Concerning Somerset County.

Somerset county has an area in square miles, 1106; population in 1880, 33,110; population in 1890, $7,317; county debt in 1890, only $8,000; public school pupils, 10,099. In area the county ranks fifth, BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Plano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Planos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penulless plow-boy, and by his indomitable will be has worked his way up so as to sell so far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Planos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 200 000 more of his make, that means a business of $20,000,000 if we average them at $100 sech. It squalling a fraction over 27 for leavel 100 of population. Since 1880 Som terrei county has added 4,207 to her peoplation. The presidential vote cast in the county in 1888 is as follows: For Harrison, 4,825; for Cleveland, 2,319; for Fisk, 238; total vote, 7,382; plurality for Harrison, 2506. there being four counties in the state

Life at Salisbury.

As an evidence for what a few enterprising people can do for a town, the dye works now in operation at West Salisbury stands prominent.

The buildings of this plant cover nearly two acres of ground; its capacity is wenty-five barrels of chestnut dye per kind in the United States. The factory is its own electric plant by which it is brilllantly lighted.

The location of this factory at Salis bury is largely owing to the enterprise of Mr. Milton J. Beachy, who accident ally learned that the company was look ing for a site. He hustled about and in four days raised among the people in and about Salisbury enough money to pur chase the seven acres of land now occur pied by the factory. This was offered to the company as an inducement, and was promptly accepted .-- Somerset Standard.
