WHAT PITTSBURGH DID

Her Efforts for Johnstown Appreciated— The Auditing Committee Examine the Reller Association's Books and Find Everything in Splendid Order. Pittsburgh Post, Saturday. The work of the committee to audit the accounts of the Pittsburgh Relief Committee for the sufferers by the Johnstown flood, was completed yesterday and will be found below. The work occupied their entire time for two days and was of considerable magnitude. Treasurer Thompson was complimented on the accuracy of his accounts. His work was continued long after the first rush that came on the committee, and although some $600 was expended in clerk hire and other expenses, this was borne by the committee, and the fund unimpaired will all go to Johnstown. The report fol-

"A short time since the Governors of the States of Onio and Michigan and the Mayor of Chicago were invited and requested by the Pittsburgh Citizens' Association for the relief of the Johnstown flood sufferers, to appoint a commission to examine the accounts of the moneys received and disbursed by the association. The undersigned commission, appointed in response to this invitation, having made a careful inspection of the books vouchers, bills, checks and various other documents pertaining to this rel.ef account presented by W. R. Thompson, Esq., Treasurer, to whom was e :trusted the sole care and custody of all funds for warded to and collected by this association, have to report the following condensed exhibit of receipts and disburse

"The receipts as given above only show the money contributions which passed through the hands of this committee. Large quantities of clothing, provisions and other supplies purchased by State and local committees were forwarded to the flood sufferers through this agency Many, if not all the States in which credits appear in this report, also sent large contributions of both money and supplies to the Governor of the State of Pennsyl vania for distribution through the committee appointed by him.

"Receipts, accompanied by detailed bills for each and every item composing the items of expenditure above given were exhibited to the auditing commis sion, and Treasurer Thompson also pre sented complete evidence of the accuracy and thorough system that characterized the disbursements of the money confided to the Citizens' Relief Association.

"In connection with our endorsement of the financial report submitted to us, 1 may not be inappropriate to briefly refer to the history and to certain of the prom inent features of the magnificent work performed by the Pittsburgh Association. "Immediately after the first sad news of the dreadful disaster that swept into eternity thousands of lives and that spread ruin and desolation throughou the Conemaugh Valley, had been flashed across the wires, a mass meeting was called by the Mayors of Pittsburgh and Allegheny to give expressions to the sen timents of sorrow universally felt throughout the country and to adopt immediate and effective measures for the rescue and relief of the suffering surviv At this mass meeting this Relie Committee was selected from among the leading and most highly esteemed citizens of Western Pennsylvania.

"The gentlemen chosen to conduct this noble mission of charity in almost every instance occupy positions of prominence in the great industrial and commercial enterprises of their city and their State. It would be superfluous to allude to this fact where these gentlemen are so well and favorably known, but as contributions have come to them from tens of thousands in different parts of the country it is believed to be not out of place to make this favorable comment.

"On the 1st of June, the day after the disaster, the labors that confronted this tude. The people left surviving at Johns town and elsewhere in the stricken region were totally isolated from the outside Railway and telegraph lines on either side of Johnstown were scatter- OUR ALL WOOL FRENCH CASHed and carried away for many miles in the general ruin. As soon as communication could be established in a temporary way, this Committee at once pushed forward provisions for the sustemance of the hying, and coffins and caskets for the burial of the dead. In every way they directed and performed the work of relief with intense energy and most zealous devotion.

As soon as possible the General Com mittee appointed sub committees to organ ize, centrol and guide the various depart. ments of the dispensation of relief, such as the recovery and decent interment of the dead, the furnishing of food and raiment to the 30,000 destitute survivors, the clearing of the debris from the public streets, and the erection of temporary shelter and of permanent homes. this vast work of benevolence was faithfully and thoroughly done. From the time of the advent of this committee at Johnstown no one has been allowed to suffer for food or other essential neces saries of lite.

"In fine, the undersigned commission feel certain that the sacred mission of charity confided to the Citizen's Association has been performed with a noble fidelity that entitles the gentlemen composing this association to the gratitude of the entire people of the Conemaugh Valley, and also to the thanks of all who sent their contributions to aid in relieving the effects of this terrible calamity.

THREE MORE BODIES.

The Remains of Three More Victims of the Flood Found at Conemaugh Furnace. Friday morning we noticed that Mr. Henderson had received word that a body had been found in the river between Con emaugh Furnace and Nineveh. He sent down for the remains, and the parties returned last evening with the bodies of three children that had been found near Conemaugh Furnance.

One is described as a boy, ten or twelve years old, dark cassimer Norfolk suit, plaited down front and back, white buttons down the centre and brass but tons down each side, blue flannel shirt, gray drawers, drawers buttoned to shirt home-knit stockings, spring heel button shoes, black handled pocket knife.

The second was that of a boy several years younger, but had nothing on to identify him. The third body was still the men at the morgue could not tell of
