

The coal trade of the Pennsylvania region is reported very brisk.

The coal product of the Southern States for 1888 is estimated at 18,001,567 tons.

The world's output of tobacco is increasing more rapidly than either wheat or corn.

Another blizzard is reported now raging in the West. This one is in Southern Colorado.

Mr. John H. Schenberger, a great iron master and philanthropist of Pittsburgh, died in New York City yesterday morning.

The W. C. T. U. exhibit in the Paris Exposition received the gold medal in honor of its beauty and merit.

The Cambria City schools will open today. Mr. Michael Sweeney and Miss Maggie Boylan, at $60 and $45 per month respectively, are the teachers employed.

The puddlers at Carnegie, Phipps & Company's, Twenty-ninth and Thirty-third street, Pittsburgh, mills are working alternately each night, the day turn working to-night and the night turn tomorrow night. All charges will be made at 12 noon until the supply of gas increases.

The contractor for ridding the White House of rats has finished his work. During the raid he killed 91 rodents. President Harrison has purchased three of the ferrets and will keep them for future use.

According to ex-Senator Kellogg, "these Republican defeats east and west are due to President Harrison's ungrateful neglect of the colored man in the north, without whose votes he could not have been elected. The colored man is getting out of the Republican party slowly but surely, and his absence will be felt from this time on. In 1892, as in 1888, the colored votes will decide the result in the north."

James A. McLaughlin, of Pittsburgh, yesterday sued the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, to recover $50,000 damages for personal injuries. Mr. McLaughlin says he was a passenger on a Pennsylvania Railroad train on August 16, 1889, and that by reason of defective tracks the car in which plaintiff was traveling was thrown from the track down the embankment at Sarver Station, thus causing the plaintiff such bodily injuries as to impair his health permanently, and that prior to the accident plaintiff was strong and well.

Concerning the Australian ballot reform, the Springfield, Massachusetts, Republican says: "There is another important result from this new thing—it makes the polls a place where women can vote without molestation, insult or discomfort, and so removes a serious obstacle to women's acceptance of suffrage, and to men's willingness to give it to them. Many a man as he watched the voting yesterday, in this city at least, must have had the thought flash into his mind that woman could now exercise the franchise without affront to her delicacy or self-respect. And it would not be strange if he had gone on to reflect on the absurdity of excluding the best half of the community from so orderly and agreeable, as well as important, a duty."

Improvement is Demanded. From the Philadelphia Telegraph. There is a general demand for improved election methods all over the country, and the people propose to be heard in the halls of legislation.

A Little Flood. A miniature flood was caused on Morris street yesterday afternoon by the bursting of the six-inch main supplying the people of that street. The water flowed from the break for an hour, and was carried off by the sewer, which, fortunately, was open. Some of the sewers in that section are yet obstructed. If such had been the case below the break great inconvenience would have resulted from the overflow.

What a Great Clothing Concern Says. We have too much business in us to withstand the great pressure of being off the main street. We want to be shoulder to shoulder with the greatest competition of our city. We want to resume our former position, so as to be able to accommodate our patrons and friends. We have leased the building formerly occupied by Clark, 225 Main street, and will, after alterations complete, occupy the same. We have inaugurated a grand removal sale. Our stock must be reduced, and done quickly too, no matter what the loss will be. How our prices will suffer. On every article will be notified on the cut price worked in red ink on every article. All goods must go within two weeks at the

THE WATER WAS TOO HIGH. A Driver of a Team Attempts to Ford the Conemaugh, and is Nearly Lost. Yesterday forenoon a team from Genners' Brewery hauling a delivery wagon was driven into the Conemaugh river some distance above the Cambria and Millville temporary bridge on the way back from bringing a load up town. The driver thought that the water was not too high, but he had not proceeded far till he discovered his mistake. The current was swift and strong. The wagon was upset and with the team gradually started down stream. The driver had much to do to keep out of the water. Hoover & Hughes' men, who were at work repairing the bridge below came to their rescue, and succeeded in getting the team and wagon out, the latter on Cambria side and the former on the Millville side.

NOTICE—The undersigned, having been appointed Administrator of the estate of Mary Connors, late of Millville borough, Cambria county, Pa., deceased, all parties indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims or demands against the said estate will present the same for payment. JOHN BROWN, Administrator.

Entrained His Employees. Mr. Charles Cornwellson, who has charge of the extensive repairs being made at the M. E. Church, took a day off last week and went a-gunning. Being a valiant hunter as well as a first-class carpenter, his success was fifteen squirrels, besides other small game. The next evening the men in his employ received a notice to call at his house after quitting time. Upon arriving there, they were greeted with a table burdened down with the good things of this life, the principal dish being the game he had bagged. After spending a most agreeable evening they adjourned home, vowing him a most genial friend, as well as a kind and considerate employer.

Bingell Versus Hough. There was a jury trial before Justice Bland yesterday afternoon. The complainant, Mr. Ed. C. Bingell, who has achieved much newspaper notoriety of late, charged the defendant, John Hough, with having struck him blows in the face, knocked him down and otherwise abused him. The jury composed of Enoch James, W. S. O'Brien, John Jenkins, W. H. Thomas, John Price and Leander Vaughn, after hearing the case, brought in a verdict of guilty of aggravated assault and battery as indicted, but the defendant was recommended to the mercy of the Court. A fine of $5 and costs was imposed. It amounted in all to $17.04.

Death of Mr. Louis Reitz. Mr. Louis Reitz, died at the residence of Mr. Conrad Gerhardt, No. 55 Coal street, Conemaugh borough, yesterday forenoon about 10 o'clock. Mr. Reitz was a steel worker, and formerly lived by himself on Center street in the above named borough. He was a widower, having survived two wives, and has no children. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock interment at Sandyvale.

The Work in Lower Yoder. All but three or four of the "unknown" were yesterday raised from the trench in the Lower Yoder Cemetery. The water, as on the day before, gave much trouble. Most of the bodies were very much decomposed. One is said to have been identified by an ear-ring, the mate of which had been previously recognized among the valuables in Alma Hall. The bodies are taken over the Brownstown hill to Grand View.

At St. John's church. Commencing next Sunday there will be three masses at St. John's Catholic Church. The first and third will be at 8 and 10 o'clock, as heretofore. The other will be at 9 o'clock, and will be especially for those who are not chair-holders. There has been much inconvenience owing to the inability of large numbers to get seats. More chairs will soon be obtained, and this with the new arrangements will give seating accommodations to all members of the congregation.

To the Catholic Congress. Rev. J. C. Farran, Pastor of St. Columba's Church, Cambria, is in Baltimore attending the Catholic Congress.

DIED. MCGOTGILL—In Upper Prospect, on Wednesday morning, November 13, 1889, at 4 o'clock, Thomas McGough, aged about 57 years.

GOUDY—At the residence of her son, Mr. Morgan Goudy, at East Conemaugh, Mrs. Susan Goudy, aged about 80 years.

STACK—In Johnstown, on Sunday morning, November 10, 1889, at 2:30 o'clock, Martin, son of M. A. and Kate Stack, aged 5 years, 10 months and 2 days.

KANE—At Sharpburg, Pa., on Friday, November 9, 1889, at 11 o'clock, the son-in-law, Mr. Fitzpatrick, of paralysis, aged 61 years.

REITZ—At No. 55 Coal street, Conemaugh borough, on Monday, November 11, 1889, at 10 A. M., Mr. Louis Reitz, aged 47 years.

STOPHEL—On Second street, Peleeville, on Monday evening, November 11, 1889, William Stophel, aged 25 years.
