

WASHINGTON, November 23, 1898.

President Harrison now has an opportunity to show how sincere he was when he endorsed the Civil Service law.

The new Commissioner of Pensions is up to snuff when it comes to getting around the Civil Service law.

Now that Secretary Proctor has resigned the presidency of his Vermont Marble Company, he will be able to devote his entire time to the War Department.

The Speakership contest, although very quiet, is developing a great deal of mud blood among the Republicans.

President Harrison promised a Committee of the National Convention of Commercial Bodies, which called on him this week, that he would consider the question of recommending in his annual message the adoption of a national bankruptcy law.

The proposition of Mr. Arkell, Russell Harrison's partner, to pay $1,000,000 for the privilege of putting an advertisement on the back of postage stamps will be rejected.

There seems to be a screw loose somewhere in the Republican machine, or else United States Treasurer Houston, who during the Presidential campaign was Chairman of the Indiana Republican State Committee, would hardly have taken pains to use the language he did, when he appointed Miss Tanner, daughter of the deceased "Corporal," to be his private secretary, just after Mr. Raum, her father's successor, had accepted her resignation of a similar position in his office.

Mr. Houston told the young lady that it afforded him much pleasure to be able to show his appreciation of the valuable services rendered the Republican party of Indiana by her father, Corporal Tanner, during the last Presidential election, and he told it where he knew it would be published.

Between the candidates for Speaker and the candidates for the smaller offices under the House, the Republican Representatives are having a hard time, and it is not to be wondered at that they are slow in turning up.

Mr. Carlisle will receive the Democratic nomination for Speaker of the House. No other man has ever been thought of in this connection.

Foot Hurt at Moxham. Edward Mayberry, a heater at the Rolling Mill, Johnson Works, Moxham, had the great toe of his right foot badly mangled on Saturday afternoon.

Sister Gilestiga died at St. Francis Hospital, Pittsburgh, on Friday last. She was known to the world as Rebecca Manda, and formerly resided in this place. The funeral took place yesterday.

THREE MORE BODIES FOUND.

One at the Foot of Main Street—One in the Conemaugh—The Other Near Sang Hollow.

On Saturday morning some men who were making the excavation for the foundation of a house, at the foot of Main street on Mr. I. E. Robert's lot, uncovered the body of a boy.

No. 507, large man, height, near six feet, sandy hair mixed with gray, mustache and beard, cork-crown vest, black cloth pantaloons, white muslin or canton flannel underwear, white shirt and linen lay-down collar, bone collar button, cuff buttons in wrist band of sleeve, white cotton socks and lace shoes, nearly new.

No. 508, small child, light hair, child not more than ten years of age. The body, it was learned, was found about a mile below Sheridan Station on the south bank of the river.

No. 509, small child, light hair, child not more than ten years of age. The body, it was learned, was found about a mile below Sheridan Station on the south bank of the river.

Four more flood victims were Sunday consigned to their last resting place in Grand View. They were all members of the family of Thomas S. Davis, "California."

Funeral services were held at the residence on Market street by Dr. Fink. The Knight's of Honor furnished the pall bearers for Mr. Thomas S. Davis, and the Foresters those for the son-in-law.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Old Doctors

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it; hence the increased demand for Alteratives. It is now well known that most diseases are due, not to over-abundance, but to impurity, of the Blood; and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Recommended above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommended it when asked to name the best blood-purifier.
