Millwood Camp Meeting.

RIDGEVIEW PARK, August 14, 1889. To the Editor of the Johnstown Democrat.

SUN—According to appointment the meeting opened last evening by a sermon by Rev. Thomas. Rain began to fall in the evening, and continued during the services, but the mammoth tabernacle has a capacity that will shield several thousand people in time of any ordinary storm.

Judge Harry White and daughter are here. The Judge leaves on the next train for duty.

Excursion rates from the 13th of August until the 31st were obtained by the Railroad Committee.

The trustees of the park grounds were in session yesterday for the purpose of attending to permits and preliminary arrangements for the hotel.

The T. L. Hunt cottage is not yet occupied, nor that of our townsman, W. J. Rose.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of the DEMOCRAT will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh.

Prepare to Shed Them Now. Oh! hark! hear that sound like thunder! 'Tis Johnstown falling! 't is Johnstown falling! 't is Johnstown falling!

No, 't was not God, the great Omnipotent; such judgment comes not from His throne. The South Fork dam was all deficient, 'Twas this alone—Echunga.

Raining as it was on Saturday morning more than fifty wagons were in market. Our Wednesday and Saturday markets formerly were a feature.

AYER'S Hair Vigor restores color and vitality to weak and gray hair. Through its healing and cleansing qualities, it prevents the accumulation of dandruff and cures all scalp diseases.

THE HAY FEVER SEASON.

JULY, AUGUST, SEPTEMBER.

"At this season, when life offers the greatest attractions and the most delightful resources to persons whose soundness of body permits out-of-door exercise and amusement, multitudes are debarr'd from the joys of the summer by hay fever, one of the most exasperating, wearisome, and depressing ills to which humanity is subject—obscure, inexplicable, descending on a given date like an invisible blow of fate.

The sufferers from hay fever have looked in vain for any true remedy. Many of them, however, have looked in vain because they have been ignorant of Ely's Cream Balm, the only and true remedy for hay fever in all its forms.

Agreeable in the use, entirely devoid of any unpleasant after-effects, this Cream Balm quickly allays inflammation, and secures that relief which the sufferer has longed for."

NOTICE—THE KEYSTONE

BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of said Association, held at the office of the solicitor, on Wednesday Evening, July 10, 1889, it was agreed, in view of the late unprecedented disaster, that the business of the Association, including the usual business of the corporation, be and remain suspended until the first Wednesday of September, 1889, at which time the payment of monthly dues and interest will recommence.

An investigation into the affairs of the Association having been had, it is ascertained that the losses sustained by reason of the flood have in no way affected its financial solidity.

The Account Books and Papers are now in the hands of the undersigned, who has been appointed Auditor to distribute the fund in the hands of John E. Strayer and Paul Strayer as shown by their first account.

Extract from the Record.—As shown by the above extract, the undersigned has been appointed Auditor to distribute the funds in the hands of John E. and Paul Strayer, Administrators of John Strayer, deceased, and among those legally entitled to receive the same, and hereby gives notice that he will sit at the office of O'CONNOR BROS. in the borough of Johnstown, on Thursday, August 13th, 1889, at 10 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of attending to the duties of said appointment, at which time and place all persons interested shall attend or be forever debarred from counting in on said fund.
