Mr. Wm. L. Boyer, of Coopersdale, an engineer on one of the Cambria Iron Company's small engines, was bumped off his engine and had a foot badly mangled and a knee injured. He was attended by Dr. W. B. Lowman.

As the new Cambria tridge is construct ed, the arc light at the western end is en tirely too low. Higher poles will be nec essary since the grade of the street at the end of the bridge will necessarily have to be changed.

A large force of Cambria Iron Company men under Mr. J. P. Custer are re moving the large deposit in the Cone-maugh river just east of the gas works. The workmen came upon a large section of railroad track, ties uppermost, buried under two feet of sand and gravel. Wire, car-trucks, machinery and large cut building stone form part of the varied collection.

Hibbard's Throat and Lung Balsam.

Hibbard's Throat and Lung Balsam, for throat and lung troubles this remedy has no equal. It is guaranteed to cure consumption in its first stages, and even in advanced stages of that disease it relieves coughing and induces sleep. You may have a cough or a cold at any time, therefore no household, especially with children, should be without it. For all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, croup, whooping cough, hoarseness, splitting of blood and all pulmonary diseases it has no equal. Prepared only by Rheumatte Syrup Co., Jackson Mich. Ask your druggist for it.

I WHITE AND THE DESIGNATION OF THE PARTY OF

On Saturday at 1:25 o'clock in the morning Mr. Daniel Stroup died at his residence, No. 169 Vine street. He was born at Germantown Philadelphia, Oct., 5, 1824. and came to Johnstows in May 1852. trade he was a furnace builder and helped to lay the first stone and brickwork for the Cambria Iron Works, remaining in the service of the Company until March 31, The deceased was always in the enjoyment of good health until the flood, when he lost all his possessions, and after which his health began to fail. In that disaster he had a most thrilling experience, which ever after told on his nervous system. In October last he buried his only daughter, a very estimable young lady. He was after that more broken down than ever, ended his useful life. Among those who knew him Mr. Stroup was much esteemed, and was one of the foremost men of his community. In his earlier days ne was a strong Abolitionist and was a proneer member of the Republican party, becoming independent in politics in his later days.

until finally complete nervous prostration

He was the first Sach of Kiskimine-ter Tribe No. 66, Improved Order of Red Men, which was organized here about 1860. He was a member of Spring Garden Lodge No. 99 Odd Fellows, of Philadelphia, which lodge he joined December 25, 1845, and was a charter member of the first lodge instituted in Johnstown He was probably the oldest Odd Fellow in Western Pennsylvania, if not in the State.

Mr. Stroup is survived by his wife and five grown-up sons, three of whom are employed in the masonry department of the Cambria Iron Company. He was himself perhaps their oldest employe.

The funeral will take place this after noon at 2 o'clock, when interment will be made in Grand View cemetery. PETER B. MOYER.

The subject of this notice died at his residence in Washington township, near Lilly, on Thursday morning last. age was about seventy-five years. had long been in failing nealth, probably as the result of his advancing years.

The deceased was twice married, being survived by his second wife and three calldren of his first wife. They are Thomas, of Lilly; Frank P. ticket agent at Summerhill, and Mrs. Mary Fisher, of Clearfield county.

On Saturday forenoon the remains of the deceased were intered at the Catholic Cemetery, at Summit, beside those of his first wife. A large concourse of the friends and relatives turned out to pay their last tribute of respect to one who had always been a kind and much re spected neighbor.

MICHAEL BRANIFF.

On Friday Mr. Michael Braniff, an es teemed citizen of Summerhill township. died at his residence, about four mille north of Wilmore, after an illness lasting many months. He was aged about sev enty-five years, and had resided on the farm on which he died for about the las fifty years. His brother, Ambrose, and he operated the farm together. Both were bachelors. Years ago they dealt exten sively in lumber, possessing a sawmill on one end of the farm.

The funcral was held yesterday after noon when the remains of the deceased were interred in the Catholic Cemetery at Wilmore, a large concourse of friends at tending.

Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup.

There is certainly something remarkable in this preparation, as it is meeting with a success never attained by any other medicine. It never fails if used as directed.

For over twenty years I have been a great sufrerer from the effects of a diseased stomach, and for three years past have been unable to do business. Two years ago my case was pronounced incurable. I visited different water cures and climates all to no purpose. Last June 1 began using Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, openared by Rheumatic Syrup Company, Jackson, Mich., and at once began to feel better. I have used thirteen bottles and am a well man.
