

"I WISH YOU HAD SOAP THAT WOULD FLOAT,"

a lady said to a clerk in a large grocery store. "You have no idea how ordinary soap is wasted. The servants let it remain in the bottoms of the wash-tubs, dish-pans, and scrubbing-pails, and when the water is poured off, the soap has the consistency of mush, and a new bar must be taken from the box. If the soap would only float, they would see it, and take it out of the water when they were through with it."

The "IVORY SOAP" floats, replied the clerk. "Oh, will it float, and, as the "IVORY SOAP" is made of oils, and is 99 1/2% pure, as a matter of course it will float."

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory," they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the popular and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

HOW IT WORKED.

Good morning, Jack! why I haven't seen you for a month past. What in the world is the matter with you? You seem to have renewed your youth. Well, Phil, I have. Don't you remember the last time I saw you, how miserable I was? Sick and blue, and in that sort of mood a man gets sometimes when he feels the most noble thing in life is to go straight to the devil. Not so bad as that, I hope; at all events you didn't go that way, you are looking far too happy and hearty. Think goodness, no I or rather, thank you. Vinegar Bitters. Do you remember that day I saw you last, when you recommended that remedy to me so persistently, and I was first vexed and then half convinced. I remember it perfectly, and you needn't say another word upon the subject; your looks tell me that you took the medicine. No doubt of it; everybody remarks upon my improved looks and temper; but I must really tell you all about it. I got the old style, as you recommended, and didn't mind the bitter taste at all. I finished the bottle in about two weeks, and was greatly improved, so much so that I determined to change off and try the new style. Well, how did you like it? You told me your wife preferred the new style, I believe, well, I must say I agree with her. I like the old style very much but the new is a finer, smoother, more expensive preparation. I believe it is, in fact, I have heard so, and I wonder the McDonald Drug Company sell it for the same price they do the old style, because it is really a very costly preparation. Well, that doesn't concern us. Who was it said that people fancied themselves plums sometimes when they were only bilious? No matter! I was only going to say that I believe people often seem wicker when it is only their liver, or their stomach, or some other cantankerous organ of the body so out of order they couldn't be good if they tried. And if all the miserable dyspepsia, and victims of biliousness, headache and the thousand and one ills that flesh is heir to would only take Vinegar Bitters, what a happy world this would be! I should recommend the new style. I never go back on the old style. Well, they can pay their money and take their choice, for both kinds work admirably.
