Stole $700.

Mr. Jnosky, who does business opposite the Company store, was relieved Tuesday rening of a satchel containing watches id fewelry to the amount of $700. On osing for the night, as was his custom, packed the most valuable goods into satchel, and gave it into the charge of rs. Jnosky, to take to their place of sidence, No. 224 Horner street. When ey arrived home, Mrs. Jnosky set the atchel on the front step, thinking Mr. as only a short time until she discovered e satchel was not brought in, and on ecollecting that she had left it on the eps, she went out to get it, but it ould not be found. It is supposed they ere followed by parties who saw them sawt from Washington street with the oods and whose object was to secure iem. Detectives are at work on the ise and there is little doubt but that the nieves will be brought to justice.
