel Follmer's advance.

The meeting Saturday night was held in the armory of Companies K and E. It was the third meeting that has been held for the purpose of electing a colonel for the Twelfth, the other elections having resulted in deadlocks.

General Clement presided at Saturday night's meeting. When the nominations for colonel were opened the names of Major Follmer, of Lewisburg, and Captain Taylor, of Bellefonte, were presented. Follmer was chosen on the first ballot, the vote being 18 to 16.

For the office of major Captain Heim, of Sunbury and Captain White, of Company G, of Williamsport, were nominated. The first ballot gave each candidate 17 votes apiece. The second ballot stood 18 for Heim and 16 for White, electing the former.

Representing Company F, of this city, were Captain F. M. Herrington, Lieutenants Robert M. Gearhart and Herbert L. Dreifuss.

SUNK TWO FEET

The reconstruction of the trolley track over the canal culvert on Mill street has revealed a rather perplexing state of affairs. It is well established that the constant sinking of the track is due to the nature of the fill used when the culvert was constructed. This was composed largely of soft earth gathered from various sources.

The track along with the course of concrete in which the ties were laid was removed yesterday, and the heavy roller belonging to Contractor W. H. Lyon was brought down from East Market street and employed on the job.

Under its weight the roadbed on the culvert sunk perceptibly. Crushed slag was thrown in but under the weight of the roller this went down along with the bed of the earth, and the longer the roller was used the faster the fill seemed to sink. By last evening the roadbed had gone down some two feet.

DANVILLE LOST TO SUNBURY

At Sunbury on Saturday the Danville high school football team met its worst defeat of the season, when the Sunbury high school eleven overwhelmed the locals by a score of 41 to 0.

The poor showing of the Danville students was due partly to the heavier weight of the Sunbury team and also to the splendid interference of the latter, which was the most difficult problem presented by any opposing team this year.

Conceding that the Sunbury team is the strongest high school aggregation in this section there is only one excuse for the one-sided score. Captain Snavely, who would star on any high school team, is out of the game on account of injuries received in the Shamokin game. Some of the other members of the team, for trifling reasons, at the last moment deserted the team and remained at home. With new men on the line and in the back field and the few regulars playing in new positions, the fighting spirit of the team was gone; so much so that the Sunbury team toyed along in the game and did not try to play ball.

The lineup: D. H. S. S. H. S. Gill, left end; Rhodes Shannon, left tackle; Stald Irvin, left guard; Heckert, Nevin Eyerly, center; Honser Kocher, right guard; Fisher Redding, right tackle; Fryling Roberts, right end; Dissinger Williams, quarter back; Shippe Sidler, left half back; Mackert Treas, right half back; Lawrence Dailey, full back; Bowen Touchdowns—Shippe, Bowen, Lawrence, Fryling, Mackert, Rhodes.

Lawrence Leafey, for many years a resident of this city, died in Philadelphia on Wednesday and was buried there Saturday.

The deceased was a stove moulder and for some twenty years was employed by the Danville Stove & Manufacturing company. He was a member of the Iron Moulders' union No. 124, of this city. He was a skilled workman and had many friends among our townspeople.

The cause of death was tuberculosis. The deceased resided in this city up to October 28th, when he went to Philadelphia to live with his daughter. His death soon followed.

The deceased was about fifty-five years of age. He was a widower and is survived by several grown up children.

Please accept thanks." For sale by Paules & Co. Pharmacy.

TO RAISE THE MAINE

About 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning a special freight passed through this city on the P. & R. Railway, to which an unusual degree of interest attached.

In all there were forty-eight cars loaded with material to be used in raising the U. S. Battleship Maine. The train did not stop here and the contents of the cars could not be closely noted. Conspicuous enough to be observed, however, were powerful engines, enormous steel cables and hooks, the latter a foot or more in diameter.

Every other car contained a banner, which in effect set forth that the equipment had been manufactured by the Lackawanna Steel company at Buffalo, and was for the coffer dam in Havana Harbor to be constructed in connection with the raising of the Battleship Maine.

By the will of the late Simon P. Wolverton, of Sunbury, the First Presbyterian church, of Sunbury, of which the deceased was a member of the board of trustees, received a bequest of $1,000. The Rush Presbyterian church which he attended as a boy, receives a similar bequest. The Rush Baptist church receives a legacy of $500, which is to be used for the care of the graves of Mr. Wolverton's grandparents.

Mrs. J. Cressler, of Wilkes-Barre, will arrive today for a visit with Miss Emeline Lyon, Ferry street.

SNOW DRIFTS REMAIN

Plenty of snow is still found on the county roads. It is impossible to drive many miles in any direction without encountering at some points veritable snow drifts. Add to this the pleasant atmosphere, which is benumbing in its effects, and we have conditions that suggest an early winter.

Unfortunately for the farmers there is still a great deal of corn to be husked, which, unless the weather suddenly changes, means cold fingers for someone. The farmers were busy in their cornfields yesterday. At some places in order to secure shelter they dragged several shocks together for a wind breaker and behind these they husked corn in comparative comfort.

AT CITY HALL

A fine improvement is on foot in city hall, which embraces a thorough renovation of the hallway leading to the second story as well as the smaller hallway leading to the Secretary's office, &c. This part of the building had always been papered, but it was difficult to keep it in repair owing to the moisture admitted through the lower doors, which most of the time were open.

For this reason it was decided to remove the paper and paint the walls. The work has been very artistically executed by George S. Tillson, the fine results proving that no mistake was made by deciding to use paint.

HERESY CHARGE WILL BE PRESSED

After appointing a judicial commission and a prosecuting committee for the trial of Rev. Dr. W. D. Grant, of Northumberland, charged with heresy, the presbytery of Northumberland, which met in adjourned session Monday evening at the Central Presbyterian church at Williamsport adjourned again to meet at the call of the moderator. The commissioners appointed at the last regular meeting of the presbytery to investigate charges against Dr. Grant reported in favor of bringing the accused minister to trial.

The following make up the judicial commission to consider the charges against Dr. Grant: Rev. J. W. Gillen, Rev. William Charles Hogg, Rev. H. C. Sperbeck, Rev. Herbert Ure, Rev. J. C. Fields, Elders John G. Reading, K. C. McWilliams and L. I. Meyer. These were appointed on the prosecuting committee: Rev. J. W. Kirk, Rev. S. C. Dickson and H. M. Hinckley. The court for the trial of the heresy charges will proceed to organize at an early date.

During the adjourned session a minute on the death of Rev. Henry Graham Finney, prepared by Rev. William Charles Hogg, was adopted. Rev. Dr. N. H. Calkins was elected a delegate to the National Reform association. A dissolution of pastoral relations from the Benton Presbyterian church was granted Rev. W. H. Topham. Rev. J. H. Kerr was admitted from the presbytery of Chicago.
