

THE LATEST NEWS WIRES FROM EVERYWHERE

Fire.

The Wilbur (Neb.) Opera House burned Wednesday night. Loss, $50,000.

The Capital City Opera House at Des Moines, Iowa, was burned. Loss, $30,000.

At Columbus, O., the McCune block, occupied by McCoy Bros. & Walcutt, clothiers; Stettner & Koch, music dealers; Faulhaber's hat store; Miss Scott, hair dresser, and a building and loan association. Miss Cora Blair, a young woman, jumped from a second-story window and was fatally injured. Loss about $100,000.

At Cincinnati, Eeckel & Bernheim's auctioneer and storage warehouses, were and salesrooms of the American Oak Leather Company and the Commercial bank. Loss, $280,000.

A destructive fire broke out in the Opera House at Monmouth, Ill., caused by a gas explosion, and before it could be checked a whole block of brick buildings were totally destroyed. Loss estimated at about $100,000; insurance unknown.

The five-story furniture factory of Charles Leuch, of New York, was burned Tuesday. Loss, $130,000, fully insured.

At Findlay, O., the Chamber of Commerce building owned by G. L. Cusack. Loss, $30,000; insurance, $14,000.

At Monmouth, Ill., an explosion of gas in the Opera House immediately after a lecture caused a fire which resulted in the destruction of the block of business houses. Loss, $150,000; insurance, $50,000.

Crime and Penalties.

The official statement of the amount of default of John Barsley, as City Treasurer of Philadelphia, Pa., was today filed in Common Pleas Court No. 2 by city Controller Thompson, together with Barsley's bond. The ascertained amount of the default has been determined by the Controller to be $553,908.62.

Miss Mona Stone stood before a mirror in her home at Garrett, Ind., Monday and deliberately put a bullet through her brain. The cause is a mystery.

In the United States Court at Milwaukee, Wis., Ambrose M. Otis, ex-postmaster at Coleman, Wis., who was found guilty of rifling registered letters was sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the State prison.

The trial of James G. Wyman, mayor of Allegheny city, Pa., was ended Friday, and he was found guilty of extortion.

A street car was held up at Fresno, Cal., by two men. A passenger looked out to see what was going on and was fatally shot.

At White Oaks, O. M., five Mesquero Indians were killed in a fight among themselves after drinking a quantity of whiskey. Two streets have been made.

Mayor James G. Wyman, of Allegheny City, Pa., was convicted on two counts of the indictment for collecting witness fees. There is an additional charge of embezzlement against him. For the offense of which he is guilty he is liable to dismissal from office, a fine of $500 on each count, or a year's imprisonment, or both.

Ex-Mayor Richard T. Pearson is next to be tried upon similar charges and evidence.

J. Catio, who killed a fellow Italian at New York last July, and was sentenced to death, but obtained a stay, was resented to be electrocuted during the week of March 23. An appeal will be taken to the United States courts.

John Molloy and his wife, of Toledo, O., were found dead on the floor in their house. It is supposed that Molloy killed his wife through jealousy and then suicided.

Near Monterey, Ala., Tom Trawick, 10 years old, a white boy, shot and killed Bill Thomas and Jim Jackson, two negro men, in self defense. One of the men had knocked Trawick's 4-year-old brother down with a shovel.

Washington News.

Mr. Stone, from the Committee on War Claims, reported favorably the bill to reimburse California, Oregon and Nevada, for money expended in the suppression of the Rebellion. California is under the bill entitled to $2,451,369, Oregon $224,926 and Nevada to $404,000.

The first volume of the "blue book" for 1891 shows that there are employed in the postal service of the United States in all capacities 134,431 persons, and in all other departments of the government, 62,863 persons making a total of 247,294.

The first adjournment resolution offered in the house this session made its appearance Thursday. It provides for the final adjournment of the first session of congress Tuesday, May 31.

Representative Bushnell of Wisconsin introduced a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of nine to investigate and report whether any articles of home manufacture are sold abroad cheaper than at home and if so what are the reasons therefor.

T. C. Ryan, an agent of the Treasury Department at Washington, is in Hamilton, Ont., for the purpose of investigating a concern there charged with violating the Alien contract labor law.

The House committee on Election of President, Vice President, etc., will soon report a bill providing that United States Senators shall be chosen by the people in every State, in the same manner as Representatives, so far as the qualifications of the voters are concerned.

The Senate committee on commerce has decided to report favorably a bill appropriating $15,000,000 for the improvement of the Mississippi river and the construction and repair of dykes and levees. Not more than $3,000,000 is to be expended any year.

The following Indian names have been selected for the three steel tugs now being constructed for the navy: No. 1, Wahnet; No. 2, Iwana; No. 3, Narkeca.

The Indian Bureau has received a telegram from Agent Bennett, of the Union Agency, Choctaw Nation, in the Indian Territory, stating that he had seized a carload of lager beer, which had been unlawfully shipped into the territory. Mr. Bennett was instructed to turn the seizure over to the United States marshal.

The Treasury Department balance Monday was $28,490,947, the lowest point reached for many years. This amount includes $13,374,211 on deposit with national banks, $14,673,673 of subsidiary coin, and $402,442 of minor coin. The reduced balance is due to recent heavy disbursements, including $7,000,000 on account of pensions, and $1,000,000 on account of refund of direct tax collected from Kentucky and Maryland.

Representative Stahlacker, of New York, introduced a bill imposing an internal revenue tax of $10 per 1,000 on all cigarettes wrapped in paper.

Legislative.

The New Jersey House has passed a bill providing for political nominations to be made ten days before election day, instead of 20 days as heretofore.

The Mississippi Lower House has passed a bill appropriating $64,200 a year for pensions. This will give those now on the roll $50 a piece.

A bill has been introduced in the New York Legislature to repeal the electrical execution law and substitute the old form of the rope.

A joint resolution was introduced in the Virginia Legislature to permit of the separation of taxes paid into the State Treasury by the whites and negroes.

In the Massachusetts House the bill prohibiting free railroad passes for members was passed to be engrossed by a vote of 128 to 50.

Judicial.

The United States circuit court grand jury at Boston, indicted John A. Morris, Paul Conrad and 11 other officials of the Louisiana Lottery company for violating the postal laws, and warrants have been issued for their arrest.

At Deadwood, S. D., the United States Grand Jury has indicted eleven Chinamen for using the mail for transmission of lottery tickets and literature.

Financial and Commercial.

The Rarig Iron Works, of Buena Vista, Va., made an assignment, with liabilities of $80,000.

Githens & Austin, lumber merchants of Philadelphia, made a general assignment. Their liabilities will reach $75,000.

John W. Myers & Co., dealers in watches and jewelry, New York, assigned to William J. Nicholson without references.

Personal.

Wm. H. Beers has resigned as President of the New York Life Insurance company. The company accepted his resignation and voted him a life pension of $25,000 per year.

Joseph McKenna, a native of Philadelphia, was appointed Judge of the Ninth District circuit court of California.

John A. McCall was elected president of the New York Life Assurance company and will at once assume control.

Sarah Althea Terry, who gained such notoriety by her divorce suit against ex-Senator Sharon and her subsequent marriage with Judge Terry, has become insane over spiritualism.

Railroad News.

At Philadelphia the great anthracite coal deal was consummated by a combination embracing the Reading, Lehigh Valley, New Jersey Central, the Lehigh and Susquehanna and Delaware and Lacawanna railroads. The roads interested expect to save millions of dollars annually by doing away with agency expenses and economies of traffic. President McLeod says that he would surround himself with a strong railway organization to assist in conducting the business of the great aggregation of railways and for the purpose would select some of the best men in the various railroads now coming under his charge. In connection with the Reading's gobbling of the New Jersey Central and Lehigh Valley it is understood that the Pennsylvania company has assented to the coal combination and that the Vanderbils have agreed to abandon the South Penn scheme.

Mortuary.

John Jay Knox, ex-comptroller of the currency, died in New York of pneumonia.

Ex-Governor Scales, of North Carolina, is dead. He was a Brigadier General in the Confederate army.

While suffering from an attack of the grippe, Assemblyman Harry A. White, living near Pemberton, N. J., drowned himself in a stream a short distance from his home.

J. R. Fair, Jr., eldest son of ex-Senator Fair, died suddenly from heart failure, at San Francisco, yesterday.

Katherine B. Field, daughter of Dr. Matthew Field, and grand niece of Cyrus W. Field, died in New York last night of meningitis, at the age of 6 years.

Rev. Donald Fraizer, M. A., D. D. died Saturday in London. For the past 20 years he took an active part in the Presbyterian church of England, and was twice Moderator of the Synod. He was Vice President of the British and Foreign Bible Society and was prominently connected with many missions and charities.

Hon. James C. Brown, editor of the New Wilmington, Pa., Globe, died at his home in that place Friday night, aged 62 years.

Sanitary Items.

The grippe in Southern Indiana is very severe, especially at New Albany and Patoka. In the vicinity of New Albany 47 persons died of the disease in the last two weeks, all under 60 years of age.

Lima, O., is greatly excited over a supposed case of leprosy there.

At Plymouth, Ill., La grippe is ravaging dreadfully. Sores are very ill and the situation is alarming.

Yellow fever is spreading at Costa Rica. Physicians assert there are at Washington Pa., no less than 800 cases of the grip, most of them dangerous.

Grip cured a Woodstown, N. J., man of

Stomatism of 60 years standing

Eighty five cases of typhus fever were reported for the last week at New York City; four cases at Newburgh, N. Y., and one case at Baltimore, Md. Nearly all these cases were Italians who landed at New York harbor last week from the steamer Massilia. It is expected that the dreaded typhus will develop elsewhere during the week according to the localities where the infected Italians may have gone. They emigrated to this country from the pestilence infected districts of Russia, and eluded the New York health officers on arrival.

Political.

A resolution favoring the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people will soon be reported by the House committee having the matter in charge.

The President appointed W. M. Grinnell, of New York, to be Third Assistant Secretary of State, vice John B. Moore, resigned.

At the Salt Lake City election the total vote cast was 8,732 of which 4,760 were cast by the Liberals, 2,706 by the Democrats and 852 by the Republicans.

In his newspaper, the Raleigh (N. C.) Gazette, Editor John H. Williamson, colored, announces himself as a candidate for Congress. His platform will be a compensation for ex-slaves, as proposed by President Lincoln.

Walter H. Sanborn, of Minnesota was nominated by the President to be United States Circuit Judge for the Eighth Judicial Circuit.

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Reciprocity—a farmer's organization—has issued a circular stating that organization will be effected in every State in the Union.

Capital, Labor and Industrial.

The Kansas wagon company, at Leavenworth, has discarded convict labor. Farmers are becoming prejudiced against prison made goods.

Two heavy armor plates weighing 2,000 pounds each were shipped to San Francisco by Carnegie, Phipps & Co., of Pittsburg, Pa., for the new war ship Monterey.

Union bricklayers at Zanesville, O., threaten to strike unless the manufacturers sign an agreement not to sell brick to non-unionists.

One hundred and twenty-five men have been ordered laid off in the car repairing shops at Meadville, Pa., and enough at the Kent O. shops to reduce expenses there $1,000 per month.

The St. Joseph, Mo. oat meal mills, owned by S. J. Burns & Co., have been closed under deeds of trust amounting to $60,000.

Seventeen colliers in the Lackawanna and Upper Wyoming valleys, Pa., have shut down, owing to dull trade. Hours of work are curtailed at other colliers.

Owing to a shortage of help all of the immense wheat crop of North Dakota could not be threshed last Fall and threshing has continued all Winter, and is still going on.

Sixty five mechanics in the Pennsylvania company's shops at Indianapolis are on a strike because the piece system has been introduced. The trouble will be compromised.

At Indianapolis, Ind., 65 mechanics in the Pennsylvania company's shops are on a strike because the piece system has been introduced. The trouble will be compromised.

At the convention of the United Mine Workers of America, at Columbus, O., it was decided to abolish the defense fund and assess a per capita tax for the support of the organization.

The Pittsburg & Braddock Wire company will employ 400 men in their new copper wire plant at Braddock, Pa. Braddock's population will thereby be increased 1,000.

At Grand Forks, N. D., the chamber of commerce held a special meeting today and instructed Secretary Alex. Mather to organize a labor bureau and secure, if possible, upward of 5,000 laborers for North Dakota the coming season.

A. C. Elliott & Co., of Bellefontaine, O., the Andrews School-Furniture Manufacturing company, of New York, and the Bloomsburg School Furniture company of Bloomsburg, Pa., have joined the United States School Furniture company.

Disasters and Accidents.

Benj. Fritts, a wealthy farmer of Sunnyside, N. J., while wandering about his house in a state of somnambulism, fell down stairs and broke his neck, dying instantly.

John Metzger and Julia Maundler were fatally hurt and about a dozen other persons seriously injured in a street car accident at Chicago. A Pitts, Ft. Wayne & Chicago passenger train collided with the street car.

The second section of an east bound freight of the L. S. & M. S. R. R. was ditched at Kendallville, Ind., the engine and six cars being completely wrecked. Joseph Eldridge, brakeman, of Toledo, was killed.

At Saratoga, N. Y., February 13, Nathan Phelps, one of the oldest residents here, wandered from home last night and was frozen to death in the street.

Martin Neugard was found in the roadway about three fourths of a mile from his home in Minneapolis, Minn., frozen to death. He had been drinking and was evidently unable to get home.

Mrs. Gregory, who lives near Wellford, Ga., while making soap had her clothing catch on fire and she was burned to death. Her sister who tried to rescue her was so badly burned that she died a few hours later.

The Weather.

Huron, S. D., is buried under snow drifts, with the wind blowing a hurricane.

Miscellaneous.

James Donnelly, a lad of 16, who lives at Lockport, N. J., made a wager of $2 that he could eat 24 raw eggs within 15 minutes and drink 20 glasses of beer. He succeeded in his attempt and won the $2 but two hours later was taken with convulsions and died.

The receiver of the Bay State League, an endorsement order, made a report in Boston stating that startling evidence of fraud and dishonesty on the part of the supreme officers had been found.

Ex-Mayor Pearson, of Allegheny, Pa., was acquitted of the charge of appropriating commitment fees to his own use.

The Fire Marshal of New York reported that the Hotel Royal fire originated in the elevator shaft, from the candle of the night engineer, who probably ignited a leak in the rubber gas pipe while making his examination.

Nathan Phelps, one of the oldest residents of Saratoga, wandered from his home Saturday night and was frozen to death in the street.

Beyond Our Borders.

New Zealand foods have stopped railroad traffic and ruined crops.

A man in Prussian Silesia has just awakened from a sleep which lasted four months and a half.

On a Romanian railroad the other day a coach caught fire and 18 of the passengers who were locked in, as is the European fashion, were roasted alive. Two other inmates escaped alive.

The British bark Lizzie Bell, has arrived at Coquimbo, Chile, after a frightful experience. She was laden with gunpowder and other war material for the British Government, and her cargo caught fire. The captain was stricken with paralysis, the mate was ill, and the clothing and chronometers of the crew were destroyed.

Russian roads are so bad that no matter how much relief provisions are landed at the ports they can't reach the famine sufferers.

North Island, N. Z., has been shaken by severe earthquakes, which are supposed to be connected with a violent eruption of Ngahoe. The flames from the volcano reach a great height, presenting a grand spectacle at night.

The British steamer Earl of Dumfries ran into and sank the schooner "Railway" near Cardiff. The schooner's crew consisted of five men. Three of them were drowned and the other two were rescued.

Heavy snows have blocked Alpine passes. The Argentine rebellion has been suppressed.

The owners of the steamship Eider hope to save her.

Another below zero cold wave is raging in the Northwest.

Eight thousand coal porters on the London wharves are on strike over a wage dispute.

Mr. Rothschild, his little girl, age 16, and a baby 16 months old perished in the burning of their home in Mattawa, Ont.

The elections Monday in Brazil were marked by many riots. In the larger places the police were obliged to charge the mobs. Many people were killed and more injured.

Petroleum has been struck (700 barrels a day) in India by the Assam Railway company.

More bomb explosions are threatened at Xeres, Spain, in revenge for the anarchist executions.

Funeral services over the body of the late Rex, Mr. Spurgeon were held at the Metropolitan Tabernacle, London, and the interment then took place at Norwood cemetery. Immense crowds of people attended the services.

A dispatch to the London Times from Rio Janeiro stated that three Brazilian Ministers have resigned and it is believed the Government is breaking up. Hostilities are likely to occur at any moment in Rio Grande de Sul, where the people are much excited.

Captain Cavenagh and all of the crew of the British ship City Camp were taken sick with yellow fever just after her arrival at Santos three months ago. The Captain and Seaman Hurly died, and the rest of the ship's company were taken to the hospital.

The vessel, which arrived at New York harbor with a new skipper and a new crew, was detained at quarantine for fumigation.

At London, Admiral Sir Provo Wallis, K. C. B., died, aged 107 years. He was admiral of the navy, born in April, 1791, and fought on H. M. S. Shannon in her historical battle off Boston harbor on June 1, 1818, with the United States frigate Chesapeake.

Hanged for House Burning.

Typical Southern Justice Meted Out to Incendiaries. Negroes, of Course.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Feb. 15.—Within the past few weeks there have been several fires at Sylvan, Ala., 33 miles below Tuscaloosa. A few nights since D. S. Robertson's store house was broken into, goods stolen and the building fired.

A searching party was instituted and, finding a trace, the fire fiends were pursued and finally caught. A preliminary trial before a justice was granted the men, who were negroes, and they pleaded not guilty, but confessed to the burning of other buildings. A guard was placed in charge of the prisoners for the night. During the still hours an armed mob of 30 men overpowered the guards, took the prisoners to a tree and hanged them.

Hung Himself in Jail.

Ed. Kehoe, a Prisoner Confined for Attempted Murder, and Recently Released from a Term at Biverstide.

Bradford, Pa., February 13.—Edward Kehoe, of Bradford, committed suicide at county jail, Snethersburg, last night. He took a sheet from a cot in his cell, making a rope, which he attached to a bracket, and was discovered this morning quite dead.

Kehoe was confined on account of an attempt to kill a prominent newspaper man of this city. He had recently returned from the Western penitentiary, where he had served a term for horse stealing. It is thought he was deterred. This is the third attempt he has made at suicide since his confinement.

Tragic Death of an Aged Couple.

Columbus, Ind., Feb. 15.—A tragic occurrence is reported from Napoleon, twenty miles east of here. Two aged people, Mr. and Mrs. Bonchard, resided alone. Mrs. Bonchard had a severe case of the grip and the doctor said she must die. This affected the old man and he wept bitterly, and going out into the back yard, he put a pistol ball through his brain, causing instant death. This shocked the old lady that she, too, died. They were natives of France, but had lived here for years.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

Tuesday—In the Senate today Senator Morrill reported a number of financial measures adversely. This included Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.

Senator Puffer's bill to loan money to the farmers of Indiana; Stewart's bill, providing for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver; a bill to retire national bank notes and other measures intended to increase the circulation and establish free coinage. Stewart's silver bill was placed upon the calendar.