BRITAIN'S HEIR PRESUMPTIVE AND TWO GREAT CARDINALS DEAD

The Grim Monster Invades Three cely Homes. Duke of Clarance and Cardinals Manning and Simeoni No More.

London, Jan. 16—Albert Victor, the eldest on of the Prince of Wales, Duke of Clarence and heir presumptive to the throne of Great Britain, died Thursday morning at Sand-ringham. The night previous slight hopes for his recovery were entertained, but at 2 o'clock Thursday morning there was a change for the worse, and from that time the Prince sank rapidly until the end came. He was delirious during part of 'the night, but recovered consciousness before he died

PRINCE GEORGE FREDERICK ERNEST ALBER DUKE OF CLARK

The official account of the death of the Duke says that the Rev. Frederick Herrey, domestic chaplain to the Prince of Wales, read the prayers for the dying when the end was near. In the room were assembled the princes and Princess of Wales, Prince George, the Duke and Duchess of Fife, the Princesses yietoria and Maud, sisters of the dying Duke, the Prince and Princess of Teck and the Princess May, the Duke's betrothed. Along with these were three physicians and the Princess May is said to be almost on the strenge of mental collapse. And Four Hundred and Fourteen Persons Perish

London, January 14.—A dispatch was re-ceived here from Hong Kong, stating that the steamer Meifoo has arrived at that port, bringing intelligence of the loss of the steamer Nam:how of Cupchi Point. The Meifoo reports that the shaft of the Nam-chow broke, supposedly at the point where it emerges from the hull, his allowed the water to rush into the shaft alley and make its way to the engine room and thence into the firs room. The steamer's fires ware soon extinguished and she settled radialy. The water continued to point in unchecked, and in a short time the vessel foundered.

and in a short time the vessel foundered. The Namchow was employed in trading locally in the China Seas and she had on locally in the China Seas and she had on board a very large number of Chinese pas sengers. She sank so rapidly that it was impossible to launch her boats even had she had enough to carry all hands on board, When she went down she carried with berdit persons, every one of whom were drowned. The steamer was officered by Europeans, and her crew also consisted of sailors, fire-men, etc., from different European countries. They stood to their posts to the last and did everything possible to save their versel, and all of them went down with the steamer.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs Changes His Mind About the Disposition of Bef-ugees on Board the Yorktown and In-sults Commander Evans.

auts Commander Yvans.
 The following dispatch was received by the Secretary of the Navy at Washington from Commander Evans, of the Yorktown: Valparaiso, Chill, Jan. 19, 1992.
 Secretary of the Navy, Washington, D.C.: The American Minister informs me that the follian Minister of Foreign Affairs has changed his mind about refugues now on the Yorktown, and that they may be taken out of any merchant vessel touching at a Chilian port by local authority. Arrangements had been made for all of them to sail today, but this change of base on the part of the chilian Minister of For-eign Affairs complets me to keep then, which crowds me very much. Shall I land them at Calao, Peru, or Molendo, Peru? No stames from here go direct to neutrail territory.

The series in the set of the chilian Minis-territory. This unexpected act of the Chilian Minis-ter of Forsign Affairs is due, he states, in part of my saluting the Spanish Minister when he came aboard to deliver two refugees. I have requested the American Minister to say to the Minister of Foreign Affairs that I am responsible to my own Government and not to that of Chili in such affensive, and I will not accept it. His no-tion seems unworthy of the representative of a serious Government. [Signed.] EVANS,

The action on the part of Senor Pereira, the Chilian minister of foreign affairs, in deciding that the refugees might be taken out of any merchant ressel touching at a Chilian port by local authority was a great surprise to the officials at creat surprise to the officials at Washing-ton. They had been led to believe from the fact that the refngees were allowed to go on board the Yorktown without molesta-tion that they would be permitted to leave the country without further hindrance.
