Death of Feter Ott.

Last week we announced the serious iliness of Mr. Peter Ott in consequence of a fall from a load of har. He was dangerous from the first, but it was not until Monday evening that he became so bad that his friends began to lose hope for his recovery. His death took place on Tuesday night at his home in Paint township, Somerset county. Mr. Ott 18 survived by his wife and a family of seven children, including Daniel, David, and Noah, of this city. They with their father have been running a planing mill in the Seventh ward for many years. They are also contractors. The funeral will take place this afternoon. The deceased was a mem ber of the English Lutheran Evangelical Church at Scalp Level.

Ministers May Ride For Two Cents a Mile Ministers May Ride For Two Cents a Mile.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has restored its former custom of selling tickets to regular stationed ministers at two cents per mile. A certificate will be issued, upon application, to each minister on the line. Such as hold these certificates can purchase tickets at one cent per mile reduction from the ordinary fare.

Examination for Permanent Certificates

The Permanent Certificate Committee of Cambria County, Pa., will meet in the Millville High School Building at 9 o'clock A. M. on Friday and Saturday, April 4th and 5th, to examine applicant for permanent certificates. Those desiring to take the examination should notify the Chairman, Prof. J. G. Carroll 41 Napoleon street, Johnstown, at once stating the branches in which they wish to be examined.
