EDITORIAL REMARKS.
HYNDMAN for the first time in his history, went Republican at the election on Tuesday. There is some hope for Hyndman yet.

The returns of last Tuesday's elections show large Republican gains all over the state. The old Keystone state is evidently getting in proper trim for the Presidential fray.

ROBERT T. LINCOLN declares in emphatic terms that he is not a candidate for the presidency. It begins to look more like Harrison every day, and Harrison will do very well.

The first hanging in Kent county, Del., since 1851, occurred a few weeks ago, and now the Pittsburgh Times is unkind enough to say that it is no wonder Delaware goes Democratic when it should be Republican.

The novel feature of a new electric boat, the idea of a French engineer, is a sea-water battery. The zinc and copper plates are under the boat, and can be raised or lowered by pulleys, serving as a kind of keel while at the same time driving a propeller by means of a motor.

A CHANGE of name is more important to Salisbury than any other one thing. Why don't our leading citizens speak out and help to bring about this much needed reform? Waken up, gentlemen, and let us hear from you. You cannot afford to remain silent on this important subject.

In January, 1891, the imports of flour by Cuba were, from the United States, 2,770 sacks and from Spain 38,490, but in January, 1892, the reciprocity arrangement having gone into effect on the 1st, the imports were, from Spain none and from the United States 62,371. Farmers will please make a note of this.—Pittsburgh Times.

The other day we noticed several real pretty girls in the act of chewing gum. Of course that is very becoming to the gentle sex, for what looks more lovely than a young, sweet-mouthed girl doing the open and shut act on a hank of white gum about the size of her foot? The motion is usually very easy and quiet when they don't open their mouths in the act. It brings the dimples to view, protrudes their pretty lips as for a kiss, strengthens the muscles of their jaws for masticating tough meat and enlarges their pretty cheeks. We admire their habit, even when they wallop their tongues around over their shoulders and tickle the young fellow in the rear church pew under the chin. There is nothing prettier or to our vision than to see a sweet mouth spread all over the north part of the pretty face of a gum-chewing girl.

THE STAR has been informed that several Democrats in this vicinity have said that they would like to subscribe for it, but are afraid that the paper, might be too rough on their party during the Presidential campaign. Our erring political brethren, known as the "great untried Democracy," should not make themselves appear ridiculous by acting as though they were afraid of what a Republican paper published in a country town might do. Tut! tut! gentlemen, come off. If you can't stand what opposition papers say against your doctrine, it is a sure sign that you are too tender for this world. But don't be alarmed, for THE STAR is not going to abuse anybody, unless it is in self-defense. We can edit a very pronounced political paper without abusing anyone. Abuse is not argument and we shall not use it.

"RAZORS IN THE AIR."
Not Exactly Razors, but Weapons as Dangerous. How They Got Hair, Split Blood and Smash Windows in West Salisbury.

Last Saturday night West Salisbury was the scene of wars and rumors of wars, and blood flowed freely. So did other stuff, and the fact that other stuff flowed freely was the reason that we now have occasion to record the gory deeds of those who looked too often upon the "juice of the bug" when it "got their fill."

The row started at Williams' hotel, but just how, and who caused it, it is something that THE STAR does not claim to be posted on. But, anyway, there was a fuss in which Henry Pike got his hair cut with a goodly sized stone. His scalp was also cut, exposing his skull in a very ghastly way. He was struck twice with a stone, the second one knocking him senseless. It is said that Tom Murry threw both stones, because Pike was going to whip his brother James. A warrant is out for the arrest of Tom, who has fled, but he will likely be captured and brought back by the time this is in print. An assault and battery case, with intent to kill, is looked for when Murry is captured, and the prevailing opinion is that it will go hard with him, if what he is charged with can be proven.

THE STAR is also informed that the stove in Williams' bar room was upset that evening and that Mr. Williams was struck with a beer mug. Reports, however, about that feature of the performance are very contradictory; but on Monday evening occurred at the same hotel, and once more stones flew with a vengeance. This time the trouble was with Simon Hammer, who concluded to act the part of a hammer as well as bear that name. He wanted admittance to the hotel at a time when he wasn't wanted inside, so Mr. Williams informs us, and because admittance was refused he smashed in a window with stones and battered up the door considerably.

This was too much for the landlord, and the next day Hammer was arrested on the charge of malicious mischief, found guilty and fined. The fine was paid and Mr. Williams satisfied. But Simon wasn't satisfied, and that being the case, he went to Esquire Lichliter and made a sworn statement that he knew Mr. Williams to openly violate the liquor laws by selling liquor to persons visibly under his influence and getting them so drunk as to endanger their own lives.

Williams will now have to give a bond for his appearance at court, and the public is anxiously awaiting to see whether or not he can prove that he is innocent of the charge against him.

Garrett County Getting There.
As this paper has frequently stated, Garrett county, Md., has a great future before her, being rich in timber and mineral wealth. The people out there are beginning to realize it, too, and lately the Oakland Improvement, Manufacturing and Development Co. was organized with the following officers: President, Edward H. Sincell; Vice President, D. E. Offett; Secretary, F. A. Thayer; Treasurer, A. G. Sturgis. The capital stock of the company is $40,000.
