

LET US LAUGH.

In the language of Lord Castlewood 'djevversesweather?—Sun. If you should happen to want your ears pierced just pinch the baby.—Texas Siftings. Hotel Clerk—Check your grip, sir? Guest (with indifference)—Good Lord, yes: can you do it?—Keavney Enterprise. We are surprised that some of the sensational preachers have not held forth on "The Grip Devil has on the World."—New York Tribune. "She's nothing but a thief, but when I engaged her I was told that she had been ten years in her last place." "So she was. That place was Sing Sing."—Munsey's Weekly. Jimmy—What is magnanimity, Papa? Binks—Magnanimity, my son, is to give a dead villain a glowing obituary notice and picking the life of a deceased hero to pieces.—Lawrence American. Now the lamkin woe the katydid, And the young cat learns to bleed, And the dullest sheds his checkered pants And gets a new spring hat; And the poet thaws his frozen muse And writes of rhyme and reason: And—hush! you crazy idiot, Your six months out of season. —Birmingham Republican. Lord Clubbysid—Aw, I see the price is giving dinners to both Tories and Liberals about equally. Liberal M. P.—Yes, so I observe. L. C.—I'm afraid he'll acquire the reputation of carrying water on both shoulders. L. M. P.—Well, what harm will that do? That's the only place he does carry it.—Punch.

A State of Things.

Joseph Cathcart and his wife reside in Cambria City, and are just now having a monkey and parrot time. There is a state of things existing in their house that is the opposite of domestic felicity, and resembles black infidelity, or words to that effect. Marriage if this case has been a failure, and Joseph has suffered great trials and annoyances. It appears that Joseph went home unexpectedly Sunday night and found one Glasgow reclining in things that were his. On making this horrible discovery his excitement and anger knew no bounds. To ease the disconsolate husband and assuage his grief, Glasgow offered to buy his wife, who was willing to be transferred. After considerable talk about the value of the wife it was agreed that $200 was a fair and proper price. Glasgow agreed to make the purchase at the price stated. But visions and remembrances of his former happiness came to the disconsolate Cathcart, and he refused to sell. Happiness and felicity it is hoped again hold sway in Joseph's house.

The Old Doctors

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it; Hence the increased demand for Alteratives. It is now well known that most diseases are due, not to over-abundance but to impurity of the Blood; and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "One of my children had a large sore break out on the leg. We applied simple remedies for a while, thinking the sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alterative medicine was necessary. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being above all others, we used it with marvelous results. It purged the blood, and health and strength were restored." —J. J. Times, Texas. "I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be an admirable medicine for all kinds of blood diseases. I recommend it to do the work every time." —L. L. Pater, M. D., Manhattan, Kansas. "We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years, and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier." —W. T. McLean, Drugist, Augusta, Ohio. "Ayer's medicines continue to be the standard remedies in spite of all competition." —T. W. Richmond, Bear Lake, Mich.
